In 1954, U.S. Sen. William Jenner spoke of a well-orchestrated, carefully timed conspiracy to undermine the American government. Although the Senator alluded to communism and socialism, these red herrings have for decades served as calculated diversions from a larger conspiracy: the Illuminati and its Secret Brotherhood of New World Order planners. Senator Jenner may or may not have suspected this when he spoke of an "established timetable" with "precisely measured parts": "We have a well organized political action group in this country, determined to destroy our Constitution and establish a one party state... (It has a) foothold within our Government, and its own propaganda apparatus...One may call this group by many names. Some people call it socialism, some communism, some collectivism. I prefer to call it 'democratic centralism.' ... The important point to remember is not its ideology but its organization. It is a dynamic, aggressive, elite corps, forcing its way through every opening, to make a breach for a collectivist one-party state. It operates secretly, silently, continuously to conform our Government without our suspecting the change is under way... This secret revolutionary corps understands well the power to influence the people...by an elegant form of brainwashing... We see this, for example, in the innocent use of words like 'democracy' in place of 'representative government'.... It conducts tactical retreats but only the more surely to advance its own secret goal...I know of the Alger Hisses who planned it that way... Dr. Wirt, of my State, told us in 1934 that the plans were all drawn, The timetable established... the revolutionary cabal and its allies... designated the overall strategy. They broke the whole up into precisely measured parts and carefully timed moves, which appear to be wholly unrelated... They will use every ally, to prevent the American people from guessing how far the transformation had gone..."

Harpers, July 1958: "The most powerful clique in these (CFR) groups have one objective in common: they want to bring about the surrender of the sovereignty and the national independence of the U.S. They want to end national boundaries and racial and ethnic loyalties supposedly to increase business and ensure World peace. What they strive for would inevitably lead to dictatorship and loss of freedoms by the people. The CFR was founded for "the purpose of promoting disarmament and submergence of U.S. sovereignty and national independence into an all-powerful one-World government."

War hero Dwight Eisenhower came from the fringes of political life to become President in the 1952 elections. Thoroughly managed by members of the CFR who dominated his cabinet, his policies shaped by their goals, Eisenhower left office in January of 1961 with a dire warning for the American people, "Beware the military industrial complex."

Curtis Dall, FDR's son-in-law as quoted in his book, My Exploited Father-in-Law: "For a long time I felt that FDR had developed many thoughts and ideas that were his own to benefit this country, the United States. But, he didn't. Most of his thoughts, his political ammunition, as it were, were carefully manufactured for him in advanced by the Council on Foreign Relations-One World Money group. Brilliantly, with great gusto, like a fine piece of artillery, he exploded that prepared "ammunition" in the middle of an unsuspecting target, the American people, and thus paid off and returned his internationalist political support. The UN is but a long-range, international banking apparatus clearly set up for financial and economic profit by a small group of powerful One-World revolutionaries, hungry for profit and power. "The depression was the calculated 'shearing' of the public by the World Money powers, triggered by the planned sudden shortage of supply of call money in the New York money market....The One World Government leaders and their ever close bankers have now acquired full control of the money and credit machinery of the U.S. via the creation of the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank."

The Christian Science Monitor, September 1, 1961: "The directors of the CFR (Council on Foreign Relations) make up a sort of Presidium for that part of the Establishment that guides our destiny as a nation."

Senator William Fulbright, Former chairman of the US Senate Foreign Relations Committee, stated at a 1963 symposium entitled: The Elite and the Electorate - Is Government by the People Possible? "The case for government by elites is irrefutable"

U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater in his 1964 book: With No Apologies: "The Trilateral Commission is intended to be the vehicle for multinational consolidation of the commercial and banking interests by seizing control of the political government of the United States. The Trilateral Commission represents a skillful, coordinated effort to seize control and consolidate the four centers of power political, monetary, intellectual and ecclesiastical. What the Trilateral Commission intends is to create a Worldwide economic power superior to the political governments of the nation states involved. As managers and creators of the system, they will rule the future."

Tragedy and Hope: A History of The World in Our Time (Macmillan Company, 1966,) Professor Carroll Quigley of Georgetown University, highly esteemed by his former student, William Jefferson Blythe Clinton: "The powers of financial capitalism had another far reaching aim, nothing less than to create a World system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the World as a whole. This system was to be controlled in a feudal fashion by the central banks of the World acting in concert, by secret agreements, arrived at in frequent private meetings and conferences. The apex of the system was the Bank for International Settlements in Basle, Switzerland, a private bank owned and controlled by the Worlds' central banks which were themselves private corporations. The growth of financial capitalism made possible a centralization of World economic control and use of this power for the direct benefit of financiers and the indirect injury of all other economic groups."

Richard Nixon, in Foreign Affairs (October 1967): "The developing coherence of Asian regional thinking is reflected in a disposition to consider problems and loyalties in regional terms, and to evolve regional approaches to development needs and to the evolution of a new World order."

Former Congressman John Rarick 1971: "The Council on Foreign Relations is "the establishment." Not only does it have influence and power in key decision-making positions at the highest levels of government to apply pressure from above, but it also announces and uses individuals and groups to bring pressure from below, to justify the high level decisions for converting the U.S. from a sovereign Constitutional Republic into a servile member state of a one-World dictatorship."

CFR member Richard Gardner, writing in the April 1974 issue of the CFR's journal, Foreign Affairs: "The New World Order will have to be built from the bottom up rather than from the top down...but in the end run around national sovereignty, eroding it piece by piece will accomplish much more than the old fashioned frontal assault."

Richard N. Gardner, in Foreign Affairs (April 1974): "If instant World government, Charter review, and a greatly strengthened International Court do not provide the answers, what hope for progress is there? The answer will not satisfy those who seek simple solutions to complex problems, but it comes down essentially to this: The hope for the foreseeable lies, not in building up a few ambitious central institutions of universal membership and general jurisdiction as was envisaged at the end of the last war, but rather in the much more decentralized, disorderly and pragmatic process of inventing or adapting institutions of limited jurisdiction and selected membership to deal with specific problems on a case-by-case basis ... In short, the 'house of World order' will have to be built from the bottom up rather than from the top down. It will look like a great 'booming, buzzing confusion,' to use William James' famous description of reality, but an end run around national sovereignty, eroding it piece by piece, will accomplish much more than the old-fashioned frontal assault."

Professors Laurence H. Shoup and William Minter, writing in their study of the CFR, "Imperial Brain Trust: The CFR and United States Foreign Policy." (Monthly Review Press, 1977): "The planning of UN can be traced to the 'secret steering committee' established by Secretary [of State Cordell] Hull in January 1943. All of the members of this secret committee, with the exception of Hull, a Tennessee politician, were members of the Council on Foreign Relations. They saw Hull regularly to plan, select, and guide the labors of the [State] Department's Advisory Committee. It was, in effect, the coordinating agency for all the State Department's postwar planning."

When the World Federalist Association awarded Walter Cronkite for his work towards establishing a New World Order, Hillary Clinton praised him for his efforts, she went so far as to say "For decades you have told us the way it is, but tonight we honor you for fighting for, the way it could be."

"A system of World government is mandatory. The proud nations someday will see the light and yield up their precious sovereignty." Walter Cronkite, in his book, A Reporter's Life

"Out of these troubled times, our fifth objective-a New World Order-can emerge. We are in sight of a United Nations that performs as envisioned by its founders" President George H. W. Bush, September 11, 1990 (Exactly 11 years to the day of the WTC/Pentagon 'attacks')

"My vision of a New World Order foresees a United Nations with a revitalized peacekeeping function. It is the sacred principles enshrined in the U.N. charter to which we hence forth pledge our allegiance." President George H. W. Bush, New York, February 1, 1991

James H. Webb, Marine Supreme Commander under Reagan: "The aim of our presence on the Persian Gulf is to start off the "New World Order" of the Bush Administration, and I don't like that at all."

"NAFTA represents the single most creative steps towards a New World Order." Henry Kissinger, in the Los Angeles Times Syndicate, August 1993

"Soldiers and military people are stupid, dumb animals to be used for foreign policy." Henry Kissinger (The Final Days, Woodward & Bernstein p194)

Title of article by Kenichi Ohmae, political reform leader in Japan, in The Wall Street Journal (August 1994): "New World Order: The Rise of the Region-State"

"We are on the verge of a global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order." David Rockefeller, speaking at the Business Council for the UN, September 14, 1994

Part of full-page advertisement by the government of Morocco in The New York Times (April 1994): "The Final Act of the Uruguay Round, marking the conclusion of the most ambitious trade negotiation of our century, will give birth - in Morocco - to the World Trade Organization, the third pillar of the New World Order, along with the United Nations and the International Monetary Fund."

"There is the chance for the President of the United States to use this disaster to carry out what his father, a phrase his father used I think only once and hasn't been used since and that is a New World Order." Senator Gary Hart, address to the Council on Foreign Relations, September 14, 2001 (exactly 7 years after David Rockefeller's speech (above) and do really believe his thinking it was only used once and not since?)

The U.N. World Constitution: The age of nations must end. The governments of nations have decided to order their separate sovereignties into one government to which they will surrender their arms."

How unpatriotic can these people get? Praising awards that are given by a group that is openly undermining America's national sovereignty, openly renouncing America's sovereignty and admitting that they use tragedies to manipulate you, yet the mass media uttered not a word of condemnation. To fully understand this paradigm simple remember that North America is the "New World" and the "Order" is the Thread weavers and their agenda. There were originally 13 colonies in America, 13 is also the OCCULT number for order, as the Order of the Templar Knights or the Ancient Mystical Order Rosae Crucis. From these secret societies that were created centuries ago, they will bring about their "New World Order." To further shape the public's perception of a specific group of people or event(s), they have their Plan B. This has been accomplished by allowing the media putting out real information in ways that can be discredited as works of fiction.

The 'Plan for Concentration Camps in America' was first written about years ago by the 'mainstream media' in the National Enquirer tabloid, ensuring that no 'real journalist' would touch the subject. Now F.E.M.A. is openly asking Congress for more funding for bigger camps.

From the L.A. Times on August 14, 2002, an article by Jonathan Turley, who is a professor of constitutional law at George Washington University titled: "Camps for Citizens: Ashcroft's Hellish Vision; Attorney general shows himself as a menace to liberty".

Martin Keating's 1991 book, 'The Final Jihad' is about how a Tom McVey (who is caught due to a broken tail light, Tim McVeigh was caught due to a missing license plate) bombs the Oklahoma City Federal Building. The manuscript, written in 1991, 4 years before the bombing also correctly predicted the downing of a passenger jet (TWA flight 800) and the first World Trade Center bombing. By the way, his brother Frank Keating, the former governor of Oklahoma was also a former FBI agent with multiple ties to the intelligence community. Another way this 'poisoned well' method is often employed is the releasing of information in movies and television shows. This makes it possible to ignore real issues by the Pre$titute$ then claiming, 'You just saw that in a movie'. The pilot episode of the LoneGunMen series falls into this category. The pilot aired in early March of 2001, the plot of the show includes a group of people in the government conspiring to hijack a passenger jet by remote control and to crash it into the World Trade Center, for the purpose of increasing weapon sales and to be able to attack any third World country at will. Sounds familiar?

In the movie Armageddon (1998), during the first few minutes of the movie, there is a meteor shower hitting New York City. There is a cabby with Asian tourists as his fare. They are stuck in traffic. He tries to explain to them that they can't go anywhere for they are in a traffic jam. He then says something very strange he says 'that it might have been caused by a terrorist bomb' (I wonder what the statistics are like on terrorist bombing related traffic jams in NYC?). Then meteor chunks start smashing into the NYC skyline. The same cabby looks up and shouts, 'We're at war, Saddam Hussein is bombing us'. There is a flying zoom in on the office workers as they plummet, arms and legs flailing to the street. A few moments later the camera pans out and you see the Twin Towers are both heavily damaged and smoking from meteor impacts. Sounds familiar? (Notice what looks like an outline of a plane just above the smoke trail to the left of the impact hole in the movie). There have been polls that have shown that almost 70 percent of Americans think that Saddam was behind the 9-11 attacks. Gee, I wonder where they could have ever possibly gotten that idea?

Poem About Money

"Eye to Eye" by a Palestinian youngster Gihad Ali to wake us up on the issue of MONEY:

Look into my eyes And tell me what you see. You don't see a damn thing, 'cause you can't possibly relate to me. You're blinded by our differences. My life makes no sense to you. I'm the persecuted Palestinian; You are the American red, white and blue. Each day you wake in tranquility, No fears to cross your eyes. Each day I wake in gratitude, Thanking God he let me rise. You worry about your education and the bills you have to pay. I worry about my vulnerable life and if I'll survive another day. Your biggest fear is getting ticketed as you cruise your Cadillac. My fear is the tank that just left Will turn around and come back. America, do you realize That the taxes that you pay, Feed the forces that traumatize My every living day? The bulldozers and the tanks, The gases and the guns, The bombs that fall outside my door, All due to American funds. Yet do you know the truth Of where your money goes? [half a trillion since the 1940s] Do you let your media deceive your mind? Is this a truth that no one knows? You blame me for defending myself Against the ways of Zionists. I'm terrorized in my own land And you call me the terrorist? You think you know all about terrorism, But you don't know it the way I do. So please, let me define the term And teach you what you thought you knew. I've known terrorism for quite some time, Fifty-four years and more. It's the fruitless garden uprooted in my yard, It's the bulldozer in front of my door. Terrorism breathes the air I breathe. It's the checkpoint on my way to school. It's the curfew that jails me in my own home, And the penalties of breaking curfew rule. Terrorism is the robbery of my land, And the torture of my mother. The imprisonment of my innocent father, The bullet in my baby brother. So America, don't tell me you know about The things I feel and see. I'm terrorized in my own land And the blame is put on me. But I will not rest, I shall never settle For the injustice my people endure. Palestine is OUR land and here we'll remain Until the day OUR homeland is secure. And if that time shall never come, Then they will never see a day of peace. I will not be thrown from my own home, Nor will my fight for justice cease. And if I am killed, it will be for Falasteen; It's written on my breath. So in your own patriotic words, Give me liberty or give me death.

The Hidden History of Money has seriously explored from ancient times to date the following couplets in this beautiful and touching youth's poem: America, do you realize That the taxes that you pay, Feed the forces that traumatize My every living day? "Yet do you know the truth Of where your money goes? Do you let your media deceive your mind? Is this a truth that no one knows?"

Societal And Mind Control (H.G. Wells Style)

Cynicism is the intellectual refuge of cowards that are unwilling to act. It is very easy to be cynical in these trying times, as it has always been easy to be so at any time in history. Though the paths of cynicism and procrastination have always been easier to follow, there have been many times when whole societies have deviated from this malaise. Though the impetus for these changes have been for different reasons and had various end results, they all have something in common. Their common element is that accepted doctrines/paradigms are discarded/questioned when the knowledge/beliefs of a small group of people are accepted by a large group of people. This catalyst is the cause of major changes in societies throughout history. There are numerous examples of this in the past century, such as the civil rights movement and the rise of the 3rd Reich. In both of these cases, the change was started by a small group of people that eventually convinced a much larger group of people that their views were more correct and therefore more just. Society today has been reduced to many small groups of people all trying to push their views/agendas forward. Issues such as same sex marriage and environmental concerns are two examples of causes that are a focal point for people to lobby for changes. The people that make up these groups are usually from a diverse range of ethnic background, social/financial status, religions, political views, etc. This diversity is a dual edged sword, for while allowing a wide range of views from various positions. It also causes people to develop tunnel vision, only seeing what is relevant to further their cause and their goals. At the same time, people that are working for the same cause are separated by their diversification. This is the Achilles' heel of lobbyists, protestors and any other group working for change. In essence they lack Unification other than their common cause.

This can be shown by looking at how a certain group of people can be broken down into many much smaller groups of people. Let's use patriots for this example. Most people will claim that they are patriots and are patriotic, yet these people have different political views. Some are on the left, some are on the right and the majority is somewhere near the center. Now we have 3 different groups of patriots, these can be broken down even further by separating the animal rights advocates, the gay rights advocates, the environmental advocates, the health/social advocates, the women's lib advocates, etc. etc. etc., until you have very small groups of people that have effectively been silenced. This can be applied to any group of people (including each subgroup) and has been implemented in much of the industrialized World. The silent majority no longer has a voice in local politics, regional politics, national politics or World politics. They also no longer have any say on the laws that have been passed or the trade agreements that their governments sign. Don't think that this is true? When was the last time your concerns were considered when a 'free' trade agreement was signed? How many laws have you been able to voice an opinion on? Have you ever been able to vote for or against government representatives giving themselves a raise? Have you ever had an environmental concern addressed by your government? Ever notice how many people have to get killed before the government will install a simple stop sign at an intersection? Ever notice how quick they enact legislation that protects themselves and their assets? So much for you having a say, for as long as you THINK you have a voice you will be complacent and this is what they are counting on. By breaking society down into smaller and smaller groups, then distracting you with every tact possible, from 'terror alerts' to the buildup of the final episode of Frasier and the Scott Peterson trial, they can keep control of you.

All modern societies are made up of mechanisms of institutional control. Take the drivers license for example. In reality a driver's license is the beginning of enslavement. You must give up all your personal information, you must pass many examinations, you must register your vehicles, you must get tags/stickers for them, you must have insurance, you must do as the road signs say to do and to top it all off you must PAY and PAY and PAY. Now you might be wondering why did I emphasize paying for the privilege of driving? Simple. What is paying? It is the exchange of money for a good or service. How did you obtain the money that you exchanged for your privilege? You worked for it. What did you sacrifice for that work? You sacrificed your time. Your time is your life, so you have sacrificed let's say 200 hours of your life this year for this one privilege. How is the money that you obtained by sacrificing your life created? Here is an overly simplistic layout. The privately owned Federal Reserve central bank buys government bonds by creating money from nothing. The bank then more money from nothing by multiplying the value of the bonds and then lends credit money to the commercial banks. The commercial banks then lend credit to businesses and individuals.

For example the privately owned central bank or any other commercial bank buys a Government Bond Issue worth $1,000,000,000.00 (1 billion). They then multiply that amount by 10, so in their books they now have $10,000,000,000.00 (10 billion) to lend to the commercial banks for distribution. Now if they earn 5 percent interest on that money, they make a profit of $500,000,00.00 (500 million). Healthy profit margin for actually only lending out money created from nothing! By the way it doesn't end there either, remember the bond that started this whole fiasco? The central bank will now receive another $50,000,000.00 (50 million) in interest annually from the government (your taxes=your time=your life) on the original amount of the bond issue although the Fed will return some of the collected interest to the Government (although it is not obligated to do so by law). For the record, that $50 million, along with the other $500 million is actually your money, your neighbors' money, and your families' money and ultimately it is your lives that you are sacrificing to this control system. This system also guarantees that no amount of government spending cuts will ever help to pay it off. To get money printed the government must issue bonds to the central bank and pay interest on those bonds as well. Only a fraction of the money that is needed just for the principle is ever created, the money to pay the interest is not, therefore the debt will accumulate until people catch on to the scam. The only way out is to scrap the system and start anew. It's a strange paradox, the victims willingly feeding the very vampire that is bleeding them and even training their children to be willing victims. It seems Dracula could mesmerize his victims into being docile cattle. So strange, so sad, so true. These institutional control systems have been taking your life from you, so that you have no 'free time', couple that with the way society has been broken down into small voiceless lobby groups and the complicity of the mass media, you then have the tools to manipulate a modern, supposedly democratic society into a Tech Noir quasi dictatorship.

Did World War III Begin on March 20, 2003? Well, Wells wrote a book in 1933 called The Shape of Things to Come, in which he accurately forecast that World War II would start, "out of a conflict between Germany and Poland circa 1939". In the same book, Wells also wrote that World War III was to commence, "from some future [unidentified] event in Basrah, Iraq." Is he is 2 for 2 in his predictions? H.G. Wells was a 1930's writer well known for book and his connections to the "New World Order", CFR, Rockefeller Foundation. WWII started when Hitler invaded Poland with a preemptive strike. It was actually a series of events but history chose that event to mark the beginning. I doubt that Germany or the rest of Europe had any inkling that they were in WWII. Not until much later that is. Many times people caught up in historical events fail to see the significance at the time and only do so when public attention focuses on them in retrospect. WWII and the war in Iraq were probably started by the same illuminati group that put Bush in power and have visions of a one World government. The American forces invaded Iraq primarily through their staging area in Kuwait in the southern portion of Iraq, near Basrah. They had planned a northern invasion but Turkey's Parliament voted against allowing American troops to use their country. As you may recall, Russia had billions of dollars of oil agreements with Iraq and with the invasion those agreements may become void. Russia has also indicated that it will not allow further imperialist drives to take place in that region. The U.S. has been sending Israel bunker busting bombs and has given the green light for an Israeli pre-emptive strike on Iran. If Israel does strike Iran or Syria, nuclear retaliation could result. Would this be the beginning of WWIII or just the escalation of the war that has already begun. For more details and facts, visit the Three World Wars website.

Radio, Television and the Hive Mind By Mack White

Sixty-four years ago this month, six million Americans became unwitting subjects in an experiment in psychological warfare. It was the night before Halloween, 1938. At 8 p.m. CST, the Mercury Radio on the Air began broadcasting Orson Welles' radio adaptation of H. G. Wells' War of the Worlds. As is now well known, the story was presented as if it were breaking news, with bulletins so realistic that an estimated one million people believed the World was actually under attack by Martians. Of that number, thousands succumbed to outright panic, not waiting to hear Welles' explanation at the end of the program that it had all been a Halloween prank, but fleeing into the night to escape the alien invaders. Later, psychologist Hadley Cantril conducted a study of the effects of the broadcast and published his findings in a book, The Invasion from Mars: A Study in the Psychology of Panic. This study explored the power of broadcast media, particularly as it relates to the suggestibility of human beings under the influence of fear. Cantril was affiliated with Princeton University's Radio Research Project, which was funded in 1937 by the Rockefeller Foundation. Also affiliated with the Project was Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) member and Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) executive Frank Stanton, whose network had broadcast the program. Stanton would later go on to head the news division of CBS, and in time would become president of the network, as well as chairman of the board of the RAND Corporation, the influential think tank which has done groundbreaking research on, among other things, mass brainwashing.

Two years later, with Rockefeller Foundation money, Cantril established the Office of Public Opinion Research (OPOR), also at Princeton. Among the studies conducted by the OPOR was an analysis of the effectiveness of "psycho-political operations" (propaganda, in plain English) of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), the forerunner of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). Then, during World War II, Cantril and Rockefeller money assisted CFR member and CBS reporter Edward R. Murrow in setting up the Princeton Listening Center, the purpose of which was to study Nazi radio propaganda with the object of applying Nazi techniques to OSS propaganda. Out of this project came a new government agency, the Foreign Broadcast Intelligence Service (FBIS). The FBIS eventually became the United States Information Agency (USIA), which is the propaganda arm of the National Security Council. Thus, by the end of the 1940s, the basic research had been done and the propaganda apparatus of the national security state had been set up--just in time for the Dawn of Television ... Experiments conducted by researcher Herbert Krugman reveal that, when a person watches television, brain activity switches from the left to the right hemisphere. The left hemisphere is the seat of logical thought. Here, information is broken down into its component parts and critically analyzed. The right brain, however, treats incoming data uncritically, processing information in wholes, leading to emotional, rather than logical, responses. The shift from left to right brain activity also causes the release of endorphins, the body's own natural opiates--thus, it is possible to become physically addicted to watching television, a hypothesis borne out by numerous studies which have shown that very few people are able to kick the television habit.

This numbing of the brain's cognitive function is compounded by another shift which occurs in the brain when we watch television. Activity in the higher brain regions (such as the neo-cortex) is diminished, while activity in the lower brain regions (such as the limbic system) increases. The latter, commonly referred to as the reptile brain, is associated with more primitive mental functions, such as the "fight or flight" response. The reptile brain is unable to distinguish between reality and the simulated reality of television. To the reptile brain, if it looks real, it is real. Thus, though we know on a conscious level it is "only a film," on an unconscious level we do not--the heart beats faster, for instance, while we watch a suspenseful scene. Similarly, we know the commercial is trying to manipulate us, but on an unconscious level the commercial nonetheless succeeds in, say, making us feel inadequate until we buy whatever thing is being advertised--and the effect is all the more powerful because it is unconscious, operating on the deepest level of human response. The reptile brain makes it possible for us to survive as biological beings, but it also leaves us vulnerable to the manipulations of television programmers. It is not just commercials that manipulate us. On television news as well, image and sound are as carefully selected and edited to influence human thought and behavior as in any commercial. The news anchors and reporters themselves are chosen for their physical attractiveness--a factor which, as numerous psychological studies have shown, contributes to our perception of a person's trustworthiness. Under these conditions, then, the viewer easily forgets--if, indeed, the viewer ever knew in the first place--that the Worldview presented on the evening news is a contrivance of the network owners--owners such as General Electric (NBC) and Westinghouse (CBS), both major defense contractors. By molding our perception of the World, they mold our opinions. This distortion of reality is determined as much by what is left out of the evening news as what is included--as a glance at Project Censored's yearly list of top 25 censored news stories will reveal. If it's not on television, it never happened. Out of sight, out of mind.

Under the guise of journalistic objectivity, news programs subtly play on our emotions--chiefly fear. Network news divisions, for instance, frequently congratulate themselves on the great service they provide humanity by bringing such spectacles as the September 11 terror attacks into our living rooms. We have heard this falsehood so often, we have come to accept it as self-evident truth. However, the motivation for live coverage of traumatic news events is not altruistic, but rather to be found in the central focus of Cantril's War of the Worlds research--the manipulation of the public through fear. There is another way in which we are manipulated by television news. Human beings are prone to model the behaviors they see around them, and avoid those which might invite ridicule or censure, and in the hypnotic state induced by television, this effect is particularly pronounced. For instance, a lift of the eyebrow from Peter Jennings tells us precisely what he is thinking--and by extension what we should think. In this way, opinions not sanctioned by the corporate media can be made to seem disreputable, while sanctioned opinions are made to seem the very essence of civilized thought. And should your thinking stray into unsanctioned territory despite the trusted anchor's example, a poll can be produced which shows that most persons do not think that way--and you don't want to be different do you? Thus, the mental wanderer is brought back into the fold.

This process is also at work in programs ostensibly produced for entertainment. The "logic" works like this: Archie Bunker is an idiot, Archie Bunker is against gun control, therefore idiots are against gun control. Never mind the complexities of the issue. Never mind the fact that the true purpose of the Second Amendment is not to protect the rights of deer hunters, but to protect the citizenry against a tyrannical government (an argument you will never hear voiced on any television program). Monkey see, monkey do--or, in this case, monkey not do. Notice, too, the way in which television programs depict conspiracy researchers or anti-New World Order activists. On situation comedies, they are buffoons. On dramatic programs, they are dangerous fanatics. This imprints on the mind of the viewer the attitude that questioning the official line or holding "anti-government" opinions is crazy, therefore not to be emulated. Another way in which entertainment programs mold opinion can be found in the occasional television movie, which "sensitively" deals with some "social" issue. A bad behavior is spotlighted--"hate" crimes, for instance--in such a way that it appears to be a far more rampant problem than it may actually be, so terrible in fact that the "only" cure for it is more laws and government "protection." Never mind that laws may already exist to cover these crimes--the law against murder, for instance. Once we have seen the well-publicized murder of the young gay man Matthew Shepherd dramatized in not one, but two, television movies in all its heartrending horror, nothing will do but we pass a law making the very thought behind the crime illegal. People will also model behaviors from popular entertainment which are not only dangerous to their health and could land them in jail, but also contribute to social chaos. While this may seem to be simply a matter of the producers giving the audience what it wants, or the artist holding a mirror up to society, it is in fact intended to influence behavior.

Consider the way many films glorify drug abuse. When a popular star playing a sympathetic character in a mainstream R-rated film uses hard drugs with no apparent health or legal consequences (John Travolta's use of heroin in Pulp Fiction, for instance--an R-rated film produced for theatrical release, which now has found a permanent home on television, via cable and video players), a certain percentage of people--particularly the impressionable young--will perceive hard drug use as the epitome of anti-Establishment cool and will model that behavior, contributing to an increase in drug abuse. And who benefits? As has been well documented by Gary Webb in his award-winning series for the San Jose Mercury News, former Los Angeles narcotics detective Michael Ruppert, and many other researchers and whistleblowers--the CIA is the main purveyor of hard drugs in this country. The CIA also has its hand in the "prison-industrial complex." Wackenhut Corporation, the largest owner of private prisons, has on its board of directors many former CIA employees, and is very likely a CIA front. Thus, films which glorify drug abuse may be seen as recruitment ads for the slave labor-based private prison system. Also, the social chaos and inflated crime rate which result from the contrived drug problem contributes to the demand from a frightened society for more prisons, more laws, and the further erosion of civil liberties. This effect is further heightened by television news segments and documentaries which focus on drug abuse and other crimes, thus giving the public the misperception that crime is even higher than it really is. There is another socially debilitating process at work in what passes for entertainment on television these days. Over the years, there has been a steady increase in adult subject matter on programs presented during family viewing hours. For instance, it is common for today's prime-time situation comedies to make jokes about such matters as masturbation (Seinfeld once devoted an entire episode to the topic), or for daytime talk shows such as Jerry Springer's to showcase such topics as bestiality. Even worse are the "reality" programs currently in vogue. Each new offering in this genre seems to hit a new low. MTV, for instance, recently subjected a couple to a Candid Camera-style prank in which, after winning a trip to Las Vegas, they entered their hotel room to find an actor made up as a mutilated corpse in the bathtub. Naturally, they were traumatized by the experience and sued the network. Or, consider a new show on British television in which contestants compete to see who can infect each other with the most diseases--venereal diseases included.

It would appear, at the very least, that these programs serve as a shill operation to strengthen the argument for censorship. There may also be an even darker motive. These programs contribute to the general coarsening of society we see all around us--the decline in manners and common human decency and the acceptance of cruelty for its own sake as a legitimate form of entertainment. Ultimately, this has the effect of debasing human beings into savages, brutes--the better to herd them into global slavery. For the first decade or so after the Dawn of Television, there were only a handful of channels in each market--one for each of the three major networks and maybe one or two independents. Later, with the advent of cable and more channels, the population pie began to be sliced into finer pieces--or "niche markets." This development has often been described as representing a growing diversity of choices, but in reality it is a fine-tuning of the process of mass manipulation, a honing-in on particular segments of the population, not only to sell them specifically-targeted consumer products but to influence their thinking in ways advantageous to the globalist agenda. One of these "target audiences" is that portion of the population which, after years of blatant government cover-up in areas such as UFOs and the assassination of John F. Kennedy, maintains a cynicism toward the official line, despite the best efforts of television programmers to depict conspiracy research in a negative light. How to reach this vast, disenfranchised target audience and co-opt their thinking? One way is to put documentaries before them which mix of fact with disinformation, thereby confusing them. Another is to take the X Files approach.

The heroes of X Files are investigators in a fictitious paranormal department of the FBI whose adventures sometimes take them into parapolitical territory. On the surface this sounds good. However, whatever good X Files might accomplish by touching on such matters as MK-ULTRA or the JFK assassination is cancelled out by associating them with bug-eyed aliens and ghosts. Also, on X Files, the truth is always depicted as "out there" somewhere--in the stars, or some other dimension, never in brainwashing centers such as the RAND Corporation or its London counterpart, the Tavistock Institute. This has the effect of obscuring the truth, making it seem impossibly out-of-reach, and associating reasonable lines of political inquiry with the fantastic and other-wordly. Not that there is no connection between the parapolitical and the paranormal. There is undoubtedly a cover-up at work with regard to UFOs, but if we accept uncritically the notion that UFOs are anything other than terrestrial in origin, we are falling headfirst into a carefully-set trap. To its credit, X Files has dealt with the idea that extraterrestrials might be a clever hoax by the government, but never decisively. The labyrinthine plots of the show somehow manage to leave the viewer wondering if perhaps the hoax idea is itself a hoax put out there to cover up the existence of extraterrestrials. This is hardly helpful to a true understanding of UFOs and associated phenomena, such as alien abductions and cattle mutilations. Extraterrestrials have been a staple of popular entertainment since The War of the Worlds (both the novel and its radio adaptation). They have been depicted as invaders and benefactors, but rarely have they been unequivocally depicted as a hoax. There was an episode of Outer Limits which depicted a group of scientists staging a mock alien invasion to frighten the World's population into uniting as one--but, again, such examples are rare. Even in UFO documentaries on the Discovery Channel, the possibility of a terrestrial origin for the phenomenon is conspicuous by its lack of mention.

UFO researcher Jacques Vallee, the real-life model for the French scientist in Stephen Spielberg's Close Encounters of the Third Kind, attempted to interest Spielberg in a terrestrial explanation for the phenomenon. In an interview on Conspire.com, Vallee said, "I argued with him that the subject was even more interesting if it wasn't extraterrestrials. If it was real, physical, but not ET. So he said, 'You're probably right, but that's not what the public is expecting--this is Hollywood and I want to give people something that's close to what they expect.'" How convenient that what Spielberg says the people expect is also what the Pentagon wants them to believe. In Messengers of Deception, Vallee tracks the history of a wartime British Intelligence unit devoted to psychological operations. Code-named (interestingly) the "Martians," it specialized in manufacturing and distributing false intelligence to confuse the enemy. Among its activities were the creation of phantom armies with inflatable tanks, simulations of the sounds of military ships maneuvering in the fog, and forged letters to lovers from phantom soldiers attached to phantom regiments. Vallee suggests that deception operations of this kind may have extended beyond World War II, and that much of the "evidence" for "flying saucers" is no more real than the inflatable tanks of World War II. He writes: "The close association of many UFO sightings with advanced military hardware (test sites like the New Mexico proving grounds, missile silos of the northern plains, naval construction sites like the major nuclear facility at Pascagoula and the bizarre love affairs ... between contactee groups, occult sects, and extremist political factions, are utterly clear signals that we must exercise extreme caution."

Many people find it fantastic that the government would perpetrate such a hoax, while at the same time having no difficulty entertaining the notion that extraterrestrials are regularly traveling light years to this planet to kidnap people out of their beds and subject them to anal probes. The military routinely puts out disinformation to obscure its activities, and this has certainly been the case with UFOs. Consider Paul Bennewitz, the UFO enthusiast who began studying strange lights that would appear nightly over the Manzano Test Range outside Albuquerque. When the Air Force learned about his study, ufologist William Moore (by his own admission) was recruited to feed him forged military documents describing a threat from extraterrestrials. The effect was to confuse Bennewitz--even making him paranoid enough to be hospitalized--and discredit his research. Evidently, those strange lights belonged to the Air Force, which does not like outsiders inquiring into its affairs. What the Air Force did to Bennewitz, it also does on a mass scale--and popular entertainment has been complicit in this process. Whether or not the filmmakers themselves are consciously aware of this agenda does not matter. The notion that extraterrestrials might visit this planet is so much a part of popular culture and modern mythology that it hardly needs assistance from the military to propagate itself. It has the effect not only of obscuring what is really going on at research facilities such as Area 51, but of tainting UFO research in general as "kooky"--and does the job so thoroughly that one need only say "UFO" in the same breath with "JFK" to discredit research in that area as well. It also may, in the end, serve the same purpose as depicted in that Outer Limits episode--to unite the World's population against a perceived common threat, thus offering the pretext for one-World government. The following quotes demonstrate that the idea has at least occurred to World leaders:

"In our obsession with antagonisms of the moment, we often forget how much unites all the members of humanity. Perhaps we need some outside, universal threat to make us realize this common bond. I occasionally think how quickly our differences would vanish if we were facing an alien threat from outside this World." President Ronald Reagan, speaking in 1987 to the United Nations.

"The nations of the World will have to unite, for the next war will be an interplanetary war. The nations of the earth must someday make a common front against attack by people from other planets." General Douglas MacArthur, 1955

Some one remarked that the best way to unite all the nations on this globe would be an attack from some other planet. In the face of such an alien enemy, people would respond with a sense of their unity of interest and purpose." John Dewey, Professor of Philosophy at Columbia University, speaking at a conference sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 1917

And where was this "alien threat" motif given birth? Again, we find the answer in popular entertainment, and again the earliest source is The War of the Worlds--both Wells' and Welles' versions. Perhaps it is no coincidence that H. G. Wells was a founding member of the Round Table, the think tank that gave birth to the Royal Institute for International Affairs (RIIA) and its American cousin, the CFR. Perhaps Wells intentionally introduced the motif as a meme which might prove useful later in establishing the "World social democracy" he described in his 1939 book The New World Order. Perhaps, too, another purpose of the Orson Welles broadcast was to test of the public's willingness to believe in extraterrestrials. At any rate, it proved a popular motif, and paved the way for countless movies and television programs to come, and has often proven a handy device for promoting the New World Order, whether the extraterrestrials are invaders or--in films like The Day the Earth Stood Still--benefactors who have come to Earth to warn us to mend our ways and unite as one, or be blown to bits. We see the globalist agenda at work in Star Trek and its spin-offs as well. Over the years, many a television viewer's mind has been imprinted with the idea that centralized government is the solution for our problems. Never mind the complexities of the issue--never mind the fact that, in the real World, centralization of power leads to tyranny. The reptile brain, hypnotized by the flickering television screen, has seen Captain Kirk and his culturally diverse crew demonstrate time and again that the United Federation of Planets is a good thing. Therefore, it must be so.

It remains to be seen whether the Masters of Deception will, like those scientists in The Outer Limits, stage an invasion from space with anti-gravity machines and holograms, but, if they do, it will surely be broadcast on television, so that anyone out of range of that light show in the sky, will be able to see it, and all with eyes to see will believe. It will be War of the Worlds on a grand scale. Jack Kerouac once noted, while walking down a residential street at night, glancing into living rooms lit by the gray glare of television sets, that we have become a World of people "thinking the same thoughts at the same time." Every day, millions upon millions of human beings sit down at the same time to watch the same football game, the same mini-series, the same newscast. And where might all this shared experience and uniformity of thought be taking us? A recent report co-sponsored by the U.S. National Science Foundation and the Commerce Department calls for a broad-based research program to find ways to use nanotechnology, biotechnology, information technology, and cognitive sciences, to achieve telepathy, machine-to-human communication, amplified sensory experience, enhanced intellectual capacity, and mass participation in a "hive mind." Quoting the report: "With knowledge no longer encapsulated in individuals, the distinction between individuals and the entirety of humanity would blur. Think Vulcan mind-meld. We would perhaps become more of a hive mind--an enormous, single, intelligent entity." There is no doubt that we have been brought closer to the "hive mind" by the mass media. For, what is the shared experience of television but a type of "Vulcan mind-meld"? (Note the terminology borrowed from Star Trek, no doubt to make the concept more familiar and palatable. If Spock does it, it must be okay.)

This government report would have us believe that the hive mind will be for our good--a wonderful leap in evolution. It is nothing of the kind. For one thing, if the government is behind it, you may rest assured it is not for our good. For another, common sense should tell us that blurring the line "between individuals and the entirety of humanity" means mass conformity, the death of human individuality. Make no mistake about it--if humanity is to become a hive, there will be at the center of that hive a Queen Bee, whom all the lesser "insects" will serve. This is not evolution--this is devolution. Worse, it is the ultimate slavery--the slavery of the mind. And it is a horror first unleashed in 1938 when one million people responded as one--as a hive--to Orson Welles' Halloween prank. In a sense, those people who fled the Martians that night were right to be afraid. They were indeed under attack. But they were wrong about who was attacking them. It was something far worse than Martians. Had they only known the true nature of the danger facing them, perhaps they would have gone to the nearest radio station with torches in hand like the villagers in those old Frankenstein movies and burned it to the ground, or at least commandeered the new technology and turned it towards another use--the liberation of humanity, instead of its enslavement. www.mackwhite.com/tv.html Via Rumor Mill News Agents Forum, see also: Television: The Hidden Picture by Rixon Stewart www.thetruthseeker.co.uk/article.asp?id=67, Cosmic Deception: Let the Citizen Beware by Dr. Steven Greer; www.thetruthseeker.co.uk/article.asp?id=249, Counterfeit Foe: the Ultimate Hegelian Dialectic by Paul Joseph Watson www.propagandamatrix.com/counterfeit_foe.html.

The Subversion of Culture

By Henry Makow Ph.D., <http://www.savethemales.ca> In the 1920's, leaders of the Communist International decided that Western society was too strong to conquer. It was necessary to weaken it by subverting its cultural institutions--family, education, religion, art, mass media and government [as so well explained in the Protocols]. They have largely succeeded. While maintaining these institutions in their familiar format, they have subtly changed the content. It's like lacing a bottle of aspirin with arsenic. The purpose is to gradually poison, paralyze and eventually destroy us. We are noticing that our political and cultural leaders are mostly cowards, dupes, traitors, crooks, opportunists and impostors rewarded by how much harm they can do [all those under whose watch 9-11 happened have been promoted]. Our failure to combat Communism is due to a misunderstanding of its real nature. We imagine it is a discredited movement, once based in the USSR and China devoted to social justice, equality and public ownership. Millions of idealists, including myself, were duped and are still duped.

In fact, Communism is an international phenomenon that invaded Russia and China. It is the creation of a satanic cult (the Illuminati) formed in 1776 by international bankers. It is designed to put all the World's wealth in their hands, and eventually to reduce and enslave the human race. The 5-pointed Red Star of Communism is also the symbol of Satan-worship. A demonic virus, Communism has morphed into countless forms (such as fe-manism) and is hoodwinking more people than ever. Western Civilization is built on the premise that God is real, in fact the ultimate and only permanent Reality, a spiritual one. Through man's Divine soul, the ordinary individual can discern the Divine Will without mediation from a worldly authority. This is why the bankers hate Christianity, Islam and Judaism. God is the Truth, Love, Beauty and Goodness to which we aspire. This moral order precludes a small clique monopolizing the World's wealth. So the bankers set out to destroy our belief in a Divine Order by promoting Darwinism, Existentialism etc. They promote war, depression and terror so we will demand their "antidote": the New World Order.

In his brilliant essay, "The Frankfurt School and Political Correctness" Michael Minnichino describes how most of the fashionable intellectual and artistic movements in the 20th century, still in vogue today, were actually inspired by thinkers who were Commintern (Communist International) agents financed by the central bankers. Some of them actually worked for Soviet Intelligence right into the 1960's. He writes: "The task [of the Frankfurt School] was first to undermine the Judeo-Christian legacy through an "abolition of culture" ...and second, to determine new cultural forms which would increase the alienation of the population, thus creating a "new barbarism." ...The purpose of modern art, literature and music must be to destroy the uplifting potential of art, literature and music..." Funds came from "various German and American universities, the Rockefeller Foundation, the American Jewish [actually Zionist] Committee, several American intelligence services..."

This subversive movement "represents almost the entire theoretical basis of all the politically correct aesthetic trends which now plague our universities." They are associated with Post Modernism, Feminism, Cultural Studies, Deconstructionism, Semiotics, etc. Their net effect is to divorce us from truth, social cohesion and our cultural heritage. They assert that reality is unknowable and that writers and artists are in fact depicting themselves. For example, postmodernist Hayden White writes, "historical narratives are verbal fictions, the contents of which are more invented than found...truth and reality are primarily authoritarian weapons of our times." In other words, we cannot know what happened in the past (which is exactly what they want.) Postmodernism is part of the authoritarian agenda. Similarly the Frankfurt School championed the notion that "authoritarianism" is caused by religion, male leadership, marriage and family, when these things actually uphold society. Universities are enemy territory and professors usually are obstacles to genuine learning.

The same applies to the mass media, which the central bankers own and control. We imagine that books, movies and music are commercially or artistically motivated. This is not true. Elite brainwashers discovered they can sell almost anything as long as it is hyped and adheres to a familiar format. Thus the hidden agenda of entertainment is social engineering, satanism, sexual depravity and violence. Musician Wes Penre says stars are selected not for talent but because they advance the elite agenda. He writes: Their task is to demoralize our youth, to create a society where no one is able to think for themselves (contrary to what the pop culture is trying to teach us about the "rebellious" rock music). The Art Industry creates "Icons" with degrading and Satanic messages, who are supposed to take the place of God. The musicians are also often acting degraded and high or low on drugs, so their fans start acting the same. The purpose is to create apathy and decay. Quite a few artists also put subliminal backward messages in their music, like Led Zeppelin, Michael Jackson, The Eagles, and more.... Many musicians die young due to "drug overdoses" because they tried to buck the agenda. This also explains the obsession with romance in popular music. Love and sex are intended to distract us from everything else.

Increasingly, there is a lesbian message in popular music. For example, the Dixie Chicks scorn men and celebrate female independence. In one song, women self righteously murder a man who gave his wife a black eye. Young women sing these songs and identify. A friend noticed his Dixie Chick-singing girlfriend has been psychologically neutered. She thinks becoming a wife and mother will cramp her style. He is dumping her. I went to the movies last night. Three-out-of-four previews mentioned homosexuality. "North Country" with Charlize Theron is pure anti-male propaganda. Single mother gets a job in a mine but is not accepted as an equal by her male co-workers. After one rapes her, she has to take the company to court to get justice. How many times have we seen this kind of thing? I once met a woman who works as a railroad diesel mechanic. She said her male co-workers treat her like gold. It wouldn't do to tell her story, would it? Ever wonder why there hasn't been a movie about real American heroes like Henry Ford, Charles Lindbergh (Post The Spirit of St. Louis) Louis McFadden and Whittaker Chambers? They opposed the banker agenda.

Just as we need healthy food and exercise, our mind and soul needs truth and beauty. We need to see life portrayed honestly, with the real forces identified. Instead, we are deliberately deceived and degraded by a small financial elite with a diabolical plan. White stallions (our souls) are fed a diet of sawdust. Whether it's school or mass media, we are bombarded with propaganda designed to produce alienation and dysfunction. We must protect ourselves from this poison before it is too late. The good news is that modern culture, based on the premise there is no inherent purpose or positive design in human life, has been exposed as a long-term Illuminati psy-op designed to demoralize us. It will fail. For More <http://www.savethemales.ca/000205.html> on the Illuminati program.

Comments for "The Fraudulent Basis of Modern Culture" John said (September 29, 2005): Your piece "Rothschilds Conduct Red Symphony" shows very clearly that a Jewish [actually Zionist] elite, including the Warburg interests, financed both the Communists and the Nazis. This has been known for decades, and had already been shown in the seventies by the scholarship of Antony Sutton. As for the banking elites, some call them "Khazars," some call them "pseudo-Jews" like Robert Wilton, or "apostate Jews" like the radio priest Fr. Coughlin. Whatever we call it, this sinister group has on its hands the blood of the victims of both Nazism and Communism.

There Exists In Our World Today A Powerful And Dangerous Secret Cult

So wrote Victor Marchetti, a former high-ranking CIA official, in his book The CIA and the Cult of Intelligence. This is the first book the U.S. Government ever went to court to censor before publication. In this book, Marchetti tells us that there IS a "Cabal" that rules the World and that its holy men are the clandestine professionals of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Laura Knight-Jadczyk: http://www.cassiopeia.org/cass/mahmoud_ahmed.htm "The War on Terrorism is a LIE".

The pretext to wage this war has been created and executed by the Bush Reich and their minions. The September 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon are the biggest frauds in American History. The Bush Reich and the Mass Media continue to manipulate public opinion, to make their Fraud appear to be an indelible truth. The American People have been misled from the very beginning regarding the causes and consequences of the September 11 "attack on America." The EVIDENCE, including MOUNTAINS OF OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS that get no Media play at all, confirms that the 9-11 event was part of the ongoing globalization plans of the Bush Reich. The way they deal with this documentation is to pass laws to suppress it and to protect their illegitimate rule. What I am saying isn't new or original. Many of the intellectuals and writers in the U.S. and elsewhere are fully cognizant of the true state of affairs. The unfortunate thing is that the masses of ordinary people are completely under the influence of the Mass Media which is in the pocket of the Bush Reich, and promotes the New World Order agenda of the Military-Industrial Complex. If Peter Jennings or Dan Rather don't say it, for them, it isn't even real. They are duped and mind controlled by television talking heads (shades of The original 1962 Manchurian Candidate [s]). Sustaining the Illusion of Democracy - The Bush administration requires "legitimacy" in the eyes of public opinion, namely, that in launching the War on Terrorism, it is acting in the best interests of society, with the full endorsement of the American people and with the backing of the "international community." To effectively build this "legitimacy," the Bush administration not only needs to uphold the falsehoods behind the "war on terrorism," it also needs to sustain the illusion that constitutional democracy continues to prevail. Sustaining the "freedom and democracy rhetoric" is part of the process of building a totalitarian state. While "legitimate dissent" is encouraged, democracy requires that "civil liberties be balanced against public safety." [...]

To borrow from, and paraphrasing, Marchetti: "This cult is patronized and protected by the highest level government officials in the World. It's membership is composed of those in the power centers of government, industry, commerce, finance, and labor. It manipulates individuals in areas of important public influence - including the academic World and the mass media. The Secret Cult is a global fraternity of a political aristocracy whose purpose is to further the political policies of persons or agencies unknown. It acts covertly and illegally".

In 1958, Aldous Huxley wrote Brave New World in which he stated: The older dictators fell because they never could supply their subjects with enough bread, enough circuses, enough miracles and mysteries. Nor did they possess a really effective system of mind-manipulation. Under a scientific dictator, education will really work - with the result that most men and women will grow up to love their servitude and will never dream of revolution. There seems to be no good reason why a thoroughly scientific dictatorship should ever be overthrown.

Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., in Foreign Affairs (July/August 1995): "We are not going to achieve a new World order without paying for it in blood as well as in words and money."

Creating Fake Terror (Illuminati agents stage terror attacks)

"Cui Bono" is the intelligent question asked when an official was murdered in ancient Rome: "who benefited?", the question gullible minds have long forgotten to ask themselves following politically-motivated atrocities.

Once Voltaire noted: "So long as the people do not care to exercise their freedom, those who wish to tyrannize will do so; for tyrants are active and ardent, and will devote themselves in the name of any number of gods, religious and otherwise, to put shackles upon sleeping men."

"The war on terrorism is a preemptive strike on societies which might be inclined to later rebel against a global government. The strategy is to allow today's terrorists to run freely among civilized societies until those societies are sufficiently terrorized into giving up all of their freedoms to get rid of the terrorists. By the time the global government is fully in place, those societies will be unable to rebel and to become economically free from the owners of the central banks and their mega-corporations." GENIUS

Joseph Stalin: "The easiest way to gain control of the population is to carry out acts of terror. The public will clamor for such laws if their personal security is threatened." This is Bush/Sharon's bosses' strategy.

Without 9-11 there would be no passage of laws abrogating the Constitution. Without 9-11, there would be no talk of War. Without 9-11, Bush would probably be facing criminal charges for rigging an election in cahoots with his brother Jeb, Katharine Harris and Bob Graham and others. Without 9-11, Bush would not have been able to rig the mid-term election which most certainly happened, because it is hardly likely that the voters turned out in such numbers because they were PLEASED with the current state of affairs.

Why doubt that Osama bin Laden was behind the atrocities of September 11? In the first place, it was a sly, covert operation. The massive U.S. budget for such things, which exceeds the gross national product of most of the countries of the World, is not spent in vain. In the covert World there is as little room for small, independent operators in the United States as there is in the news business, the automobile business, or the drug business. Every political organization you can think of, especially those who wish ill for America's ruling establishment, is thoroughly laced with informants on the federal payroll, recent lamentations about a shortage of "humint" resources notwithstanding. Furthermore, trickery and deceit are the life's blood of the intelligence community. Israel's Mossad even has it enshrined in the organization's motto, "By way of deception thou shalt do war" is Mossad's Motto encrypted in the Knesset. The whole case for Osama bin Laden's guilt rests upon the assurances of people whose business it is to fool us, abetted, as usual, by another group who, through the years, have shown that it is their business as well, the American news media. With the record that they have established with the first World Trade Center bombing, the Oklahoma City bombing, the Waco massacre, the crashes of TWA 800 and Pan Am 103, going all the way back to their treatment of the John F. Kennedy assassination and further, we simply have no reason to trust a single thing they tell us. Recent history has shown that the more important the matter, the greater the likelihood that they will lie to us about it.

Then, of course, there are the numerous unanswered questions with respect to 9-11 itself. Why did America's air defenses remain utterly supine while one jet airliner after another departed radically from its proper flight path? Why did President George W. Bush, upon being notified that a second airplane had plowed into the World Trade Center, continue listening to a story being read to a second grade class and apparently issue no instructions to subordinates? How did pilots who were inept at the controls of puddle-jumping trainer planes, on their first venture into the complicated cockpits of large jetliners perform so expertly? How, as we were told in the cases of Lee Harvey Oswald and Timothy McVeigh before them, were the perpetrators so expert in carrying out their plot and so inept in covering their trails? Put another way, how were the authorities so inept in discovering and preventing such a sweeping scheme but so quick and expert in tracking down the perpetrators? Why did those indestructible black boxes turn out to be so destructible, and what happened to the recordings of conversations between the flight controllers and the cockpits? Who were the people who made, or attempted to make, a fortune by short-selling or buying put options of stock of companies that suffered from the 9-11 attacks, and why has news of investigation into this matter disappeared? Why is investigation into the collapse of the World Trade Center buildings being handled in such an unprofessional manner, with apparently the same sort of wholesale destruction of evidence going on that happened at Oklahoma City and at Waco? And why do putative opponents of the U.S. government persist in doing things that could hardly be more detrimental to their own causes while aiding immeasurably the elements of the U.S. government that represent unaccountable power? "When the powers that be ran out of rival societies to conquer and exploit and indigenous innocents to conquer and enslave, they devised an ingenious plan to perpetuate their demonic, moneymaking war machine — they invented fictional characters to pursue and annihilate, and recruited impoverished souls to act out these roles". Now, from John Kaminski, author of "America's Autopsy Report" and "The Day America Died," a new collection of essays titled "The Perfect Enemy," <http://www.johnkaminski.com/>. Our World is currently managed by a VERY "scientific dictator," and Bush is only its puppet. (huge section on CD).

David Rockefeller, Statement to the United Nations Business Council, 1994, quoted by Michel Chossudovsky, Professor of Economics, University of Ottawa, Canada: "We are on the verge of global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order."

In his diary, Moshe Sharett, Israeli's first Foreign Minister from 1948-1956 and Prime Minister from 1954-1956, quotes a conversation with Army Chief of Staff Moshe Dayan in May 1955: "We face no danger at all of an Arab advantage of force for the next 8-10 years...Reprisal actions which we couldn't carry out if we were tied to a security pact are our vital lymph...they make it possible for us to maintain a high level of tension in our population and in the army. Without these actions we would have ceased to be a combative people... The state.... must see the sword as the main, if not the only, instrument with which to keep its morale high and to retain its moral tension. Toward this end it may, no it MUST invent dangers, and to do this it must adopt the method of provocation and revenge.... And above all, let us hope for a new war with the Arab countries so that we may finally get rid of our troubles and acquire our space."

<http://globalresearch.ca/articles/CHO405B.html> Michel Chossudovsky, Professor of Economics, University of Ottawa, Canada, Chossudovsky points out: The conspirators are working to convey the illusion of democracy. They "fabricate dissent." In other words, they must create and finance their own political opposition. In order to appear legitimate, they must actively encourage the type of "criticism" which does not challenge "their right to rule." The "war on terrorism" and the development of the authoritarian State are occurring at the outset of a huge global economic depression marked by the downfall of the State institutions, mounting unemployment, the collapse in living standards in all major regions of the World, including Western Europe and North America, and the outbreak of famines over large areas. At a global economic level, this depression could be far more devastating than that of the 1930s. Moreover, the war has not only unleashed a massive shift out of civilian economic activities into the military-industrial complex, it has also accelerated the demise of the welfare state in most Western countries. The US intelligence apparatus has created its own terrorist organizations. And at the same time, it creates its own terrorist warnings concerning the terrorist organizations which it has itself created. In turn, it has developed a cohesive multibillion dollar counterterrorism program "to go after" these terrorist organizations. Counterterrorism and war propaganda are intertwined. The propaganda apparatus feeds disinformation into the news chain. The terror warnings must appear to be "genuine". The objective is to present the terror groups as "enemies of America. The underlying objective is to galvanize public opinion in support of America's war agenda. The "war on terrorism" requires a humanitarian mandate. The war on terrorism is presented as a "Just War", which is to be fought on moral grounds "to redress a wrong suffered." The Just War theory defines "good" and "evil." It concretely portrays and personifies the terrorist leaders as "evil individuals".

Several prominent American intellectuals and antiwar activists, who stand firmly opposed to the Bush administration, are nonetheless supporters of the Just War theory: "We are against war in all its forms but we support the campaign against international terrorism."

To reach its foreign policy objectives, the images of terrorism must remain vivid in the minds of the citizens, who are constantly reminded of the terrorist threat. The propaganda campaign presents the portraits of the leaders behind the terror network. In other words, at the level of what constitutes an "advertising" campaign, "it gives a face to terror." The "war on terrorism" rests on the creation of one or more evil bogeymen, the terror leaders, Osama bin Laden, Abu Musab Al-Zarqawi, et al, whose names and photos are presented ad nauseam in daily news reports.

Five days before September 11, 2001, President Bush stated almost prophetically: I have repeatedly said that only time to use Social Security money is in times of war, times of recession, or times of severe emergency. And I mean that. [September 6, 2001]

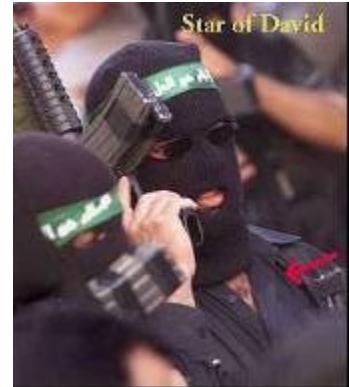

Michel Chossudovsky: "The recession and war buzzwords are being used to mould U.S. public opinion into accepting the pilfering of the Social Security fund to pay the producers of weapons of mass destruction - i.e. a massive redirection of the nation's resources towards the military industrial complex". Again, warfare is defining human life.

If we do the research, if the mountain of government documentation is examined, we discover that the so called "Militant Islamic groups" are very likely created and funded by the CIA. The current U.S. foreign policy is NOT geared towards curbing so called "Islamic fundamentalism - Radical Islam" - it is designed to promote it, to inflame it, and to bait it to attack. The development of so called "radical Islam" in the wake of September 11, in the Middle East and Central Asia, is consistent with Washington's hidden agenda. They plan to sustain rather than combat terrorism with a view to destabilizing societies around the World and to prevent the creation and growth of possible genuine social movements that might combat the New World Order plans of the Bush Reich. You can bet that the CIA continues to support the development of so called "Islamic Fundamentalism, Christian Fundamentalism, Jewish Fundamentalism, Zionism and New Age Fundamentalism" mainly through COINTELPRO, though not exclusively. In the short term, Fundamentalism and Fanaticism creates social and ethnic divisiveness. It makes it impossible for large groups of people to unite and organize against the New World Order of the Bush Reich. We are, indeed, experiencing a Global COINTELPRO program that has something for everyone - the Devil's Supermarket of religions and beliefs, so to say. These organizations often foment "opposition to Bush" or the "American Agenda" in a way designed by the CIA handlers so that it does not constitute any real threat to the Bush Reich's global agenda.

Fake Terror: Zionist agent caught disguised as a Palestinian (like the CIA Death Squads in Iraq, shades of El Salvador)

Center for Cooperative Research (CCR) <http://www.cooperativeresearch.org/wot/default.html> : Critics argue that the wealthy and powerful elite as a whole are using the 'war on terrorism' as a means to achieve one or more of the following objectives:

- Evade the political and economic repercussions that the worsening financial crisis will have on both the elite and the U.S. nation as a whole.
- Dodge the blame for causing the current financial crisis which was a direct result of the ultra-liberalization of the various financial and commodity markets, the neo-liberalization policies of privatization and 'free trade', and the reckless expansion of money and credit (among other things).
- Instigate a 'clash of civilizations' that will provide the U.S. with an excuse to reorganize the World under the tutelage of an American empire.
- Secure control of the oil and gas rich lands of Central Asia and the Middle East.
- Undermine the political and economic development and integration of the Eurasian landmass.
- Maintain economic power during the course of the current financial crisis by using U.S. taxpayer money (and lives) to force on the World that which a truly free market would not have otherwise allowed - unchallenged American economic and political supremacy.

Although CCR believes that the available information very strongly supports the above hypotheses, it should be noted that there is a considerable degree of ambiguity with regard to the actual dynamics that are at work between these goals, ongoing events, and the various individual and organizational actors. To assume that every development in the so-called 'war on terrorism' can be easily explained by a simple 'conspiracy' model is to ignore the dialectical and conflictive nature of real historical progression. While it is obvious that certain menaces in the Pentagon and White House yield considerable influence over the direction of current U.S. foreign policy it is equally obvious that they are not fully in control of the present situation. However, the big picture since ancient times stays the same, i.e. the elites who control the issuance of money keep the masses trapped in an enslaving debt-usury based economic system, in confusion and in disunity while enriching themselves and consolidating their power.

The Zionist Protection (Extortion) Racket; Surviving New World Order Tyranny

By Henry Makow Ph.D. Dec16, 2005: A "protection racket" is a scam where an aggressor instigates an attack, blames a bogeyman, and then offers to protect the victim from this bogeyman in return for [a tribute or homage or protection] money and power. [a.k.a. fake terror, false flag operation, problem-reaction-solution, the Hegelian dialectic, in simple words, Mother of all Mafias' extortion racket] The "War on Terror" is a protection racket. The aggressor is the World financial elite known as the "Crown" based in the City of London. Their instrument is the Zionist project, specifically the Mossad and its US allies. The victims are the peoples of the United States and the West in general, [and also of the rest of the defenseless World]. The goal is the overthrow of [Godly] Civilization, and the establishment of a World police state called the "New World Order." "Zionism is but an incident of a far reaching plan," said leading American Zionist Louis Marshall, counsel for bankers Kuhn Loeb in 1917. "It is merely a convenient peg on which to hang a powerful weapon." The head of the Department of Homeland Security is Israeli dual citizen and Zionist Michael Chertoff. He was the New Jersey State Attorney when five Mossad agents were arrested after witnesses saw them congratulating themselves on the destruction of the World Trade Center. Their van tested positive for explosives but he let them go back to Israel. (See Chris Bollyn article below.) Speculators who shorted airline stocks before 9-11 have been identified as Israelis apparently.

"ANTI SEMITISM" THE ORIGINAL PROTECTION RACKET: The Zionist elite regards the Jewish rank-and-file as pawns to be manipulated. "Anti Semitism is indispensable to us for the management of our lesser brethren," says the author of Protocols of the Elders of Zion (9-2) a document labeled as "forgery" by Zionists that reads like the blueprint of the New World Order. European Jews had to be terrorized into setting up Israel as a "national home," i.e. colonizing the Middle East and creating a centre of World government. World Finance funded the Nazis. Zionists actively collaborated with them. See "The Holocaust as Mental Paradigm." See also "Zionism: A Conspiracy Against Jews". Zionist betrayal is the reason Jews went passively to their deaths, says Rabbi Moshe Shonfeld in his book "Holocaust Victims Accuse." Non-Zionist Jews were worth more dead than alive to the Zionist leadership who, Shonfeld says, reaped the moral and financial capital from their "sacrifice." See my "Zionism: Compulsory Suicide for Jews." The Zionist [Babylonian Talmudic Luciferian Pharisaic, referred to as the Synagogue of Satan by Yashua-Joshua-Jesus-Issa in the Bible] elite has a long history of manipulating Jews in this manner. For example, in 1950 a wave of anti Semitism and terrorism in Iraq made Naeim Giladi, 21, join the Zionist underground. Giladi was imprisoned, tortured and sentenced to death by Iraqi authorities. He escaped and fled to Israel only to discover that the anti Semitism and bombings had been engineered by his fellow Zionists to dupe Iraqi Jews into going to Israel. An ancient community was deprived of its wealth and reduced to second-class citizen status in Israel, replacing Palestinian labor. See my "Zionists Double Crossed Iraqi Jews". Israel provoked attacks from its neighbours in order to "retain its moral tension" according to the secret diary of Prime Minister Moshe Sharett. The state must "invent dangers" to start war and thereby "acquire our space," he wrote. See "The Zionist Roots of the War on Terror."

"ANTI SEMITISM" BECOMES "ANTI AMERICANISM": A pogrom like 9-11 was designed to stampede Americans into forfeiting their civil rights and invading the Middle East. There is a drumbeat in the media to convince Americans that they are victims of Muslim fanatics. This propaganda campaign is carried out by Neo Cons (a.k.a. Zionists.) In an otherwise disappointing new book, "The New Jerusalem: Zionist Power in America," Michael Collins Piper writes: "In the build-up to the Iraq war, Zionist propagandists and the media increasingly began touting the message to Americans that "the whole World is against us"... and the Israelis are our only real solid dependable ally ...The theme that anti Americanism had run rampant was instilled in Americans for the very purpose of making them "anti" everyone who refused to support the...Iraq war...and the more broad ranging Zionist agenda." (157) Sound familiar? This is the tactic they use on Jews. See my "How Jews are Brainwashed and Manipulated." Piper says that Zionism is being equated with Americanism. Zionist agents like Russian Nathan Sharansky crafted the overblown and specious rhetoric of Bush's second inaugural speech that committed the US to advancing the Zionist agenda using force. History provides a sobering warning as to where this could be leading.

In his essay, The Nature of Zionism, Russian author Vladimir Stepin writes, "During the civil war in Russia, the Zionists also performed another task. Using some units of the Red Army - Trotsky was the chairman of the country's Revolutionary Military Council - they organized the Jewish pogrom in Seversk. The result of this was the "Law on Those Involved in Pogroms" of 27 July 1918. In accordance with this law, a monstrous Zionist terror raged in Russia for ten years: a person accused of anti-Semitism was, without any argument being allowed, declared to be involved in pogroms and placed against the wall to be shot. Not only anti-Zionists, but the best representatives of the intelligentsia of Russia, could be accused of being anti-Semitic, and so too could anyone one felt like accusing of it. People saw who was exercising power in Russia and expressed their discontent with it. 90% of the members of the Cheka - the Soviet security organ, 1918-1922 - were Zionists. Apart from the law on those involved in pogroms, the Zionists practised genocide against the ethnic groups inhabiting Russia, and they did so by accusing people of counter-revolutionary activities, sabotage, and so on, irrespective of whether or not the people in question really had conducted such activities. It was standard practice merely to put them against the wall to be shot."

My hunch is that the World financial elite, using Masonic secret societies and intelligence agencies, is responsible for 90% of terrorism. The purpose is to manipulate people into advancing the goals of the New World Order, which includes destroying true religion, nation states, democracy, race and family. They are running a protection racket. They are empowered to protect us from this "terror." Zionists or Americans who carry out their agenda could end up holding the bag if something goes wrong, or as I should say right. Remember they are challenging the greatest power in the universe: God, or Truth as witnessed in the souls of all human beings. They are most vulnerable now on the 9-11 attack which they perpetrated. If we rise up as one to demand the truth about this atrocity, their obscene criminal enterprise will start to unravel.

Surviving the New World Order: This isn't about storing silver coins or canned food or getting an AK-47. It's about saving your soul not your skin. It's about the tendency to obsess on the New World Order, get depressed and become unbearable. The situation is depressing. A satanic cult controls the credit of the World and rules through myriad proxies. It is determined to destroy civilization and institute an Orwellian police state. You spend hours every day addictively watching for new developments. Your face is pressed up against the pane glass window of the World. You are "externalized." You try to squeeze your sustenance from the World. But much of what you imbibe is poisonous: depravity, corruption, duplicity and tragedy. (Is that the point? To demoralize and brutalize?) Mankind is in the grip of a diabolical force that constantly strives to legitimize itself through duplicity. You can't overcome this demon. But you still control your personal life. Ultimately, the battle is for the soul of humanity. Why not begin by defending your soul? This means erecting a wall between the soul, and the World, and establishing a balance between the sacred and the profane. You need to shut out the World (the profane) for set periods of time and focus on what inspires you. That means turning off the TV, Internet and media in general. Just as you nourish your body with food, you feed your soul with thoughts, sights and sounds. Your soul reaches out for beauty, justice, truth and goodness. You need to discover what lifts your spirits. It might be a long walk, nature, music, sports, or music. It might be time with your family or friends. It might be the religious writing or meditation. "Do what you love," Henry David Thoreau said. "Know your own bone; gnaw at it, bury it, unearth it, and gnaw at it still."

You agree with the mystics who say happiness is within. It involves the possession of your soul, and not wanting anything else. By looking outside your self, you displace your soul and become the thing you want. This is the source of addictive behavior and unhappiness. The occult elite uses sex and money to control us. The courtship stage is a period when sexual feelings are strong so two people will bond and start a family. Sex/romance was not meant to become a permanent preoccupation and panacea. The cult uses it to distract and degrade us while it creates a police state (using the "War on Terror" as a ruse.) The same is true of money. The stock market is a giant casino to which millions are addicted. The central banking cult has unlimited funds. When it wants to make us feel good, (while it trashes our civil rights, or wages senseless war) it makes the market go up. When it wants to fleece us, it crashes the market. Don't be a puppet. The diabolical powers have been with us for a long time. You have discovered their existence only because they signaled the beginning of their endgame on Sept. 11. Don't let them stunt or degrade you by obsessing on their iniquity. Restore balance by attuning yourself to the things you love instead. Be an outpost of happiness.

Comments for "Surviving the New World Order"

James said (January 08, 2006): The Anglo-American-Israeli Axis of Evil is basing its imperialistic, neocolonial goals entirely on the dollar's ability to remain the World's reserve currency. But the tide is turning. It started turning with OPEC countries like Iraq turning to the Euro. In March, Iran will get its own stock exchange, which also plans to convert to the Euro. Now China, which has been financing our imperialistic war efforts, is turning away from the dollar too. We know the Axis is planning another war effort. This time against Iran. The Axis was able to place Iraq back under the dollar through an illegal invasion and occupation of that country. Is it planning to do something similar in Iran? The question, therefore, remains: If China should threaten to totally destroy the dollar by monetizing its enormous holdings of U.S. Treasury bonds, would the Anglo-American-Israeli Axis of Evil resort to a war effort against China to save the dollar?

Dear James,

Good questions. The remaining question: Is the other side (Iran, China, Russia) also run by the Illuminati? I fear it is. Henry Richard said (January 08, 2006): As usual a good article. The key term used in your article is "demonic" this supposes that there is a Devil, and of course a God (which I feel there is) and he is interested in mankind (a personal God). Then this means that the salvation of our soul is all that really matters and that it is a teleological (sic) universe that we live in. In which case what happens to us in the short term, no matter how unpleasant, doesn't matter.

Helen said (January 08, 2006): Henry, Thank you for your thoughtful "Surviving the New World Order." Becoming aware that so little is as it seems has been overwhelming for me. I am beginning to realize my fascination with "What Really Happened," "Truthout," etc. has become an addiction. Lately, I have come to see the importance of continuing with drawing and watercolors. Hitting flyballs with my five year old grandson. Capturing his one year old sister with my Cannon as she proudly gets a spaghetti noodle in her mouth rather than the floor. Perhaps we need to be reminded it is by default the enemy gained control of the nations. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus (Yashua) did not deny the authority of the enemy when He refused to worship him. It is a choice each of us must make.

Yasmin said (January 07, 2006): What excellent timing! I have, for some time now, been very disillusioned with the World in which I feel forced to participate. As 2005 rolled over to 2006, something was happening inside me - like a seed starting to wake up to the need to DO even MORE. Inside, I heard myself repeating "I want out! I do not want to participate in this World!" So I resolved to take action, starting small, such as getting my raw vegetables from local suppliers who use organic gardening methods. I wish, no, I NEED to remove myself from the system as much as possible. You're right - it's not about getting depressed - it's about strategic decision-making, taking control where we can. Your suggestion to 'shut out the World (the profane) for set periods of time and focus on those things that inspire you...restore balance by attuning yourself to the things you love. Be an outpost of happiness' is appreciated. Thank you Henry. I always enjoy and benefit in concrete ways from your articles.

ITS ALL IN THE FAMILY TREE OF NOBLES

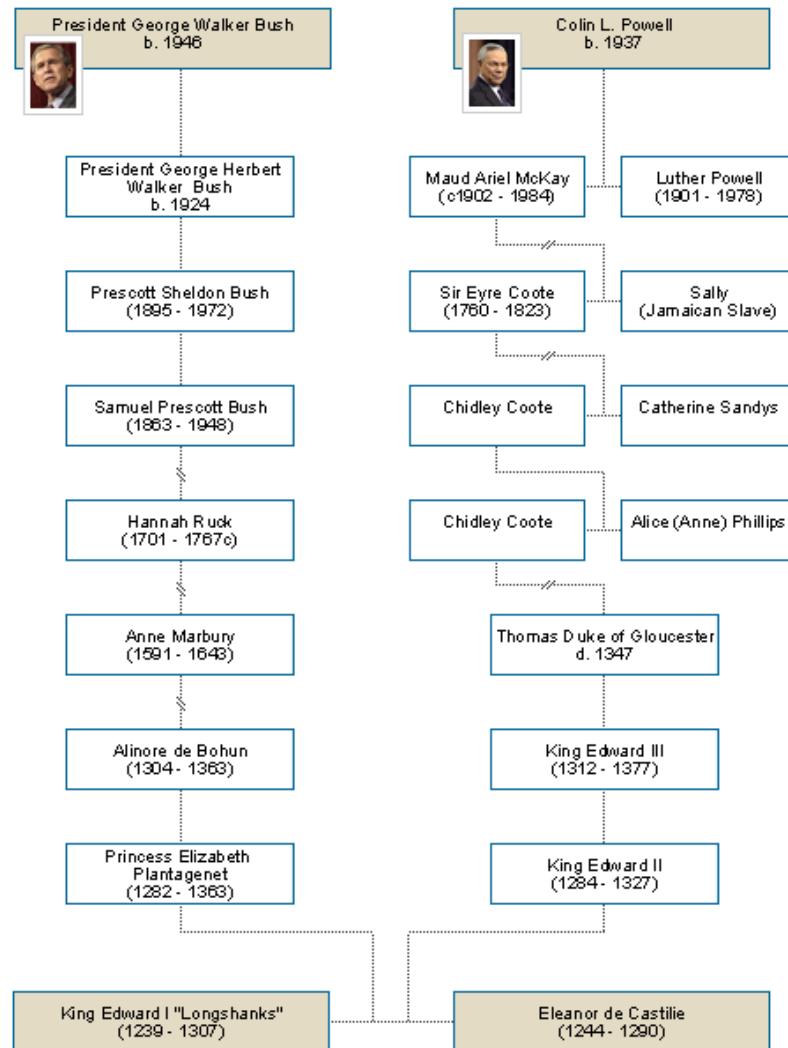

In today's World, three things are certain, i.e. death, usury and taxes. The true Torah, Bible and The Quran (and most likely other books) give particular attention to the first two. Death is not explained in this book. Maybe Commander A-WALL Bush, Sharon & Company could explain why they killed and crippled scores of thousands of innocent people since September 11th 2001, demonstrating no value for the life of their victims, "a number I'm not terribly interested in" said Colin Powell who is also responsible for several massacres in Vietnam or "the price is worth it" said Madeline Albright or its "irrelevant" say the Zionists, or in the words of President Bush's wife Barbara "Why should we hear about body bags and deaths and how many, what day it's gonna happen? It's not relevant. So why should I waste my beautiful mind on something like that?" — George W. Bush's mother Barbara on ABC/Good Morning America, March 18, 2003. I guess it's a bit like ignoring the people who are working for poverty minimum wages or the 50 million people who don't have any health insurance in the United States (as in an ancient Masonic blood sacrifice). In case you're wondering what Bush & Powell are doing together, well, in addition to following the money, follow the bloodlines. The Bush & Kerry family tree is further below. It's all in the family! (see the two sections on the bloodlines of the Illuminati and the US presidents). Please see the two attached family trees for lineage on the next two pages.

Stock Market Money-pulation by them 300 families

<http://hauns.com/~DCQu4E5g/StockMkt.htm> This website's owner worked for a brokerage firm in Los Angeles whose home base was in New York. He was surprised that they knew about and were predicting the stock market crash of the late 1980's at least three years before it happened. The only question they had was whether it would happen in either October or November but they knew the year. They explained how it would happen and how the stock market is rigged. The following structure and function of the stock market was explained. If a person holds 15% or more of any stock, they must do two things when selling or buying that stock. They must inform the company and public that they are making the market move and are limited in how much of the stock they can move at one time. The old money families have united into a syndicate to get around this. The way they do this is as follows. First, they have very large extended families. The family then creates a brokerage account for each individual in the extended family, including in-laws, with one of the brokerage firms which are involved in this collusion. In violation of the law, these accounts are all controlled by one person who is the head of that extended family. In order to keep the individuals silent about these accounts and that they are controlled by one member of the family, each member of the family is provided with a very large trust fund which can be pulled at any moment and from which these people live. It is a form of financial extortion or hush money. This provides the head of the family with absolute control over a large number of accounts through which he can control and quickly move large amounts of any company's financial instruments such as stocks and bonds. These heads of the families (possibly as many as 300 or more) then work with the cooperating brokerage firms in a syndicate to control the stock market. They literally control enough financial instruments for any desired financial instrument for any particular company to make it move up or down at will. They do this by using "ceilings" and "floors." They can easily and legally move small amounts of any instrument from enough accounts to move any company's stock in the desired direction.

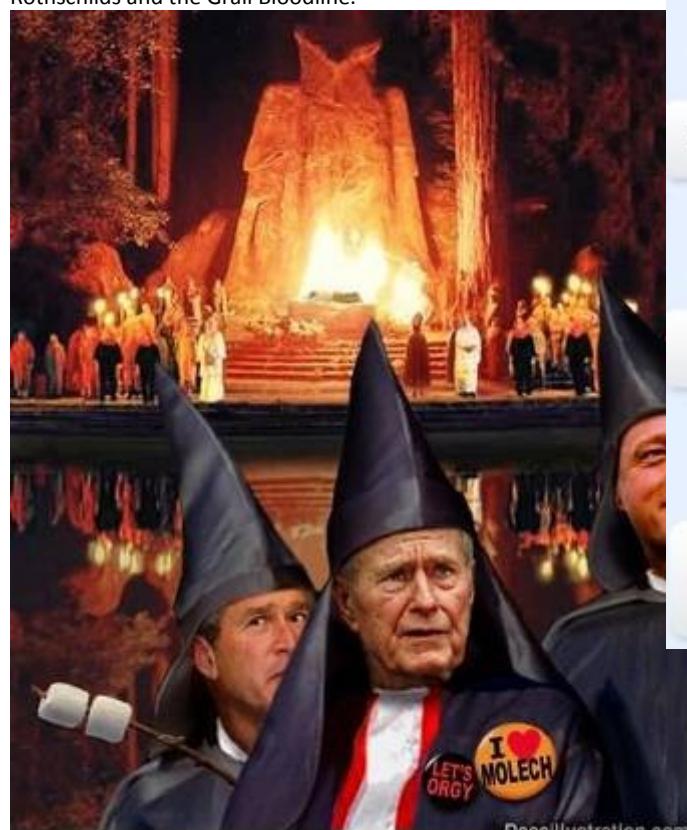

When they want a stock to drop, they place a ceiling of stocks which are selling at decreasing prices to eat up any number of buy orders. When the rest of the people on the market see this dropping ceiling, they panic and sell. This causes the market to crash for that instrument. The syndicate then "catches" the market for that instrument by establishing a floor of buy orders at a pre determined price. These buy orders start out low and continue in price. This causes the rest of the players on the market to start buying the instrument and drive its price up.

The market analyses given by the brokerage firms is just psycho-babble provided to the public as a cover to pull this scam off. The brokers used to sit and make jokes about the psycho-babble and were trained how to do it and told what the "reasons" for a particular instrument fluctuation were to be. There is a person who is supposed to police the stock market. This person is hired and fired by congress and many of the members of this syndicate are also members of congress. If this person should try to stop this action, they would just fire him. You have to remember that the present "police system" for the stock market was created by Joseph Kennedy who is known to have been one of the major crooks who pillaged the stock market prior to the crash of 1929. It was their pillaging and control of the market which caused that crash because their money making got out of control. Permitting Joseph Kennedy to design the police system for the stock market was like permitting the fox to design the security system for the hen house. This syndicate has used these techniques over the past few decades to drive the market up continually in order to build a false confidence by the public in the stock market and draw them into the market. They have driven the stocks up to as much as over 700 times their real market value. It is a sucker punch to the general public. They have developed and permitted easier ways for more people to get into the market to increase the amount of money in the market. They plan on crashing the market and want as much of everyone's money as possible in the market before they crash it. They particularly want the financially and economically ignorant in the market. These people are more prone to panic and drive the market in the desired directions. The higher the price of the stocks, the greater the gain for the syndicate and the greater the loss for the public when the market is finally crashed. This will greatly increase their wealth and greatly increase their RELATIVE wealth over the general public. It is this relative wealth that determines the amount of power a group has.

The increasing fluctuations over the last few years is because this syndicate strategically moves their money out of the market in lots. As soon as they do this, the market crashes to almost nothing making the remaining people in the market broke beyond belief. After the syndicate pulls so much of their money out of the stock market, there isn't enough money left in the market to keep the prices from doing anything but plunging. Many people have been fooled into "keeping their money in the market for the long haul" by the false climbing and psychodribble. Those who don't bail early lose everything. After leaving the firm because I couldn't stomach working there any more, I swore I would never invest so much as a dime in the market.

The Grand Deception Into Feudal Slavery

"There are none so enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free [due to the Elite's mass propaganda]" - Goethe

Have a look at the video: <http://www.notjustnotes.ws/howbanksrobyou.htm> Money as debt, how the Banking Dynasties Rob YOU!

"The essence of all slavery consists in taking the produce of another's labor by force. It is immaterial whether this force be founded upon ownership of the slave or ownership of the money that he must get to live." ~ Leo Tolstoy

Slaves, serfs and taxpayers all refer to conditions of bondage. These conditions all restrict the use of your person and labor. The pre-historic slave's person was controlled so that his labor could be exploited. Today the modern taxpayer's labor is controlled in order to exploit his person. That's progress to some, but it is not freedom. The obvious physical differences between iron chains and psychological conditioning tend to obfuscate the degree of control. These evolving forms of bondage appear on the surface to have led to increased personal freedoms. But they have come at the real cost of diminished economic freedom. Chattel, land and political forms of slavery reflect the increasing sophistication of forced labor institutions. Charles Adams does an excellent job (as always) examining the history of slavery here.

<http://www.fff.org/freedom/0100g.asp>

We are all born as slaves. Why?

1. Instead of being born owning your fair share of the shared planet Earth, you are born inheriting federal, state, county, city, debts.
2. You have no choice but to pay taxes to a government that spends money the way the moneyed elite who run it want to spend it.
3. Most of your taxes go to pay interest to the private Banking Elite Dynasties.
4. The Banking Dynasties own most of the World's wealth.
5. If they could tax you for air, they will. They are already taxing you for water.
6. etc.

"Are we at last brought to such an humiliating and debasing degradation that we cannot be trusted with arms for our own defense? Where is the difference between having our arms under our own possession and under our own direction, and having them under the management of Congress? If our defense be the real object of having those arms, in whose hands can they be trusted with more propriety, or equal safety to us, as in our own hands?" -- Patrick Henry (1736-1799) US Founding Father Source: [3 J. http://quotes.liberty-tree.ca/quote_blog/Patrick.Henry.Quote.B66C Patience please, it takes time to reform peoples and systems, remember, it took centuries before overt serfdom ended in Europe, before the overt institutionalized system of slavery encapsulating Natives and Africans was abolished in North America, it took decades to get rid of the overt apartheid system in South Africa, and the Palestinians are still under an occupying enslavement on their own land. Was a slavery system a wish of the common people? No! However, the elites managed to convince the masses to accept it, just like they are doing today with the financial system and now the so called War on Terrorism which is really a War on All Kinds of Freedoms (shades of George Orwell's 1984, from Uncle Sam to Big Brother!). Don't be intimidated into confusion, doubt, inaction or paralysis by the highly-paid evil genius loud-mouths fanatics of the oil-soaked, spy-riddled monopoly press who work to cover-up and defame the truth uncovered in this book and who "spin" news events with continuous self-praise (see the section on media control in this book to understand the smoke-screens, diversions, stereotyping, half-truths and other techniques used to ridicule and lie about the truth, to degrade and punish the innocent in order to protect the guilty, and to keep the masses and activists busy with distractions and other problems they create in societies to keep people entangled and away from thinking about the real problems explained in this book, etc.

"Make the masses hate them enough and you can carry out genocide to howls of approval". You have to blame bad times on someone, i.e. point the finger at someone else to take suspicion away from you! Negative stereotyping is actually used to facilitate local or foreign policies that the controllers desire. During the first Mediaeval Crusades, the "infidel lands" were conquered using negative stereotyping and fake terror (see details in the appendix on The History of Fake Terror) performed by the occult Gnostics "Assassins" (aka Hassan) who were associated with the Templar Masons ('Assasineen' in Arabic signifies 'guardians', and some commentators have considered this to be the true origin of the word: 'guardians of the secrets', a word picked up by the Masonic crusaders) fakely posing as muslims for the purpose of deflecting attention from the Vatican and Barons who were looting the European masses and to whip public support for launching the Crusades to steal the Middle-Eastern wealth. Note that the same Vatican supported the fascist dictator Mussolini during his looting of the Italian masses and his barbaric conquests in Africa. Then, we have Hollywood, in order to make the masses forget the enslavement of the North American natives and the stealing of their homelands, providing numerous movies and serials on how "The only good Indian is a dead Indian" and stereotyping them as "savages" (a bit like the Romans who called the people they wanted to subdue "barbarians"). Then, to forget the enslavement of the African Americans and make it unpopular to make claims for reparations against slave-owning families, Hollywood provided the image of the lazy and inferior nigger. Then, to provide sympathy for the European Zionists who invaded Palestine and destituted hundreds of thousands of Palestinians, Hollywood provided the image of the persecuted Jew who wants to go to Palestine. Then, since the controllers desired to steal the natural resources of South-East Asia, the image of the inhumane commies was promoted while South-East Asia was carpet bombed and defoliated. In India, we have fanatics demonizing Muslims and this has led to massacres, the latest one being the slaughter of Muslims in Gujarat. This has also led to several mosque demolitions by terrorist mobs, the Babri mosque demolition being the most famous one, carried live on CNN, and it was in fact a rehearsal for the future demolition of the Al-Aqsa mosque in Jerusalem planned by Zionist zealots. Then, we had the staged massacres in Bosnia and Kosovo which led to the control of former Yugoslavian resources by the Illuminati, and now permanent US bases have been established in both Albania and Georgia. Then we have Iran, Iraq and now, since stealing Arab oil and mineral resources are desired by the controllers, the image of the useless Arab is being promoted. In brief, behind the veil of negative stereotyping, we have barbaric military campaigns and sanctions and persecutions applied to control of other people's resources.

John Brady Keisling - Career US Diplomat 27-Feb-2003: "Still, we have not seen such systematic distortion of intelligence, such manipulation of American opinion, since the War in Vietnam".

Before we start into the mechanics of money and banking, let's introduce some basics about the "New World Order (NWO)" whose masters actually control the issue of money.

The materialist theories in Masonic literature are no different from those found in the writings of materialist ideologues such as Marx, Engels and Lenin.

What does the N.W.O. promise? Well, it's kind of like the Romans' or the Imperial British's or Lenin's or Stalin's or Mao's or Hitler's or the emerging American empires. By the way, Lenin and his Zionist friends organized the Bolshevik revolution to overthrow the Tsar of Russia in London with financial assistance from New York in 1903. Note that the Ch'ing dynasty was deposed in China in 1911 by Sun Yat-sen in a similar way and then Mao came along in 1934. In 1912, the Balkan League began the first Balkan War to bring down the Ottoman Empire. In 1932, Franklin D. pledged a "fake" New Deal and promptly made it illegal to own gold in 1933, bought it at a low price and then sold it at a higher price. Note that in 1940, Roosevelt sent General "Wild Bill" Donovan on an information gathering mission to Europe who then recommended the creation of the CIA headed by CFR member Pasbolsky (CFR took control of the US State Dept. in 1945).

In 1921 the stockholders of the Federal Reserve financed an organization called the "Council on Foreign Relations" (CFR). Harpers magazine called this the most powerful organization in the United States. Ninety percent of the people in the State Department and key positions in the Executive Branch are members of the CFR. The CFR publishes a magazine called "Foreign Affairs." Read it if you want to know what is going to happen in coming years. The CFR is in favor of the New World Order.

Eustace Mullins: "As soon as Mr. Roosevelt took office, the Federal Reserve began to buy government securities at the rate of ten million dollars a week for 10 weeks, and created one hundred million dollars in new [checkbook] currency, which alleviated the critical famine of money and credit, and the factories started hiring people again."

So, all these NWOS fraudulently promised to deliver a Better World, Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth, a bit like "organized religions" who love tithing. If in doubt, just check out some of the Nazi era posters around Belgrade (1941). And Hitler's N.W.O. also started well for the downtrodden German people, who were starving and humiliated by the victorious and arrogant WWI allies. But it ended badly, both for the German people and for millions of others around the World. Previously, the Bolsheviks also tried to build their version of a "new World order," supported by New York Zionists and Rockefeller, marketed globally as Communist International, and using slogans such as, "workers of the World unite." Details later in this book. (Note that the Iranian revolution promised economic freedom which never materialized due to the left-over agents of corruption successfully masquerading as religious leaders; shades of Taliban; note that the student ring leaders who took over the US embassy in Tehran were CIA operatives).

Actually, the quest for "new World orders" dates much further back than Bush, Hitler (he was from the Rothschild family), Lenin or Stalin. It goes as far back as one man's ambition to rule another man's life.

Niccolo Machiavelli, for example, wrote in "Prince" (1513): "There is nothing more difficult to plan, more doubtful of success, nor more dangerous to manage, than a creation of a new order of things."

But power-hungry, would-be rulers of the World - from the Pharaohs, to Attila the Hun, to Napoleon, to... rarely pay attention to the words of the wise, or bother to learn from history, rather, they tend to repeat it, usually at their own peril. Which is why every variation of a "new World order" tends to crumble eventually, invariably ending up in a carnage.

David Ben-Gurion in Look magazine and Life magazine of January 1962: The image of the World...as traced in my imagination -- the increasing influence of the farmers and workers, and the rising political influence of men of science, may transform the United States into a welfare state with a planned economy. Western and Eastern Europe will become a federation of autonomous states having a socialist and democratic regime. With the exception of the U.S.S.R. as a federated Eurasian state, all other continents will become united in a World alliance, at whose disposal will be an international police force. All armies will be abolished, and there will be no more wars.

In Jerusalem, the United Nations (A truly United Nations) will build a shrine of the Prophets to serve the federated union of all continents; this will be the seat of the Supreme Court of mankind, to settle all controversies among the federated continents." The New World Order (NWO) of the 1990s, therefore, is nothing more than a modern marketing mask which uses positive words to cover up evil designs of the actually Satanic Illuminati architects, i.e. hiding behind a front of respectability while doing their dirty work and fooling the masses and getting applause!

Norman Dodd said during his testimony on September 26, 1978, quoting Mr. Gaither: "We shall use our grant making power so to alter life in the U.S. that it can be comfortably merged with the Soviet Union."

Zbignew Brzezinski (CFR/TLC member and appointed National Security Advisor during Jimmy Carter's presidency in 1976) in his book "The Grand Chessboard" page 40: "To put it in a terminology that harkens back to the more brutal age of ancient empires, the three grand imperatives of imperial geostrategy are to prevent collusion and maintain security dependence among the vassals, to keep tributaries pliant and protected, and to keep the barbarians from coming together."

Dr. Johannes Koepli, seconded from the German defense ministry to NATO in the late 1970s: "Brzezinski's book is sublimely arrogant. While singing the praises of the IMF and the World Bank, which have economically terrorized nations on every continent, and while totally ignoring the Worldwide terrorist actions of the U.S. government that have led to genocide; cluster bombings of civilian populations from Kosovo, to Laos, to Iraq, to Afghanistan; the development and battlefield use of both biological and chemical agents such as sarin gas; and the financial rape of entire cultures it would leave the reader believing that such actions are for the good of mankind." "In 1983/4 I warned of a take-over of World governments being orchestrated by these people. There was an obvious plan to subvert true democracies, and selected leaders were not being chosen based upon character but upon their loyalty to an economic system run by the elites and dedicated to preserving their power. All we have now are pseudo-democracies."

While, Dr. Johannes Koepli met with Brzezinski in the White House on more than one occasion. His other Washington contacts included Steve Larabee from the CFR, John J. McCloy, former CIA Director, economist Milton Friedman, and officials from Carter's Office of Management and Budget. He soon realized that Brzezinski was part of a group intending to impose a World dictatorship. Koepli recalls meeting U.S. Congressman Larry McDonald, then contemplating a run for the Presidency, who was a severe critic of these elites. He was killed in the Russian shoot down of Korean Air flight 007 in 1983 which Koepli believes might have been an assassination. Koepli warnings, through Op-Ed pieces published in NEWSWEEK and elsewhere, that Brzezinski and the CFR were part of an effort to impose a global dictatorship brought a swift fall from grace. "It was a criminal society that I was dealing with. It was not possible to publish anymore in the so-called respected publications. My 30 year career in politics ended."

Today, this is Koepli's warning: "This is more than a war against terrorism. This is a war against the citizens of all countries. The current elites are creating so much fear that people don't know how to respond. But they must remember. This is a move to implement a World dictatorship within the next five years. There may not be another chance."

Mikhail Gorbachev's speech to the Soviet Politburo November 1987: "Gentlemen, comrads, do not be concerned about all you hear about Glasnost and Perestroika and democracy in the coming years. These are primarily for outward consumption. There will be no significant internal changes in the Soviet Union, other than for cosmetic purposes. Our purpose is to disarm the Americans and let them fall asleep. We want to accomplish three things: One, we want the Americans to withdraw conventional forces from Europe. Two, we want them to withdraw nuclear forces Americans to stop proceeding with strategic Defense Initiative".

Senator Jesse Helms 15 December 1987, Excerpts from his speech before the Senate: This campaign against the American people - against traditional American culture and values - is systematic psychological warfare. It is orchestrated by a vast array of interest comprising not only the Eastern establishment but also the radical left. Among this group we find the Department of State, the Department of Commerce, the money center banks and multinational corporations, the media, the educational establishment, the entertainment industry, and the large tax-exempt foundations. Mr. President, a careful examination of what is happening behind the scenes reveals that all of these interests are working in concert with the masters of the Kremlin in order to create what some refer to as a new World order. Private organizations such as the Council on Foreign Relation, the Royal Institute of International Affairs, the Trilateral Commission, the Dartmouth Conference, the Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies, the Atlantic Institute, and the Bilderberger Group serve to disseminate and to coordinate the plans for this so-called new World order in powerful business, financial, academic, and official circles.... The psychological campaign that I am describing, as I have said, is the work of groups within the Eastern establishment, that amorphous amalgam of wealth and social connections whose power resides in its control over our financial system and over a large portion of our industrial sector. The principal instrument of this control over the American economy and money is the Federal Reserve System. The policies of the industrial sectors, primarily the multinational corporations, are influenced by the money centers through debt financing and through the large blocks of stock controlled by the trust departments of the money center banks. Anyone familiar with American history, and particularly American economic history, cannot fail to notice the control over the Department of State and the Central Intelligence Agency which Wall Street seems to exercise.... The influence of establishment insiders over our foreign policy has become a fact of life in our time. This pervasive influence runs contrary to the real long-term national security of our Nation. It is an influence which, if unchecked, could ultimately subvert our constitutional order. The viewpoint of the establishment today is called globalism. Not so long ago, this viewpoint was called the "one-World" view by its critics. The phrase is no longer fashionable among sophisticates; yet, the phrase "one-World" is still apt because nothing has changed in the minds and actions of those promoting policies consistent with its fundamental tenets. Mr. President, in the globalist point of view, nation-states and national boundaries do not count for anything. Political philosophies and political principles seem to become simply relative. Indeed, even constitutions are irrelevant to the exercise of power. Liberty and tyranny are viewed as neither necessarily good nor evil, and certainly not a component of policy. In this point of view, the activities of international financial and industrial forces should be orientatef to bringing this one-World design - with a convergence of the Soviet and American Systems as its centerpiece - into being.....All that matters to this club is the maximization of profits resulting from the practice of what can be described as finance capitalism, a system which rests upon the twin pillars of debt and monopoly. This isn't real capitalism. It is the road to economic concentration and to political slavery." Helms also wanted to investigate the death of Congressman Larry McDonald in the KAL 007 shoot down.

The words, "New World Order," were first uttered in the contemporary context by the American president George Bush in 1990, when he exulted over the West's supposed victory in the (staged) Cold War with the Soviet Union. His words offered hope ("new") for a better life ("World") ahead; one which would be based on (law and) "order," rather than on raw exercise of power which the Kremlin's "East Side Gang" used in its spheres of influence and control.

President George Bush praises the New World Order in a State of Union Message 1991: "What is at stake is more than one small country, it is a big idea - a new World order ... to achieve the universal aspirations of mankind ... based on shared principles and the rule of lawThe illumination of a thousand points of light The winds of change are with us now."

Instead, the latest edition of the N.W.O. delivered the same old "gun diplomacy" which the Soviets used, only using bigger guns and more diplomacy and propaganda to mask the Illuminati's grab for power. Like the Kremlin-based Soviet East Side Gang, the Wall Street-driven West Side Gang of globalist marauders markets itself under the slogan, "World trade through World peace." Which is a cover for its real motto - "Perpetual commerce (looting) through perpetual war."

Iraq was a new victim. Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, Philippines, Somalia, Haiti, Croatia, Bosnia, Chechnya, Albania, Kosovo, Serbia, Sudan, Afghanistan, East Timor, and then Iraq again... are among some N.W.O. neo-colonial military interventions or civil war provocations. Scores of other countries around the World surrendered their national sovereignties to the N.W.O. voluntarily or surreptitiously, after their quisling leaders took the bait of N.W.O. World Bank or foreign aid dollars and "reforms," a cover term for NWO vassals' silver noose (see the interview with ex-World Bank chief economist describing the secret agreements which force some nations to sell off their assets at 75% off to friends of the N.W.O. later in this book).

John Pilger, 12 Dec 2002: Two years ago a project set up by the men who now surround George W. Bush said what America needed was "a new Pearl Harbor". Its published aims have, alarmingly, come true. The actual quote is as follows: Page 51 of "Rebuilding America's Defenses" says, "Further, the process of transformation, even if it brings revolutionary change, is likely to be a long one, absent of some catastrophic and catalyzing event – like a new Pearl Harbor. Domestic politics and industrial policy will shape the pace and content of transformation as much as the requirements of current missions."

The purpose of the comment was to explain that to a certain extent, the shape of America's military is driven by policy decisions which, in turn, are driven by the perceptions of the American public. The public, "absent of some catastrophic and catalyzing event -- like a new Pearl Harbor," would not support a dramatically different policy regarding the capabilities of the armed forces. Hence, the staging of 9-11 (see the section on Fake Terror where Barry Silverstein, leaseholder of WTC 1, 2, and 7 admits that WTC 7 was actually demolished; the PBS video clip is on the CD as well; one day, they will have to admit that the same happened to WTC 1 & 2).

But "who is who" and "what is what" in this New World Order of the 1990s? We'll find out later in this book.

The rebirth of certain powerful individuals' thirst to rule the World in modern times can be traced back to the late 18th century. Many people have written on the subject of the so-called "Illuminati" ("Enlightened Ones"), but perhaps the most succinct summary of their activities in the last two centuries can be found in a 1965 speech given by a journalist and Broadway playwright, Myron Fagan. The speech was published in 1967 and has since sold millions of copies and the full transcript is available later in this book and the full audio is on the CD. Here's an excerpt:

Myron Fagan 1965: "This satanic plot (New World Order/One World Government) was launched back in the 1760s when it first came into existence under the name 'Illuminati' ('Enlightened'). This Illuminati was organized by one Adam Weishaupt, born a Jew, who converted to Catholicism and became a Catholic priest. At the behest of the then newly organized House of Rothschild, Weishaupt defected Catholicism, became an apostate Satanist and organized the Illuminati. Naturally, the Rothschilds financed that operation and every war since then, beginning with the French Revolution [1789]. The headquarters of the great conspiracy in the late 1700's was in Frankfurt, Germany where the House of Rothschild had been established by Mayer (or Mayer) Amschel who adopted the Rothschild name and linked together other international financiers who had literally sold their souls to the devil.

After the Bavarian government's exposure in 1786 (of the Illuminati's intent to start the French Revolution), the conspirators moved their headquarters to Switzerland, then to London."

As is the case with unscrupulous Bankers and industrialists whose only motive is Greed, Rothschild's dynasties have reportedly sometimes financed both sides of a war. Such as in the case of WW II and Hitler's Third Reich, for example, one of their former clients, (along with grandpa Bush who also traded with the Nazis). It was certainly a winning strategy for war profiteers with no morals. They win no matter who loses the war. But only in a material sense. Just as the "death merchants" and their financiers of the wars of the 1990s did. Meanwhile, back to Myron Fagan...

"Since World War II (after Jacob Schiff, the Rothschild's errand boy in America, who organized and funded the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia), the headquarters of the American branch has been in the Harold Pratt Building in New York City, and the Rockefellers, originally protégés of Schiff, have taken over the manipulation of finances in America for the Illuminati... They have been promoting the Illuminati operating under various names and guises. I say under various names and guises because after the Illuminati was exposed and became notorious (and thus ineffective as a secret society), Weishaupt and his (subsequent) co-conspirators began to operate under various other names. In the United States, immediately after World War I, they set up what they called the 'Council on Foreign Relations,' commonly referred to as the CFR. This CFR is actually the Illuminati in the United States and its hierarchy."

"The Federal Reserve System is in the wrong hands. No Constitutional republic can function when the government's money powers are in the hands of the financial oligarchy such as New York financiers." Source: Banking Act of 1935, Hearings before a Subcommittee of the Banking and Currency Committee, U.S. Senate, 74th Congress, 1st Session, on S.1715, May 1935, pp 871-2.

A Republican Senator, who preferred to remain unnamed, stated: "Congress is too much motivated by fears and anxieties concerning pressure groups and the "non election." (Reference 1, P. 210) By controlling Congress, the FED has been able to control the nominating conventions of both political parties. In this way, it has been able to hand-pick the presidential nominees so that no matter which party wins, their nominee for President is under definite obligations to the FED... (Reference 1, P. 210; Reference 22)

In 1975, the Rockefeller Foundation Report discussed the "Interdependence" of the countries of the World on each other. It stated we are one World and America shall become a nation-state under one government. They also say we must reach a zero state population growth. The Rockefeller Foundation stated that they have in excess of 747 million dollars to achieve this with. (Reference 3).

Congressman John R. Rarick states that the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) is dedicated to a one World government. The media remains conspicuously quiet. The CFR wants to convert the U.S. from a sovereign, constitutional republic into a servile member state of a one World dictatorship.

On February 17, 1950, CFR member James Warburg (banker, and architect of the Federal Reserve System) stated before a Senate Foreign Relations Committee, "We shall have one World government whether or not you like it, by conquest or consent." Again, the media remained silent. In the April 1974 issue of the CFR journal, "Foreign Affairs", page 558, Richard Gardener states that the new World order "will be built... but an end run around national sovereignty, eroding it piece by piece, will accomplish much more than the old fashioned frontal assault." Congressman McDonald, Heinz and Tower stated that this is a conspiracy. Again, the media remained silent. (Reference 14, P. 17, 18, 32, 33). THE CFR WANTS TO ABOLISH THE CONSTITUTION. (Reference 14) WE MUST STOP THEM!!

Relationship of The Various Illuminati Infiltrated Fronts \(diagram above\)

President Franklin D. Roosevelt said, "In government nothing happens by accident. If it happens you can bet it was planned that way". He should know, he went along with the plan to give our gold to the Illuminati Bankers! (more on this later). The formation of the U.N. in 1945 was the penultimate achievement of the West Side Gang. It was a pinnacle which had eluded their cruder, less perfidious, but no less brutal, Kremlin-based East Side brethren who were coerced into joining the U.N. party for a while until they "lost" the "Cold War" to a more perfidious gang. Then, the U.N. became a mere fig leaf for the West Side Gang's colonial ambitions. See the relationship diagram below.

By the way, much of the silver and gold (REAL MONEY) from the U.S. is presently in Switzerland, guarded for the "Illuminati Bank of Rome" by the Swiss Guard. Switzerland has served as a neutral meeting place for the World-wide Illuminati plotters and banking since at least 1812 when Switzerland declared neutrality (how convenient to become a neutral zone for the World's dirty business)!. [Left: Swiss Guard]

United Nation's World Constitution: "...The age of nations must end... The governments of the nations have decided to order their separate sovereignties into one government to which they surrender their arms."

United nations Secretary General Kofi Annan: "It has been said that arguing against globalization is like arguing against the law of gravity".

The communist apparatchiks, such as Serbia's president, Slobodan Milosevic, were also on board with the UN/NWO elite for a while. In a November 1993 article titled "Plutocracy Is Alive and Well in America," Milosevic is quoted to have said during a meeting at his office in Belgrade in January 1990: "I remember meeting (David) Rockefeller as well as (Larry) Eagleburger (the former U.S. Secretary of State) at a gala party to mark the opening of our New York branch (i.e., in Jan/90)." And even though Eagleburger was an important government official, while Rockefeller was 'only' a businessman, I noticed that Eagleburger called Rockefeller 'Sir,' while Rockefeller called Eagleburger 'Larry.'"

DAVID ROCKEFELLER WITH A BIG SMILE, HIS BOSS, ACCEPTS KHRUSHCHEV'S URGENT INVITATION TO VISIT HIM AT THE KREMLIN (Manchurian Candidate anyone?)

"It takes one to know one," goes the old saw. Maybe Milosevic, the power-thirsty Communist banker, who bullied his way into Serbian presidency, figured out who really runs the American plutocracy masquerading as democracy - the men and women from the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) and the Trilateral Commission (TLC). The Trilateral Commission was founded under the direction of David Rockefeller, with Jimmy Carter, Walter Mondale, Henry Kissinger, and the DuPonts among the founding members. Barry Goldwater (a John Bircher) said that the Trilateral Commission was "David Rockefeller's latest scheme to take over the World, by taking over the government of the United States".

David Rockefeller, the 'Sir' in the Milosevic-Eagleburger conversation, is sort of the 'Big Cheese,' the grand patriarch of the American foreign policy, who 'owns' people around him. Using the CFR and the TLC as instruments of power, Rockefeller and his associates have nearly all the political and media bases covered. In the end, it does not matter whether Republicans or the Democrats win. Either way, it will be the (Rockefeller) 'insiders' who will run the show in Washington.

Which makes the 'World's greatest democracy' a little more than an intra-squad competition with the score always predetermined by the 'Big Cheese' and his cohorts! "If Milosevic had figured all this out (in the 1980s when major banking deregulations took place), it could help explain why he treated the U.S. government representatives, like Warren Zimmermann, the former U.S. ambassador to Yugoslavia, for example, or Lawrence Eagleburger, the former Secretary of State, with such disdain. Unlike most Americans, Milosevic may have realized that he was dealing with mere minions, not with men of power". Any student of globalism must also watch the moves of the Bilderberger Group, formed in 1954, and named after a Dutch hotel in Oosterbeek, at which the first meeting of this global-international international elite. Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands, at the time an important figure in the oil industry who held major positions in Royal Dutch Petroleum (Shell Oil), and in Société Générale de Belgique, a powerful global banking corporation, was the key European sponsor of the Bilderberger idea. The Rockefeller family, whose Standard Oil and its offshoots was technically a competitor of Shell, co-sponsored the idea from the American side. No wonder, therefore, that right from day one, the Bilderberger agenda reflected first and foremost the interests of the oil industry. By the way, it was at the Bilderbergers 1996 meeting at a resort near Toronto (King City), that the fate of Kosovo was sealed, according to John Whitley, a British-born political analyst and Bilderberger watcher who now makes his home in Toronto (see S99-23, Day 10, Update 2, Item 3, Apr. 2).

Meanwhile, here's a quick "NWO Quiz" for YOU. Name four individuals who are members of all three leading globalist organizations - the CFR, the Trilateral Commission, and the Bilderbergers. Answer: David Rockefeller, Henry Kissinger, Bill Clinton and Lou Gerstner, IBM chairman. But the global R&R duo, the Rothschilds and the Rockefellers, the Rex and the Regina of the New World Order, could not project their power through the above no-longer-so-secret societies without the help of the "Barons of the 20th Century," the leaders of the multinational corporations who stand to benefit the most from globalism and totalitarianism which it entails. Enter the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse, the four prongs of the New World Order - the "Death Merchant"-Gangsters, the Banksters, the Pranksters and the Hucksters.

Myron C. Fagan in 1967: "World War III is to be fomented, using the so-called controversies; by the agents of the Illuminati operating under whatever new name; that are now being stored up between the political Zionists and the leaders of the Moslem World. That war is to be directed in such a manner that all of Islam and political Zionism (Israelis) will destroy each other while at the same time; the remaining nations, once more divided on this issue, will be forced to fight themselves into a state of complete exhaustion; physically, mentally, spiritually, and economically." Now can any thinking person doubt that the intrigue now going on in the near Middle and Far-East is designed to accomplish that satanic objective? Pike himself foretold all this in an alleged statement he made to Mazzini on August 15, 1871. Pike stated that after World War III is ended; those who will aspire to undisputed World-domination will provoke the greatest social-cataclysm the World has ever known. Quoting his own words taken from the letter he wrote to Mazzini and which letter is now catalogued in the British Museum in London, England; he said: "We shall unleash the nihilists and the atheists and we shall provoke a great social-cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to all nations the effect of absolute-atheism; the origins of savagery and of most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the people will be forced to defend themselves against the World-minority of the World-revolutionaries and will exterminate those destroyers of civilization and the multitudes disillusioned with Christianity whose spirits will be from that moment without direction and leadership and anxious for an ideal, but without knowledge where to send its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal-manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer brought finally out into public view. A manifestation which will result from a general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and Atheism; both conquered and exterminated at the same time." Mazzini died in 1872. For the full text of the speech, please see section 13 or to listen to the two hours 1960s talk, check the audio files on the CD.

knowingly or naively (some of them very bright evil geniuses and some relatively dummies like Bush, Sharon, Arafat, Hitler, etc.), will tell you that conspiracy plans for a one-World tyrannical totalitarian enslaving dictatorship don't exist, that lone people are responsible for important murders such as Presidents Harrison, Zachary Taylor, Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley and John F. Kennedy, Robert Kennedy, JFK Junior, Martin Luther King, Malcolm X, Ytsak Rabin, Swedish Foreign Minister Anna Lyndh, etc., that Sharon is a man of peace (notice how the witnesses who were supposed to testify at his war crimes tribunal were killed lately!), that Palestinians must not be allowed to return to their homeland, that War is Peace, Slavery is Freedom, and Ignorance is Strength (remember George Orwell's book "1984", Big Brother is Watching You, Report Thought crime, and don't forget the Ministry of Truth!), etc. etc. etc.

In the above photograph, you will note that there are three agents of the Illuminati working unexpectedly together! The Illuminati, behind the scenes, control all sides in conflicts and decide the outcome.

As an example, one of the purposes of the Cold war was to have an excuse for a massive arms build-up to conquer the rest of the World for the Illuminati. Among other purposes were driving the World further into debt to be at the mercy of the Illuminati Bankers (conflict + war = mega-money) and experimenting with monopoly-capitalism (economic slavery). Illuminati ensure that all religions are fanaticized to discredit them (ancient church tortures, crusades, inquisitions, etc.) and make people accept their ancient Occult Masonic idolatry Sun god worship. In the ancient Roman Empire's days, diversions were done by entertaining the Romans in large amphitheatres with gladiators, with physical slaves, and by throwing Christians who were asking for good reforms to the lions. This kept the Roman masses distracted and happy. Today, we have many diversions such as the news media, television, sports and Hollywood entertainment that take our time away from learning and thinking about what is really happening in the World.

G. Edward Griffin explains (details later in several sections of this book) how the owners of the privately controlled central bank known as the US Federal Reserve use their power to create money tax-free and use their unauditible profits to acquire control over the power centers of society, i.e. those groups and institutions through which individuals live and act and rely on for their information. They are buying control over the organizations, groups and institutions that control people, politicians, political parties, television networks, cable networks, newspapers, magazines, publishing houses, wire services, motion picture studios, universities, labor unions, church organizations, trade associations, tax-exempt foundations, multi-national corporations, boy scouts, girl scouts, you name it, and particularly over those organizations that represent opposition to themselves. This process has gone on not only to a marked degree in America and in the other industrialized nations of the World, but it has gone on in the underdeveloped nations to such a degree that we would say the process is now complete. They own these countries already. The money goes to the politicians of those countries, to their governments and the money is spent to strengthen their power structures, their ability to control their populations. They create a well-equipped army (note the $30 billion for hiring mercenaries to train the new armies in Afghanistan and Iraq), a better bureaucracy, for total control of their subjects. That's where the money's being spent.

"Hundreds of billions of dollars are spent every year to control the public mind". —Prof Noam Chomsky

"If they can get you asking the wrong questions, they don't have to worry about the answers." —— Thomas Pynchon, Gravity's Rainbow.

THINKING MEN ARE HARDER TO FOOL! "The most powerful weapon in the hands of the oppressors is the mind of the oppressed..." -Steven Biko. A United States Senate Committee (Church committee) reported in 1976 that the CIA was able to sway public opinion by secretly employing at least fifty American journalists who could be expected to publish reports consistent with agency goals. (Church Comm.) The New York Times (12-25-26-27-1977) reported that the C.I.A. owns outright over 200 newspapers, magazines, wire services, and 26 publishing houses that operate in countries throughout the World. THE U.S. STATE SECURITY APPARATUS AND ITS VICTIMS. (many more quotes in the section on media control later in this book & in the appendix).

It takes great courage for a person with inside knowledge to spill the beans about secret plans and secret agreements between agents of evil because of threats to the well-being of the exposer. However, some people do find the courage such as the World Bank's former chief economist, Joe Stiglitz, whose 2002 interview with Greg Palast (American BBC correspondent) is available in this book. This book also contains exposes from several other people who have spilled the beans on evil. The information presented in this book clearly reveals the cruel, evil and enslaving nature of money creation by the privately owned and controlled mega-banking dynasties all the way up to the World Bank and IMF (read the interview with Greg Palast later in the book). In his book "Wealth, Virtual Wealth and Debt", The 1921 Nobel chemistry laureate Frederick Soddy describes this as a perpetual motion machine, growing larger in girth every day without any apparent satiable limit. What do such enormous disconnects between reality and virtual wealth really mean? How do we make sense of it? Where does it leave us? How does it end? Read on to discover!

The Pyramids Of Slavery

Systems of physical and economic slavery (see Pharaonic structure diagram above; compare with Masonry and Hindu caste systems), both monetary and bondage, were perfected in Babylon with Nimrod (Masonry), used by the ancient Pharaohs and the Roman empire, carried on with the British Slave Trade, with the enslavement of North and South American Natives, then with the Africans kidnapped for slavery to North America, and slavery is still being carried on in Chinese prisons! What is the common thread to all this? Yes, the Illuminati dynasties (see <http://sinfinity.net> for full details on the Rothschild ancestry and how they have become the modern day Nimrod whereas Rockefellers are the modern day Pharaohs; see also the section later on the bloodlines of the Illuminati) led by the Rothschilds! In the pyramid depiction below, what they neglected to teach us in school is that near the top are the priests whose job is to brainwash and collect taxes and tithes from the masses.

The Forgotten Slaves: Whites in Servitude in Early America and Industrial Britain

The existence of White slavery in America, in addition of the Africans and Native Americans, is one of the most little-known facts of American history. Initially, colonial America was built with the blood, sweat and tears of White slaves <http://free.freespeech.org/americanstateterrorism/bibliographies/WhiteSlavery.html>

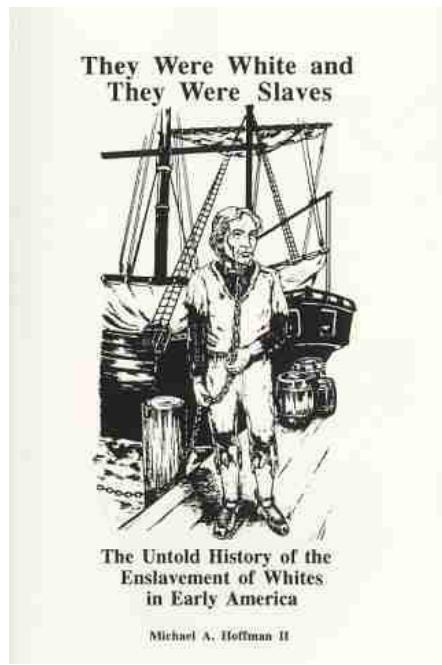

It's estimated that fully one-half to two-thirds of all White "immigrants" to colonial America in the 17th and 18th centuries were actually slaves who had been brought against their will. They were known by the euphemism of "indentured servants", but in reality a great many of these people were true slaves. Their servitude was for life, and their children were forced to be slaves as well. Remember, in those times Europe was still a master-servant society. Virtually all of the White slaves were brought from Scotland, Ireland and the impoverished working classes of England. They were both Protestant and Catholic, victims of religious wars and the inhuman greed of the English aristocracy. It was routine for the utterly corrupt and class-prejudiced English courts to justify the forced exile of their victims to the colonies by falsely labeling them as "criminals". This charade eased the guilty consciences of the true criminals while they made money off kidnapping and the sale of stolen human labor.

If the White slaves survived the hellish voyage across the Atlantic and arrived in the "New World", they were auctioned on the block just like Black slaves. White slave children were often sold and separated from their parents and White slave women were sold and separated from their husbands. A great many White slaves were forced to work under cruel and demeaning conditions. The Virginia Colony prescribed "bodily punishment for not heeding the commands of the master." Half of the White slaves died within the first two years after their arrival in the American colonies. Unsurprisingly, it was common for White slaves to run away — only to be hunted down and returned to their evil masters and mistresses. To help identify runaways, the courts in Virginia demanded that everyone have identification and travel papers. White slaves had no rights whatsoever and could be beaten and cruelly abused with impunity.

"Up to one-half of all the arrivals in the American colonies were White slaves and they were America's first slaves. These Whites were slaves for life, long before Blacks ever were. This slavery was even hereditary. White children born to White slaves were enslaved too." <http://www.hoffman-info.com/forgottenslaves.html> .

"Whites were auctioned on the block with children sold and separated from their parents and wives sold and separated from their husbands." White Slavery-what the Scots already know http://www.electricscotland.com/history/other/white_slavery.htm ."There were hundreds of thousands of Scots sold into slavery during Colonial America. White slavery to the American Colonies occurred as early as 1630 in Scotland." White Slavery — What Really Happened <http://www.youngbnp.com/White%20Slavery.htm> .

"...according to historian John Van Der Zee: 'Between one half and two thirds of all Whites who came to the New World between 1609 and the early 19th century were slaves.'

"These White slaves came in the millions from the shores of the British Isles, in the form of deported convicts, political prisoners, and kidnapped children. 'Transportation' to the New World or Australia was a common punishment up until the late 1800s, and orphans have been sent to Australia as late as the 1950s.

"In 1618 the Council of London passed a bill legalizing the capture of vagrant children, aged eight or older. These homeless children were to be sent to Virginia, where they would be indentured as slaves for fourteen to sixteen years. After this, the slaves were to be released and given land. Promises like these were common. 'Indentured servants', or White slaves, as they should be called, rarely saw their benefits. The term of service was often extended, and many of the boys and girls who were captured died in slavery." Indentured Servitude in Colonial America by Deanna Barker http://www.geocities.com/nai_cilh/servitude.html

"One half to two thirds of all immigrants to Colonial America arrived as indentured servants. At times, as many as 75% of the population of some colonies were under terms of indenture. Even on the frontier, according to the 1790 U.S. Census, 6% of the Kentucky population was indentured."

"In theory, the person is only selling his or her labor. In practice, however, indentured servants were basically slaves and the courts enforced the laws that made it so. The treatment of the servant was harsh and often brutal. In fact, the Virginia Colony prescribed 'bodily punishment for not heeding the commands of the master.' (Ballagh, 45) Half the servants died in the first two years. As a result of this type of treatment, runaways were frequent. The courts realized this was a problem and started to demand that everyone have identification and travel papers. (A.E. Smith 264-270)."

Incredibly, another form of ancient slavery is alive in America and the rest of the World today! This is in addition to the modern form of financial slavery which has been discussed already. On April 2, 2000, the New York Times printed a story about a leaked CIA report which describes a flourishing slave trade that forcibly brings an estimated 50,000 women and children into the United States — each year — to serve as sex slaves, domestic slaves and so-called "bonded workers" <http://www.wsbs.org/articles/2000/apr2000/slav-a03.shtml>. It turns out the Dark Ages have actually never ended for large numbers of people in this modern World. The CIA report is titled International Trafficking in Women to the United States: a Contemporary Manifestation of Slavery. Many women and children of all races — from Eastern Europe, Asia, Africa and Latin America — are lured to America with false promises of jobs and educational opportunities. When they arrive they are forced to work as prostitutes in brothels or in sweatshops, or to work as maids and sex slaves at the private estates of extremely rich people. Gives new meaning to the term "filthy rich". Some children, born into nightmarish poverty, are actually sold into slavery by their parents — and these children end up in America as real slaves. It's painful and frightening to discover this. But if we are going to do something about it then we have to face it. This is America's hidden side. If you live in New York City, Miami, Los Angeles or any of the other urban areas, you live in a town where women and children are actually held as slaves — being raped, beaten and tortured on a regular basis. And sometimes murdered. Forget the Disneyland version of America they sell you on T.V. and in school. In the real World, America has a hidden deeply and violently evil place.

The American legal system does little or nothing to stop the slave trade. This is because the American legal system is controlled by the American plutocracy, and the wealthy rulers of this country are totally indifferent to the horrors of slavery in America. Now why would that be? Might it be that some of the most wealthy and powerful people in America are involved in these crimes? Since they have no interest in stopping it, it's highly likely they are indeed personally involved. Have a look at the 1995 video documentary on the CD with this book that was pulled off the Discovery Channel showing the high-ranking politicians who were involved in a child abuse ring. The international slave trade is committed by organized crime. This is why the criminal American plutocracy and its puppets in the U.S. government do nothing to stop it. The American corporate/banking plutocracy is literally a mafia, the World's greatest mafia in fact, and it is quite natural for them to work closely with lesser mafias. These include the Japanese Yakuza and Chinese Triads, and of course the well known Italian-American and Sicilian-American mafias which operate from coast to coast. One brothel owner in New York City testified that she had paid $6,000 – $15,000 for the 30 Thai women she kept imprisoned in her brothel <http://www.wsbs.org/articles/1999/sep1999/slav-s09.shtml>.

And then there is the less well known "Russian" mafia, as it is called in the American press, which is actually a Russian-Zionist mafia. The fact that the "Russian" mafia is actually Zionist (using a Jewish front) is totally censored by the corporate mass-media in America. This is a very clear indication of which segment of the American plutocracy controls the corporate mass-media. The Russian-Zionist mafia began arriving in the U.S. in the 1980s, particularly New York City and Miami, helped by the already established powerful Zionist-American organizations. Its power increased dramatically in the 1990s after the collapse of the Soviet Union. The Russian government and economy are influenced by the Russian-Zionist mafia. Most of the Communists running the Soviet Union were Zionists. It is the <http://free.freespeech.org/americanstateterrorism/bibliographies/WhiteSlavery.html#JewishSlaveTrade> Russian-Zionist mafia which has exclusive control of the slave trade in Eastern European women and children. They are taken from all over Eastern Europe, but most of the victims are from the Ukraine, Poland and Russia. They end up as sex slaves all over the World, in Israel to a great extent, and also in Britain, France, Italy, Germany, Turkey, Thailand, former Yugoslavia — and the United States of America. If they resist being prostitutes, the sex slaves who are under the direct control of the various mafias are always beaten, tortured, starved and/or violently raped by the pimps. The most stubbornly resisting women are brutally murdered in front of the others to terrorize them into submission. Those who remain alive often get AIDS from the filthy pimps or the stinking customers. Jews and the White Slave Trade by Dr. William Pierce <http://www.jeffarchive.com/primer/Jews%20and%20the%20White%20Slave%20Trade.htm>

"I don't mean to imply that the Jews were the only ones at fault in the White slave trade. Gentile politicians and police officials gladly accepted bribes from the Jews and in return allowed them to carry on their dirty business. And in the United States non-Jewish criminal elements such as the [Italian/Sicilian] Mafia collaborated with the Jews or even ran their own White slave operations. But the trade in White slaves from Eastern Europe has been an exclusively Jewish activity for the last 200 years."

"The White slave trade is big business in Israel. Ukrainian authorities estimate that as many as 40,000 Ukrainian women under the age of 30 are taken from Ukraine each year. Some of these women respond to advertisements promising employment abroad, like Irina did, and some are simply kidnapped and smuggled out of the country. Those who try to escape from their Jewish captors are treated brutally. Often they are butchered in front of other captive women to keep the others terrified into doing whatever they are told."

"There are 'more slaves alive today than all the people stolen from Africa in the time of the transatlantic slave trade,' writes Kevin Bales. He estimates there are more than 27 million people 'enslaved by violence and held against their wills for purposes of exploitation' and the number is increasing..."

"As many as 50,000 Thai women work as prostitutes in Japan. Many work as exotic dancers and bar girls in Europe and the US. One brothel owner in New York City testified she had paid $6,000-$15,000 for the 30 Thai women imprisoned in her brothel."

Millions of our fellow human beings of all races — men, women and children — are actually suffering in slavery. And a great many of them, primarily women and children, are being imprisoned and cruelly abused right here in the United States of America. Therefore, we in America have an absolute moral responsibility to put a stop to it and bring the filthy perpetrators to justice — no matter how rich and powerful they are. Slavery actually is a part of the hellish reality of this satanically evil World. We have to face it even though the corporate mass-media refuses to. Aside from sporadic reports, it's all basically ignored and covered up in the mainstream American mass-media. A few investigative reporters are doing their jobs, but the editors, managers and owners are generally suppressing the story. The owners of the mass-media don't care about the suffering of these enslaved women and children, because the media owners are the filthy-rich American plutocracy — which is profiting enormously from all this degraded evil.

It's certainly understandable that she is very upset about the Zionist-Mafia slave trade, but it is totally unfair and unreasonable to blame all Jewish people for the crimes of a few Zionists who pretend to be Israelites Judeans. In fact, some of the reports indicate that there are Jewish women who are fighting the White slave trade which flourishes in Israel. Yet the significance of that important fact seems to have escaped the compiler of the reports above. Nevertheless, these pages on her site are useful for containing a wealth of important information, excerpts and links to reports from all the news, governmental and NGO groups listed above.)

Israel is the Rothschilds' Hexagram State

Lord Rothschild in his book The Shadow of a Great Man quotes a letter sent from Davidson on June 24, 1814 to Nathan Rothschild: "As long as a house is like yours, and as long as you work together with your brothers, not a house in the World will be able to compete with you, to cause you harm or to take advantage of you, for together you can undertake and perform more than any house in the World." The closeness of the Rothschild brothers is seen in a letter from Saloman (Salmon) Rothschild to his brother Nathan on Feb. 28, 1815, "We are like the mechanism of a watch: each part is essential." This closeness is further seen in that of the 18 marriages made by Mayer Amschel Rothschild's grandchildren 16 were contracted between first cousins.

The Knesset and the Israeli Supreme Court (front cover of this book, a totally Masonic design) were designed and paid for by the Rothschilds. One of the Rothschilds in his will left money for ongoing building projects in Israel, and the Rothschilds are honored with a Street named after them in Jerusalem. Don't be fooled by appearances!!! Israel is the Illuminati's Rothschild state and its flag carries the symbol of the House of Rothschild (not of Judaism), i.e. the Hexagram which is known as the Star of Moloch in Babylonian Masonic idolatry (a lot more details in the following sections and the appendixes and references).

(▽) (Δ) combined in the congress are represented in by the Hexagram of the magicians ☷ which has nothing to do with the Prophet King David and Judaism but is related to David Al Roy, a 16th Century anti-Christ and the Rothschild. More on this later.

Bush pays respect to the Hexagram, Masonic Satanic symbol falsely known as the Star of David.

Where do you think is the best place to hide for a pedophile? How about as a priest! Where do you think is the best place to hide for a Nazi? You guessed right if you selected a human rights group. What do you think is one of the many ways to hush people up about the billions that the Illuminati banking dynasties are making from the banking system fraud? How about charitable foundations! What is another way to direct money by the mega-rich Illuminati for carrying on propaganda in addition to main media control? You guessed right if you thought of tax exempt foundations! What is the best disguise for an infiltrator? You guessed it, pose as a fanatic and steer the members towards fanaticism! What's the best place for an anti-Semite to hide? Yes, as a Zionist! What is the best way to conceal and carry on evil plans? Behind appearances of respectability! What's the best way to bring down a nation? Behind the front of patriotism! What is the best way to carry on an un-American agenda? By wrapping yourself in the flag! What is the best way to "Make The World Safe" for an inhuman corporate PLUTOCRACY? Behind the self-proclaimed champion of "human rights" and "democracy"? What is the best way for Zionists to hide their Barbaric Fanaticism? By creating other fanatics and pointing at them! What is the best front to hide the emerging Satanic Illuminati Luciferian Masonic New World Order? Judaism and Israel!

Jack Bernstein, at the end of his great expose on Zionists (full text later in this book) challenges them to refute his statements. He says "I am well aware of the tactics YOU, my Zionist brethren, use to quiet anyone who attempts to expose any of your subversive acts. If the person is a gentile, you cry, "you're anti-Semitic," which is nothing more than a smokescreen to hide your actions. But if a Jew is the person doing the exposing, you resort to other tactics: * First, you ignore the charges, hoping the information will not be given widespread distribution. * If the information starts reaching too many people, you ridicule the information and the person or persons giving the information. * If that doesn't work, your next step is character assassination. If the author or speaker hasn't been involved in sufficient scandal, you are adept at fabricating a scandal against the person or persons. * If none of these are effective, you are known to resort to physical attacks. But NEVER do you try to prove the information wrong. So, before you commence efforts to silence me, I offer this challenge: You Zionists assemble a number of Zionists and witnesses to support your position; and I will assemble a like number of anti-Zionist, pro-American witnesses. Then, the Zionists and anti-Zionists will state their positions and debate the material in this book as well as related material – and the debate WILL BE HELD ON PUBLIC TELEVISION. Let's explore the information both sides can present and let the American people decide for themselves if the information is true or false. ISN'T THAT A FAIR CHALLENGE? Certainly, you will willingly accept the challenge if what I have written is false. But if you resort to crying "Lies, all lies" and refuse to debate, you will, in effect, be telling the American people that what I have written here are the true facts." Since they cannot challenge the facts, they resort to distortions, extortions, ridicule, distractions, or diversions with red-herrings and other events or staged events such as terror or hype.

<http://www.veteransforcommonsense.org/newsArticle.asp?id=1442> In the brilliant words of a 15 year old who wished she could vote just to get Bush out of the office, why?: "Bush has allowed big corporations to loot this great nation of mine.... This war is all about the powerful oil industry wanting to take control of the World and has been successful in using American tax dollars to fund their agenda. The oil industry has been successful because they are using Bush with his rhetoric of terrorism, national security, and other religion deception that attracts many Christians." If a 15-year-old could see through this whole thing, why can't many others? They are caught in the web of deception from which I am attempting to free them through this compiled book. Let's take our countries back from these mega-banking dynasties and their enforcers and stooges.

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE Action of Second Continental Congress, July 4, 1776: Using the Freedom of Speech, WHEN in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the Political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent Respect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the Separation. We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness -- That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

We are Slaves! Who owns us? Who gets to choose our slave masters?

"Like it or not, you are a slave. You admit you are a slave every April 15th! That's when you sign forms that "voluntarily" lay bare to the government the most private details of your life! And few people realize the income tax is a slave tax. It can never be compatible with the life of a free people". ALAN KEYES - Republican Nominee for President, unfortunately, the only Republican willing to speak out.

By Michael Rivero from <http://www.Whatreallyhappened.com> . I know that's not what you want to hear but it is the unpleasant truth. Movies and public school like to portray slaves as bound by chains and beaten with whips, creating a polarized image of slavery but history shows that slaves have been treated in all manner of ways, some more cruel than others, yet even with the most kind treatment, a slave remains a slave. Setting aside the stereotyped image of a slave as a bleeding chain-bound wretch, slaves throughout history are often hard to recognize. In some cases, such as the Medieval Serfs upto the 1850s, they were held slaves to the rulers and did not see themselves as slaves even though they were treated as such. The favored slaves of Asian potentates wore jewels to make a movie star gasp, yet were still slaves for all their finery and comfort. So, what is a slave? How do we define a slave? What test do we use to tell if someone is a slave. What makes them different from free people? Free people can say "no". Free people can refuse demands for their money, time, and children. Slaves cannot. There is no freedom without the freedom to say "no". If someone demands that you do something and you can say "no" and refuse to do it, then you are a free human being. If you can be forced to do something or surrender something that you do not wish to, then We are slaves. When you are forced to surrender half your life's work to the government in ever-increasing taxes, then We are slaves. Throughout history, slaves were expected to perform the work needed for their own upkeep, then perform additional work for the rulers. For Roman slaves, the ratio of work-for-self versus work-for-rulers was about 50-50. The same ratio applied to Medieval Serfs, and even to the slaves of the American south. And, when you add up all the overt taxes, covert fees, tariffs, excises, plus the increased price you pay for products to pay the taxes of the companies that make those products, you will find that Americans are at that same "half-for-self" versus "half-for-rulers" ratio! Can you say "no" to the confiscation of half of your life? Can you even get the masters to maybe reduce the burden by a significant amount? No? We are slaves.

The masters have decided they want wars on anyone living over oil. The idea is that it is better for American corporations to steal the oil they need than to pay for it. Millions of Americans (and millions more around the globe) did not want the war, but the masters started them anyway, by lying to the people. Could you refuse the war? Can you refuse being lied to? No? We are slaves. The rulers want your children for their future wars. Legislation for a draft is already in Congress. Can you refuse the confiscation of your children? No? We are slaves. The government has been caught lying over and over again to the people, from who really did 9-11, to the legality of the tax system, to Cheney's Energy Task Force papers, to Saddam's WMDs. Americans are the most lied-to people on Earth. Can you refuse to be lied to? Can you punish the liars? No? We are slaves. Vote fraud is rampant in the nation, and the mandated imposition of audit-less electronic voting systems means that elections will be decided (as Stalin admitted) not by those who vote but by those who count the vote. Can you refuse a dishonest voting process? No? We are slaves. Just because you cannot see the slave-chains doesn't mean they are not there. Chains made of steel are obvious, but chains made of beliefs are not always recognized for what they are. Hitler enslaved the German people to war with a belief that Poland was about to invade. LBJ enslaved the American people to war with the belief that Vietnam had attacked the USS Maddox in the Gulf of Tonkin. Poland wasn't invading. There were no torpedoes in the Gulf of Tonkin, but the slaves, held by invisible chains of beliefs, went to war. Millions died.

In 2003, however, the chains started to become visible. The Constitutional right to freedom of expression was confined to "free-speech" zones. A slave may have an opinion, so long as it is not expressed where it might upset the other slaves. The Constitutional right to an armed populace, the means by which the men who set up a nation of free citizens hoped to keep them free, is under constant attack from those who fear a nation of free citizens, and who will not sleep soundly until we are a nation entirely of slaves. Armed citizens can, after all, say "no" and make it stick. That was why there was a Second Amendment, to allow the people to say "no" to those who would return them to the slavery they had so recently escaped from. Other Constitutional rights and protections have been set aside. The government can now search through your private records without cause and without warrant, even break into your home and not have to tell you. Simply by declaring a citizen an enemy combatant, the government can now lock up US citizens without a charge and without a lawyer. You can be prevented from traveling simply for having the wrong name. If you purchase too much gold or take home too much cash, or hoard food, the government will take notice. Having a Farmer's Almanac is grounds for suspicion. Talking about the Constitution is now deemed grounds to suspect a terrorist link. Torture is now espoused as "necessary" to "deal with the crisis". Were you able to refuse those changes to the Constitution? No? We are slaves. The government (at all levels) has borrowed trillions of dollars and stuck your kids with the payments. Children not even born will be paying off the bills. To declare the lives of children not yet born, let alone old enough to vote, indentured to the state is slavery most obvious and odious. Can you refuse responsibility for payments on debts the government incurred without your permission? No? We are slaves.

The government has borrowed so much money that it has long ago run out of gold to pledge as collateral on the debts. Starting in Nixon's administration, natural resources were used as collateral for the mounting debts. Borrow more money, promise a chunk of public lands as collateral. These land pledges were concealed behind "Environmentalism" to disguise the real purpose. Numerous names such as "Wilderness Reserve", "Wetland", "Heritage River", and so forth were used to conceal the true scale of the confiscations. But the end result was the same. Huge tracts of public land containing natural resources were walled away from the public that owned them, mortgaged to the holders of the US Government debt. We are well on our way from being citizens, to being mere tenants. Were you able to refuse having your public lands placed at risk by the US Government to cover loans you never authorized the government to make? No? We are slaves. Trust funds under government control are being looted, from the Social Security trust fund to Native American trust accounts to Federal Retirement Funds. Congress pays lip service to the looting of Social Security, but considers only more taxes to cover the looted shortfall. Meanwhile, court cases over other looted trust accounts drag on without resolution. Are you able to refuse corrupt and dishonest government? No? We are slaves. We are slaves. Because the ruling class can do what they want, take what they want, and you cannot refuse. You may have freedom to decide what TV channel to watch tonight, or just which style car you will drive to your work in, but little power over the rest of your life. Even that home you have worked to pay for over the last decade can be taken from you at a moment's notice via "eminent domain". Can you refuse? No? We are slaves..

In October 2001 I wrote that more damage would be done to our nation by those claiming to save us from the terrorists than by any actual terrorist act. Even as Bush claimed that the terrorists hated the US because of our freedoms, he took what few remaining freedoms we had away until we are more watched, more spied on, more limited, more silenced, more taxed, and more enslaved than at any other time in our nation's history. Not only are we slaves, we are at last starting to see that we have been slaves all along. We did not have rights, because a right cannot be taken away. What we had were indulgences, granted by the masters to the slaves, to be removed when the masters grow fearful of the slaves' resentment and anger. I know this is a very depressing article to read on the New Year, but I have watched through 2003 as people I care about lost their homes and businesses, as the labors of a lifetime evaporated in stock market manipulations by corporate crooks. These Americans who had worked hard to achieve the American dream lost it all through no fault of their own. Our schools are broke, hospitals under-staffed, the roads and bridges and rails of the nation are crumbling while billions of dollars are given away to foreign nations, favored cronies, and the ravenous war machine. The priorities of the government that feeds on taxes seems focused everywhere but on those who pay those taxes. And we can't seem to refuse that either. I think the state of the nation can be summed up by a simple contrast. Tommy Chong is in jail for selling a pipe, while Ken Lay walks around a free man with the billions he stole from his employees and investors. Any way you slice it, that's a pretty screwed up situation.

"Resolve to serve no more, and you are at once freed." -The Politics of Obedience: The Discourse of Voluntary Servitude by Étienne de la Boétie

"The essence of all slavery consists in taking the produce of another's labor by force. It is immaterial whether this force be founded upon ownership of the slave or ownership of the money that he must get to live." ~ Leo Tolstoy

Slaves, serfs and taxpayers all refer to conditions of bondage. These conditions all restrict the use of your person and labor. The pre-historic slave's person was controlled so that his labor could be exploited. Today the modern taxpayer's labor is controlled in order to exploit his person. That's progress to some, but it is not freedom. The obvious physical differences between iron chains and psychological conditioning tend to obfuscate the degree of control. These evolving forms of bondage appear on the surface to have led to increased personal freedoms. But they have come at the real cost of diminished economic freedom. Chattel, land and political forms of slavery reflect the increasing sophistication of forced labor institutions. Charles Adams does an excellent job (as always) examining the history of slavery here.

41. 1972 Treaty Grants the United Nations Control Over American Historical Landmarks

When our Founding Fathers sparked the American Revolution and signed the Declaration of Independence in 1776, they sought self-government for the American colonies and an escape from the dominance of England. The Founding Fathers would be shocked to learn that some of their successors have given control of key American sovereign territory to other nations. Through an international treaty, the United States is allowing the United Nations and its member countries access to and control of American soil - in particular, our historic buildings and treasured wilderness. In 1972, our government signed the United Nations' World Heritage Treaty, a treaty that creates "World Heritage Sites" and Biosphere Reserves." Selected for their cultural, historical or natural significance, national governments are obligated to protect these landmarks under U.N. mandate. [1] Since 1972, 68 percent of all U.S. national parks, monuments and preserves have been designated as World Heritage Sites. [2] Twenty important symbols of national pride, along with 51 million acres of our wilderness, are World Heritage Sites or Biosphere Reserves now falling under the control of the U.N. This includes the Statue of Liberty, Thomas Jefferson's home at Monticello, the Washington Monument, the Brooklyn Bridge, Yellowstone National Park, Yosemite, the Florida Everglades and the Grand Canyon - to name just a few.

Most ironic of all is the listing of Philadelphia's Independence Hall. The birthplace of our Republic is now an official World Heritage Site. The very place where our Founding Fathers signed both the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution - the documents that set America apart from other nations and created the World's longest-standing democracy - is no longer fully under the control of our government and the American people. Protection of our treasured places is a sound undertaking, but doing so by ceding control of our sovereign territory to a foreign power is wrong and threatens our rights and freedoms. In 1995, Crown Butte Mines in the New World Mining District in Montana was forced to abandon a mine development project after the U.N. listed Yellowstone National Park as a "World Heritage Site in Danger." [3] Crown Butte proposed to mine a medium-size underground operation on private property three miles from the boundary of Yellowstone. The project would have employed 280 people and generated $230 million in revenue. [4]

This mining project was not unique. The area had been mined for 150 years before Yellowstone National Park was established. Crown Butte had worked along with the U.S. Forest Service to ensure that all of the necessary precautions were being taken to ensure that the project would be environmentally responsible. Crown Butte had won an award for excellence in 1992 and was considered to be a "showcase operation." [5] None of these factors mattered to the U.N.'s World Heritage Committee. Citing the project as a potential threat, the U.N. exerted its authority to force the abandonment of the project. It did not matter to the U.N. that this violated Crown Butte's exercise of its private property rights under the U.S. Constitution. Nor did the U.N. care that its action also went against U.S. federal law prohibiting the inclusion of non-federal property within a U.S. World Heritage Site without the consent of the property owner. [6] Although it has not happened yet, under the World Heritage Treaty the U.N. has the legal right to someday restrict us, as American citizens, from visiting our national treasures.

Many environmentalists believe that the mere presence of humans disturbs the environment. As such, it is not farfetched to wonder when the politically-correct U.N. will ban the American public from Yellowstone, the Grand Canyon, Yosemite, the Florida Everglades and other precious natural wonders now visited annually by millions of tourists. Ironically, banning generations of young people from visiting our natural wonders would undermine the public's appreciation for the spectacular gifts of nature, and undercut support for environmental protection. Unfortunately, the World Heritage Treaty is just one of a series of government actions that is stripping away the gift of freedom we received from our Founding Fathers. To stop this erosion of sovereign rights, federal legislation has been introduced to restore the rights of Americans against this threat to freedom. The American Land Sovereignty Protection Act seeks to preserve the sovereignty of the United States over public lands and preserve the private property rights of private citizens. It would require congressional oversight of U.N. land designations within the U.S. [7] We should not turn our backs on the Founding Fathers by surrendering the precious gift of sovereignty. We should treasure and protect it.

"The essence of all slavery consists in taking the produce of another's labor by force. It is immaterial whether this force be founded upon ownership of the slave or ownership of the money that he must get to live." ~ Leo Tolstoy

Slaves, serfs and taxpayers all refer to conditions of bondage. These conditions all restrict the use of your person and labor. The pre-historic slave's person was controlled so that his labor could be exploited. Today the modern taxpayer's labor is controlled in order to exploit his person. That's progress to some, but it is not freedom. The obvious physical differences between iron chains and psychological conditioning tend to obfuscate the degree of control. These evolving forms of bondage appear on the surface to have led to increased personal freedoms. But they have come at the real cost of diminished economic freedom. Chattel, land and political forms of slavery reflect the increasing sophistication of forced labor institutions. Charles Adams does an excellent job (as always) examining the history of slavery here.

Society must accept the practice of involuntary servitude into its norms and/or laws for it to endure in whatever form. The effectiveness of various employment arrangements influences the self-interested to choose the most advantageous form from what is available. Society thus tends to develop rules of cooperation between people, including those with different time preferences that work well enough. Until they don't. Then they are changed, altered, or abolished. Leaders with the most power and influence over collective action will seek to incorporate their gains. The masses typically become resigned to their perceived lot in life. Desperate conditions foster anger, fear and violence leading to hungry slaves attacking gluttonous masters. Elites recognize this historical fact and seek ways to maintain their economic power over the masses. When the number of slaves reaches a point significantly greater than the number of elites, then the fear of the masters leads to greater use of force and fear to keep the masses in line. This leads to decreasing efficiency for each slave and for the overall economic system based on slave labor. The existing slave-labor system then declines until it falls apart and a more subtle form of slavery takes its place. Therefore, the more free a slave believes that they are, the more productive is the slave-labor system he participates in.

The moral standing of economic servitude seems to depend on what side of the relationship one stands. Relationships based on force require some form of tether. Men can be trained to obey verbal commands that do not require physical restraint devices. Tradition, faith and law must work together for an injustice like slavery to prevail for long periods of time. Chattel, land and political slavery have all lasted many millennia. The justification of these conditions has come from clergy, political leaders and even the slaves themselves. Though the evolution from slavery to serfdom to tax-paying appears to have led to increased personal freedoms, the reality is the chains have just gotten longer and lighter. Many do not even notice them. Efficiency dictates that more subtle means of coercion be used to appropriate labor in an increasingly complex division of labor. Masters observed long ago the difficulty of labor under the heavy burden of manacles and chains. A happy slave who accepts his "place" is far more productive than the disgruntled slave who does the least possible amount of labor. The political slave has generally bought into the story that since they get to choose their overseers (masters and monarchs are not chosen), then they are truly free. The percentage of happy slaves to total slaves today is higher than it has ever been in history. This can change very quickly.

Democracy is today equated with freedom. If you think that choosing those who control a major portion of your labor and make laws as to what you may and may not do with your own person and property is really freedom, then consider how democracy would affect the status of the older forms of bondage. If you were a slave on a Roman estate or an Old South plantation and you got to choose who was given the power to control the fruits of your labor and tell you what to do and what not to do, would you be any less a slave? What if you were a serf on a French or German lord's manor and you got to choose who was given the power to control the fruits of your labor and tell you what to do and what not to do, would you be any less a serf? Is being a taxpayer really that much better of a deal? Slaves generally got to keep about one-half of what they produced in order to survive. Serfs got a little bit better deal as the lord took only about one-third of their labor and they survived on the other two-thirds. Today taxpayers have a sliding scale somewhere between the traditional limits of slaves and serfs. The master and the lord justified their taking with the line that they provided protection from other masters and lords as well as providing dispute resolution services, housing, roads, water wells and other infrastructure. Some slaves and serfs even told their fellow slaves and serfs that this was a good deal and they were lucky that their master or lord was so much better than the others.

If you think that you are truly free and own the fruits of your labor, then try not paying income taxes. If you think that you own and have full control over your person, then fire up a joint, even on your own property, in full view of an official overseer and see if you are imprisoned. If you think that you own your land, then try building something on it without permission from your masters. If you believe that you are free because you get to vote on who gets the power to decide these things for you, then you're setting the bar pretty low on what you consider freedom. Do you really think that this is as good as it gets? Seek freedom from the existing slave labor system by finding ways to exchange your labor and property in ways that minimize your taxes. Free your mind from the shackles of the corporate-state and do something on Election Day other than supporting the system that enslaves you. If you must vote, then vote with your feet and move to areas that have lower taxes and fewer laws restricting the use of your property. Ignorance may very well be bliss, but it is the enemy of liberty. Some may prefer to be a happy slave than to see the truth and seek freedom, but joy requires conditions of peace to grow. It is my hope that society may evolve the next economic system beyond political forms of bondage without desperate convulsions of violence. For this to come about, the number of people who recognize what freedom is and yearn for liberty must increase significantly. Thanks to the Internet and sites like this, I believe it could happen. The growing desperation of the elite increasing controls over it shows that they do, too. Mark Davis is a husband, father and real estate analyst/investor enjoying the freedoms we still have in Longwood, Florida.

Slavery Systems

Frederick Douglass observed, "The whole history of progress of human liberty shows that all concessions yet made to her august claims have been born of earnest struggle. If there is no struggle, there is no progress. Those who profess to favor freedom, and yet deprecate agitation, are men who want crops without plowing up the ground, they want rain without thunder and lightning, they want the ocean without the awful roar of its many waters. This struggle may be a moral one; or it may be a physical one; or it may be both moral and physical; but it must be a struggle. Power concedes nothing without a demand. It never did and it never will. Find out just what any people will quietly submit to and you have found the exact measure of injustice and wrong which will be imposed upon them, and these will continue until they are resisted. The limits of tyrants are prescribed by the endurance of those whom they oppress."

Fascist Dictator Benito Mussolini: "Fascism should more appropriately be called Corporatism because it is a merger of State and corporate power." It is also known as monopoly-capitalism and communism. The slavery systems of Ancient Babylon, Rome, Egypt, 19th Century Europe and America, Apartheid and Occupation, demonstrate that it takes a few people cooperating together to enslave the masses. It's the Mother of All Mafias led by the Rothschild, Rockefellers and Illuminati's Banking Dynasties & descendants of the European Nobility!

Congressman Larry P. McDonald, 1976, killed in the 1983 Korean Airlines 747 (flight KAL007) that was shot down by the Soviets, said: "The drive of the Rockefellers and their allies is to create a one-World government combining super-capitalism and communism under the same tent, all under their control...Do I mean conspiracy? Yes I do. I am convinced there is such a plot, international in scope, generations old in planning, and incredibly evil in intent."

H.L. Mencken: "The only kind of freedom that the mob can imagine is freedom to annoy and oppress its betters, and that is precisely the kind that we mainly have."

Harold Wallace Rosenthal 1976 said: "There is no such thing as the silent majority because we control their cry and hue. The only thing that exists is an unthinking majority and unthinking they will remain, as long as their escape from our rigorous service is the opiate of our entertainment industry. By controlling industry, we have become the task masters and the people the slaves. When the pressure of daily toil builds to an explosive degree, we have provided the safety valve of momentary pleasure. The television and movie industries furnish the necessary temporary distraction. These programs are carefully designed to appeal to the sensuous emotions, never to the logical thinking mind. Because of this, the people are programmed to respond according to our dictates, not according to reason. Silent they never are; thinking they will remain." Rosenthal said this during an interview he gave to Walter White Jr. Mr. Rosenthal, age 29, the administrative assistant to Senator Jacob K. Javits of New York was conveniently killed in an alleged sky-jacking attempt on an Israeli airliner in Istanbul, Turkey, August 12, 1976; I guess because he talked too much.

However, when a populistic country conquers many other countries, its political system usually becomes very stable and oligarchic. The reason is that any instability or political upheaval could give the country's colonies opportunity to win an independence. Great income from colonies makes other citizens of the empire who participate in that income more agreeable to a "frozen" political system, and the rule of a very narrow elite of elders (gerontocracy, dark clan/black nobility/feudals, Illuminati).

President Thomas Jefferson stated during his successful struggle against Federalist tyranny (yes, during his time, the same Illuminati takeover of the US Government had taken place): "Whenever the people are well-informed, they can be trusted with their own government. Whenever things get so far wrong as to attract their notice, they may be relied on to set them to rights." Our hope and prayer.

When a government recklessly expends the lives of its young for crass motives of profit and power [always claiming that its motives are pure and moral] it is violating its promise to the country.
It is the country that is primary - the people, the ideals of the sanctity of human life and the promotion of liberty.
War is almost always a breaking of these promises.
It does not enable the pursuit of happiness but brings despair and grief.

-Howard Zinn

The Masonic Great Seal of The United State(actually of the New World Order)

This Illuminati seal shown on the US$ bill is also emblazoned on Masonic Lodges. It's also known as the shining delta (change, transition) or pyramid of their so-called enlightened age which to us is slavery. The eye signifies the Illuminati's ability to infiltrate and watch over all matters. Novus Ordo Seclorum is Latin for New Secular or Secret Order and contradicts with IN GOD WE TRUST. This Masonic seal made its way on the dollar bill through Vice President Henry Wallace and President Franklin D. Roosevelt as the "New Deal", both well-known Masons.

"Announcing the birth of a new World order." These words are inscribed on the back of each US Dollar bill [more correctly, the fiat indulgence titled "Federal Reserve Note"], written in Latin: ANNUIT COEPTIS NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM. The ORDER that is being described here, to cut to the chase, is the JESUIT ORDER. To conceal the true meaning of the words, this "motto" is translated for public consumption in a number of benign-sounding ways: in their words, or, as it is now translated by the U.S. State Department [controlled by the mastermind of 9-11, Archbishop of New York City, Edward Cardinal Egan, through his Council on Foreign Relations]: "He (God) has favored our undertakings." (LIKE THAT SOUNDS RIGHT OR SOMETHING) THEY NOTE: Annuit does not mean "to announce" (annuntio), so THEY say. The disinformation concerning these words written on the "Great Seal" is very strange, and it's possible there are people gullible enough to believe it. For example, they "translate" (or twist) the phrase NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM this way: Thomson coined the motto: Novus ordo seclorum. The accepted translation is: A new order of the ages. (Notice the word "accepted.") Thomson explained: "The date underneath [the pyramid] is that of the Declaration of Independence and the words under it signify the beginning of the new American Era, which commences from that date." THEY NOTE: Novus ordo seclorum cannot translate into "new World order." (So THEY say.)

LOOK AT THE STRING OF ROMAN NUMERALS AT THE BOTTOM OF THE MASONIC PYRAMID ON THE AMERICAN ONE DOLLAR BILL AND RATHER THAN READING IT AS ONE LONG NUMBER, TRANSLATE EACH NUMERAL AS AN INDIVIDUAL INTO A SEQUENCE AS DEMONSTRATED ABOVE.

THEN ADD YOUR RED FIGURES AND YOU GET SIX HUNDRED AND SIXTY SIX (666)

IT IS IMPORTANT TO UNDERSTAND THAT THIS IS NOT SIMPLY A COINCIDENCE, OR A CLEVER 'PUB TRICK'. THIS WAS PLACED ON THE DOLLAR BILL ON PURPOSE BY AN ELITE SOCIETY LOYALLY DEDICATED TO SATANISM AS IT LITERALLY EXISTS. IT IS ALSO IMPORTANT TO UNDERSTAND THAT THIS SECRET BROTHERHOOD IS NOT JUST A GROUP OF WIERDOS, THEY ARE DESCENDED FROM A BLOODLINE THAT CAN BE CONSTRUED AS THAT OF 'THE DEVIL'.

The familiar logo we call "the Great Seal" was really adopted from the Illuminati, and its designer was actually Adam Weishaupt of [Jesuit-controlled, Nazi]

Third Reich] Bavaria, the Illuminati's founder (a Jesuit).

He founded the Illuminati in 1776, seen in ROMAN numerals at the base of the Nimrod-pyramid-obelisk seen on every one dollar bill. The glowing EYE is not YHWH, but rather Satan, worshipped for millennia as the SUN. The "eye-in-the-sky" has always been the sun, called Solis Invictus, Horus, Molech, to just name a few. The occultic (hidden) religion of the Pagan king NIMROD [now being the pagan sun kings as in Sunday or rather the Roman Caesars of the Papacy] is secretly being kept alive through traditions, and secret societies all over the globe [every secret society being subordinate to the Black Pope]. Is there any doubt in anyone's mind that the fabulous "builders," the Masons, might not be involved to some extent?

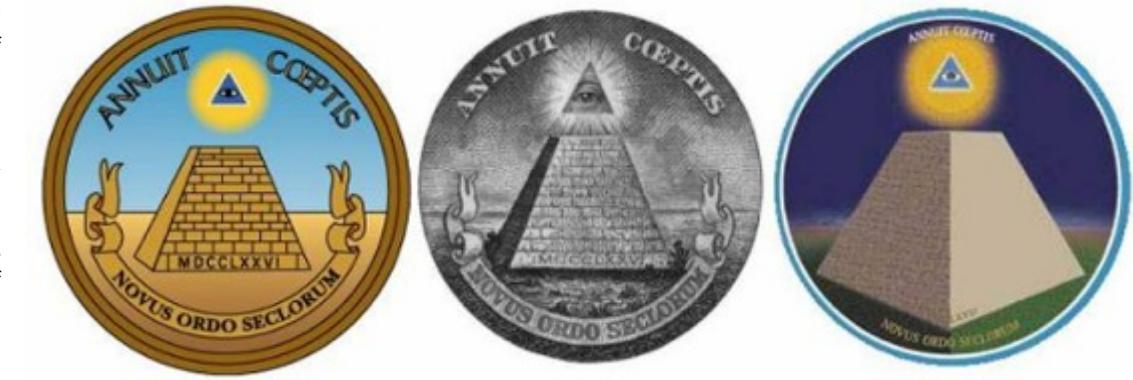

The [high-level professed dof the Fourth Vow]

Jesuits are the ultimate control freaks, or tyrants, and have been attacking our rule of law, the US Constitution, for 200 years. They assassinated President Abraham Lincoln because he resisted the establishment of a "central bank" [or rather, the passing of Jesuit Temporal Coadjutor (U.S. Senator) James G. Blaine's wicked Fourteenth Amendment which created the Pope's "Holy Roman" Fourteenth Amendment American Empire]. The Jesuit assassins murdered him [Jesuit Bernard F. Wiget being the power behind John Wilkes Booth and John Surratt]. The Jesuits cannot operate with a free hand as long as the US Constitution is controlling their actions [which Constitution is now a dead letter thanks to the Order's PATRIOT Acts I and II, one of their two authors being the newly appointed head of the Office of Homeland "Romeland" Security]. The US Constitution grants and defends life, liberty (non-imprisonment [without due process at the Common Law]), and the pursuit of happiness to all men, as inalienable rights endowed to them by the Creator [the date of the completion of the U.S. Constitution, according to Section Seven, being "In the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred Eighty-Seven"]. It only limits and controls GOVERNMENT, and shuts down their authoritarian, oppressive, invasive tyrannical tendencies. Politicians serving the interests of the Jesuit Order have for years attempted to change, bend, and stretch the US Constitution in order to free their hands and get at us.

Michael Nield in his book "The Police State Road Map 2004": The New World Order has been described as a 'global fascist state', 'high-tech feudalism', and an 'Orwellian nightmare'. In a word, N.W.O. is a [totalitarian] dictatorship. It is the logical manifestation of the age-old desire of powerful people to increase their power over the rest of us. However, that desire is not motivated only greed and selfishness – this would not account for the long range planning behind the N.W.O. which is at least a century old [actually 4,000 years old] and transcends generations. Just as some people believe in God or freedom or in a moral code, others believe in power. It is hard for the average Westerner to appreciate that people at the top of our democratic political and financial power structures see the World very differently to us. N.W.O. planners believe that the World would be a better place for the existence of a small ruling with absolute power. George Orwell portrayed the terrifying consequences of absolute power in his last book '1984' published in 1949. Two decades after the novel was set, we are witnessing the fulfillment of this nightmarish vision. A recent BB2 documentary on Orwell's life, 'George Orwell: A Life in Pictures' broadcast in June 2003, concluded with Orwell's thoughts on '1984' just before he died. Asked whether he believed that tyranny could happen in a democratic country like Britain, he said yes, tyranny can happen anywhere – it's down to us to prevent it.

Nield's book examines financial issues, starting with how a small group of transatlantic financial elite in the UK, Europe and US (originally from Germany just like the British Royal Family) formed a cartel which now controls $300 Trillion worth of assets. The end game is to put all property and levels of political power in the hands of the financial elite. Furthermore, Nield's book describes the roadmap to the global fascist state beginning with the elimination of the World's middle class, the establishment of a UN controlled World government through legislation posed as the saviour to a global crisis created by the "War on Terror", i.e. the Machiavellian politics of self-created problem-reaction-solution. The elite create enemies and blow things up in order to justify the "War on Terror", Global Government and the associated martial law and police state apparatus and the replacement of free-markets with a repressive coercion economy. Elites also destroy the competing powers of God and the family just like the Marxists did, and finally biological control for dehumanizing follows. The N.W.O. tyrannical-totalitarian World government's capital is planned to be in Jerusalem.

The "Zionist" Conspiracy is British Imperialism

By Henry Makow Ph.D. May 30, 2004: Conspiracy theorists [factualists] like myself believe modern history reflects a long-term conspiracy by an international financial elite to enslave humanity. Like blind men examining an elephant, we attribute this conspiracy to Jews, Illuminati, Vatican, Jesuits, Masons, Black Nobility, and Bilderbergers etc. The real villains are at the heart of our economic and cultural life. They are the dynastic families who own the Bank of England, the US Federal Reserve and associated cartels. They also control the World Bank and IMF and most of the World's Intelligence agencies. Their identity is secret but Rothschild is certainly one of them. The Bank of England was "nationalized" in 1946 but the power to create money remained in the same hands.

England is in fact a financial oligarchy run by the "Crown" which refers to the "City of London" not the Queen. The City of London is run by the Bank of England, a private corporation. The City is a sovereign state located in the heart of greater London. As the "Vatican of the financial World," the City is not subject to British law. On the contrary, the bankers dictate to the British Parliament. In 1886, Andrew Carnegie wrote that, "six or seven men can plunge the nation into war without consulting Parliament at all." Vincent Vickers, a director of the Bank of England from 1910-1919 blamed the City for the wars of the World. ("Economic Tribulation" (1940) cited in Knuth, The Empire of the City, 1943, p 60). The British Empire was an extension of bankers' financial interests. Indeed, all the non-white colonies (India, Hong Kong, Gibraltar) were "Crown Colonies." They belonged to the City and were not subject to British law although Englishmen were expected to conquer and pay for them. The Bank of England assumed control of the U.S. during the T.R. Roosevelt administration (1901-1909) when its agent J.P. Morgan took over 25% of American business. (Anton Chaitkin, Treason in America, 1964)

According to the "American Almanac," the bankers are part of a network called the "Club of the Isles" which is an informal association of predominantly European-based royal households including the Queen. The Club of the Isles commands an estimated $10 trillion in assets. It lords over such corporate giants as Royal Dutch Shell, Imperial Chemical Industries, Lloyds of London, Unilever, Lonrho, Rio Tinto Zinc, and Anglo American DeBeers. It dominates the World supply of petroleum, gold, diamonds, and many other vital raw materials; and deploys these assets at the disposal of its geopolitical agenda. Its goal: to reduce the human population from its current level of over 5 billion people to below 1 billion people within the next two to three generations; to literally "cull the human herd" in the interest of retaining their own global power and the feudal system upon which that power is based. Historian Jeffrey Steinberg could be referring to the US, Canada and Australia when he writes, "England, Scotland, Wales, and, especially, Northern Ireland, are today little more than slave plantations and social engineering laboratories, serving the needs of ...the City of London... These families constitute a financier oligarchy; they are the power behind the Windsor throne. They view themselves as the heirs to the Venetian oligarchy, which infiltrated and subverted England from the period 1509-1715, and established a new, more virulent, Anglo-Dutch-Swiss strain of the oligarchic system of imperial Babylon, Persia, Rome, and Byzantium.... The City of London dominates the World's speculative markets. A tightly interlocking group of corporations, involved in raw materials extraction, finance, insurance, transportation, and food production, controls the lion's share of the World market, and exerts virtual "choke point" control over World industry."

Steinberg belongs to a group of historians associated with economist Lyndon Larouche. They have traced this scourge to the migration of the Venetian mercantile oligarchy to England more than 300 years ago. Although the Larouche historians do not say so, it appears that many members of this oligarchy were Jews. Cecil Roth writes: "The trade of Venice was overwhelmingly concentrated in the hands of the Jews, the wealthiest of the mercantile class." (The History of the Jews in Venice, 1930). The Jewish banking families made it a practice to marry their female offspring to spendthrift European aristocrats. In Jewish law, the mixed offspring of a Jewish mother is Jewish. (The male heirs always marry Jews.) For example, in 1878 Hannah Rothschild married Lord Rosebery, who later became Prime Minister. In 1922 Louis Mountbatten, the uncle of Prince Philip and cousin of the Queen married the granddaughter of Jewish banker Ernest Cassel, one of the wealthiest men in the World. If they aren't Jewish by intermarriage, many European aristocrats consider themselves descendants of Biblical Hebrews. The Hapsburgs are related by marriage to the Merovingians who claim to be descendants of the Tribe of Benjamin. In addition, many aristocrats belong to the "British Israel" Movement that believes the British sovereign is the head of the Anglo Saxon "Lost Tribes" of Israel and that the Apocalype will see the full reconstitution of the British Empire. According to Barbara Aho, Rosicrucians and Masons, who believe in British Israelism, have a plan to place one of their bloodline on the throne of the rebuilt Temple in Jerusalem. This positioning of a false messiah whom the World will worship as Christ has been carefully planned and executed over many centuries. According to Barry Chamish, "there would be no modern state of Israel without British Masonry. In the 1860s, the British-Israelite movement was initiated from within Masonry. Its goal was to establish a Jewish-Masonic state in the Turkish province of Palestine...Initially, British Jewish Masonic families like the Rothschilds and Montefiores provided the capital to build the infrastructure for the anticipated wave of immigration. However, luring the Jews to Israel was proving difficult. They, simply, liked European life too much to abandon it. So Europe was to be turned into a nightmare for the Jews."

In 1935 the steamer "Tel Aviv" made its maiden voyage from Nazi Germany to Haifa with Hebrew letters on its bow and a Nazi flag fluttering from its mast. The Captain of the Zionist-owned ship was a member of the Nazi Party. A passenger described the spectacle as a "metaphysical absurdity." Actually it made perfect sense. The ship transported German Jews who had taken advantage of the "Haavara" program, which allowed them to exchange their money for its value in Germany products in Palestine. As a result, the fledgling Jewish colony received about 70,000 highly educated German Jews and 140 million Reichmarks worth of German industrial equipment. This laid the foundation of Israel's infrastructure. The arrangement also boosted the Nazi economy at a time when Jews Worldwide were boycotting German products. (My main source is "The Secret Contacts" by Klaus Polkeln a prominent German journalist. It is included in Olivia O'Grady's The Beasts of the Apocalypse, 2001, 421-447.) Why retell this story of Zionist-Nazi cooperation now? Because "Jewish" leaders have been exploiting their "lesser brethren" for a long time, and are doing so today. Ordinary Jews pay the price and this price could rise. In my opinion, Zionism is a movement to deceive Jews into advancing the objectives of British imperialism. (See, "The Jewish Conspiracy is British Imperialism") Zionists who have built their lives on a false premise naturally will reject this view. Specifically, Jews helped the British-Jewish elite colonize the oil-rich Middle East under the pretext of Jews needing a national home. Despite the appearance of neutrality, the British (and Americans) financed, trained and equipped the Jews. (John Coleman, Diplomacy by Deception p. 107.) The "British" are really the London-based international banking cartel associated with names like Rothschild and Rockefeller. It doesn't answer to any government. Its goal is to colonize the World and everyone in it. Jews are a means to this end. As seen in Iraq, Zionists (a.k.a Neocons) play a major role in the colonization of the Middle East.

The important thing to remember is that Israel is the creation of this cartel; both Israel and the US are its tools. Iraq is only a phase in the emerging New World Order, which represents a continuation of the goals of "British" imperialism. John Kerry will take up in Iraq where George Bush leaves off. Democracy is a charade.

NAZIS MADE-TO-MEASURE FOR ZIONISM: In 1925, Germany's 500,000 Jews were overwhelmingly indifferent or actively hostile to Zionism. The German Zionist movement had only 9000 members. The "Central Union of Germans of the Jewish Faith" represented most German Jews and favored active participation in German life. Its main focus was combating anti-Semitism. Zionists, on the other hand, welcomed the Nazis' anti-Semitic policies. Like the Nazis, they believed in race-based national character and destiny. Like the Nazis, they believed Jews had no future in Germany. The Zionists did not protest Nazi persecution such as the removal of 2000 Jewish scholars and scientists from German universities in 1933. The Nazis rewarded this "restraint" by allowing the Zionists to go about their work unhindered. All other Jewish and anti-fascist organizations were disbanded and their leaders imprisoned. The Nazis required all Jews to join the Zionist-led "Reich Union" whose goal was emigration. Jews were to be converted to Zionism at any cost. The Zionists were able to publish books and newspapers critical of the Nazis so long as the audience was restricted to Jews. The cooperation extended to political and economic spheres. Adolph Eichmann set up agricultural training camps in Austria to prepare young Jews for Kibbutz life. He visited Palestine and conferred with Zionist leaders who confessed their true expansionist goals. There was even talk of a strategic alliance between Nazi Germany and Jewish Palestine. His report is in Himmler's Archives. [For more on Zionist-Nazi cooperation, see online Lenni Brenner "Zionism in the Age of Dictators" Also, Lenni Brenner, 51 Documents: Zionist Collaboration With the Nazis (2002)]. The cooperation may have extended to the Jewish Holocaust and explain why most Jews passively accepted their fate. In his book, "The Holocaust Victims Accuse" Rabbi Moshe Shonfeld claims that Zionist-led Jewish Councils ("Judenrats") collaborated with the Nazis and deceived non-Zionist Jews. See my "Zionism: Compulsory Suicide for Jews." Europe's non-Zionist Jews were worth more dead than alive to Zionists and their financial sponsors. The Holocaust provided a political and moral rationale for the establishment of the Jewish state.

WHO WAS HITLER? In 1919, Hitler was an Intelligence Officer with the German Army assigned to spy on the tiny German Labor Party. He became its leader. Max Warburg, brother of Paul Warburg, founder of the US Federal Reserve, was the chief of German Intelligence. Both were executives of the I.G. Farben conglomerate. There is no record of when Hitler stopped working for these Illuminati figures. (See also Be Afraid: The New World Order's Fascist Pedigree) Hitler was sponsored by the banker oligarchy, and may have been their pawn. Certainly the Nazis received millions of dollars from New York and London. See "Hitler Didn't Want World War." Ernst ("Putzi") Hanfstaengl was close to both the bankers and Hitler and funneled money to the Nazis during their formative years. See also Antony Sutton "Wall Street and the Rise of Hitler" Chapter Eight. But when Hitler began to print his own money, he may have alienated these sponsors. See . "Rothschild Conducts Red Symphony" The bottom line is that both Nazism and Zionism were sponsored by the same banking cartel and had complementary goals. The rise of anti-Semitism in Europe served to create the State of Israel, which President Assad of Syria described as a "dagger in the heart of the Arab nations." Think about it. Hitler could have just confiscated all the Jewish wealth. Instead he used the "Haavara Program" to help establish the State of Israel. According to Polkeln, Hitler personally guaranteed this program in the face of opposition. It lasted until the beginning of the war. This cartel, which controls the World today, has no compunction about using Jews (or anyone) as a means to an end.

THE BANKSTER AGENDA: All money is created in the form of debt to the privately owned banking cartel. Imagine if you could create money out of thin air. Imagine you have the credit cards of all the nations in your pocket. Your first impulse is to lend money to your nominees so they can buy most of the World's real wealth for you. Your second impulse is to establish a totalitarian system ("World government" "globalization") to prevent any nation from challenging this system or defaulting on their "debt" to you. To make nations accept "World government," you need to weaken them by having them fight among themselves, run up huge debts for armaments (which you will sell them), kill off the cream of their manhood, and become demoralized and decadent. You accomplish this through your ownership of politicians and the press and your control of MI-6, CIA, Mossad who carry out terror and assassinations for you. This is the real history of the last 300 years. "World government" is really about using debt to enslave us; it is an international loan collection agency. Naturally they shroud this with talk about tolerance, human rights, fighting poverty and preventing war. A quote from a 1924 edition of the American Banker's Association Digest sums up what is currently happening. Keep this in mind when you vote. "When, through the process of law, the common people lose their homes, they will become more docile and more easily governed through the strong arm of government applied by a central power of wealth under leading financiers. These truths are well known among our principal men who are now engaged in forming imperialism to govern the World. By dividing the voter through the political party system, we can get them to expend their energies in fighting for questions of no importance." Now consider the words of an Illuminati defector, Svali. "The conflict in the Middle East is only to the advantage of the Illuminati. They HATE Israel, and hope one day to see it destroyed, and are biding their time. One of the olive branches offered by the UN when it takes over is that they will prevent war in the Middle East, and this will be greeted with joy by many. At the same time, the Illuminati covertly supply guns and funds to BOTH sides to keep the conflict fuelled. They are very duplicitous people...These people love the game of chess, and see warfare between nations as creating an order out of chaos."

In a personal email, she added: "I have always wondered this, though, why some of the highest ranking financial families in the group (Baron Rothschild of France is one of the 13 European lords, or "kings" that run the group in Europe, and sits on the World Council) are Jewish, yet the group espouses hatred of their own race." Ben Hecht said that reading the daily news to understand current events is like telling the time by looking at the second hand. You have to look at the decade and century hands to see what is really going on in the World. The Rothschild-Rockefeller banking cartel is behind most political (and cultural) trends and its goal is to destroy the nation state, true democracy, religion, culture, marriage and family, in order to degrade humanity to animal status in advance of totalitarianism. In the "war on terror," they have created a boogeyman to justify a system of repression to be used when they call in their "loans." I was once a Zionist who believed Jews needed a homeland because of anti-Semitism. I realize now that, like most of history, this view was mostly contrived. Anti-Semitism is caused because many Jews serve (consciously or unconsciously) the bankers' harmful agenda. Zionism, Communism and Feminism are a few examples. Most Jews are now totally identified with Israel, which is a tool of the Rothschilds' demented megalomania. If past is prologue, this cannot end well for Jews or anyone. I wasted much of my life getting a conventional education, so I feel I am beginning my education anew. It appears that a vampire-like clique directs the World. This secretive cabal is represented by our dominant political, economic and cultural institutions. Western society has been subverted and western culture is bankrupt. Democracy is a form of social control and the mass media/education are systems for indoctrination.

Essentially the problem boils down to whether we believe man was made in God's image and has an obligation to lift himself to a higher level of truth, beauty and justice. Naturally monopolists have no use for this and want to define reality to suit their own interests. They have taught us that God is dead and man is just a fancy animal without a divine soul. Culture today tends to deny standards, ideals and goals of any kind. Instead, we are fed an endless diet of trivia and degradation. Certain elite Jews are an integral part of this elite neo feudal conspiracy. Throughout history they have had a symbiotic relationship with the aristocracy. But ordinary Jews like the serfs were manipulated and persecuted by their elites. True Judaism like Islam and Christianity affirms the supremacy of God as a moral force. A real Jew, like a true Christian or Muslim cannot perform an immoral act. It's time to reaffirm our belief in God.

Banksters Use Judaism as a Shield

The mainspring of the New World Order is the desire on the part of the World's central bankers to translate their vast economic power into permanent global institutions of political and social control. Their power is based on their monopoly over credit. They use the government's credit to print money, and require the taxpayer to fork over billions in interest to them. Central banks like the Federal Reserve pretend to be government institutions. They are not. They are privately owned by perhaps 300 families. It is significant that the majority of these families are Jewish, how significant I am not yet sure. If they were Lutherans or Zulus, certainly our objections would be the same. I am a non-observant Jew who believes this situation is lethal for humanity and Jews alike. We have already seen the tragic consequences of it in World War II. The American inventor Thomas Edison described this colossal scam, which the New World Order is designed to perpetuate, as follows: "It is absurd to say our country can issue bonds and cannot issue currency. Both are promises to pay, but one fattens the usurer and the other helps the people." Central banks also control the supply of credit to businesses and individuals. Robert Hemphill, Credit Manager of the Federal Reserve Bank in Atlanta describes this untenable situation, 1934. "This is a staggering thought. We are completely dependent on the commercial banks. Someone has to borrow every dollar we have in circulation, cash or credit. If the banks create ample synthetic money, we are prosperous; if not, we starve. We are absolutely without a permanent money system. When one gets a complete grasp of the picture, the tragic absurdity of our hopeless position is almost incredible, but there it is... It is so important that our present civilization may collapse unless it becomes widely understood and the defects remedied very soon."

When the Federal Reserve was inaugurated in 1913, a London banker acknowledged that it is a scam. "The few who understand the system will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favours, that there will be no opposition from that class... The great body of the people, mentally incapable of comprehending, will bear its burden without complaint, and perhaps without even suspecting that the system is inimical (contrary) to their interests." Obviously printing money should be in the public sphere as prescribed by the U.S. Constitution. This anomalous situation is the source of humanity's woes. It pits the people who control the economy against society as a whole. It is in their interest to destabilize society, foster immorality, internal division (like gay marriage) and war in order to increase debt and distract and control the masses. The bankers are responsible for social engineering programs such as the (homo) sexual revolution, feminism and multiculturalism, which undermine family and social cohesion. This fundamental antagonism also supports a vast criminal under-World actually run by the elites.

The bankers are responsible for the assassinations of presidents like Lincoln and JFK, and for the attack on the World Trade Center. They own or control the mass media, which legitimizes G.W. Bush, the war in Iraq and the impending attack on Iran. War provides an excuse to introduce the draft and a repressive police state. Success today is based on a person's willingness to become an accomplice, witting or unwitting, to the banker fraud. Even rich entrepreneurs are dependent on credit and are unwilling to support genuine change. As a result of the bankers' scam, Western society and culture are based on a fraud. We do not have genuine democracy or equal access to the mass media or open and truthful education. Western society is a fraud, run by cowards who know they're frauds. The New World Order is a hydra-headed monster. The bankers work through many fronts such as Communism, socialism, liberalism, feminism, Zionism, neo conservatism and Masonry. Unknown to most members, these "progressive" movements are all secretly devoted to "World revolution" which is a euphemism for banker hegemony. (See my "Rothschild Conducts Red Symphony"). The bankers control the World's major corporations, media, intelligence agencies, think tanks, foundations and universities. They are responsible for suppressing the truth. Jews figure prominently in all of this, a cause of anti-Semitism. Of course many other people are pursuing "success" as well. The bankers also work through countries. They are largely responsible for British and American imperialism, whose aim is to monopolize the World's wealth. In his book "The Jews" (1922) British social critic Hilaire Belloc writes that the British Empire represented a partnership between Jewish finance and the British aristocracy.

"After Waterloo [1815] London became the money market and the clearing house of the World. The interests of the Jew as a financial dealer and the interests of this great commercial polity approximated more and more. One may say that by the last third of the nineteenth century, they had become virtually identical." The confluence of Jewish and British interest extended to marriage. "Marriages began to take place, wholesale, between what had once been the aristocratic territorial families of this country and the Jewish commercial fortunes. After two generations of this, with the opening of the twentieth century, those of the great territorial English families in which there was no Jewish blood was the exception. In nearly all of them was the strain more or less marked, in some of them so strong that though the name was still an English name and the traditions those of a purely English lineage of the long past, the physique and character had become wholly Jewish..." If the marriage of Al Gore's daughter with Jacob Schiff's grandson is any indication, this mingling of Jewish and Gentile elites extends to America as well. John Forbes Kerry is another example. Belloc continues to say that the British and Jewish goal of World domination was synonymous and used Masonry as an instrument. "Specifically Jewish institutions, such as Masonry (which the Jews had inaugurated as a sort of bridge between themselves and their hosts in the seventeenth century) were particularly strong in Britain, and there arose a political tradition, active, and ultimately to prove of great importance, whereby the British state was tacitly accepted by foreign governments as the official protector of the Jews in other countries.

It was Britain which was expected to intervene [wherever Jewish persecution took place and] to support the Jewish financial energies throughout the World, and to receive in return the benefit of that connection." If Belloc is right, you could say the New World Order is an extension of the British Empire, in which elite British, American and Jewish interests are indistinguishable. See also my "The Jewish Conspiracy is British Imperialism." The majority of Jews would want no part of the New World Order a.k.a. "globalization" if they understood its undemocratic character and how they are being used. The true Jewish spirit holds that truth and morality are absolute and cannot be trimmed to fit one's perceived self interest. G.J. Nueberger expresses this spirit in his essay "The Great Gulf Between Zionism and Judaism."

"The Jewish people are chosen not for domination over others, not for conquest or warfare, but to serve G-d and thus to serve mankind...Thus physical violence is not a tradition or a value of the Jews. The task for which the Jewish people were chosen is not to set an example of military superiority or technical achievements, but to seek perfection in moral behaviour and spiritual purity.

Of all the crimes of political Zionism, the worst and most basic, and which explains all its other misdeeds, is that from its beginning Zionism has sought to separate the Jewish people from their G-d, to render the divine covenant null and void, and to substitute a "modern" statehood and fraudulent sovereignty for the lofty ideals of the Jewish people." The bankers obviously aren't concerned about true Judaism or racial purity and were quite willing to sacrifice millions of Jews to achieve their design by backing Hitler. They are sacrificing thousands more Jewish, American and Muslim lives in the Middle East in their Orwellian "perpetual war for perpetual peace." Does the New World Order serve a "Jewish" agenda or a banker elite agenda? I would venture that it serves the latter, and the Jewish people are an instrument of this agenda like so many other people. By giving private individuals the ability to create money out of nothing, we have created a monster which threatens to devour the planet and with it the human race. Notable Quotes On The Immorality and CRIME Of Illuminati Wars

President James Madison <http://antiwar.com/quotes.php#1047> "We have to show the American People that war is not patriotic. "

US General Smedley Butler wrote in his 1935 classic, "War Is a Racket": "I helped make Mexico safe for American oil interests in 1914," "I helped make Haiti and Cuba a decent place for the National City Bank boys to collect revenues in. I helped in the raping of half a dozen Central American republics for the benefit of Wall Street. I helped purify Nicaragua for the International Banking House of Brown Brothers in 1902-1912. I brought light to the Dominican Republic for the American sugar interests in 1916. I helped make Honduras right for American fruit companies in 1903. In China in 1927 I helped see to it that Standard Oil went its way unmolested." Butler acknowledged that he'd spent most of his thirty-three years in the Marines as "a high class muscle man for Big Business, Wall Street and the bankers. In short, I was a racketeer, a gangster for capitalism."

Name me an emperor who was ever struck by a cannonball. – Charles V of France

Wars are really a continuous stream of coordinated acts of terrorism, related to money and power instigated by the people who will benefit from the war and its expected end result. War is an instrument to expand economic power by destroying the national institutions and intelligent people of the victimized nation.

All murderers are punished unless they kill in large numbers and to the sound of trumpets. – Voltaire

War is just a racket...I believe in adequate defense at the coastline and nothing else. – General Smedley Butler

There are only two things we should fight for. One is the defense of our homes and the other is the Bill of Rights. War for any other reason is simply a racket. – General Smedley Butler

War--after all, what is it that the people get? Why--widows, taxes, wooden legs and debt. – Samuel B. Pettengill

The most fundamental purpose of government is defense, not empire. – Joseph Sobran

The first casualty when war comes is the truth. – Sen. Hiram Johnson

They wrote in the old days that it is sweet and fitting to die for one's country. But in modern war, there is nothing sweet nor fitting in your dying. You will die like a dog for no good reason. – Ernest Hemingway

"The first panacea for a mismanaged nation is inflation of the currency; second is war. Both bring a temporary (and false) prosperity; both bring a permanent ruin. But both are the refuge of political and economic opportunities." - Ernest Hemingway

True patriotism hates injustice in its own land more than anywhere else. – Clarence Darrow

You've got to forget about this civilian. Whenever you drop bombs, you're going to hit civilians. – Barry Goldwater

Don't stick a knife in me ten inches, pull it out six, and tell me you've made progress." - Malcolm X

I hate war as only a soldier who has lived it can, only as one who has seen its brutality, its futility, its stupidity. – Dwight D. Eisenhower

Peace has its victories no less than war, but it doesn't have as many monuments to unveil. – Kin Hubbard

When people speak to you about a preventive war, you tell them to go and fight it. After my experience, I have come to hate war. – Dwight D. Eisenhower

Tis nobler to lose honor to save the lives of men than it is to gain honor by taking them. – David Borenstein

"I sat there in agony thinking about all that had led me to this private hell. My idealism, my patriotism, my ambition, my plans to be a good intelligence officer to help my country fight the communist scourge - what in the hell had happened? Why did we have to bomb the people we were trying to save? Why were we napalming young children? Why did the CIA, my employer for 16 years, report lies instead of the truth?

Only the winners decide what were war crimes. – Gary Wills

Beware the leader who bangs the drums of war in order to whip the citizenry into a patriotic fervor, for patriotism is indeed a double-edged sword. It both emboldens the blood, just as it narrows the mind. And when the drums of war reached a fever pitch and the blood boils with hate and the mind has 'closed', the leader will have no need in seizing the rights of the citizenry. Rather, the citizenry, infused with fear and blinded by patriotism, will offer up all their rights unto the leader and gladly so. How do I know? Power, Money, Idolatry, Luciferian Satanism & The Kabbala Relationship: The Pilgrims, City of London 1902, New York
1903, Fabianism, Marxism, Monopoly Capitalism, Communism, Fascism, Nazism

The Vatican, Zionist MOSSAD, Rothschild dynasty's original mafia, Pilgrims and the Jesuits should be added above. The CIA is the Rockefeller's original mafia for external affairs while the FBI is for internal affairs (remember Cointelpro). The CIA and Masons also utilize charities and the Rotary Club as infiltrated fronts.

There are four interconnected (Pilgrims Society) major power brotherhoods or infiltrated fronts discussed in this book. These fronts together form the web of the New World Order (NWO) with a mix of Fabianism, Marxism and Nazism i.e.:

- The Illuminati (Nazis, Luciferians, Merovingian Bloodlines, headed by the Rothschild and Rockefeller Dynasties etc.)
- The Masons (Mystic Ancient Shrine Order of Nobles, Templars, Skull & Bones, etc.)
- The Zionists (Babylonian Talmudic Pharisees, Black Nobility, see the appendix on the Chabad-Lubavitchers, Priore de Sion or Zion, etc.)
- The Vatican (Jesuits; see the later section and appendix on the signs of the ancient occult in the Vatican and The Bank of Rome; remember The 1981 P2 Propaganda Due Scandal that was revealed in Italy, providing a Masonic link between Italian and American banking, the Vatican, the Mafia and the KGB), all working behind many other front organizations to be discussed later and detailed in the various sections and appendixes of this book.

Long ago in the dark unwritten pages of human history, powerful kings discovered how they could control other men by torture, magical practices, wars, politics, idolatrous religions and interest taking. These elite families designed strategies and tactics to perpetuate their occult practices. Layers upon layers of secrecy have hidden these families from the profane masses, but many an author has touched upon their existence. Men and women with sharp intellects like Edith Star Miller (author of Occult Theocracy) and Alexander Hislop (author of The Two Babylons) have tried to research the occult World and the connections between the different groups. Hislop's book shows that there is a continuity between the ancient occultism of the Mystery Religions and modern day religion. I am not suggesting that everyone identified with these groups is intentionally evil. Good, evil and fooled people are found in all societies. The World masses are generally ignorant of the machinations behind these politico-religious systems, and of the identity of their masters. Also, I don't know if the Illuminati have spawned their Occult practices as red-herrings for their front organizations or to fool gullible followers. However, the Occult's real aim is to empower the elite. Note that on March 5, 1998, the BBC reported that Parliament Committee Chair Chris Mullin required all members of the British Parliament who were Masons to declare their affiliation and the decree was eventually extended to include policemen and judges (forgot to extend it to the Royal Family and Lords?). This was due to concerns that secret factions within the Masons exerted considerable control over political and financial systems and protected fellow Masons from prosecution.

One of the bloodlines goes back to Babylon and are descended from Nimrod. Down through the years the occult World has remained hidden from the history books. (Publishing and education have been controlled privileges.) They have ruled behind the scenes. The Mystery Religions each had their secret councils which ruled them, and these councils themselves came under the guidance of a secret supreme Grand Council or Governing Body. The Mystery Religions in turn ruled the masses and the political leaders. The history books are full of information about the elites and the masses. Interestingly, upon very close scrutiny and examination the investigator finds that the elite have perpetuated their power for centuries, and have worked hand in glove with other elites to control the masses. When seen in better light, wars between kings no longer appear as wars between elite factions, but contrived wars to control the masses by their greedy elite masters. But who are these people? The answer may not be the answer some might expect, because power comes in many shapes and sizes. Power doesn't have to have high visibility to be active.

Witnesses of these Satanic elites like Tom Collins, and John Todd, and David Hill have tried to testify what they themselves saw--they each were destroyed. But the truth will not die with Tom Collins or David Hill. The truth did not go out of fashion just because John Todd was framed and dishonored by the Illuminati's henchmen. Several people from different places have confirmed that there are 13 Illuminati bloodlines. Further, several ex-Illuminati people have confirmed 13 families. David Hill, who was investigating the Illuminati, lost his life because he had been close to the inside as a high ranking Mason who worked for the Mafia. For instance, in David's notes he writes, "Yes, it is a fact: the Mellons, Carnegies (steel industry monopolizer), Rothschilds, Rockefellers, Dukes, Astors, Dorrances, Reynoldses, Stilimans, Bakers, Pynes, Cuilmans, Watsons, Tukes, Kleinworts, DuPonts, Warburgs, Phippses, Graces, Guggenheims, Milners, Drexels, Winthrops, Vanderbilts (railroad industry monopolizers), Whitneys, Harknesses and other super rich Illuminated families generally get along quite well with Communists, who supposedly want to take away the wealth of these men and give it to the people. Some of the Illuminati allied families if not all of them probably have intermarried somewhere with one of these bloodlines". However, this is only double talk designed to bolster the superstructure of delusion that Communists are the enemies of all Capitalists. But Communists, like the super rich families, are not the enemies of MONOPOLY-CAPITALISM: they are the foes of FREE ENTERPRISE." (Untitled manuscript of David Hill, p. 215.). Also, Fritz Springmeier explains in his books how the Illuminati control the World, and what some of their beliefs are, and about their secret and semi-secret organizations.

I recommend Mel Gibson's movie "The Passion of Christ" to learn more about Pharisees; Yashua-Joshua-Jesus repeatedly warned about the evils of the Pharisees also more details on the next section. And please don't fall into the Vatican's trap of believing that only the Vatican knows what's right for us or into the trap of tithing.

Skull & Bones, Masonry, The KKK And A Fascination With Death And Pirate Symbolism

Bush-Bones Doctrine: "There's three things to remember: claim everything, explain nothing, deny everything." - Senator Prescott Bush (Skull & Bones 1917) The Bush family patriarch made the above statement in a 1966 interview for Columbia University's oral history project on the Eisenhower administration. Prescott Bush said that political dictum had been explained to him by Claire Boothe Luce, congresswoman, ambassador and wife of Time-Life media magnate Henry Luce (Skull & Bones 1920). From the Masons to the KKK to Skull and Bones to the Bohemian Club the trend is for a fascination with death, piracy and satanic imagery. http://www.infowars.com/print/Secret_societies/kkk_sb.htm

This old photo shows a KKK member dressed in the traditional regalia as well as another dressed in a pirate/skull and bones outfit. From the Masons to the KKK to Skull and Bones to the Bohemian Club the trend is for a fascination with death, piracy and satanic imagery.

Take, for example, this skull and bones insignia and the name of the secret society itself. George W. Bush and John Kerry are both members of this secret society (see: SKULL AND BONES: GEORGE BUSH AND JOHN KERRY http://www.infowars.com/print/Secret_societies/kerry_bush_sb.htm

This bizarre, occult order meets in a building called "The Tomb" Esquire magazine reports: "The death of the initiate will be as frightful as the use of human skeletons and ritual psychology can make it..." (Esquire Magazine, "The Last Secrets of Skull and Bones", Ron Rosenbaum, p. 89) and initiates] "lay naked in coffins and tell their deepest and darkest sexual secrets as part of their initiation." While inside the Bohemian Grove in California, Alex Jones noticed repeated death and occult imagery.

Take, for instance, this picture from the hidden video he took inside Bohemian Grove. The sign, which was above the entrance to one of the camps, portrays a skull and the words "Je Suis LaFitte." Translated, that means, "I am LaFitte." (a famous pirate) there is some highly secret activity going sneak out of the closed base a day, and for very interesting. The planes take off in the Democrat of Santa Rosa ran an article on to the east of the airport. However, when one reads <http://mercury.spaceports.com/~persewen/fritz/fritz-ch2-1.html> . The property was "being used by FEMA" (707-542-4534). If one thinks about it, it is unlikely that the radio station is a FEMA transmitter station.

The close vicinity of this secret activity to the elite's Bohemian Grove makes this an interesting site for study. The airport used for the Bohemian Grove visitors is north of Santa Rosa on hwy 101, the Sonoma County Airport. United Express and American Eagle (which flies to and from San Jose) fly into this airport, which has a control tower. In 1964, the airport was reported to have also carried about 600 military operations (either a takeoff or landing) per year. It was around this time that the Federal government made an agreement with Sonoma County Airport to help pay for the runway to be extended, the runway to be strengthened and the airport to be upgraded in numerous ways. The elite from around the World fly into here to go to the Bohemian Grove, which is in the Monte Rio area. Monarch slaves are regularly abused at the Grove for the entertainment of Bohemian Grove members in kinky sex theme rooms, such as the dark room and the necrophilia room. Secret NWO order business is conducted in the small, dark lounge with a wooden sign naming it U.N.DERGROUND. Slaves are hunted in the woods for sport, and occult rituals, including infant sacrifice, are held outdoors in the Grove. These airfields are described in detail so that the reader can begin to catch on to the network of small planes and airfields the Monarch system uses to transport children. The children are trickled in from various collection points to China Lake. Lets learn more about Masonic Illuminati symbolism. Pg. 744 "All truly dogmatic religions have issued from the Kabalah and return to it: everything scientific and grand in the religious dreams of all the illuminati, Jacob Boehme, Swedenborg, Saint-Martin, and others, is borrowed from the Kabalah; all the Masonic Associations owe to it their Secrets and their Symbols." Pg. 321 "Lucifer, the Light-bearer!....Lucifer, the Son of the Morning ! Is it he who bears the Light ?....Doubt it not!" 15 August in an alleged letter to the Italian revolutionary leader Giuseppe Mazzini, Albert Pike, the leader of the Illuminati's activities in the United States and the head of Scottish Rite Masonry at the time, described a distant final war, which he felt would be necessary to usher in the New World Order. ...According to Pike, this conflict between two future superpowers would be sparked by first igniting a crisis between Islam and Judaism. He went on to write: "We shall unleash the nihilists and the atheists and we shall provoke a great social cataclysm which, in all its horror, will show clearly to all nations the effect of absolute atheism, the origin of savagery and of most bloody turmoil. Then, everywhere, the people, forced to defend themselves against the World minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization; and the multitudes, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will be from that moment on without direction and leadership, anxious for an ideal but without knowledge where to send its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out into public view; a manifestation which will result from a general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time." A prominent Arab-Christian leader recently informed me that according to his contacts in Lebanon, King Assad of Syria and King Hussein of Jordan were both Masons. ...For at least several centuries, Jordan has been a bastion for the secret societies in the Middle East and has much more influence in the region's behind the scenes politics than most people realize.

I am not suggesting that everyone identified with these groups is intentionally evil. Good, evil and fooled people are found in all societies. The World masses are generally ignorant of the machinations behind these politico-religious systems, and of the identity of their masters. There are two types of Masons:

- TYPE 1; A Mason who is unaware of certain facts regarding the subject.
- TYPE 2; A Mason who KNOWS the truth and is trying to keep the first type and the general public from realizing it. This Mason is Satanic. (ELITE Mason)

To the Masons of Peace

The Honorable Yitzhak Rabin, Prime Minister of Israel
His Majesty King Hussein of Jordan
The Honorable Bill Clinton, President of the United States

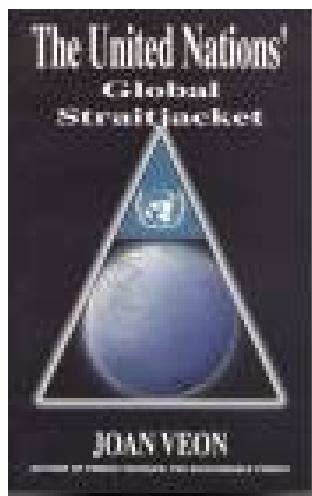

With warm fraternal congratulations

Ephraim Fuchs
President of the Israel Order of Masons

In the minds of many, Masonry is inextricably linked to Judaism, mostly due to the Qababalistic system of numbers (Gematria) used during the rituals and references to the Temple of Solomon, and this is not true-Torah-Judaism but rather a counterfeit Pharisaism marketed as Judaism. In reality, Masons are mostly pretend to be Christian (90 per cent in the U.S. and the majority of US presidents) although it must be said that Jewish Masons tend to be influential, and are said to include several Israeli politicians, including Benjamin Netanyahu, Rabin, Sharon. Moslem masons included King Hussein of Jordan. In 1996, a new lodge was formed in Israel, named after Sir Moses Montefiori, a prominent Mason and the brother-in-law of Nathan Rothschild. Its website reads: "The consecration (of the new lodge) took place in the quarries of Jerusalem..." From this choice of location, one can, perhaps, interpret that members of this lodge believe that the origins of Masonry are linked to the construction of Solomon's Temple.

Albert Pike in his Morals and Dogma writes: "The room of place in which they (Masons) meet, representing some part of the Temple of Solomon, is also called the lodge". Masonic Forum magazine, while profiling Isaac Grassiani, the founder of the Supreme Masonic Council of Israel, suggests that Israel is "the legendary birthplace of the Craft." Recall that Pike's letter was written in 1871. He refers to Zionism by name, yet there was no major Zionism in 1871. Nor were there major Fascists or a communist Russia. Pike's letter is no forgery, in fact it was, for a long time, on very public display. He was privy to the highest secrets of his order and he revealed them honestly. After reading Pike's revelations, one can only come to the conclusion that history is not random, it is planned. Pike's letter proves by its very terminology that, among other issues, the Holocaust of the 1940s was as manipulated as is the upcoming war to the end with Israel. Note with strong interest, that both Islam and Israel are slated for annihilation by the Illuminati. There are numerous sources exposing the Masonic game of infiltrating Judaism and Islam and Christianity to promote its demise from within. One of the most important books exposing Masonry's near-total corruption of Judaism are Rabbi Marvin Antelman's, To Eliminate The Opiate, Volumes One and Two. Below, in private correspondence, Rabbi Antelman explains how a Masonic symbol, the Star Of David was foisted on the Jews: "You ask a very significant question. The late professor Gershom Scholem stated "The hexagram is not a Jewish symbol, much less 'the symbol of Judaism.' In my research, I came across microfilms of rare books by Rabbi Yaakov Emden exposing the Sabbatians written in the early 1750s. He reproduced satanic amulets most of which were in hexagrams and cursed the Sabbatians who created them. For a comprehensive well documented history on the Magen David, I refer you to Prof. Scholem's; The Star of David, History of a Symbol which appears in The Messianic Idea In Judaism. (Schoken,NY(1971). Kol tuv, Rabbi M.S. Antelman. You can acquire To Eliminate The Opiate both volumes by writing Rabbi Antelman directly at impy@netvision.net.il or contacting Barry Chamish at Nakhal Zohar 40/2, Modiin 71700 Israel.

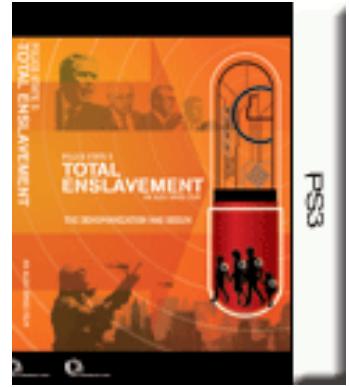

Just like scientists who suspect that the four fundamental forces observed in the universe are actually manifestations of a single unified force field, I suspect that these four major power fronts are manifestations of a single evil plan emerging possibly as the Anti-Christ or Dajjal from whose serfdom & slavery only the 2nd coming of Yashua-Isa-Yashua-Joshua will be able to free the masses (like Abraham's coming freed some of the slaves of Nimrod-Namrood, like Moses' coming freed the slaves from the Pharaohs, like Muhammad's coming freed the slaves of Arabia).

The Anti-Christ Dajjal Satanists' System

Here is a brief outlook on the Anti-Christ System which will be the most evil, deceitfully covered-up, corrupt and satanic force in history. The Anti-Christ or Dajjal or New World Order (NWO) system will promote mass corruption, immorality, idol satanic-worship, usury (whose enslaving power will be explained in detail in this book), intoxication, crime, rape, injustice, oppression, fanaticism, wars, famine, massacres, and suffering on an immeasurable scale.

Most important positions in the United Nations, the EEC, the British parliament and United States government are held by people who are high-ranking masons or otherwise agents of the New World Order. For example, Masonry has something in the region of 700,000 members in England and Wales only (about 6 million World-wide), yet the British public hardly knows anything about them. Masons secretly worship a Devil god, known as JAHBULON (see pages 230-240 of the International best selling book on Masonry "The Brotherhood", by Stephen Knight or the "Satanic Voices", by David. M. Pidcock). It may also surprise you to know that most Christian organizations are infiltrated by Masonic institutions. About 60% of the Archbishops are Masons and secretly practice Devil-worship (see above mentioned books). If you want to know if a church is being used as a Masonic-Temple, then look on the stained glass windows for a Masonic symbol such as a snake and a dagger or a hexagram or pyramids. Note that on the private Federal Reserve Dollar $ bill, the Great Seal of The United States' Masonic pyramid is shown with the Latin words "Novus Ordo Seclorum"- translated as NEW SECRET ORDER. Let's place this in an historical perspective. After Prophet Noah's Flood, secret societies arose in Babylon through the knowledge transplanted by Ham (Noah's second son), whose son, Cush (also known as Hermes), claimed to be the interpreter of the gods. Cush was the original ring leader who led the people away from the one true God and as the "interpreter of the gods" enticed them to take another form of religion. Cush, was the father of the idolatrous-polytheistic and trinitarian systems, so when men were deified by men, he became Bel-Baal-Sun god whom the Romans called Janus and Chaos, the father of the gods (guess why Sunday or Sun-god-day is a weekly holiday!). He is pictured as having two faces and he carried a club by which he confounded and "scattered" the people. See later sections for full details on the ancient Sun god.

From among Noah's third son Japheth-Yefeth's descendants are the Pharisees, the converted Ashkenazi fake Khazarian Jews and the Gog & Magog barbaric phallic-worshipping Turkic tribes; they are mostly today's Zionists or non-Israelite Jews or Babylonian Talmudists or Pharisees (full details in the next section on anti-Semitism where it will be shown that Zionists are the real anti-Semites who pretend to be Biblical Jews but are really occultists!). A fourth son, Yam or Kenaan, perished in the flood along with Noah's wife. Thus, four millennia ago, in Sumerian times after Noah's ancient flood in Mesopotamia, humanity again were stooped to polytheism and moral degeneration in the helm of material progress. Cush encouraged the masses to build the tower of Babel (Sun-god Baal or Bel) which his son Nimrod (Namrood) actually built later. This encouragement brought the confusion and division among men, so that he was both "interpreter and confuser". The word "Babylon" translates as "confusion" in English. The roots of Wiccan idolatry are also set in this ancient age; Wicca, or Witchcraft, is the most popular expression of the religious movement known as Neo-Paganism (nature or self-worship), which, according to the Institute for the Study of American Religion, is the fastest growing religion in the United States. Its practitioners are reviving ancient goddess Pagan (the 5-pointed star or pentacle is the symbol of Venus; Venus' 4 year-cycle is reflected in the Olympics and its 5 circles on the Olympic flag; May day to celebrate nature's regeneration) practices and beliefs of pre-Christian Europe and adapting them to contemporary life. This can be traced all the way back to Nimrod's wife Semiremis. A descendant from Prophet Noah's first son, monotheistic Abraham confronted Nimrod over idolatry. Abraham is the ancestor to a number of Semitic (descendants of Sem-Shem Noah's first son) Middle-Eastern Arabs and Israelites, and has religious significance for three major World religions (Judaism, Christianity, and Islam).

So, four thousand years ago in Sumerian times (after Noah's flood and during the life of Prophet Abraham), the masses worshipped the sun, the moon and the stars. They prayed to idols built of wood and stone and made many offerings for them, including offerings to Moloch. The priests and druids enjoyed a prominent place in society. They commanded respect among their followers. They were well paid. The poor people and slaves were ruled by the chiefs and priests, and were subjected to their cruelty and injustice. Secret societies were initiated since then. The history of the past 2,000 years is the record of warfare between the successors of Babylon, Rome and Israel in their rivalry for World hegemony. Genuine Christians, Muslims, Israelites and Atheists are despised, rejected and ridden-over rough shod by these secret societies. The Masonic Khazars were behind the instigations that led to the ancient Crusades (see the section on fake terror) and are behind the renewed empire building events. Thus, in summary, the Illuminist or Satanic conspiracy reorganized after Prophet Noah's Flood with the secret societies that arose in Babylon through the forbidden knowledge transplanted by Ham, whose son, Cush (also known as Hermes), claimed to be the interpreter of the gods, as described above. We may call these Luciferians Illuminati (meaning "illuminated ones"), a name that describes the followers of Lucifer, who was "the sum of wisdom and beauty" (Ezekiel 28:11). Satanists believe that Lucifer's rebellion against God had its first manifestation in the Garden of Eden where he "illuminated" Eve, causing the fall.

The Bible (Torah & New Testament) and the Babylonian Talmud (the book of fake-Jews, Pharisees) portray Rome and the "Pharisees" as mortal enemies. What the protagonists do not realize is that they are each ruled by the same masters under Satan-Lucifer-Illuminati, and are brought into planned conflict in order to produce a predetermined outcome ultimately intended to destroy and demoralize God-worshipping groups and their beliefs. Pharisees were behind the murders and attempted murders of some of the descendants of Abraham who were Prophets and Messengers of God, were behind turning the Israelites towards pagan (nature or self-) worship of the calf after collecting their gold, were behind the drive to crucify Yashua-Joshua-Jesus when he started opposing their evils of usury and occultism, were behind the creation of the hate literature known as the Babylonian Talmud, were behind establishing the Bank of Rome's tight control over Europe, were behind the mediaeval Crusades, the private central banks such as the Federal Reserve, and are behind today's barbaric Crusades!

The Temple site in Jerusalem (until the advent of the Prophet King David in 1004 B.C., Jerusalem's name was Jebus or Quds and was inhabited by the Jebusites, a Canaanite tribe; Zion or Sion or Sun was the name given to a Jebusite fortress located on a hill in south eastern Jerusalem which was the site of the Prophet King Solomon-Sulaiman's temple) are important in the plans to create a World Super Government run from Jerusalem in an enlarged State of Israel, extending from the Nile in the West and to the Euphrates in the East, because Masons of all ranks and degrees have duped some Christians and Jews into working towards this goal in the belief that it is sanctioned with divine authority. Nothing could be further from the truth. According to the Regus Manuscript and the Halliwell poem at The Grand Lodge of England, the original spiritual home of Satanic Masonry was, until the early part of the 19th century, the Tower of Babel in Babylon (near Baghdad) not the Temple at Jerusalem, and its first Grand Master was its builder Nimrod (Namrood) - and definitely not King Solomon. The Zionists knew that Christians and Orthodox Jews would never support a movement that held Nimrod and the Tower of Babel in such high regard, so through the age old process which I call Generic Engineering they switched all the names and thus disguised their real intention, which was to expel the true believers in the God of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus, Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob and the tribes of Israel by installing the forces of Anti-God and Anti-Christ in their place.

Illuminati Tactics of Deceptions

This tactic is explained in "Hegelian Dialectics and Conspiracy": As we examine the philosophy behind national and international affairs, we discover it has a common purpose and source in every major nation... Even the Communist take-over in China was managed by the same super-rich elite who masterminded and financed Fascism, Nazism, and the Communist takeover of Russia (at the expense of taxpayers in America and other Western nations), hence every Chinese salutes the red star of Illuminism-Zionism. America betrayed Chiang Kaishek (a 33 Degree Mason grand-master) in 1948 and switched support to the Chinese Communists via Communist Russia. And on January 31st 1949, Communists in American tanks rolled into Peking. The mass murderer, Chairman Mao (with Zionist "voluntary advisers" behind him), and his terrible Trotskyist experiments reached a frightening perfection in Pol Pot's Khmer Rouge Cambodia (in co-operation with Sir Henry Kissinger and the US Office of Population Affairs). Similarly the United States helped Adolf Hitler and Saddam Hussein and the Taliban.

The wealthy Illuminatus, David Rockefeller, described Mao's reign of terror as "one of the most important and successful in human history" (The New York Times, August 10th 1973). Since then, the Lenin style reigns of terror have happened in several places and now we have the people behind Bolshevism doing it to the Palestinians, Afghans, the Iraqis, and most likely will be spreading this to more Middle Eastern countries. Amschel Mayer Rothschild financed the Illuminati, commissioning Adam Weishaupt in the late 1700s to update the Alumbrado, (an earlier form of Illuminati-ism whence the Ignatius Loyola spawned the Jesuits) to establish "Illuminist" World hegemony. Illuminatus Albert Pike outlined plans to accomplish this objective in an alleged letter to Giuseppe Mazzini, head of the World Revolutionary Movement. This letter dated August 15th 1871, was once catalogued in the British Museum Library and it was copied by William Guy Carr, former Intelligence Officer in the Royal Canadian Navy but seems to have "disappeared" and the British Library has said in writing that such a document has never been in their possession. In Carr's book, Satan, Prince of this World, Carr includes the following footnote "The Keeper of Manuscripts recently informed the author that this letter is NOT catalogued in the British Museum Library. It seems strange that a man of Cardinal Rodriguez's knowledge should have said that it WAS in 1925". It appears that Carr learned about this letter from Cardinal Caro y Rodriguez of Santiago, Chile, who wrote The Mystery of Masonry Unveiled. Even if the letter is a forgery, it still predicts what is happening, just like the Protocols.

Albert Pike was an American Boston-born masonic grandmaster of the 19th century. Unlike others of his cult, he was less than secretive and recorded the master plan in his writings. He was a linguist who rose to Grand Commander of North American Masonry from 1859-1891 and authored a Masonic handbook called The Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Rite of Masonry. In this, Pike explains how the true meaning behind the symbols of Masonry must be kept from ordinary Masons: "Their true explication is reserved for the Adepts, the Princes of Masonry..." Pike's plan was ingeniously simple. The inherent antagonism between different ideologies and religions was to be stirred up and made to explode in three World wars and three revolutions. The First World War was to destroy the three European empires, at that time being the last remaining bulwarks against Illuminism. One of these (Russia) was to be made a centre of atheist totalitarianism (Communism). The Second World War was to erupt from heightened tensions between the Jewish race (as Zionism) and extreme European nationalism (Nazism and Fascism). This war would weaken Europe economically and politically and Communism would expand and become as strong as all Christendom, but not stronger, until the time was up for the final destruction of society to bring the Masonic order out of the chaos. A third reason for the Second World War was to create a Zionist-Illuminati state in Palestine. Gradually, it would be possible to thereby heighten the tensions between Judaism and Islam until they broke out in a war which would bring in all of the World powers.

The first two revolutions, which would aid this carefully planned dissolution of all human civilization, were the Russian and the Chinese. If the plans of the international banker/Illuminati cabal were to be brought to fruition, Russia, Germany, Japan and the United States would have to be brought to their knees in unconditional surrender, poverty and ignominy (Des Griffin, "Descent Into Slavery", Emissary Publications, 1984, p. 38-40). The reader will realize that most of this evil plan has already become reality. Concerning the last stage, General Pike wrote the following: "We shall unleash the Nihilists and Atheists and provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the World minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment on be without compass (direction), anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view, a manifestation which will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time." (Juri Lina, "Under the Sign of the Scorpion", Referent Publishing, Stockholm, 1998, p. 48-49). It is not unconceivable to think that lists of people to be eliminated are currently being compiled and we have already seen many high profile people from all walks of life taken out (see samples in the appendix on Timely Deaths for the New World Order). Hopefully, we will be able to navigate through our lives clearly and will avoid being fooled by the forces of the New World Order as a result of some of the knowledge provided in this book. I have no idea if the Illuminati and their collaborators are practicing the ancient Occults because they actually believe in its power, or because they find it fun or because it will distract others or because it will help them recruit followers who will obey them or because they hate God's guidance like Satan did! In any case, their real power now lies in the control of the banking systems and the issuance of money with which they can buy just about anyone and anything as you will see later. I am not suggesting that everyone identified with these groups is intentionally evil. Good, evil and fooled people are found in all societies. The World masses are generally ignorant of the machinations behind these politico-religious systems, and of the identity of their masters. Also, I don't know if the Illuminati have spawned their Occult practices as red-herrings for their front organizations or to fool gullible followers. However, the Occult's real aim is to empower the elite.

Helmut Schmidt, in his own autobiography, "Men and Powers, a Political Retrospective," says that he is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission and the Bilderberg group. He also says that he has been an active participant in bringing in World government. Mr. Schmidt also said in his book that leaders from globalist bodies travel to the Grove every summer. He talks about secret groves in Germany where they do druidic rituals, but indicates that Bohemian Grove is his favorite place to participate in rituals.

Left is the British Museum's £1.5m "beauty" Lilith, "Queen of the Night" between the Owls. <http://ccat.sas.upenn.edu/%7Ehummm/Topics/Lilith/> Lilith is the most important of a small collection of named female demons in Babylonian Talmudic legend. She is actually older than Judaism defined as a post-restoration phenomenon.

Her earliest appearance is probably in ancient Sumer. She appears once in (Isaiah), in a context that associates her with demons of the again in some Dead Sea passages clearly based on reference. We see more of Roman/early medieval Talmudism. What he is trying as history is that the occult underground are actually the true followers of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus, and that they are preserving his descendants, from which is to emerge the great "King" of the Protocols, who, as Messiah, or more properly, the anti-Christ, is to rule the World. Ultimately, she is Lilith, and part of their One-World-Religion agenda is their promotion of their regard for the "rights" of women, to disguise their actual subversion of humanity, through the destruction of the balance which ought naturally to exist between the role of a man and a woman. I just wanted to add, that Lilith is Lucifer. In the occult, their god is of a dual androgynous nature, represented by both male and female. The male is the dying-god, whose death and resurrection are celebrated annually, while the goddess is his mother, but also his sister and spouse. The dying-god is symbolized by the Sun and the bull, while the goddess is the planet Venus, whose original Latin name is Lucifer. Lilith represents the darker aspects of the god, or the "black goddess", for whom evil sacrifices are performed. The Wisdom of Solomon is the central document of the Kabbalistic tradition. It is a love poem representing dedications between a "loved" and "beloved". It is interpreted by Kabbalists to represent a love relationship between God and the Jewish people, who are in exile, and long to be returned to their loved-one. The female aspect here is known as the Shekhina, who also represents the Jewish people. As the female "Wisdom", she is also known by the Greek word "Sophia". In Europe, the cult of the black virgin was pervasive, where she was understood esoterically to represent Lilith. This cult was related to the Cathar heresy, itself derived from the influence of the Kabbalah in the late twelfth century AC. The Cathars were also related to the Templars, the great disseminators of the occult tradition in the West. It was the Templars who had been responsible for discovering ancient texts beneath the Temple of Jerusalem during the mediaeval Crusades that set off the great revival of the Kabbalah in southern France, in the city of Narbonne. It also happens that Narbonne was the seat of a "King of the Jews", who claimed descent from the line of David. From it was to be descended the Messiah. It appears also that this line intermarried with the French aristocracy, from which point the Jewish symbol of the Lily becomes the symbol of French royalty. It is no less than the Zohar itself, the great Kabbalistic text of the period, which notes that the meaning of the lily, with which the beloved is compared in the Song of Solomon, is the symbol of the "Jewish Congregation". The Templars were also supposedly protectors of a "sacred" bloodline, known historically as the Holy Grail. This lineage is to be of dual Jewish and Merovingian descent. However, this was an invention, because their relationship with the Merovingians was only established through their intermarriage with the French aristocracy. Nevertheless, the legend was invented that it was Yashua-Joshua-Jesus himself who had initiated this lineage, through his marriage to Mary Magdalene. But, Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was a great reformer, and a pronounced opponent of the deviations of the Kabbalah. The account is not to be taken literally. Rather, Mary Magdalene was used merely as a Gnostic symbol, in the form of a "black goddess", to represent Lilith. (see David Livingstone, author of The Dying God: The Hidden History of Western Civilization.) She appears frequently on prophylactic magical bowls and is associated with childbirth as a threat, and perhaps also as a succubus against which men need protection. She shows up in the Talmud, and is linked with the demonic World. She represents the feminine dark side that men subliminally

Are Our Leaders Criminals and Satanists? Cloak and Dagger Internet Radio says you can add "murderers, traitors and liars" to this list as well. Each week host Nelson Thall ("Lenny Bloom") and regular guests, Tom Henighan [a friend and advisor of Al Gore] and Sherman Skolnick "uncover the cover-ups." [their program had to be shifted from the MOJO Radio Toronto show to the Internet due to pressure from Bush associates; It was former Vice-President Al Gore's office that advised The Cloak that President Bush personally told Prime Minister Paul Martin at their meeting in Monterrey, Mexico that "there would be no oil concessions until that loudmouth in Toronto is off the air."] A typical show last week revealed that President George W. Bush ("Bush-fraud") was involved in a satanic mass murder in 1984 in Brownsville TX in which 17 cult members were slain [see graphic photos at Cathy O'Brien and Mark Phillips' classic "Trance-formation of America" which exposes the true depravity of our leaders; a warning, It is very graphic and upsetting]. During the 2000 election campaign, reporters confronted Dubya and he didn't deny it. Apparently Dubya's teeth marks were found on one of the victims but Daddy Bush, a practicing satanist himself, got it covered up. [last year, Margie Schoedinger who had filed charges against Bush for rape was found dead, supposedly suicide <http://fp.enter.net/~haney/jt112203-2.htm>]. Gradually people are recognizing that mankind has been swindled on a cosmic scale by a satanic cult headquartered in the City of London. Is it really so unbelievable that mankind's moral development would not be in the interests of the financial elite and that they would take elaborate steps to control, stunt and even destroy us? Is it so unbelievable that they would adopt a perverse ideology to rationalize their Rule of Evil? This is a war of consciousness and satanists control the big guns: the weapons of mass communications. The resistance, which believes man's duty is to express his Divine not lower nature, has one weapon, the Internet.

Many leaders are guilty of depravities that would discredit them if widely known. This is their Achilles' heel. Recently, Tom Henighan reported that shocking information is contained in Kerry's divorce records, and is used to blackmail and control him. John Kerry ("Cash and Carry") has been filmed in a snuff porn video with underage girls in England. Henighan, a friend and advisor of Al Gore, with Intelligence connections, says Kerry is an agent of British Intelligence (MI-6). Not only are both Presidential candidates members of a secret satanic society, the Skull and Bones, they are related as well! Kerry is a third cousin of George W. Bush on his mother's side. The illusion of democracy is sustained by the elite controlled news media and the phenomena is similar to the way people are attracted to the WWF wrestling entertainment knowing full well that the matches are rigged and both men work for the same bosses. Cloak and Dagger reported for months that Canada Steamship Lines owned by Canadian Prime Minister Paul Martin's family was smuggling cocaine. On July 1, 2004, authorities found $13 million worth attached to the hull of one of his ships. The media stated that smugglers had secreted their stash without the company's knowledge. Would this excuse work if it were found on your car? Henighan says John Edwards made his reputation as an injury lawyer by bribing his juries. Edwards's agenda is to expose Kerry's improprieties and bump him. Jay Rockefeller will become VP. Henighan is passionate in denouncing the political elite as "filth." His indignation, so natural yet so rare, is refreshing and inspiring to hear. He says the US media is "the enemy of the American people" and he has the dirt on many news celebrities. He calls Al Gore the "elected and uninaugurated" President of the United States and says the 2000 election was "stolen." Apparently thousands of black voters (Gore supporters) were prevented from voting by the Florida governor, Dubya's brother Jeb, They were pronounced "felons" and removed from the voter's lists.

Much of this skullduggery is supported by top-secret documents posted on the cloak and dagger site. Henighan maintains that there is a war raging within the US government between the Bush-Clinton-Kerry "fascist-criminal-cabal" and those who want to bring them to justice for complicity in the 9-11 attack. Henighan says Sandy Berger [Burglar] was caught removing National Archives documents [in his underwear]that would implicate him and accomplices in the millions of dollars made from put options purchased on airline and insurance stocks before the 9-11 attacks. The Cloak and Dagger show is on Sunday through Tuesday at 9 p.m. E.S.T. The last program replays for 24 hours. You can subscribe to their archives for $20 for six month. I also recommend the veteran Resistance Voices: the Jeff Rense program and Alex Jones's show. Jones recently had an interview with John DeCamp who exposed the pedophile sex ring in the Reagan-Bush White House [The Franklin Affair http://sf.indymedia.org/news/2002/10/1538670_comment.php]. [a documentary is also available on the Clinton drug laundering Mena affair in Arkansas] Rense's archive contains invaluable interviews with experts like Webster Tarpley, Tim Rifat and Joan Veon. His program is always inspiring. Crime and depravity are the elite's soft underbelly. Let's support these courageous shows and spread the word. The elite depends on our credulity and docility. If we can expose them, they cannot govern. If we insist on the law, we can put them in jail where they belong.

Who Owns The Neo-Priests of the Major Media & the Voting Machines Programs? \(check out tvnewslies.org\)

Wars have been fought and depressions have been caused in the battle over who issues the money; however the majority of us are not aware of this, largely due to the fact that the winning side becomes and increasingly continues to be a vital and respected member of our global society, having an influence over large aspects of our lives including our education, our media, our elections and our governments. Half the truth = one BIG LIE! Let's see briefly how the press spins the news and covers up or hides the truth. Storm, a CBS news reporter asked Michael Moore about his film being propaganda; he said, "No. I consider the CBS Evening News propaganda. Why don't we talk about the news on this and the other networks that didn't do the job they should have done at the beginning of this war, demanded the evidence, asked the hard questions. We may not have even gone into this war, had these networks done their job. I mean, it was a great disservice to the American people because we depend on people who work here and the other networks to go after those in power and say, 'Hey, wait a minute. You want to send our kids off to war? We want to know where the weapons of mass destruction are. Let's see the proof. Let's see the proof Saddam Hussein had something to do with Sept. 11.' There was no proof and everybody got embedded and everybody rolled over and everybody knows that now," he says.

"The enormous gap between what US leaders do in the World and what Americans think their leaders are doing is one of the great propaganda accomplishments of the dominant political mythology.": Michael Parenti political scientist, author.

"A slave is he who cannot speak his thoughts.": Euripides

"Search for the truth is the noblest occupation of man; its publication is a duty." : Anne Louise Germaine de Staél - (1766-1817) French author

Storm notes the one thing that journalists try to do is present both sides of the story and "it could be argued you did not do that in this movie." "I certainly didn't. That's right. I present my side," Moore says. "Because my side, that's the side of millions of Americans, rarely gets told. And so this is just a humble plea on my behalf, not to you personally, Hannah, but I'm saying to journalists in general that instead of working so hard to tell both sides of the story, why don't you just tell that one side, which is the administration's. Why don't you ask them the hard questions?" Moore points out at the beginning of the war there was a lot of "cheerleading going on. A lot of cheerleading that didn't do the public any good to have journalists standing in front of the camera going whoopy-do, let's all go to war. It's not their kids going to war. It's not the children of the news executives going to war." The film is not just an attack on the president and his policy, it also points out how the networks failed at the beginning of the war, Moore says. Perhaps his next film should be on the networks, Storm suggests. "I know. I think I should do that," Moore responded. Note that Moore stayed away from exposing the CIA/Mossad as the planners and controllers behind 9-11 which we hope will be his next task. He unfortunately missed the point that Saudi Arabia had nothing to do with 9-11 and it was rather the CIA/Mossad who had a lot to do with 9-11. As an example of press influence, notice how the press focused on whether John O'Neill betrayed Bush when he revealed the Bush ocean of lies instead of focusing on the fact that Bush lied and is still lying to everyone in a bid to launch the Illuminati wars!

Or notice how suddenly congresswoman Cynthia McKinney was out-voted in 2002 after questioning the official 9-11 fairy tale, exposing Zionist terror, exposing the use of small bombs dropped on Afghanistan that looked like food packets (picture below), and after exposing the long term harmful effects of depleted uranium bombs? Or notice how when in 1988 Democratic Presidential Gary Hart made an anti-Illuminati comment on McNeil Lehrer News Hour that the USA had to quit doing everything that Israel wanted and three weeks later or so, the Big Media came down on Hart like a ton of bricks and exposed his alleged but never proven affair with Donna Rice (however improper association was proven when Donna Rice turned up in a picture sitting on Hart's lap on a party boat named the "Monkey Business.") Hart was targeted to go down in 1988 after he made one independent comment against the criminals running the state fraudulently being called Israel, -- so the big media OBSESSIVELY covered this Donna Rice incident until Hart's fund raising dried up and he had to drop out. This is not a defense of Hart; I'm just using this example to show how the Illuminati running the media work when compared with the next example. And in 1992, when Bill Clinton (zipper-gate) had already been tapped to be "elected" President, ACTUAL AUDIOTAPES produced by his long time mistress, Gennifer Flowers, - tapes which proved Clinton's longstanding affair with her - were ridiculed to death by this same national media. They ridiculed it only as a last resort once they couldn't suppress it thanks to Flowers' dramatic press conference on the eve of the 1992 New Hampshire primary. Don Hewitt of "60 Minutes" had Bill and Hillary Clinton on that next weekend to provide a PRETEXT for Clinton's imminent "comeback" via "computer counted" elections on Super Tuesday (see the section on computer election frauds later and note that the Rothschild and Rockefeller groups of companies own the companies that manufacture voting machines systems). In response to Secretary of State Powell's comments on Putin's election and alleged irregularities in the Russian election, you may recall that Putin's response was "Don't tell me about elections and democracy; remember Florida before you speak". Of course, both represent competing mafias. Another example about what the media is pushing on the election as a whole: Alan Lichtman, top Washington Pollster and always an entertaining interview, said to Joe Scarborough on MSNBC on December 15, 2003, that W. Bush already had the 2004 Election won (!) - that the economy and such things as the capture of Saddam and the perception that Bush can fight the War on Terror means that W. Bush can't be beat. Lichtman pontificated that the twists and turns on the campaign trail do not determine an election. This will be news to most people - BUT, whether he knows it or not, Lichtman is absolutely correct - the SECRET programs which tell the election computers what to do - are controlled by a few people serving the Illuminati Masonic Elites, by the Rothschilds and the Rockefellers companies.

The Rockefellers invite us to die for Standard Oil Monopoly!

Whenever you see or hear the phrase "War on Terror", substitute: "War on the Illuminati's or Israel's enemies" (you will see later that Israel is a Moloch State of the Illuminati). Thanks for Michael Hoffman at <http://www.hoffman-info.com> for that insight. And the war on the Illuminati's enemies means a war not only on Palestinians and Arab states, but also a war on American citizens who oppose the Illuminati's agenda; a number of Americans, such as Congressman Jim Traficant, David Duke, etc, are sitting in jail or on the sidelines RIGHT NOW, -- not for any sins or transgressions they may or may not have committed -- but for opposing this agenda in one way or another. Many others have supposedly committed suicide or have been murdered. At

So we are witnessing a repeat of the tactics used in year 2000. From January 2000 until Election Day 2000, the 5 Big TV Networks emphasized day after day that it was a "neck and neck" race between Bush and Gore, Bush and Gore, Bush and Gore, Bush and Gore. The purpose of that Big Media coordination was to preempt the 3rd party effort of Pat Buchanan before it could get off the ground ("I've got to vote for Bush, we CAN'T have Gore.")

Left: A Masonic Order of The Skull & Bones, York Rite, Ritual. Both Bush & Kerry are high-degree members.

Well, as we said in 2000, Bush is Gore and Gore is Bush. And now Bush is Kerry and Kerry is Bush. All these Big Media chosen "contenders" seem real fearless when they talk about this or that, but they are all very obedient to the Illuminati State, Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon and the Ruling Elite of the Illuminati Masonry behind him. Both Bush and Kerry are comrades from the York Rite of Masonry of the Skull & Bones order. Things aren't much different in other countries. In Canada both the Prime Minister Paul Martin and the opposition leader Stephen Harper are members of the Bilderberg tyrants' club. In the UK, Tony Blair is a Bilderberger, etc.

The 2004 Democratic presidential primary campaign provided a textbook example of how a genuine movement of popular protest against the policies of the ruling elite-the mass opposition to Bush's invasion of Iraq-could be channeled within the two-party system and politically emasculated. The stage is now set for a presidential election contest between two representatives of the American political establishment, Kerry and George W. Bush, who have no fundamental differences. In a country of nearly 300 million people, with a complex and increasingly polarized social structure, the political choice offered in November will be to decide which Yale-educated scion of a wealthy family will govern the country. On the most burning issue, the war in Iraq, Kerry's differences with Bush are purely tactical. He opposes demands for the withdrawal of American troops from the occupied country and calls for the commitment of whatever military forces and resources are required to crush the Iraqi resistance. Ralph Nader is getting ready to run as a third part candidate for the Green Party. This year, Nader will be given reasonable coverage. Such was NOT the case in 1996! Why? In 1996, Billy Jeff Clinton was "anointed" to win by the Illuminati nobility - so Ralph Nader's 3rd Party candidacy was given VERY, VERY, VERY scant coverage. He was NOT to split Clinton's vote, who was slated to win in 1996. Clinton was in that period, for reasons unbeknownst to him, turning the entire US government over to the Illuminati Zionist Supremacists who were then setting the stage for the "War on Terror", i.e., the Illuminati Masonic push for their New World Order Tyranny. In 2000, it was quite a different story. Nader got TONS of coverage in his 3rd Party run - because in that year he was to SPLIT Al Gore's vote in order to make believable the "election" of the "anointed" George W. Bush. In sharp contrast - Coverage of Patrick Buchanan's 3rd Party run was COMPLETELY CENSORED by ABC, CBS, and NBC nightly news from January 1, 2000 to Election day, 2000 - with the exception of one night in August when there was a pre-arranged Big Media coverage of a very contrived incident acted out by Ross Perot's people at the Reform Party Convention -- to make the Reform Party in which Buchanan was seeking the nomination -- look like it was in complete disarray. WHY was Buchanan virtually blacked out of Big Media News coverage in 2000? Because he was NOT to be allowed to split W. Bush's vote - as W. Bush was picked to win. (by the way, J. Edwards was selected to be VP at the Bilderberg Club meeting June 2004 in Italy)

Please, will someone stop Bush and the Illuminati war machine animating him!

The reason the Ruling Elites want Bush from 2004 to 2008 is because the premier war machine is already in place, and they don't want any change in continuity. This turn of events regarding "Dean or Kerry to be set up as losers" signals that the power in the White House has made a deal to continue the war mongering of Paul Wolfowitz and the Israeli Lobby against more Arab states - and against the freedoms of the American people. This may change after the June 2004 Bilderberg club meeting in Italy where the elites will make the major decisions of who to bring in. As stated above, those directing Bush have already had him instruct all local draft boards in the USA to be ready for action by June 2005. If this scheme fails, then the other candidate John Kerry is also their man. It's all in the family not matter who wins! Meanwhile, as also stated above, dork and modern day

Orc, retired General Tommy Franks has flown a trial balloon for the New World Order: He said about a few months ago that if there is a 2nd terrorist attack using "weapons of mass destruction" - then the US Constitution would likely be scrapped for a military government (read: police state). Well, if THIS MESSAGE doesn't reach a large enough audience with how to ACT properly now - then there WILL be a 2nd terrorist attack on a mass scale involving the deaths of probably tens of thousands of US Citizens within a few hours, -- perpetrated by CIA-MOSSAD evil-doers, just like 9-11. I remember when Victor Ostrovsky's first book (ex-Mossad agent) came out, I totally lost interest in buying it after listening to a radio review where the host misleadingly said that there was nothing special in it. Recently, I read a few extracts from it about how Mossad fooled Reagan into bombing Libya; Victor's book really did have blockbuster information! Now we further learn from a German TV documentary that the 1986 Berlin Disco bombing was carried out by CIA operatives and was framed against Libya (please read the sections on Fake Terror and Election Frauds for further details).

In the words of Winston Churchill: "When you are winning a war almost everything that happens can be claimed to be right and wise." (Maybe like installing puppet governments in Afghanistan and Iraq who will sell out their national wealth to fill the pockets of the Illuminati banking dynasties and their enforcers!)

Another example of the ruling elites' influence over the media is the constant and repeating floods of accusations that Palestinians should stop violence. Why doesn't the media focus instead continuously on the Zionist acts of terror perpetrated against the Palestinians since the early 1900s when Palestine was under British occupation with the plan to drive the Palestinians out of Palestine, especially Shamir & Begin who were wanted terrorists and later on became Zionist Prime Ministers? Or why doesn't the medial focus endlessly on the fact that European Zionists invaded Palestine rendering millions destitute and homeless? I guess the Zionists don't want any competition with their Holocaust Industry! And you guessed it, its some Rothschild and Rockefeller companies that control the software on the voting machines! Their person of choice gets to win the elections this way.

The Temple of Satan

Jesus (Yashua in Hebrew, Issa in Arabic, and Joshua in English, but erroneously translated as Jesus in current English) addressed the Church of Smyrna in Rev. 2:9 "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Judahites, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan."

By the way, the Hebrew and Arabic languages are cousin languages just like descendants of Isaac and Ishmael are genetic cousins; both languages are right to left, with similar pronounciated characters; see tables below. The earliest known alphabet was the North-Semitic around 1700 B.C. in Palestine and Syria, consisted of 22 consonants. Arabic, Hebrew and Phoenician are based on this Aramaic script; Aramaic is the language Jesus-Yashua spoke. Below is a table of Hebrew and Arabic characters.

Note that Aramaic, similar to Arabic, was spoken at the time of Yashua-Jesus-Isa. Mel Gibson's movie is in Aramaic.

The Six pointed Star Hexagram is a symbol of the Synagogue of Satan. It is not the Star of Prophet/King David.

"Sound money and free banking are not impossible; they are merely illegal. Freedom of money and freedom of banking ... are the principles that must guide our steps." -- Hans F. Sennholz

One of the most remarkable statements comes from British Lord Sir Josiah (John) Stamp, former director of the Bank of England and 2nd richest man in England in the 1920s said this speaking at the University of Texas in 1927 and repeated it at an address at Central Hall, London 1937, said: "The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight of hand that was ever invented. Banking was started in iniquity and born in sin. Bankers own the Earth; take it away from them but leave them with the power to create credit, and, with a stroke of the pen, they will create enough money to buy it back again. Take this power away from them and all great fortunes, like mine, would disappear, for then this World would be a happier and better World to live in. But, if you want to be the slaves of Bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let the Bankers create money and control credit."

Baron Nathan Mayer Rothschild (1777-1836) London financier, one of the founders of the international Rothschild banking dynasty: "I care not what puppet is placed on the throne of England to rule the Empire, ...The man that controls Britain's money supply controls the British Empire. And I control the money supply."

Baron Amsel (Amschel) Bauer Mayer Rothschild (1744-1812): "Give me control of the economics of a country; and I care not who makes her laws. The few who understand the system, will either be so interested from its profits or so dependent on its favors, that there will be no opposition from that class".

"The few who can understand the [banking] system will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favors, that there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of the people, mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantages that capital derives from the system, will bear its burdens without complaint and perhaps without even suspecting that the system is inimical to their interests". [As they say, "Ignorance is bliss!"] - John Sherman, protege of the Rothschild banking family, in a letter sent in 1863 to New York Bankers, Morton, and Gould, in support of the then proposed National Banking Act.

"Give me control over a man's economic actions, and hence over his means of survival, and except for a few occasional heroes, I'll promise to deliver to you men who think and write and behave as I want them to." -Benjamine A. Rooge

A lot of people have already exposed the Rothschild family as the power behind the thrones, and they continue to exert phenomenal influence over the monetary systems of Europe and America. Here is a timeline about the Rothschilds. It is time for Americans and Europeans to stop behaving like frightened children. http://www.iamthewitness.com/DarylBradfordSmith_Rothschild.htm

As explained in the 1800s by German Chancellor Otto Von Bismarck, the problem is the control of the nation's credit by a small private international group, which has used this advantage to build a monopoly (hence the term "monopoly capitalism" = communism = fascism = imperialism) in every key industry. This international group is behind World imperialism. Its totalitarian occult agenda (a.k.a, globalism) is now corporate policy. The victim paradigm typically purveyed by some is to create divisions and divert attention from the Illuminati Bankers and their cartels. It teaches each new generation to be alienated from their country, its culture and economic system, and to become dysfunctional and impotent. The Bankers want Big Government that they centrally control through debt and credit issues. They need the global police state to ensure that no nation defaults on paying homage to them or rebels against their enslavement. The invasion of Iraq is another step in creating the Bankers' "1984" tyranny as predicted by George Orwell in 1948 (note that the price of oil went from $15 to $75 quintupling the $ purchase requirements, i.e. from over $600 million daily to over $3 billion daily, another boom for the Banksters).

"I am afraid that the ordinary citizen will not like to be told that banks can and do create money.....And they who control the credit of the nation [and its citizens and corporations] direct the policy of Governments and hold in the hollow of their hands the destiny of the people"....- Reginald McKenna, a past Chairman of the Board, Midlands Bank of England.

"Thus our national circulating medium is now at the mercy of loan transactions of banks, which lend not money, but [false] promises to supply money which they do not possess".....- Irving Fisher, economist & author.

"One thing to realize about our fractional reserve banking system is that like a child's game of musical chairs [i.e. a pyramid ponzi scheme], as long as the music is playing, there are no losers"....- Andrew Gause, Monetary historian.

Today, his descendants meet twice daily in London to dictate to the World what the World price of gold will be. They and their brethrens and collaborators also dictate what the "Federal Reserve System" will do with America's finances. They have the power to issue currency and loans without any collateral of their own, i.e. by using the taxpayers' wealth as a guarantee! They expect to be worshipped as gods. One can say that they are even deceiving themselves (shades of Nimrod and Pharaoh!). We will find out a lot more about this later with details on the evil genius of the Rothschild (Red-Shield in German) and other Illuminati banking dynasties. Don't believe what they say, look at what they've done, what is happening and what they're doing! In other words, don't "Read my lips". The Illuminati and their enforcers are the masters of deception, lead double-lives and practice Orwellian double-talk. They think mankind are dispensable. (example: collateral damage in the hundreds of thousands lately and in the millions during WW1 & WW2; just think about it, would it be acceptable that Police kill or cripple innocent bystanders while chasing alleged criminals?) In summary, The Conspiracy is against the masses wealth and God's guidance. The only sharing formula that the Elites want with the masses is the Master-Serf-Slave system that was prevalent in Ancient Rome, Egypt and Babylon, and actually up to 19th century Europe. God is Love. Satanists aren't big fans of Love. They have a lot of clout. Incredible and bizarre as this sounds, a Satanic cult, the Illuminati rules the World. George W. Bush and John Kerry are members, as are many of the World's political and economic elite; in fact you can't reach high positions unless you're part of the gang! The Illuminati consist of the Jesuits and many of the World's richest families including the Rothschilds, the Rockefellers and the Windsors (all three originated from Germany but report to or work with Rome; 4th Reich or New Rome anyone?). While they pay lip service to religion, they worship Lucifer. Their agents control the World's media, education, business and politics. These agents may think they are pursuing success, but success often literally means serving the devil.

Prisoners Of Their Wealth

Prisoners of their wealth, the Illuminati prefer hatred and destruction to Love. Understandably, they can't go public with this. They pretend to be moral while working behind the scenes to enslave humanity in a New World Order. Hiroshima, Nagasaki, Dresden, Auschwitz, Cambodia and Rwanda were sacrifices to their god Lucifer. They are responsible for the two World Wars, the Depression and the Cold War. Sept. 11, the "War on Terror" and the Iraq War are their latest achievements. We imagine they want unlimited power and wealth but these are by-products. The Illuminati seems to be motivated by hatred of God and humanity. The purpose of the New World Order is the same as Communism. The Illuminati created Communism as a means to flaunt God's will and enslave mankind, just like the Nimrods and the Pharaohs and the Romans. Karl Marx was hired to sell totalitarian rule ("the dictatorship of the proletariat") by pretending to espouse equality. He was a Satanist as were Trotsky (real name Bronstein), Lenin and Stalin.

In his book, Marx and Satan (1986) Richard Wurmbrand illustrates Marx's true hatred of God and humanity. As early as 1848, Marx wrote about a "coming World war" that will eliminate "riffraff" like Russians, Czechs and Croats. "The coming World war will cause not only reactionary classes and dynasties, but also entire reactionary peoples, to disappear from the face of the earth. And that will be progress...the revolution...cares as little about the human lives it destroys...as an earthquake cares about the houses it ravages. Classes and races that are too weak to dominate the new conditions...will be defeated...their very name will vanish." In his poem Human Pride, Marx writes that he will "wander Godlike and victorious through the ruins of the World... I will feel equal to the Creator." Far from champion of the working class, Marx was a police spy. In 1960, the Austrian Chancellor Raabe gave Khrushchev an original letter by Marx proving the "founder of Communism" informed on other revolutionaries. The reason only 13 of the 100 Volumes of Marx's writings have been published is to hide the true character of Communism. Wurmbrand, a pastor who was imprisoned in Romania, says Communism is in essence Satanism empowered. Christians weren't just brutally persecuted and murdered, they were made to blaspheme. Communism's goal, the goal of the New World Order, is to mock God and to praise Lucifer. A Communist newspaper confessed, "We fight against God: To snatch believers from him." In "German Ideology" Marx (living in London) referred to God in Hegelian terms as the Absolute Spirit. Marx opined, "we are concerned with a highly interesting question: the decomposition of the Absolute Spirit."

According to Wurmbrand, the Russian Revolution was a time when "love, goodwill, and healthy feeling were considered mean and retrograde. A girl hid her innocence, and husbands their faithfulness. Destruction was praised as good taste, neurasthenia as the sign of a fine mind. This was the theme of new writers who burst on the scene out of obscurity. Men invented vices and perversion, and were fastidious in their avoidance of being thought moral." The Luciferians portray their rebellion against God and nature as progress and freedom. This permissiveness refers only to tearing down the Divine order. In the initiation into the Seventh degree of Satanism, the adept swears, "Nothing is true and everything is permitted." In the Communist Manifesto, Marx said all religion and morals will be abolished and everything permitted. The religion of modern western society, secular humanism, is a front for Illuminism (Lucifer worship). The purpose of Illuminism is to divorce humanity from the Divine Purpose and enshrine Lucifer (i.e. the Illuminati) in God's place. Under the guise of a humanist utopia, they are constructing an Orwellian hell -- the New World Order, a.k.a. globalism. The goal of globalism is the same as Communism. The World's elite masks their Luciferanism in new age paganism (nature or self-) and Gaia worship. The Lucifer Trust runs the only chapel at the United Nations and the only statue in the UN building is the pagan god Zeus (or Ja-Zeus). The Prophets of God represented the rule of God. Note that the ancient elites created and perpetrated the Occult and Idolatry traditions to keep the masses occupied while they reap their wealth. The Pharisees (fake-Israelites, i.e. pretend to be Biblical Israelites but are actually occultists) worshipped Lucifer. The question facing mankind hasn't changed. Are we going to serve God or Lucifer? The Satanists have conditioned us to short circuit at the mention of religion or conspiracy. They have made God seem mysterious, unknowable or non-existent. Christ said, "God is a Spirit, obey Him in spirit and in truth." (John 4:23, 24). God is Absolute Love, Truth, Justice, Goodness and Beauty. If you believe these things are real, whether you accomplish them or not, you believe in God. Love is the principle of human evolution. God is manifested by His creation. The more we embody spiritual ideals, the better we become. The opposite is also true. We sacrifice ourselves for what we love. If we love God, we sacrifice ourselves to Him. People ask how to fight the New World Order. Nothing would disturb the Illuminati more than a revival of belief in God. Millions willing to fight and die for God would scare them. That's why they are uprooting Islam. We are being prepared in consciousness for slavery or destruction. They are laying the groundwork now with the "war on terror." Once they get Islam under control, they will turn to the West in earnest. In the meantime, the mass media (movies, music and video games, TV) accustoms us to brutality and violence. There is a repetitive and reductive obsession with sex, nudity, bodily functions and homosexuality, a kind of phallic worship. Eliphas Levi (1810-1875) revealed the secret symbolism of the Templar Idol Baphomet, a pagan fertility god associated with the creative force of reproduction; the ram or goat head being a pagan symbol of procreation and fecundity; Masons prayed to the creative magic of sexual union; Traditional American Thanksgiving tables still bear pagan horned fertility symbols, hence horny means looking for sex; the cornucopia or horn of plenty was a tribute to Baphomet's fertility and dates back to the myth of Zeus being suckled by a goat whose horn broke off and magically filled with fruit; V-symbol of horns. If our leaders weren't Luciferians, the media and the arts would be preoccupied with issues of truth and falsehood, good and evil, beauty and ugliness. We would be uplifted and inspired. Instead, our souls are fed sawdust. We are degraded distracted and deceived, like people with a terminal illness, like squatters in someone else's universe. If the Illuminati's real purpose is to eliminate God, it follows we should make God the centre of our consciousness. People ask, "What should we do?" Don't look for direction from others. Look for direction from God. The best way to fight the darkness is to shine the light. This is what the Illuminati fears. In the Protocols of the Elders of Zion (There is a debate on whether the protocols were developed by the Rothschild's or actually by someone wanting to expose the Rothschild/Weishaupt Illuminati plans. In any case, the Protocols do describe the plans for World Tyranny by the Illuminati's), the author writes: "There is nothing more dangerous to us than personal initiative; if it has genius behind it, such initiative can do more than can be done by millions of people among whom we have sown discord." Don't feel oppressed by the World. It hasn't changed just because we are now aware of its true nature. Devote each new day to fulfilling God's purpose for you.

Masonic Greed Is A Constant In Human History

In every nation in the history of the World, it has mostly ended up in a war between the ruling class and the enslaved masses, pitting one ruling class against another with their citizens as cannon fodder, keeping the masses kept distracted with a foreign war! The ruler(s) want more and more, and the people continually settle for less and less!!! The Illuminati are evil geniuses and make heavy use of symbolism. Here are some Masonic symbols below; see later sections for full details on Masonic history since Babylon and connections in several other sections and appendices in this book. Of course, not all Illuminati plans succeed. After reading this book, you will be able get an understanding of how the controllers and agents of the New World Order think, and you will be able to see through the elitist Illuminati propaganda and rebuttals of innocence that we hear or read or see on the mainstream news (amazing how O'Neill is being dismissed by the oil-soaked monopoly press after he exposed Mr. Bush's river of lies in his recent book) or disclaimers that we read on certain Masonic websites such as <http://Masonry.bcy.ca/anti-masonry/index.html>. Low-ranking Masons are showered with favours and don't know that they will be blackmailed by them later.

Twelve god-Pharaohs of ancient Egypt; symbols are sun, eye, serpent, bull, falcon, fleur-de-lis headdress (symbol of the Priory-Priore De Sion secret society), ankht, moon, etc. Right: EU Constitution conference in Rome on 4th October 2003.

Note that low ranking masons, the largest brotherhood (mafia) in the World, most likely don't have a clue about what their high-ranking evil genius brethren are up to in cahoots with the Illuminati and Zionists and the Vatican Jesuits, using certain lodges and temples as fronts (similar to the use of religious and missionary organizations as fronts for covert activities, read the book "Vatican Assassins" for full details <http://www.vaticanassassins.org>!). Getting back to money, who is controlling the creation and issue of money these days? You will learn later in this book that it's the Occult Banking Dynasties of the Rothschild/Rockefeller banking money trusts along with the other Illuminati mafias. Actually, they are the Mother of All Mafias. A lot more on their history and the history of Masonry since ancient Egypt and Babylon and Rome will be presented later, a true banking marriage of Anthony and Cleopatra! You may remember a lot of this symbolism from your school days where ancient Egypt, Roman, Babylonian and Greek mythology are taught (didn't understand it then).

Note the big symbol. Sun-day is god Baal. Tablets about 1000 BC worshipped in the ancient World. After his birth on December 25th, the young deity increases every day in his power and strength, and defies the demon of darkness in the struggle, till the final week in March comes, when his progress is retarded and he becomes stationary [Easter]. The date of the Dying God and that of the Rising God become great events and are attended respectively with mourning and rejoicing - just what we would have found 900 BC in Ancient Babylon on their Good Fridays and Easter Sundays and we find the same today where nothing has changed except the name of the sun god. In celebrating the sun god's death and resurrection, his image was fastened to a pine tree on March 24th, and the day was called "The Day of Blood", since on that day the deity was bled to death.

To have an idea of what else the ancient Pharaonic Egyptians elite were involved to get a window on secret Masonic practices, have a look at some of the PHALLIC "art" that is generally NOT made available to the public:[Click the picture for a higher resolution image.] The badly damaged Turin Erotic Papyrus is 8.5 feet long and reads from right to left. On the first third of the papyrus, animals are shown engaging in various human activities.

The rest of the papyrus are vignettes of graphic erotic scenes showing a brutish man using a woman sexually in a variety of postures, some of which suggest force, and all of which definitely suggest lust without love - animal sex.

Idolatry restarted at the Tower of Babel. After the Great Flood of Noah, Nimrod (4000 years ago at the time of Prophet Abraham) emerged as a great leader who established the worship of the sun, moon and stars. Nimrod, whom along with the Pharaohs is worshipped by Masons, organized the people into idol worshipping communities. He built the Tower of Babel as an astrological observatory and there God confounded their language and scattered the people to the different areas of the Earth. The false religions' leaders, the Pharisees, accused Yashua-Joshua-Jesus of casting out devils by (Baalzebub) Beelzebub—the PRINCE of the devils: "But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow (Yashua-Joshua) doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils" (Matthew 12:24). Satanic worship's 3rd in command was MOON worship. All of Satan's demons are MALE but the moon god masqueraded as a female divinity or moon goddess. In Egypt her name was ISIS. In Phoenicia her name was Asteroth and in Rome her name was Venus.

Statue of Ba-al, Satan's second-in-command!

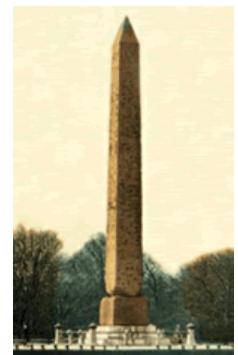

The ancient pagan trinity consisted of the worship of the sun, moon and stars. The moon god that Robert Morey talks about is the Masonic idolatry god and not THE GOD of Islam. Morey is totally confused and would like to confuse others into thinking that Islam is idolatry whereas it is Masonic Illuminism that is idolatry and True Islam like True Christianity and True Torah Judaism is the worship of THE GOD of Abraham, Noah, Adam, i.e. THE CREATOR OF THE UNIVERSE. Paganism was a filthy and corrupt system with the main divinities being the sun, moon and stars. Phallus worship was an important part of the system with the obelisk representing the male member. According to the Jewish historian Josephus, Nimrod was punished for his rebellion by Sem (Shem), one of the sons of Noah. He cut Nimrod's body into many pieces and sent it to the surrounding people as a warning against idolatry. Nimrod's wife Semiramis, the Queen of Babylon, collected all the parts of his body except for his penis. She ordered phallic symbols or obelisks to be set up everywhere as a reminder to the people to mourn for Nimrod. Another name for Nimrod was Tammuz. The cross comes from the letter T.

The All-Seeing Eye

In Israel the women mourned for Nimrod of Tammuz. It was a kind of Lent: "Then he (God) brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz" (Ezekiel 8:14). Paganism was predominately the worship of the sun, moon and stars. The sun and moon were called by different names in different countries but the basic beliefs remained the same. Moses warned the Israelites about this depraved worship: " And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven" (Deuteronomy 4:19).

The name of the sun god was BA-AL. Satanic worship was pursued as BAAL "And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made. And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked. And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them. And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded" (1 Kings 18:21-29). In 274 B.C. the Roman Emperor Aurelian began a new Sun cult of the "Invincible Sun". Worshipped in a splendid temple, served by pontiffs who were raised to the level of the ancient pontiffs of Rome, celebrated every fourth year by magnificent games (our modern day Olympics), Sol Invictus was definitely promoted to the highest rank in the divine hierarchy and became the official protector of the Sovereigns and of the Empire: Aurelian placed in his new sanctuary the images of Bel/Baal and Helios, which he captured at Palmyra. In establishing this new State cult, Aurelian in reality proclaimed the dethronement of the old Roman idolatry and the accession of Semitic Sun-worship: This theology was founded on ancient beliefs of Chaldean astrologers, transformed in the Hellenistic age under the twofold influence of astronomic discoveries and Stoic thought, and was promoted, after becoming a pantheistic Sun-worship, to the rank of official religion of the Roman Empire. - Source: Franz Cumont, Astrology and Religion Among the Greeks and Romans (reprint; New York: Dover Publications, Inc., 1960), pp. 55, 56. If we were living in York or Chester and the date was March 31st 50 BC, we would be preparing for the same Easter festival following the same Christmas festival on or around the 25th of December during which time we would have commemorated Baal/Mithra's birth to a virgin mother in a cave; one who had 12 disciples; one who was called saviour; and one who sometimes figured as a lamb; one whose disciples were initiated through baptism; and one in whose remembrance sacramental feasts were held. The only difference you would notice if you went back in time would be the name. In those days the one who rose again on the third day was called Mithra not Yashua-Joshua-Jesus [another perfect example of Generic Engineering]. At the time of the appearance of the real Yashua-Joshua-Jesus on earth, there were temples without end dedicated to gods like Apollo or Bacchus/Dionysus among the Greeks; Hercules among the Romans; Mithra among the Persians, Adonis and Attis in Syria and Phrygia; Osiris, Isis and Horus in Egypt (statues at the Louvre Museum, Paris); Bel/Baal and Astarte among the Babylonians and Carthaginians and so on.

An important symbol of Masonry is what was once an important element in Ancient Egyptian architecture—the obelisk. An obelisk is a tall, vertical tower with a pyramid as its peak. Obelisks were inscribed with Ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs, and lay buried for centuries under the ground until they were discovered in the nineteenth century, and removed to Western cities such as New York, London and Paris. The largest obelisk was sent to the USA. This exportation was arranged by Masons. This was because obelisks, as well as the Ancient Egyptian figures inscribed on them, are claimed by Masons as being really their own symbols. Mimar Sinan avers this about the 21-meter high obelisk in New York. The most striking instance of the symbolic use of architecture is the monument called Cleopatra's needle, given to the US as a gift in 1878 by the Masonic Egyptian Governor Ismail. This monument is now in Central Park. Its surface is covered with Masonic emblems. This monument was originally erected in the 16th century BC at the entrance to a temple of the Sun god, an initiation center in Heliopolis. You will find 13 Obelisks at the Vatican and in Rome.

All these deities were Sun-gods, and it was believed that they were born in a cave or underground chamber, of a virgin mother, on or about December 25th. They led a life of toil for the good of mankind and were called by such names as Light-Bringer, Healer, Mediator, Saviour, and Deliverer. They were vanquished by the Powers of Darkness and descended into Hell or the UnderWorld. They all rose again from the dead to become the Lights to guide mankind to the heavenly World. They founded Communions of Saints, and churches into which disciples were received by baptism. They were commemorated by Eucharistic Meals. Bacchus/Dionysus, was born of a virgin named Demeter on the 25th of December [she is sometimes called Semele and sometimes Ceres from which we derive the word cereal, seen on Rothschild's Bank of England notes seated with a stem of wheat in her hand]. Evil had spread over the World; the God of Gods was begged to save mankind. Jupiter hearkened to the prayer, and declared that his son would redeem the World from its misery. He promised a Liberator to the earth, and Bacchus came as a saviour. He was called "The Only Begotten Son". "It is I", says Bacchus to mankind, "Who will guide you; I who am Alpha and Omega". He was also a great traveler, and brought the gift of wine to mankind. Changing water into wine. "Suffering was common to all the sons of Jove", says Justin Martyr. For this reason they were called "The slain ones", "Saviours", and "Redeemers". Bacchus was also slain to redeem humanity, and was called "The Slain one and the Sin Bearer", "The Redeemer". His death, followed by resurrection, was celebrated with all kinds of wild festivities, and there was a representation of the passion of Bacchus, Dead, Descended into Hell, and re-arisen. As we have seen there are many similar stories, and there are more. Osiris is enshrined in the American Flag and the Washington Monument obelisk and the occult Masonic symbolism of the Great seal of the United States and the Enead of Heliopolis with Jah-Baal-On. The process of Generic Engineering is not required so much in America, they make no pretence about being what they are, surrounded with all the symbols of Pagan Babylon, Pagan Egypt, and Pagan Rome (nature or self-worship). More on this later.

In the Mythology of the Masons/Templars, one of the core legends is that of Jachin and Boaz ... the "Twin Pillars" of Atlantis. All Masonic lodges have these two pillars at some location in their architecture. In the earliest Lodges, they were said to represent far more ancient pillars, supposedly erected by "the children of Lamech." On those ancient pillars -- one of brick, one of stone -- were said to be engraved all the then known sciences to preserve them from destruction "by fire or inundation." As such, they symbolized the esoteric importance of the knowledge of the builder's (mason's) art, to be guarded and preserved by future faithful craftsmen. Simply put, according to Masonic legend, "the children of Lamech" were the inhabitants of Atlantis. This information, passed down from that prior highly advanced civilization, is supposed to form the basis of the Masonic secrets "from the ancient times." Hundreds of years later, shortly before the American Revolution, these original representations of "ancient, preserved knowledge" were replaced in Masonic lodges with two brass pillars, representing two similar pillars originally erected at the entrance to King Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem -- the Pillars of Jachin and Boaz. The new Masonic pillars took on the symbolic attributes of "establishment" and "strength," cleverly concealing their continuing representation of the great catastrophe which had destroyed a previous epoch of "high civilization," beneath additional layers of almost impenetrable (for most non-members) new symbolic interpretation. These same two pillars also make their appearance in non-Masonic religious works, like the Bible. "And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz. (1 Kings 7:21) "And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz. (2 Chronicles 3:17)" As the root source of the deepest Masonic secrets — the literal "end of days," and the Masonic role in the subsequent "preservation and carefully timed re-dissemination of the sacred knowledge of Mankind" -- these twin pillars, "Jachin" and "Boaz," represent the most sacred objects in contemporary Templar/Masonic rituals. They were symbolically incorporated into the 110-story twin World Trade Center Towers and now the Masonic expression of "bringing order out of chaos" is expected to take place. There are over 800 Masonic Lodges in the U.K. currently. London has been the center of the N.W.O. conspiracy since at least the creation of the Bank of England (The City of London Bank Street square mile) in 1694.

Note to Skeptics & Non-skeptics

As usual, the priests of the New World Order will attempt to spread disinformation in order to discredit or taint the truth. Don't be taken in and fooled. But, since there is always a resident skeptic inside us all, here are many examples to satisfy our curiosity. You may have seen several Mafia movies in which the good cop who is chasing the Mafia criminals is framed to look bad by a coalition of Mafia police/lawyer/judge/gangster operatives. Well, the New World Order Mafia is the mother of all Mafias! First, let's find out what the oil-soaked monopoly-capitalism news media didn't tell us about George W. Bush. Here is his updated resume. Please pass it on to all voters (may not make a difference though, since the voting machines are owned by the Rothschild and Rockefeller Group of companies and the other party is also part of the Illuminati setup!)

Resume Of George W. Bush 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue Washington, DC 20520

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

Law Enforcement: I was arrested in Kennebunkport, Maine, in 1976 for driving under the influence of alcohol. I pled guilty, paid a fine, and had my driver's license suspended for 30 days. My Texas driving record has been "lost" and is not available.

Military: I joined the Texas Air National Guard and went AWOL. I refused to take a drug test or answer any questions about my drug use. By joining the Texas Air National Guard, I was able to avoid combat duty in Vietnam.

College: I graduated from Yale University with a low C average. I was a cheerleader.

Extra Curricular Activities: I am a member of the Masonic Skull & Bones Order secretive society, York Rite, just like my buddy John Kerry.

PAST WORK EXPERIENCE: I ran for U.S. Congress and lost. I began my career in the oil business in Midland, Texas, in 1975. I bought an oil company (Harken), but couldn't find any oil in Texas. The company went bankrupt shortly after I sold all my stock. I bought the Texas Rangers baseball team in a sweetheart deal that took land using taxpayer money. With the help of my father and our friends in the oil industry (including Enron CEO Ken Lay), I was declared innocent in the Harken energy stock fraud scandal and elected governor of Texas.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS AS GOVERNOR OF TEXAS: I changed Texas pollution laws to favor power and oil companies, making Texas the most polluted state in the Union. During my tenure, Houston replaced Los Angeles as the most smog-ridden city in America. I cut taxes and bankrupted the Texas treasury to the tune of billions in borrowed money. I set the record for the most executions by any governor in American history but I gave a stay of execution to a someone who did not repent after killing dozens of people in a very sadistic manner, and I made sure that a lady who killed her rapist and abusive man was executed. With the help of my brother, the governor of Florida, and my father's appointments to the Supreme Court, I became President after losing by over 500,000 votes.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS AS PRESIDENT: I am the first President in U.S. history to enter office with a criminal record. I invaded and occupied two countries at a continuing cost of over one billion dollars per week. I spent the U.S. surplus and effectively bankrupted the U.S. Treasury. I shattered the record for the largest annual deficit in U.S. history. I set an economic record for most private bankruptcies filed in any 12-month period. I set the all-time record for most foreclosures in a 12-month period. I set the all-time record for the biggest drop in the history of the U.S. stock market. In my first year in office, over 2 million Americans lost their jobs and that trend continues every month. I'm proud that the members of my cabinet are the richest of any administration in U.S. history. My "poorest millionaire," Condoleezza Rice, has a Chevron oil tanker named after her. I set the record for most campaign fundraising trips by a U.S. President. I am the all-time U.S. and World record-holder for receiving the most corporate campaign donations. My largest lifetime campaign contributor, and one of my best friends, Kenneth Lay, presided over the largest corporate bankruptcy fraud in U.S. History, Enron. My political party used Enron private jets and corporate attorneys to assure my success with the U.S. Supreme Court during my election decision. I have protected my friends at Enron and Halliburton against investigation or prosecution. More time and money was spent investigating the Monica Lewinsky affair than has been spent investigating one of the biggest corporate rip-offs in history. I presided over the biggest energy crisis in U.S. history and refused to intervene when corruption involving the oil industry was revealed. I presided over the highest gasoline prices in U.S. history. I changed the U.S. policy to allow convicted criminals to be awarded government contracts. I appointed more convicted criminals to administration than any President in U.S. history. I created the Ministry of Homeland Security, the largest bureaucracy in the history of the United States government. I've broken more international treaties than any President in U.S. history. I am the first President in U.S. history to have the United Nations remove the U.S. from the Human Rights Commission. I withdrew the U.S. from the World Court of Law. I refused to allow inspector's access to U.S. "prisoners of war" detainees and thereby have refused to abide by the Geneva Convention. I am the first President in history to refuse United Nations election inspectors (during the 2002 U.S. election). I set the record for fewest numbers of press conferences of any President since the advent of television. I set the all-time record for most days on vacation in any one-year period. After taking off the entire month of August, I presided over the worst security failure in U.S. history. I garnered the most sympathy for the U.S. after the World Trade Center attacks and less than a year later made the U.S. the most hated country in the World, the largest failure of diplomacy in World history. I have set the all-time record for most people Worldwide to simultaneously protest me in public venues (15 million people), shattering the record for protests against any person in the history of mankind. I am the first President in U.S. history to order an unprovoked, pre-emptive attack and the military occupation of a sovereign nation. I did so against the will of the United Nations, the majority of U.S. citizens, and the World community. I have cut health care benefits for war veterans and support a cut in duty benefits for active duty troops and their families -- in wartime. In my State of the Union Address, I lied about our reasons for attacking Iraq and then blamed the lies on our British friends. I am the first President in history to have a majority of Europeans (71%) view my presidency as the biggest threat to World peace and security. I am supporting development of a nuclear "Tactical Bunker Buster," a WMD. I have so far failed to fulfill my pledge to bring Osama Bin Laden [sic] to justice and to find out who, from my office, leaked the name of a CIA operative who was the wife of a US Ambassador who criticized me.

RECORDS AND REFERENCES: All records of my tenure as governor of Texas are now in my father's library, sealed and unavailable for public view. All records of SEC investigations into my insider trading and my bankrupt companies are sealed in secrecy and unavailable for public view. All records or minutes from meetings that I, or my Vice-President, attended regarding public energy policy are sealed in secrecy and unavailable for public review. However, the results of my policies can be seen with the devastation at Ground Zero, in Afghanistan, in Iraq, Argentina, in Palestine, with the loss of the pensions for Enron-Global Crossing-WorldCom-etc. employees, the poverty minimum wage, the children left behind, and the enrichment of the Israeli Government, owners of the privately owned Federal Reserve System and all their friends at the top levels of Enron, Halliburton, Bechtel, The Carlyle Group and other buddies in the Military/Industrial Complex & Pharmaceutical companies, tax cuts for the Nobility and much more. Unfortunately, Margie Schodinger, the lady who accused me of raping her committed suicide on 22nd September 2003.

Note that if I lose the election, my successor will be no different. He is also one of my buddies at the Masonic York Rite Skull & Bones Order.

PLEASE CONSIDER MY EXPERIENCE WHEN VOTING IN 2004. PLEASE SEND THIS TO EVERY VOTER YOU KNOW.

Documented Conspiracies

Please watch the video documentary on this CD "The MENA Affair" about the drug trafficking related murders in Arkansas during the stewardship of the then Governor Bill (Rockefeller) Clinton. It really illustrates well how the Clinton clan from field law enforcement agents, to supervisors, to sheriffs, to medical examiners, to prosecutors, to defence lawyers, to judges, to the news media, to CIA operatives, to FBI operatives, and up to the Governor himself were involved in covering up the murders of two teenagers who happened to stumble upon evidence of high-level officials involved in drug trafficking into Arkansas. Unfortunately, the photographer who filmed most of the scenes in this exposé was also murdered along with many of the witnesses (some were tortured first before being killed). This reminds me of the death of William Milton Cooper (November 2001) and others who have exposed the corruptions of the dark clan. You can also watch the censored documentary on the Nebraska male child abuse scandal that leads all the way up to the White House and major politicians and businessmen. It was supposed to be broadcast on the Discovery Channel but was cancelled at the last minute under pressure from major congressmen, a bit like the documentary about Reagan was pulled off CBS.

Now, just expand this to the airport in Venice Florida where similar activities took place and all the way up to the 9-11 cover up. In another similar cover-up, i.e. the John F. Kennedy assassination of 1963, we note that over 177 witnesses have met a violent death like many of the witnesses in the MENA affair. You can also watch the Judge Jim Garrison documentary on the JFK assassination (5 parts on this CD). You can also watch the 1996 confrontation between ex-LAPD Police Officer Michael Ruppert and CIA Director John Deutch at an LA Town Hall meeting over CIA drug trafficking allegations after which Mr. Deutch had to resign.

After watching this video, listen to the talk by G. Edward Griffin on how the owners of the privately controlled central bank known as the US Federal Reserve use their power to create money tax-free and use their unauditables profits to acquire control over the power centers of society. The power centers are those groups and institutions through which individuals live and act and rely on for their information. They are buying control over the organizations, the groups and institutions that control people, politicians, political parties, television networks, cable networks, newspapers, magazines, publishing houses, wire services, motion picture studios, universities, labor unions, church organizations, trade associations, tax-exempt foundations, multi-national corporations, boy scouts, girl scouts, you name it. Make your own list of organizations and you will find this is where those people have been for many decades spending this river of wealth to acquire operational control particularly over those institutions and individuals, those organizations that represent opposition to themselves. That's a critical area for expenditure on their part. This process has gone on not only to a marked degree in America and in the other industrialized nations of the World, but it has gone on in the underdeveloped nations to such a degree that we would say the process is now complete. They own these countries already. The money goes to the politicians of those countries, to their governments and the money is designed and spent to strengthen their power structures, their ability to control their populations. They create a well-equipped army (note the $30 billion for hiring mercenaries to train the new armies in Afghanistan and Iraq), a better bureaucracy, for total control of their subjects. That's where the money's being spent.

You can also listen to a series of talks (on this CD) by Mr. Jasper on the cover up of the Oklahoma city bombing which was staged by New World Order elements in the FBI and CIA. Mr. Jasper lists the names of some of the witnesses who were brutally tortured and murdered when they came out to tell the truth about the cover up.

Another video documentary by Alex Jones (<http://www.infowars.com>) that is worthwhile watching on this CD is "The Road to Tyranny" and it has an associated book named "Descent into Tyranny". These illustrate some of the deceptions we are fed on the mainstream news. John Pilger's documentary on 9-11 is also on this CD.

After watching these documentaries and listening to G. Edward Griffin, I think it will become very clear how far reaching the dark clan's radius of control is and how they have no value for human life although their enforcers and stooges pretend to be gentle in public while the media they control covers up their evil (notice how we don't see the scenes of human carnage, civilian or military during CIA/US so called military bombings but we are shown the WTC attack over and over again, or how Colin Powell is not terribly interested in how many Iraqis were killed by his bombers or we are not repeatedly told how Powell was saved from being tried for massacres he committed in Vietnam).

If you are not convinced that the ruling elites practice Cabbalist Masonic Occultism, watch the "Dark Secrets" video by Alex Jones (<http://www.infowars.com>) on this CD to observe the elites worshipping a giant Babylonian Owl Goddess known as Lilith at the Bohemian Grove in Northern California. You can also read the book "Letters on Masonry" by the 6th President of the United States John Quincy Adams who repented and said "Masonry ought forever to be abolished. It is wrong—essentially wrong—a seed of evil, which can never produce any good." You can also watch documentaries on evils of Satanism and Communism/Marxism on the CD.

You can listen to Mr. Myron C. Fagan's 1960s speech on the history of the Illuminati's control of World events. It is the best expose on Illuminism, their past activities and their future plans for the totalitarian one World government. For the full text of the speech, please see section 13 in this book or to listen to the two hours 1960s talk, check the audio files on the CD. You can also listen to Stanley Hilton's interview with Alex Jones exposing the Zion-

Nazis terrorists & criminals who run the US-Israeli Government. There are a multitude of book and website references in this book and video clips, audio clips and documents on the CD for your perusal and study. Inform yourself and set your mind free from the clutches of the tyrants mentioned in this book! And before skeptics start to discredit this expose by falsely throwing a volley of accusations about anti-Semitism, please read this by Dr. Henry Makow:

The Protocols

Reply to an Israeli Friend By Henry Makow Ph.D. September 11, 2002

"Uri and I were friends at university in Ottawa in the early 1970's. After he settled in Israel, I saw him on visits there. Whenever tensions in the Middle East increased, my concerns always turned to him, his brilliant wife and beautiful children. Recently I emailed and asked for his thoughts. He replied (my reply is after his):

Dear Henry,

First I received your letter, then I read your latest (August 14) on Zionism, Feminism, Jews and Bankers. <http://www.savethemales.ca/> .

I'm surprised you don't refer to the Protocols of the Elders of Zion. The fact that it has been proven to be forgery should be no obstacle, I am sure you will be able to find on the Net a "proof" that it is not a forgery, after all. Perhaps you haven't read it? You should, it is a foundation text for all anti-Semites--it too is on the Net. It will explain that there is a secret Cabal of Jewish Bankers who have enslaved the World. You are not the first person with Jewish origins to become an anti-Semite, nor the first to believe that the World is governed by a conspiracy of Bankers. The Nazis believed this, and in the early days, until it became impossible, there were even a few Jewish Nazis. Beliefs such as yours are beyond the field of rational argument. I am sure you will find some way of showing me that any 'evidence' I can muster is a falsification of the great World wide conspiracy, so arguing with you is a waste of time.

But I would like to make one thing very very clear to you: Beliefs such as yours physically endanger the life of my family, my friends, myself. They are now, as they always have been, the justification and the excuse for the physical destruction of Jews. The Jews (and their pals the Bankers) are responsible for the World's ills, for the worst massacres, for the destruction of the family, for poverty and inequality. This is believed as Koranic truth throughout the Arab and Moslem World, and by many in Eastern Europe, and by a few in Western Europe as well. An epic play shown repeatedly on Jordanian Television (with subtitles in English for my convenience) explains how the satanic Jews will stop at nothing in their quest for World domination, that the only possible solution is to heroically kill them.

We don't deserve to live, and so my neighbour, a peace activist on his way to help plan a factory for Jews and Arabs in northern Israel, was blown up. One of my colleagues at work put her beloved twenty year old daughter on a bus, and minutes later her life ended. Another colleague's son was blown up in a coffee house. My chest contracts every time my son leaves the house. My daughter rarely comes to Jerusalem. All this because the Jews are all guilty, and don't deserve to live. Henry, you have joined the devil. The hell with you.

[My reply to Uri]

You are under a lot of strain so I will forgive you for calling me an anti-Semite, implying I don't mourn Israeli loss of life, or don't have your best interests at heart. I have not joined the Devil. I am following the highest truth available to me. I am trying to dispel the illusions that have created the living hell that threatens not just Israelis and Arabs but all of us. In fighting evil, the truth is our most potent weapon. Distorting or suppressing the truth doesn't change it. Demonizing someone whose truth differs from yours -- whether he's a Palestinian or a fellow Jew -- doesn't change it either. I don't pretend to have the whole truth. It has been suppressed and isn't easy to come by. Nevertheless an outline is emerging. It may change as I learn more.

Yes, I believe that the people who hold the World's purse strings are responsible for humanity's woes. It's irrelevant that they and their allies are "Jewish" because they exploit Jews and gentiles alike. Zionism is an excellent example of this betrayal. For most Jews, Israel represents a national homeland. Most Israelis would accept peace within the 1967 borders. But this isn't happening because, for its financial sponsors, Israel's purpose is to colonize the Middle East. While Israelis want to live in peace, they are manipulated into playing the role of oppressor. Uri, like most people you reject facts that clash with your view of reality. But unless we face the truth there is no hope of making peace and thwarting the power brokers. History has been sanitized but we can still discern the truth. Read Chapter Six of Ralph Schoenman's "Hidden History of Zionism" which is on line.

Zionist leaders and Adolph Hitler shared a common interest in making Europe uninhabitable for Jews. They collaborated in transferring German Jews and their property to Palestine. Zionists broke a Worldwide Jewish boycott by trading Nazi goods. Zionists let 6000 trained young American Zionists enter Israel rather than accept imperiled European Jews. They were probably responsible for the Allied refusal to accept Jewish refugees and failure to bomb rail tracks to the concentration camps. The evidence suggests they deliberately sacrificed their fellow Jews to create the "moral authority" they needed to usurp Palestine.

Read Jewish writer Ben Hecht's book "Perfidy" (1961, p. 218 ff.). Learn how Zionist leaders turned a blind eye to the fate of a million Hungarian Jews. Adolph Eichmann offered to spare them in exchange for 10,000 trucks to be used on the Russian front and 1000 tons of tea and coffee. "Pick [the Jews] anywhere you want," Eichmann said, "Hungary, Auschwitz, Slovakia -- anywhere you want and anyone you want." He was willing to release 100,000 Jews in advance and the rest 10% at a time, on payment. He had authorization from Hitler and Himmler. Joel Brand, of the Hungarian Rescue Committee, took this urgent request to the World Zionist Organization in Tel Aviv where he was put off for months. Chaim Weizmann, WZO Chief and first Israeli President, finally wrote, "I did not have a free moment since my arrival here... I shall be happy to see you sometime the week after next." In spite of physical and economic threats from the Israeli government, Brand told this story at Adolph Eichmann's trial in Jerusalem. It's in the court transcript.

Brand said: "Rightly or wrongly, for better or for worse, I have cursed Jewry's official leaders ever since. All these things shall haunt me until my dying day. It's much more than a man can bear." (Perfidy, p.229). Jews should consider the possibility that Zionism is not what they think. Throughout history, the Jewish community, docile and status-conscious, has followed its leaders, usually the richest Jews. Often, these Jews exploited and betrayed their faith. For example, in Czarist Russia, the Jewish elite sold Jewish children into the Imperial army for 25 years indentured service.

It's fitting that Chaim Weizmann is the spitting image of Vladimir Lenin. Both Communism and Zionism are part of the same secret plot for World supremacy, the New World Order. Sponsored by central Bankers and their English Masonic henchmen, both movements have duped millions of people with their idealistic claptrap. Uri, I would be overjoyed to be wrong. Can't you consider the possibility that I am right? That millions of people like me are not anti Semites? That we just care about our future and that of our children, just like you do? Is it so hard to understand why the Arabs hate Israelis? Read Chapter Five of Schoenman's book. Israelis drove 800,000 Palestinians into refugee camps and stole their homes, farms, factories, businesses, olive orchards and citrus groves. Then Israelis complain Arabs think they don't deserve to live?

Yes, many Arabs fled in panic. The Jews also fled before conquering armies 1800 years ago. Do only Jews have a "right of return?" Speaking of which, read Arthur Koestler's "The Thirteenth Tribe." He cites Jewish scholarship that says east European Jewry descend from the Khazars, a Turkic-Mongol tribe that converted to Judaism in the Eighth Century. It's possible we may not descend from biblical Jews. Consider the twisted logic of Zionism. An oppressed people find a "national home" by dispossessing another people? It doesn't make sense. The Palestinians are sitting on the doorstep looking in their window? Do we expect them to forget? The situation makes sense only if the master plan was to subjugate and colonize them and the whole Muslim World. This is the disastrous direction in which we are headed.

The better alternative: Ask Palestinians for forgiveness and offer friendship and generous compensation. The Saudi offer to accept Israel within the 1967 boundaries was an historic opportunity. Uri, read "anti Semitic" books like Henry Ford's "The International Jew". Most of them bear no malice against Jews. They attempt to protect Christian values against a secular materialistic and despotic plot led by people like the Rothschilds and Warburgs who happen to be Jewish but also includes people like the Rockefellers, Mellons, Rhodes and Bernhards who aren't. Uri, I have read parts of "The Protocols of Zion." For a forgery, it explains past and present better than most history books I've read. Frankly Jews who cry "anti Semitism" remind me of a man standing on another man's foot. When the victim objects, he's accused of being a racist. This is just an underhanded way of disarming him. It's time Jews stopped demonizing and slandering critics and started listening instead. Zionist leaders may have betrayed our people to a bizarre Masonic plot for World domination (New World Order). Uri, I know you are under a lot of pressure. But my beliefs do NOT endanger you. Your failure to face the truth does."

In brief, Israel will be the future seat of the Illuminist New World Order. Jews (both the ones who are the descendants of prophet Jacob also called by the name of Israel, and the descendants of the Turko-Mongolic Europeans known as the Ashkenazi Jews who converted from occultism to Judaism in the 8th century A.C. and currently make up 90% of the people who publicly identify themselves as Jews, however, they are Non-Israelite Jews as explained previously in the section on anti-Semitism) have been fooled by the Illuminati to return to the land of Canaan to distract the whole World while the Illuminati and their brethrens in collaboration gain control of the World's finances, natural resources (especially middle-east oil), news media, military-industrial complexes, intelligence agencies, etc (listen to G. Edward Griffin's talk on the CD). Eventually, a totalitarian World government will be run from Jerusalem with the "Anti-Christ" at its head after the Al-Aqsa Mosque has been collapsed (in a similar way to what happened to the Babri Mosque in Ayodhya India in the 1990's) and replaced with a replica of the ancient Temple of Solomon.

A model of Solomon's Temple. The Mason's built Rosslyn Chapel as an exact architectural blue print of Solomon's temple in Jerusalem, complete with a west wall, a narrow rectangular sanctuary, and a subterranean vault like the Holy of Holies in which the original 9 Templar Knights supposedly found ancient scrolls after massacring the Jewish and Muslim residents of Jerusalem during the 1st Crusades. The two pillars are also exact replicas of the two pillars that stood at the head of Solomon's Temple. (Boaz, the Mason's pillar, and the right pillar Jachin, the Apprentice pillar). These two pillars are the most replicated architectural structures in history. Rosslyn Chapel was built by the Mason Templars in 1446 A.C. and its name was derived from the Rose Line meridian on which the Chapel sat or "the bloodline of Rose" supposedly ancestral lineage. IT is often called the Cathedral of Codes and is 7 miles south of Edinburgh on the site of an ancient pagan Mithraic temple. The Templar Masons, because of their superstitious beliefs concerning Prophet Solomon, believe that there is a "secret" in this Temple passed down from ancient pagan civilizations. It is for this reason that Masonic literature places so much emphasis on the Temple of Solomon over which Herod's temple was built by the Romans. They believe that a stash of hidden ancient documents are still buried beneath its ruins which contain information about the Holy Grail or Sangreal from Sang-Real or Holy Bloodlines. You can see Holy Grail symbolisms in many paintings (e.g. Da Vinci), music, books, theme parks, movies and cartoons; in fact, Walt Disney (modern day Da Vinci) made it his life's work to pass on the Holy Grail story by implanting hidden messages and symbolism in his art with allusions and metaphors.

FERVENT MASONIC DESIRE TO REBUILD SOLOMON'S TEMPLE AND RULE THE WORLD FROM JERUSALEM ARE THE DRIVING FORCE BEHIND THE EVENTS OF THE MID-EAST & WORLD

In the past, it was virtually impossible for the NWO Thread weavers to have a World wide field of influence due to the lack of mass communications. The invention of the printing press, radio, television and most recently the Internet have enabled them to consolidate their control unlike at any previous time in history. Look at the way over the past few decades how witchcraft has become so acceptable. It started in the mainstream media with a sit-com called 'Bewitched.' Since the inception of that show, there has been a flood of witchcraft themed shows. Sabrina the Teenage Witch, Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Charmed are just 3 examples of the current shows on television that follow this theme. Another OCCULT/PAGAN Masonic practice on the rise currently is Necromancy, talking to the dead, another fallacy. Shows like Crossing Over, Beyond and Tru Calling are gaining a wider and wider audience. The show Tru Calling takes the blasphemy to another level, not only is the title character a necromancer, she also resurrects the dead. Movies on the subject are also showing up more in the mainstream media, Ghost, The 6th Sense and Frequency are just 3 examples.

"Those that do not know history, ARE REPEATING IT, right this very minute."

This is all being accomplished through a process deceptively titled 'Television Programming,' although the correct term is 'Audience Programming', for it is the audience that is being 'programmed', to accept an increasing amount of overt OCCULT/PAGAN influence on their society and to desensitize them to the real life horror happening around them. Movies are another avenue of the Thread weavers system of control. Take a look at some of the more popular children's movies, from the Lion King to Harry Potter and you will find that OCCULTISM/PAGANISM is a prevalent theme.

In the Lion King, at Simba's birth, he is marked on his forehead; the mark of the beast is also found on the forehead or the hand. Simba is also a practitioner of necromancy; he talks to his dead father, who rises to the sky as a star constellation/god after he dies, as was the belief of the ancient Pharaohs of Egypt. Even the name of the movie is symbolic, The Lion King = The King of the Jungle King or the King of Kings. Simba also becomes a vegan, a New Age religious reference, forsaking the eating of other animals. Simba's uncle, Scar, (he also has a mark on his forehead) uses deception to keep Simba from taking his rightful place within the pride, just as the Thread weavers use deception to keep the populace from taking control over their birthright.

The Matrix is brimming with OCCULT references overlapping historical mainstream religious themes. Neo is a hacker and the main 'hero', also known as 'the one'. Neos is old Greek for young or new. The leader of the rebels is Morpheus. Morpheus is also the Greek god of dreams, the son of Hypnos, who is the Greek god of sleep. The Matrix is therefore Hypnos, and Morpheus is its son. The Matrix is an artificial 'DreamWorld'. It is a place where the true believers can impose their will on reality, just like the doctrines of some New (Neos) Age religions where the inner self is all-powerful. Morpheus is the captain of a ship called the Nebuchadnezzar, who was a Babylonian King that conquered Jerusalem and Destroyed the Temple. Neo's real name is Thomas Anderson and at first he doesn't believe that the Matrix was just a dream and that he has been 'Resurrected' (freed from the Matrix), so he is a doubting Thomas, like the Apostle. The Agents Smith, are 'demonic entities' which can possess any person in the Matrix at will. These are just a few examples from this ONE so-called 'SCI-FI' movie.

An entire book could be written on the OCCULT references in many Sci-Fi movies/series such as Star Wars, Star Trek and Babylon 5. In Star Wars the Jedi Knights carry 'light-sabers', these could easily be 'Illuminated Phalluses' that erect into being once the hilt is gripped firmly in hand. These weapons are also near omnipotent, they can Penetrate any material except another Illuminated Phal... er I mean another light-saber. The pilot episode of Star Trek, called "The Cage" (not originally aired) featured Capt. Christopher Pike, who was in a Matrix-like illusion controlled by aliens. General (Christopher) Albert Pike was a founder of the Ku Klux Klan and a Mason. These movies also place a heavy emphasis on military prowess and conflict. This is keeping in line with the Hollywood-Military-Financial complex's cult of Phallus worship. The current reverence for Long, Rigid Cylinders from which Hot Material Erupts to Penetrate a Target is just one facet of this cult's long history of degeneracy. Military generals are the modern day high priests of the cult of Death, war being the perfect cover for getting all costumed up and performing time honored rituals before the Human sacrifice (Passed through the Fire) begins.

The Harry Potter series is also totally saturated in OCCULTISM/PAGANISM. In fact it is based in the World of the OCCULT. There are numerous references to necromancy, witchcraft and demonology. Harry Potter also has a mark on his forehead, a lightening bolt shaped scar. Harry has a pet owl, his familiar, which is a symbol of Moloch/Baal, such as the owl at Bohemian Grove. Some of the teachers can change their form from human to animal, much the same as some of the pagan gods of mythology and demons mentioned in religious texts. The most frightening part of the Harry Potter series is that it is actually being taught in some schools as part of the mandatory curriculum. It is clear that the Thread weavers are implementing their agenda through the entertainment industry. Keep in mind that this is done not by them writing any of the necessary materials themselves, they simply promote/advertise books, movies etc. that further their aims and ignore/vilify any materials that are contrary to their goals. Most of Disney's hidden messages dealt with pagan myths and stories of the subjugated sex goddess' or sacred feminine such as Cinderella, Sleeping Beauty Princess Aurora or Rose womb of the goddess, Snow White, Little Mermaid; check a freeze-frame of the Lion King to observe the subliminal word SEX over Simba's head. One of the Masonic Priore de Sion rituals involves public sex, a kind of phallic worship. The concept of sex as a pathway to self-divinity was practiced by ancient pagans. Pagan men seeking wholeness would come to the temple of Shekinah, who they believed to be a female god, to visit priestesses or hierodules with whom they had sex and experienced the divine. Note that the ancient name of Eve, Havah, pre-fixed with the masculine Jah creates the word Jehovah or YHWH, so we can see how pagans distorted the true meaning of God into the self-worship with sex. Pagan leaders don't like God's laws about usury and sexual commitment in marriage.

During the Crusades, the Templars ran their mission to reach for the ancient documents in the Temple of Solomon under the pretext of protection of the pilgrims. During the first Crusades, the Knights are said to have discovered something in the ruins that made them wealthy and powerful. King Baldwin granted them residence inside the Temple during the second Crusades. Nobody knows whether the Knights had blackmailed the Vatican or whether the Pope simply tried to buy the Knights' silence about what they had supposedly discovered, but Pope Innocent II did issue a Papal Bull that gave the Templar Masons limitless power and declared them an autonomous army above the law. Later, in the 1300s, a rift with the Vatican caused the barbaric persecution of the Templars by the Church; you might say a gang war or two mafias fighting each other. Pope Clement V issued secret sealed orders to be opened simultaneously by his soldiers all across Europe on Friday October 13th in 1307. Clement's Machiavellian operation came off with precision, however some Knights managed to escape to England and Scotland.

By the way, the 300 years after Constantine's council of Nicaea, there was a 3 century long inquisition against free-thinking women in which 5 million women scholars, priestesses, gypsies, mystics, pagan nature lovers, her gatherers, midwives were tortured or killed. This converted the World from a matriarchal paganism to a patriarchal from merged into Catholicism (see Dan Brown's DaVinci Code). Well, as long as we have mortgages to pay, families to raise and retirements to prepare for, it will be hard for us to find the courage to act on strong convictions and expose the collaborators of the New World Order for fear of reprisal (and there are plenty of examples of reprisals throughout history). This situation can also work to cloud the minds of the skeptics and non-skeptics alike as a sense of denial can develop as a result of the perceived threat of reprisal.

Rosslyn Chapel (Scotland) at the past & present time and an example of its pagan symbols.

More Documented Conspiracies: Here is something more for the skeptics \(and also non-skeptics\)

A top banker once explained how the banker's money controls the media by advertising & loan money and by direct ownership of the media, and how the banks control the judges and law enforcement. A recent victim of this is Congressman Traficant. He exposed the Bankers. He called the IRS (the collection agency of the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank) a bunch of thieves. He exposed the bankruptcy of the United States. Now he is going to jail. He said it was selective prosecution and a conspiracy to put him in jail. On national TV, a juror in Traficant's trial, Lee Glasz said, "No doubt government was out to get Traficant." Here is another proof from 1968 when in the "Credit River" decision a jury in a Justice of the Peace court trial found that Federal Reserve Notes were not Moneys of Account of the United States and found them to be 'FRAUDS'. This case was on Dec. 7, 1968 before Justice Martin V. Mahoney of Credit River Minn. The case was about "Failure of consideration by a bank in a mortgage foreclosure on Jerome Daly's cabin at Prior Lake, Minn. Justice Mahoney declared that only "Gold and Silver Coins" were moneys of account of the United States, and that the Constitution is still the LAW today. "No state shall make any "THING" but Gold and Silver Coin a tender in payment of debts..." And of course since the Federal Government had been given only 18 to 20 powers under the Constitution it was a "Limited Government", and according to the 9th and 10th amendments the states and the people were Sovereign, and retained for themselves all of the other rights not specifically given to the Feds. This Minnesota Trial Court's decision held the Federal Reserve Act unconstitutional and VOID; held the National Banking Act unconstitutional and VOID; declared a mortgage acquired by the First National Bank of Montgomery, Minnesota in the regular course of its business, along with the foreclosure and the sheriff's sale, to be VOID.

This decision, which is legally sound, has the effect of declaring all private mortgages on real and personal property, and all U.S. and State bonds held by the Federal Reserve, National and State Banks to be null and VOID. This amounts to an emancipation of this nation from personal, national and State debt purportedly owed to this banking system. Every True American owes it to himself/herself, to his or her country, and to the people of the World for that matter, to study this decision very carefully and to understand it, for upon it hangs the question of freedom or slavery. The "Credit River Decision" was handed down by a jury of 12 on a cold day December 7th 1968, in the Credit River Township Hall. The court room was highly charged, and the Jury was all business. The banker testified about the mortgage loan given to Jerome Daly, but then Daly cross examined the banker about the creating of money "out of thin air". Daly asked the bank president, "If you were just opening up your bank and no one had yet made a deposit, and I came into your bank, and wanted to take out a loan of $18,000.00, could you loan me that money? When the bank president said, "Yes" I thought the jury would faint. Daly then said, "Does this mean that you can create money out of thin air?" And the bank president said "yes, we can create money out of thin air". Justice Mahoney then said "IT SOUNDS LIKE FRAUD TO ME" and everybody in the court room nodded their heads indicating that they agreed with Justice Mahoney. Jerome Daly had taken on the banks, the Federal Reserve Banking System, and the money lenders, and had won. It is now twenty eight years since this "Landmark Decision," and Justice Mahoney is quoted more often than any Supreme Court justice ever was. The money boys that run the "private Federal Reserve Bank" soon got back at Mahoney by poisoning him in what appeared to have been a fishing boat accident (but with his body pumped full of poison) in June of 1969, less than 6 months later. Both Jerome Daly and Justice Martin V. Mahoney are truly the greatest men that I have ever had the pleasure to meet. The Credit River Decision was and still is the most important legal decision ever decided by a Jury.

NOW, MORE PROOF OF THE BANKING DYNASTIES' POWER

There have been many leading figures in history who have condemned usury and the power that goes with it. Besides those quoted, there were Benjamin Franklyn, Lord Acton, Ruskin, Dr Temple, (former Archbishop of Canterbury), Augustus John, (the painter), Dr M.A. Phillips, (creator of M&B 693), Professor Soddy, (the atomic physicist), and others. It often helps us to understand something if we examine origins. Throughout recorded history the practice of usury, along with the practice of giving false measure, has been condemned. Aristotle and Plato in ancient Greece denounced it as well as prophets in the Old Testament and early Christians. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus, it should be remembered, drove usurers out of the Temple in Jerusalem and this played a part in bringing about his apparent crucifixion by the Roman Pharisee King Pailatoos (Pilates). Buddhists have condemned it and the Quran does so as well (and probably other religious and non-religious books). While the old usurers at least lent their own money, the modern ones, the Bankers, are able to create it out of nothing. Aristotle and Plato in ancient Greece denounced it. Here is what the author of "Rural Rides" and MP in the reformed Parliament of 1832, William Cobbett, wrote: "I set to work to read the Act of Parliament by which the Bank of England was created, and all the Acts about loans, and funds, and dividends, and payings, and sinking funds and I soon began to perceive that the fate of the Kingdom must finally turn upon what should be done with that accursed thing called the National Debt. The sum at first borrowed was a mere trifle. The inventors knew well what they were about. Their design was to mortgage by degrees the whole of the country... to those who would lend money to the State... the deep scheme has from its ominous birth been breeding usurers of every description, feeding and fattening on the vitals of the country, till it has produced what the World never saw before - starvation in the midst of abundance!"

The House of Rothschild - a term used to refer to the various branches of an international banking family where members of the family all descended from a common ancestor, the German financier Mayer Amschel Rothschild. For almost 200 years the house of Rothschild exerted a great influence on European economic history. Members of the family have spread to the major financial capitals of Europe. Mayer Amschek was appointed financial agent of the British Government during the French revolutionary wars [1789]. With his five sons, he founded additional branches of the Rothschild banking house in four European cities. The Bank of England, central bank of Great Britain, is a financial institution with special privileges and responsibilities. Located in London, it is often called the "Old Lady of Threadneedle Street." It was projected by English financier William Paterson and was incorporated on July 27, 1694, as a private joint-stock association, with a capital of 1.2 million. In return for the loan of its entire capital to the government (of Great Britain) it received the right to issue notes and a monopoly on corporate banking in England. After the Battle of Waterloo, the Rothschilds managed to take ownership of the Bank of England from its former private owners.

Europe

Lenin, in "Imperialism -The Last Stage", wrote: "In running the current account of a certain number of capitalists, the bank may seem to be undertaking only a technical process; but when these operations assume extensive proportions, the result is that a handful of monopolists control all the operations... of capitalist society. They can, by means of their banking connections, by knowing financial operations, first ascertain exactly the position of isolated capitalists, then control them, act on them by restricting their credits, or, on the contrary, by extending them, at length they can entirely determine their fate..." Lenin, a cruel dictator, was also a shrewd observer.

"Bundesbank - The Bank That Rules Europe", by David Marsh (1992). The purpose of this book is to show the extensive power held by this central bank. On page 169 under the heading i: "THE CENTRAL BANK CAN TOPPLE THE GOVERNMENT..." This deals with conflicts between Fritz Schaffer, West Germany's first Finance Minister with Wilhelm Vocke, the bank leader. Vocke complains (1950): "The main theme running through your newly drawn-up regulations is a certain mistrust towards the central bank. As you say yourself your primary concern is that: 'The Central Bank can topple the government.'" This power was to increase and the Bundesbank was able to remove three chancellors, Ludwig Erhard (1966), Kurt Georg Keisinger (1969) and Helmut Schmidt (1981).

Britain

Gladstone (Morley's "Life of Gladstone") said: "From the time I took office as Chancellor of the Exchequer I began to learn that the State held, in the face of the Bank and the City, an essentially false position as to finance... The hinge of the whole position was this: the Government itself was not to be a substantive power in matters of finance, but was to leave the Money Power supreme and unquestioned. In the conditions of that situation I was reluctant to acquiesce, and I began to fight against it by financial self-assertion from the first... I was tenaciously opposed by the Governor and Deputy-Governor of the Bank, who had seats in Parliament, and I had the city for an antagonist on almost every occasion."

The Financial Times, Sept. 26, 1921 "Whoever may be the indiscreet minister who revives the money-trust bogey at a moment when the Government [Lloyd George's] has most need to be polite to the banks, should be put through an elementary course of instruction in fact, as well as in manners. Does he, do his colleagues, realise that half a dozen men at the top of the big five banks could upset the whole fabric of Government finance by refraining from renewing treasury bills?"

America

Thomas Jefferson in Congress, 1809 'I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already they have raised up a money aristocracy that has set the Government at defiance. The issuing power [of money] should be taken from the banks and restored to the Government and to the people to whom it belongs.' President Andrew Jackson and President Abraham Lincoln made similar comments.

Letter written from London by the Rothschilds to their New York agents introducing their banking method into America: "The few who can understand the system will be either so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favours, that there will be no opposition from that class, while, on the other hand, that great body of people, mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantage that Capital derives from the system, will bear its burden without complaint and, perhaps, without even suspecting that the system is inimical to their interests."

From the United States Bankers' Magazine of 1892: "We must proceed with caution, and guard well every move made, for the lower orders of people are already showing signs of restless commotions. Prudence will, therefore, dictate a policy of apparently yielding to the popular will until all of our plans are so far consummated that we can declare our designs without fear of any organised resistance. The Farmers' Alliance and the Knights of Labour organisations in the United States should be carefully watched by our trusted men, and we must take immediate steps to control these organisations in our interests or disrupt them. The coming Omaha Convention, to be held July 4th, our men must attend and direct its movements, or else there will be set on foot such antagonism to our designs as may require force to overcome. This, at the present time, would be premature. We are not yet ready for such a crisis. Capital must protect itself in every possible manner through combination and legislation. The courts must be called to our aid. Debts must be collected, bonds and mortgages foreclosed as rapidly as possible. Where, through a process of law, the common people have lost their homes, they will be more tractable and easily governed through the influence of the strong arm of government, applied by central power of imperial wealth, under the control of leading financiers. The truth is well known among our principal men now engaged in forming an imperialism of capital to govern the World. While they are doing this the people must be kept in a condition of political antagonism. The question of tariff reform must be urged through the organisation known as the Democratic Party, and the question of protection and reciprocity must be forced to view through the Republican Party. By thus dividing the voters we can get them to expend their energies in fighting over questions of no importance to us, except as teachers to lead the common herd. Thus by discreet actions we can secure all that has so generously planned and successfully accomplished."

Dr Carroll Quigley, famous American historian, in "Tragedy and Hope", 1966, wrote: "...Nothing less than to create a World system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the World as a whole, the system to be controlled in a feudalist fashion by the central banks of the World acting in concert, by secret agreements arrived at in frequent private meetings and conferences.."

"Don't Bank On It", by Alix Granger 1981, (Published by Doubleday Canada Ltd and also by a company in New York), shows how Canada is controlled by the banks there. It quotes Peter Newman in "The Canadian Establishment": "The bank boards distil power. Among them, the three hundred directors hold more than three thousand directorships of corporations with assets totaling $700 Billion." Alix Granger goes on to say, "Their influence spreads into every recess of the country, building up the economy and creating prosperity and employment in one area, tearing down or restricting growth in others through their loan policies, their barriers to competition, their price fixing, and their influence on legislation.". p31/32.

Still still still somewhat skeptical? Well, let's look at the History of oil price manipulation to keep them high

One of the most common disparagements of the conspiracy model is that the conspiracy is "too big", that there are "too many people involved" to keep it secret. Hogwash. There is nothing in this World that cannot be solved with the judicious application of a little palm grease. Throw in the occasional threat of violence, and it is amazing how many people keep their damn mouths shut. The mixture of complicity and fear that keeps the lid on the initial stages of a conspiracy are merely compounded by time. Like any other process, conspiracies can become institutionalized and as such, take on a life of their own. It is one thing to admit complicity in an event that has just occurred; how much worse does it look to admit knowledge of a conspiracy for say, 75 years? (Can anyone say Big Tobacco?) One other point to keep in mind is the sheer attraction of wealth and power, especially to those born into it. Conspiracies can also become institutionalized within families, especially the families of the extremely wealthy. Oil is the major fuel used by people today. Because oil is liquid, it is easy to mine by drilling and pumping rather than excavation, and it is easy to transport in tankers and pipelines. Nevertheless, the history of oil supply has been dominated by the time and place of discoveries, with enormous results on the history of the 20th century. It has also been dominated by a few individuals, companies, and nations. Before we get into that, however, I want to make the point that petroleum and petroleum products have been minor components in international trade for thousands of years.

Bitumen and Egyptian Mummies. Bitumen is a spongy cake-like substance that forms when much of the volatile content of crude oil has evaporated off. Because it is light enough to float, bitumen "rafts" form from oil seeps deep under the Dead Sea, and eventually pop to the surface where they can be collected from rafts or boats. In ancient time, bitumen was much in demand by the Egyptians for use in preserving mummies, and a bitumen trade built up across the Sinai Desert. Nasty little wars broke out over these trade routes, and the rise and fall of the Nabateans of Petra is linked with this trade. The Chinese invented Oil Drilling. The Chinese used oil from natural seeps as fuel to boil salt. They invented the oil pipeline, using lengths of bamboo to take oil to the salt pans. As an extension of this technology, they pounded bamboo vertically into the seeps, thus inventing oil drilling as they penetrated deeper and deeper. The technology was much admired by a European visitor early in the 19th century, and (with iron pipe instead of bamboo) was transferred to the west. Finally it was used in the first large-scale oil drilling ever attempted, in the eastern United States. The modern oil era began in northwest Pennsylvania in the mid-19th century, as shallow fields were tapped. The demand for oil was not great: its major use, after refining, was as kerosene for oil lamps. Even moderate discoveries (by today's standards) flooded the market, crashing prices at least temporarily. The early days of the oil industry were characterized by boom and bust, as new discoveries first overwhelmed demand, then lagged behind it. Prices fell from $10 a barrel in January 1861 to 10¢ a barrel in December 1861, but were up to $7.25 a barrel again by September 1863, down to $2.40 in 1867. Fortunes were made and lost in boom towns and stock speculations that rivaled any in the gold industry.

The innovation that allowed some control over the chaos was the oil pipeline. Barrels (real barrels, made of oak) were expensive, sometimes worth more than the oil they contained. They were expensive to transport on wagons, too. By 1866, pipelines, made of wood at first, had been built to the major producing fields, transporting oil to railheads where tanker cars could be filled. After that, there was only one real choice: the oil flowed to the nearest industrial city for refining, Cleveland, Ohio. The oil fields were scattered in rough country, owned by small-time entrepreneurs, and new discoveries were unpredictable in location and size. They were, however, likely to occur in the same region, and they would be connected by pipelines to the existing rail network, and funneled to Cleveland. After refining, the kerosene was marketed nation-wide.

Rockefeller Dynasty Oil Crimes From 1911 to 9-11: The Institutions of Conspiracy

Old Rockefeller made his first fortune in bootlegging of liquor, then he moved into the oil business and started to control steel mills, railroads, industrial plants, etc. in order to monopolize the refining business (he became as big as the current 7 sisters, namely SOCAL, Exxon, Mobil, Texaco, Amoco, Amerada Hess). Rockefeller reasoned that the way to monopolize the oil industry was within the transportation and refining section. In particular, refineries were comparatively long-term investments. At the age of 20, Rockefeller had entered business just as the Civil War began, and made a lot of money supplying the Army with wheat, salt, and pork. In 1863 Cleveland was connected with the Pennsylvania oilfields by rail, and Rockefeller and a partner opened an oil refinery in Cleveland. In 1866 he bought out his partner, and at the age of 26 owned the largest refinery in the city. Using the size of his shipments to negotiate low prices for railroad transport, Rockefeller and his Standard Oil Company became the largest oil company in North America, amalgamating and controlling the refining side of the industry. By 1879 Standard Oil controlled 90% of the refining capacity in the United States, and all the pipelines flowing out of the Pennsylvania oilfields.

In the 1880s, Standard moved into oilfield production too. By 1890, it was producing or buying over 80% of the oil produced in the United States, and refining and selling it. Standard was exporting kerosene, too: half of the kerosene it produced was exported, mainly to Europe, and kerosene was the fourth-largest American export commodity. Standard Oil of Ohio, owned by John D. Rockefeller, was refining 90 percent of all crude oil in the United States and had begun its international expansion. At the end of the century, the Standard Oil Trust controlled the oil industry of the Americas, while Shell was a major player in much of the rest of the World. Rockefeller expanded his sphere of control outside the oil business. In 1891, a Rockefeller grant funds the University of Chicago. In 1892, the Rockefeller trust was transferred to a holding company: Standard Oil of New Jersey. In 1894, John Dewey known as the "father of progressive education" starts teaching at the University of Chicago. He is to teach four of the five Rockefeller brothers. He wrote: "There is no God and no soul. Hence, there are no needs for the props of traditional religion. With dogma and creed excluded, then immutable (unchangeable) truth is also dead and buried. There is no room for fixed, natural law or permanent moral absolutes". In 1901, the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research (Rockefeller University) was founded in New York. In 1902, the Rockefeller General Education Board GEB was founded. In 1908, Rockefeller was connected with founding the FBI. Also in 1908, Congress passed the Aldrich-Vreeland Act calling for the establishment of National Monetary Commission and the man placed as Chairman of the commission was Sen. Nelson Aldrich after an artificially induced money panic. His daughter, Abby, was married to John D. Rockefeller Jr. In 1913, the Rockefeller Foundation was founded.

Senator Nelson Aldrich, the maternal grandfather of today's Rockefeller brothers, proposes the Aldrich Bill to establish the Federal Reserve Act which passes in 1913. The Rockefeller dynasty along with the Rothschild dynasty are two of the 12 major owners of the Fed. Rockefeller money was instrumental in establishing the Leagues of Nations in 1920 and the Rockefellers donated the land in 1950 for the current UN building in New York. Money for the founding of the CFR in 1921 came from J. P. Morgan, Bernard Baruch, Otto Kahn, Jacob Schiff, Paul Warburg, and John D. Rockefeller, among others with the help of the Round Table Group. This was the same crowd involved in the forming of the Federal Reserve. Prominent figures who have served as CFR directors since 1921 include: Walter Lippman, Adlai Stevenson, Cyrus Vance, Zbigniew Brzezinske, Robert O. Anderson, Paul Volcker, Theodore M. Hesburgh, Lane Kirkland, George H. W. Bush, Henry Kissinger, David Rockefeller, George Shultz, Alan Greenspan, Brent Scowcroft, Jeane J. Kirkpatrick, and Richard B. Cheney. Three major events altered this situation: in 1901 the great Spindletop gusher brought Texas oil into the picture, eventually bringing Gulf and Texaco into the big leagues; in 1911 the US Government used anti-trust legislation to break up the Standard company; and the World War of 1914-1918 brought to everyone's attention the fact that petroleum was now vital to waging and winning wars. The scene was set for oil to dominate much economic, political, and military thinking, and that situation continues today.

We know now that most of the World's oil production and most of the World's oil reserves will be in the Middle East for the foreseeable future. The predominant oil-bearing region lies in an arc from Iraq and Iran through Kuwait and Saudi Arabia, with the smaller Gulf States like Abu Dhabi and Bahrain on the fringe of the belt. That was not known until early in the 20th century. In 1904 an Armenian businessman, Calouste Gulbenkian, reported to the Turkish Sultan Abdul Hamid on the oil potential of the then Turkish provinces in Iraq: the Sultan promptly transferred large areas into his own personal possession. The Iraq Petroleum Company was formed in 1914, with capital coming from a consortium of British and Dutch companies. The Anglo-Persian Oil Company, which eventually evolved into BP, struck oil in Iran in 1908, and in 1911 Winston Churchill, then head of the British Admiralty, used Government money to buy half of the company on behalf of the Royal Navy. Churchill also decided that new British battleships would be fueled by oil rather than coal, and the Iranian supplies were very valuable to the British in World War I. In the early part of the Twentieth Century, oil began to be the most important product in the World. In 1910, the mightiest military force in the World under Churchill, the British Navy, converted its entire fleet to oil power. From that point on, access to oil has been the single most important denominator of military success. Let us look at a conspiracy in point with the Rockefellers, the Bushes and their related families, the Walkers. These mafias were bankers and railway men who got into the oil business under the auspices of the Rockefeller family. In 1911, Rockefeller's Standard Oil Trust was broken up under anti-trust laws into five components: Exxon (Jersey Standard, Mobil (Socony), SoCal, Gulf and Texaco, although Rockefeller maintained at least minority ownership in all of these companies. The Supreme Court ruled that Standard Oil of New Jersey was in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. It was dissolved among 33 companies but John D. Rockefeller had 25 percent of the stock in each of the firms and there wasn't a shred of competition among any of them. Offshoots included Exxon, Mobil, Standard Oil of California, Standard Oil of Indiana, Sohio (Standard Oil of Ohio), Marathon, Phillips 66, and Chevron.

The American and British ruling circles have been engaged in a policy of military imperialism for several centuries. The American revolution was fought to bring the United States under new, non-British rulers, with the new regime sold to the public as a democracy. In the twentieth century, these American ruling elites have revolved around the Rockefeller, Brown, Harriman, and Morgan family dynasties (all from Germany just like the House of Windsor, the so-called "British" Royal Family). The Bush (Bosch) family, beginning with Prescott Bush, have served as satraps of the Rockefeller, Brown, and Harriman interests. The British and American ruling cabals decided that the energy of choice for the World would be oil and natural gas (not coal)—just as the drugs of choice would be alcohol and tobacco. To overcome the problem of his oil holdings being broken apart by the U.S. government in 1911, John Rockefeller set out to control the World's energy reserves. World War I was the strategy of the Rockefeller/Rothschild World oil cartel (Standard, Shell, British Petroleum) to take over the colonies of France, Holland, Spain and Portugal. The engines of war now ran on petroleum-based products, so ownership of oil could now determine who won or lost a war--therefore who would rule the World. Oil, instead of gold, became the token of power.

By the end of World War I the central place of petroleum in World strategy had become obvious, and the dramatic thirst of military operations had led to fears that there would be a global oil shortage, and to quick appreciation of the profits to be made in such circumstances. American companies, who had been unwilling to explore abroad when vast oilfields were being discovered at home in Texas and California, began to look overseas, and the American government began to use considerable political and economic pressure to try to force American companies into the European-dominated consortia in the Middle East. However, new fields came on line in the 1920s, and the big companies were soon worrying instead about an oil glut. By 1919, the Oil Empire, not based on countries or nations, but on private corporations, now ruled the World. The Big Three oil cartel, which controlled oil in the Persian Gulf and Southeast Asia areas, wanted to gain control over the vast oil reserves in the southern part of the Soviet Union. They financed the fascist regimes in Germany, Italy (& the Pope), and Japan with the hope that they would invade and control Russia. The Oil Rulers planned to defeat the German, Italian, and Japanese regimes and take control of the oil reserves in the Soviet Union. (In addition, the Rockefeller circle also planned to take control of Persian Gulf oil from the British-Persian Oil cartel and seize control of Southeast Asian oil from Royal Dutch Shell).

John F. Hylan, Mayor of New York 1918-1925, said "The real menace of our Republic is the invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy legs over our cities, states, and nation. ... It seizes in its long and powerful tentacles our executive officers, our legislative bodies, our schools, our courts, our newspapers, and every agency created for the public protection... To depart from mere generalisations, let me say that at the head of this octopus are the Rockefeller-Standard Oil interest and a small group of powerful banking houses generally referred to as the international Bankers. The little coterie of powerful international Bankers virtually run the United States government for their own selfish purposes. They practically control both parties, write political platforms, make catspaws of party leaders, use the leading men of private organisations, and resort to every device to place in nomination for high public office only such candidates as will be amenable to the dictates of corrupt big business... These international Bankers and Rockefeller-Standard Oil interests control the majority of newspapers and magazines in this country".

By 1928 there were negotiations between BP, Shell, and Exxon (I have used the modern names of oil companies in the discussion that follows to save confusion: thus, "Exxon" rather than "Esso"; I call the largest oil companies "the majors" or seven sisters) in a Scottish castle, and the so-called Achnacarry Agreement or the American version of OPEC, set out working principles to avoid competition at the marketing end of the oil industry. The agreement specifically excluded the US market because of its powerful anti-trust legislation, but there is no question that the companies had no intention of serious competition there if they could hammer out an agreement for the rest of the World. In Rockefeller's own words "competition is a sin". The Economist of London praised the Achnacarry Agreement as "an example of the effectiveness of international cooperation in oil marketing." The Economist was pleased with the "stability" of the prices of oil and gasoline, but it's not clear whether the article was written with the seller or the consumer in mind. Mobil, Gulf, and Texaco had joined the three founder companies by 1932, to make six. The results for producers were very rewarding: stable (but higher) prices gouged the consumer for decades, and "pirates" were dealt with summarily whenever possible.

With the Achnacarry Agreement in hand, each large company could feel that it would be able to negotiate a market share for its oil without seeing petroleum prices crash. The stage was now set for serious prospecting, and for staking out major oilfields, even though every company could see that it would not be in a position to pump all the oil that it found. After 1928, therefore, the era of the great Middle East oil strikes began, though Middle East production remained low. In 1928 the six-year negotiations over Iraq were completed, and the Iraq Petroleum Company was re-divided. 5% went to the formidable Mr. Gulbenkian, and the other 95% was shared equally between the British (BP), the Dutch (Shell), the French (CFP, the Compagnie Française Pétrole), and a Rockefeller-controlled American group (Exxon + Mobil). The Iraq company was essentially set up as an accounting company, to share the production costs and the crude oil between the partners. In 1929, the CFR moved to Harold Pratt Building on 68th Street. The CFR (Rothschild/Rockefellers/Carnegie/Morgan) manipulate the major stock market crash and Worldwide depression ensues. The Rockefellers swallow up the smaller banks for 7 cents on the dollar. In 1930, The Rockefeller Foundation had started and financed certain studies known as The War and Peace Studies, manned largely by associates of the Council on Foreign Relations; the State Department, in due course, took these Studies over, retaining the major personnel which The Council on Foreign Relations had supplied.

On June 1, 1932, SoCal (now Chevron) struck oil in Bahrain, the first strike in the Arabian peninsula. In 1933 BP extended its Iranian lease for another 60 years. Gulf joined with BP to explore a Kuwaiti concession in 1934. But 1938 marked the major turning point in Middle East oil history: Gulf and BP struck the Burgan field in Kuwait, and Chevron struck oil in Saudi Arabia. In 1933, Franklin Roosevelt, one of the Syndicate's front men issues Presidential Executive Order of April 5, 1933 requiring all Americans to take their gold bullion, gold coins, and gold-backed currency to their banks and exchange them for paper currency that was not redeemable in precious metal. The banks, in turn, were required to deliver the gold and gold coins to the Federal Reserve Bank. President Roosevelt (CFR) declared the US bankrupt and signed over U.S. monetary power to World Bankers (Rothschilds/Rockefellers - Illuminati). It became illegal to own gold so all US citizen sell their gold to the FED. Franklin D. Roosevelt, U.S. President, in a letter written Nov. 21, 1933 to Colonel E. Mandell House, states: ... "The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the large centers has owned the government of the U.S. since the days of President Andrew Jackson.

The Newstates Constitution written by Rexford G. Tugwell in concord with 100 other social changers, at the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara, California, was financed by the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations. In 1934, The NEA (National Education Association) financed largely by the Rockefeller and Carnegie foundations, adopts John Dewey's philosophy of humanism, socialism, and globalism, and incorporates it into the classroom. While all of this is going on, Dewey manages to slip away to Russia for a time to help organize the Marxist educational system there. Chevron's history goes back to wildcatter Frederick Taylor, who struck oil in California in the 1870s. In 1879 he joined with other small operators to form Pacific Coast Oil in order to compete with John D. Rockefeller's Standard Oil in California. In 1900 Standard bought Pacific Coast. When Standard Oil was broken up by the Supreme Court in 1911, the company's West Coast operations were lumped together in the Standard Oil Company of California . This was based in San Francisco. The company quickly became known as SoCal, but began marketing under the Chevron name. SoCal continued to explore in Louisiana and the Gulf of Mexico and in 1961 expanded its gas station empire by buying the Standard Oil Company of Kentucky.

Rockefeller's first intent was to regain majority control of "his" companies. The venerable firm of Brown Brothers, Harriman was engaged to handle the Rockefeller business interests. Employed at the firm were George Walker and his son-in-law, Prescott Bush. In 1926, Exxon merged its corporate interests with IG Farben of Germany (the same year that Ibn Saud consolidated control of the Kingdom bearing his name). In 1927 May 20, Saudi Arabia became independent of Great Britain with the Treaty of Jeddah. In 1931, Mohammad bin Laden immigrated to Saudi Arabia from Yemen. He established a construction business and built close ties with the king. In 1931, Osama bin Laden was born in Jeddah to a Syrian mother. He was the 17th of 51 children of Muhammad bin Laden, a baggage carrier, who left Yemen in 1931. Muhammad and his brothers were the founders of a prosperous construction company. By 1933, the year Hitler took power, the concessions to the Saudi and Bahraini oilfields were controlled by SoCal (Standard Oil of California), one of the Rockefeller companies. On May 29th 1933, Saudi Arabia gave Standard Oil of California exclusive rights to explore for oil (www.chevron.com) and in November a subsidiary named California Arabian Standard Oil Co was established. In 1938 Jan, Standard Oil of California found some gas and oil at their 1st Saudi Arabia test well, Damman No. 1. (www.chevron.com). In 1936 on Mar 3, Standard Oil of California struck oil at Damman No 7. Aramco made the first commercial oil find in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia. The English Arabist, H. St. John Philby, orchestrated the Aramco concession in Saudi Arabia. (HN, 3/15/98)(WSJ, 3/8/99, p.A16)(SEC, 6/27/99, p.T3)(www.chevron.com). Standard of California (later Chevron) discovered more oil than it could sell in Saudi Arabia and so turned to the Texas Company to establish a joint venture called Caltex to sell the oil - the California Texas Oil Company - with Texas Oil Co (later Texaco) in order to cope. The 1930s saw the Texas Company expanded nationwide across the United States. In 1944, the Saudi operations became known as the Arabian American Oil Company – Aramco. In 1948 Caltex sold 40% of its Saudi operations to Socony (later Mobil) and Jersey Standard (later Exxon, and now together as ExxonMobil).

In 1939, the year WWII started, the Saudi Oilfields were reorganized under the control of a joint SoCal and Texas Oil Company venture called Aramco. In 1943, the same year Prescott Bush had all of his assets seized for collaborating with the Nazis, President Roosevelt decided that the Federal government should take over control of Aramco. After much wrangling and mergers with the remaining Rockefeller companies, Aramco was taken over by the Feds and once again Rockefeller had a de facto monopoly over the most important resource on Earth, and the concurrent leverage over the Federal Government. In 1941, a 3,000 bpd refinery opened in Ras Tanura, Saudi Arabia but was closed after 6 months due to equipment shortages caused by WW II. Oil did not begin to ship from Saudi Arabia until 1945 because of World War II, but it was clear that Chevron's discovery had made it overnight into a major, globally powerful company. Its oil was marketed through Texaco's global sales network under the name Caltex, while the Saudi part of the partnership was called Aramco, the Arabian American Oil Company. King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia requested more cash return from his oil fields, and Aramco (Chevron + Texaco) began to expand Saudi production and to sell oil at a price that undercut Texas prices. Even so, production costs in the Saudi oilfields were so low that the partners were making a larger profit than anyone could make from Texas production. The implied threat and gentle pressure brought the other companies into negotiation, and soon Chevron became a seventh major partner in the international selling agreements. This may have had something to do with the fact that at the time the Rockefeller interests were still the largest shareholders in Mobil, Exxon, and Chevron. By a major reorganization in 1947, Mobil and Exxon bought into Aramco, leaving Chevron, Exxon, and Texaco with 30% each, and Mobil with 10%. This meant, in essence, Rockefeller control over Aramco.

Even so, Saudi production was nowhere near full capacity. Complex conditions were negotiated between the big companies to ensure that new production from the Middle East would be marketed without major competition. A US government report said in 1952 that the seven international oil companies operating in the Middle East were jointly controlling oil prices. This report gave rise to the expression The Seven Sisters for the companies involved: the four Aramco members, Exxon, Mobil, Chevron, and Texaco; the Kuwaiti partners Gulf and BP (British Petroleum); and Shell, which had a share in the Iraq Petroleum Company, and had enormous marketing capacity. Although they had a stranglehold on Middle East oil as early as the 1930s, the Seven Sisters were still in control as late as 1972, when they produced 91% of the Middle East's oil and 77% of World supply outside the US and the communist countries.

The Seven Sisters thus controlled Middle East production, in a way that would have seemed inconceivable to John D. Rockefeller. It was also obvious that the oil industry was susceptible to control at the refining and marketing end of the market, as the Standard Oil Trust had shown at the turn of the century. The break-up of the Standard Oil in 1911 had effectively warned off any overt attempts at controlling the large American market for a long time, but the same constraints did not apply to the rest of the World. The cartel's activities in controlling marketing were widely known and often approved during the 1930s, as we saw. In the United States, the oil companies had to be much more circumspect in their efforts to control production or marketing. Although the Standard Oil Trust was broken up into several dozen "independent" units in 1911, there was a great deal of interlocking share holding, and the Rockefeller interests held enough shares in enough of the companies to influence mutual interactions. In 1938, for example, Rockefeller interests held 20% of Exxon, 16% of Mobil, 12% of Chevron, and 11% of Amoco, and since all the other shares were widely dispersed, that was considered "working control" in all four companies by the Government.

The major oil companies (majors) had already negotiated the basic Achnacarry Agreement when a major crisis erupted for them in Texas. On October 3, 1930, the gigantic East Texas field was discovered by an independent wildcatter, and new crude oil began literally to pour into the domestic market in 1931. The oil companies were faced by a dramatic new source of oil that they did not control. They began to buy up leases in the new fields, but the quantity of oil was too great to be absorbed easily, and the East Texas fields were soon producing a million barrels a day, one-third of all United States production. The majors were able to survive the crisis by their control over refining and marketing. However much new crude oil was found, it still had to be refined and marketed through a system that was already tightly controlled. The majors, in effect, could simply state what they would pay for crude oil from the new fields. As new oil began to flow, that price was about 70¢/barrel. The majors now began to promote policies under the cloak of "conservation" that would limit "wasteful" production: it was already clear that pumping oil too rapidly from a field could damage long-term production. The ends were entirely correct and respectable, of course, but certainly the conversion to conservation was well timed. As the majors decided that free-for-all production must stop, they filled Austin, Texas with lobbyists, and in November 1932, the Texas legislature passed the Market Demand Act. Under "conservation," the law defined as "prohibitible waste" any production that was in excess of "market demand."

As soon as the Act became law, the majors dropped their offering price to 25¢ a barrel on January 1933, and then to 10¢ a barrel. Naturally this cut production dramatically, as "market demand" dropped. The majors bought up tens of millions of barrels at give-away prices before many of the independents went out of business, and the price did not rise back up to $1 a barrel until September 1933, as the majors gained control. In 1935 Congress passed an Interstate Compact to Conserve Oil and Gas and the Connally Act. Between them, these laws assigned strict production quotas to each State. In the end, US domestic production was limited under the cloak of conserving natural resources. Once again, the ends were admirable, but it's clear that the legislation was passed on behalf of the majors. By 1958 Texas oil wells were allowed to pump oil for only 97 days a year. The legislation was used to hold down production in order to maintain stable prices. The United States was brought into the second World war when in July 1941, President Roosevelt signed an embargo to stop all shipping to Japan. This was said to be in retaliation for the recent Japanese invasion of French Indo-China. Roosevelt's U.S. embargo cut off the Japanese oil supply, which would have quickly shut down Japan's entire economy. In late November 1941 the Japanese sent a written "war warning" through diplomatic channels to Washington, demanding that the embargo be stopped, or else American sites in the Pacific would be attacked in retaliation. That formal diplomatic warning was ignored and the U.S. made no reply. Just two weeks later the Japanese bombed the American embargo ships located in Pearl Harbor with the full pre-knowledge of Roosevelt (see History of Fake Terror on the CD).

In 1939 and '40, the Germans and Italians did not attack Russia as the Big Three had planned. Instead, German General Rommel rushed across North Africa to grab the Suez Canal and control all oil shipping through the canal. Rommel then planned to drive through to Persia and toss out the British from the British-Persian oil fields. Meanwhile, after a failed attack on Russia in 1939, the Japanese swept through Southeast Asia and seized all the oil holdings of Royal Dutch Shell. With the defeat of Japan in 1945, most of those Royal Dutch fields came under the control of Rockefeller's Standard Oil. Hitler had planned to capture the oil fields in Romania by 1939 so Germany would have its own supply of oil. This was accomplished. Then Rommel was to have captured the oil fields in Persia by 1941, the oil fields in Russia in 1942. Only then would Hitler have sufficient fuel for prosecuting a war with the United States. But less than a week after the Pearl Harbor attack, the Japanese convinced Hitler to declare war on the United States. Hitler agreed only if the Japanese would attack Russia, since German troops were now bogged down in Russia and Hitler would gain strategic advantage if the Russians had to defend themselves from Japan on their eastern flank. When the Japanese failed to attack Russia, Hitler was driven out of Russia and now was without a fuel source. The Romanian oil fields in Ploesti were insufficient for Germany to carry on a war on two fronts, and Germany's war effort began to collapse. The last major German campaign was the Battle of the Bulge, in which Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt was to attack the invading allies with his tanks, then capture the Allied fuel dumps. This would stop the American and British forces and obtain the necessary fuel for Germany to continue its war effort. But General Eisenhower ordered the Allied fuel dumps burned and Germany was defeated.

The British-Persian Oil Company controlled the vast oil fields in Iran. The Persians had declared their alignment with Adolf Hitler's Nazi "Aryan Race" movement and were fully expecting German General Rommel to come rushing across Africa and "free" them from the British. They had even proclaimed their alignment with Hitler by changing the name of their country from Persia to "Aryan," (or "Iran" in the Farsi language), but the Germans failed to save them.

On February 17 1950, CFR member James Warburg, testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, stated, "We shall have World government whether or not you like it - by conquest or consent....The amount of Money in existence varies only with the action of the banks in increasing and decreasing deposits and bank purchases. Every loan, overdraft or bank purchase creates a deposit and every repayment of a loan, overdraft or bank sale destroys a deposit".

The Reece Committee, Congressional investigation of major tax-exempt foundations linked to the international money cartel, centered on Rockefeller, Ford, Carnegie, and Guggenheim foundations but were unable to attract any attention from the media. Among those secondary foundations investigated were the National Education Association, the John Dewey Society, the United Nations Association and the Council on Foreign Relations. The Rockefeller Foundation was financing Dr. Alfred Kinsey's studies on sexual behavior through the National Research Council to produce a series of untrue and unscientific reports promoting sexual freedom (promiscuity). They found that the National Education Association and numerous other education organizations were producing and promoting curricula that advocated socialism and globalism with the intent of preparing students for a one-World society. The cartel has been able to further its global agenda in the field of foreign affairs through political think-tanks such as the United Nations Association, the Institute of Pacific Relation, and the Council on Foreign Relations, to name just a few. They also determined at least one foreign foundation instituted by Cecil Rhodes, the famous British industrialist and globalist. Rhodes (a land and diamond monopolizing enslaver), who was a close ally of the Rothschilds and European Masonry promoted globalism through the Rhodes Scholarship Fund to recruit the World's brightest minds into Illuminism (Bill Clinton is a Rhodes scholar). Norman Dodd, the director of research for the Reece Committee, had at one point during the investigation been invited to the headquarters of the Ford Foundation by its president, H. Rowan Gaither, who was a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. During this visit Gaither told Dodd: "All of us here at the policymaking level have had experience, either in O.S.S. (Office of Strategic Services) or the European Economic Administration, with directives from the White House. We operate under those directives here. Would you like to know what those directives are?" Dodd responded that he would, after which Gaither replied: "The substance of them is that we shall use our grant-making power so to alter life in the United States that we can be comfortably merged with the Soviet Union." (Ike was President at that time)

In 1951 the new nationalist government in Iran, led by Mr. Mossadeq, tried in vain to get BP to agree to the same kind of profit-sharing that American majors had negotiated with the Saudi and Venezuelan governments. Finally the Iranians lost patience and nationalized the oilfields. The majors, acting together, struck back by boycotting Iranian oil, refusing to handle any crude oil produced by the fields under the new regime. Their control over transport and refining was so thorough that Iran's oil exports dropped from $400 million in 1951 to $2 million in 1951 and 1952. The deficit to oil supplies could be made up easily because the Middle Eastern fields were being operated at much less than capacity, and additional pumping from Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, and Iraq not only made up the difference, but delighted the three Arab nations concerned, who have no particular liking for the non-Arab Iranians. Finally crisis overtook Iran in 1953: the Shah tried and failed to dismiss Mossadeq, and had to flee the country. By the time the Mossadeq government collapsed through CIA covert operations and the Shah was restored to the throne, BP was well and truly frozen out of Iran. CIA involvement in the Shah's restoration sowed some of the seeds of the violent anti-Americanism that continued during the Shah's later repressive years.

In 1954 Kermit Roosevelt, nephew of Franklin, led an American CIA coup against the elected President of Iran who was beginning to take control of his own country's oil, something the Anglo-American oil Barons didn't like. The Shah of Iran was installed by the CIA. Also in 1954, the First Bilderberg meeting takes place, the executive committee of the Illuminati, a CFR sister organization, funded by a number of major one-World institutions, including the Rockefeller and Ford foundation. Prominent American Bilderbergers have included David and Nelson Rockefeller; Thomas Hughes of the Carnegie Endowment; Winston Lord, former director of planning and coordination for the State Department; Henry Kissinger; Zbigniew Brzezinski; Cyrus Vance; Robert McNamara, former president of the World Bank; Donald Rumsfeld; George Ball, former undersecretary of state and director of Lehman Brothers; Roger Anderson, president of ARCO and associated with the Aspin Institute; President Gerald Ford; Henry Grunwald, Managing Editor of TIME; Henry J. Heinz II, chairman of the board, J.J.Heinz Company; Father Theodore M. Hesburgh, former president of Notre Dame University; and Shepard Stone of The Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies. The Aspen Institute is also a sister organization of the CFR and the Bilderbergers, is heavily funded by the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations and has been described as "a training and orientation school for prospective World government administrators.

The State Department was involved in choosing the American participation in any reformed Iranian oil company, apparently a quid pro quo for "liberating" the oilfields. The ultimate share-out was only 40% for BP, which had owned the oilfields before nationalization; 14% for Shell; 7% each for Exxon, Gulf, Mobil, Chevron, and Texaco; 6% for the French CFP, and 5% for a few American independent oil companies. In other words the majors still controlled this enormous oil resource. In the early 1950s, Occidental Petroleum's Armand Hammer, a satrap of the Rockefellers, negotiated a deal with Russian dictator Joseph Stalin to buy his oil--thus effectively stealing it from the Russian people. Russian oil was then sold on the World market at a much higher price than Stalin could get by marketing it himself, because few countries were willing to buy oil from Stalin. Occidental Petroleum and Russia built two large pipelines, from the Russian oil fields down along both sides of the Caspian Sea, terminating in the old British-Persian oil fields in Iran. For the next 45 years, Russia secretly sent its oil out through those pipelines and Standard Oil sold the oil on the World market at the "West Texas Crude" price by calling it Iranian oil. For almost fifty years most Americans have been using Russian oil in their cars. Standard Oil refineries, which produce gasoline from crude oil, are located at large sea ports like San Francisco, Houston or Los Angeles, not near any of the large American oil fields.

Most oil from the Persian Gulf is shipped in oil tankers to those large American refinery-ports. The other major (and frightening) post-war impact on domestic US oil supplies was a deliberate policy decision to serve the domestic market largely from American oil wells. Under the pretext of a quota system to protect "national security," so that the US would not become too dependent on foreign oil, cheap foreign oil was kept out of the United States, while domestic fields were rapidly depleted. In the 1960s, for example, domestic prices rose gradually, although prices dropped by about 40% in foreign markets. Furthermore, overseas competitors like the Western Europeans and the Japanese benefited from low energy prices, while US industry paid increasingly higher prices.

In 1952 the Attorney General began criminal antitrust proceedings against the major oil companies, but these were halted by the personal intervention of President Truman on January 12, 1953, in the last few days before he left office. The Eisenhower administration regarded the enforcement of the antitrust laws as "secondary to the national security interest," though it was never clear how national security was involved. By the end of 1953 the case had been transferred from the Department of Justice to the State Department under John Foster Dulles, at the same time as Dulles' old law firm was hired as defense counsel by the oil companies. This effectively ended the proceedings, and abuses continued at every level, from interference with governments to price gouging the individual consumer. By 1970, 94% of US domestic reserves were held by only 20 companies. The top eight oil companies in terms of their holdings of US domestic oil reserves were also the top eight in production, the top eight in refining, and the top eight in marketing: they were the American five of the Seven Sisters, Exxon, Mobil, Texaco, Chevron, and Gulf, plus Shell, Amoco and Arco.

The extent of cartel control can be judged by working out the cartel's best strategy, and then comparing that against the actual behavior of the market. The cartel would best be served by stimulating and then satisfying an increasing market for petroleum products on a global scale. More sales mean more profits, as long as selling prices are kept high and stable, and production costs are kept low. The facts are that World consumption of crude oil rose at a clockwork 9.55% a year from 1950 to 1972, through economic times that ranged from boom to recession, through war and peace, through crises such as the successive Arab-Israeli Wars, the Vietnam War, and the nationalization in Iran in 1951-1953. Oil profits were unbelievable. In 1947, Saudi oil cost 19¢ a barrel plus 21¢ royalty, and Bahrain oil cost 10¢ a barrel plus 15¢ royalty. Consumers were paying $1.80 a barrel and more for that same crude oil. Even when development costs of the oilfields were figured into the selling price (as they should be), the oil companies were making a great profit.

In fact, profit margins increased enormously in the 1950s and 1960s while production costs decreased. The volume of oil shipped increased, and the advent of supertankers decreased shipping costs while selling prices were increased. In the late 1960s, Middle East oil that was delivered to Europe and the United States at $2 and more a barrel had cost less than 40¢ to produce and ship. In 1957 half of Gulf's profits came from its share in the Kuwaiti oilfields. Aramco's profits averaged 57% of its invested capital in 1952-1961. But the most creative way for the majors to maximize their global profits and to satisfy the producer nations at the same time was to take advantage of tax legislation in the United States on "foreign tax credits." Suppose that Exxon pumped oil in Slobbovia, and paid tax at 35% on its operations there, at a time when company tax rate was only 15%. The foreign tax credit specified that Exxon could calculate the "extra tax" of 20% it had paid the Slobbovian Government, and could deduct that amount from its tax bill in the United States. As critics pointed out, this essentially involved the American tax payer in a direct subsidy to the Slobbovian government, except that the check was written on the American taxpayer by Exxon. All the majors used this tax avoidance scheme from the early 1950s, and it helped to maximize their profits. How? Surely they were paying the same tax bill, even though the US taxpayer received a smaller amount than before? The trick used by the companies was to have the producer nation increase its tax rate instead of its royalty rate. If the Saudis had pressed for increased royalties, the companies could have deducted that expense only from their profits. Because the Saudis who didn't care where the money came from took their cut in taxes, the companies could deduct the same amount, not from their profits, but from their US tax bill. Careful calculation and negotiation between the companies and the producer countries could allow the companies to gain the maximum benefit by manipulating this tax loophole. The US National Security Council was involved with the US Treasury in promoting this scheme, even though it meant a major shortfall in the US government's tax revenue. Tax lawyers were even sent by the US Treasury to Saudi Arabia in 1950 to help that country formulate the necessary company tax laws to start the scheme. In 1951 the Kuwait contract was revised in the same way; Iranian taxes on the new Iran consortium were set up in the same way in 1954; and the pipelines through Lebanon were taxed in 1956.

Here is how the system worked in the early 1950s. Before the foreign tax credit was used, Middle East oil was sold at $1.75 a barrel; production costs and royalties totaled 41¢, leaving $1.34 pre-tax profit per barrel. About 43¢ went on US taxes, leaving a net profit of 91¢ per barrel for the company. In the new scheme, there was still $1.34 pre-tax profit. But if Saudi taxes were tuned to yield the Saudi government half of the profit (67¢), the company could now deduct that 67¢ from its American taxes. Not only would it not pay the 43¢ it used to, it could protect or "write off" some of its US profits against tax, with each 43¢ of deduction worth about 24¢ of US profit protected against taxation. The company would make a net profit of 91¢ a barrel, just as it did before. The Saudis receive their royalties as before, plus 67¢ tax. The American tax system would lose the 43¢ the company used to pay, plus another 24¢, that is, the American tax payer would lose the 67¢ that the company paid the Saudi government, and would have to come up with the missing amount. The transfer of funds was enormous, and growing. In 1951 Aramco's US tax bill fell from $50 million the year before to $6 million, while the Saudis received $110 million instead of $66 million. By 1955 the annual loss was $154 million. On March 31, 1955, the Warburg-Kuhn-Loeb controlled bank of Manhattan was merged with the Rockefeller's Chase Bank - thus making the great "Chase Manhattan Bank. In 1958, Nelson Rockefeller is elected governor of New York.

OPEC was founded in 1960, and began to press for further increases in oil revenue. Soon the companies began another scheme to accomplish this without loss to themselves, based on the foreign tax deduction: they began to base their calculations for taxes and royalties, not on the actual sales price of crude oil, but on a mythical "posted price" that was simply a number written on a piece of paper. This procedure increased the revenue to the OPEC countries, and the loss to the US tax payer. In 1961, the New Group of World Servers joins with another occult organization calling itself World Union, which is today heavily involved in the politics of planning and implementing the World government. World Godwill is a creation of Lucis Trust, an offshoot of the Luciferian Theosophical Society, which is plugged into the highest levels of Masonry. Past and present member of Lucis Trust include: Robert McNamara, Donald Regan, Henry Kissinger, David Rockefeller, Paul Volcker, and George Shultz - the same crowd that runs the CFR and the Trilateral Commission. The same year, Michael Rockefeller disappears in New Guinea. In 1966, a Congressional investigation determines four of the World's seven largest oil companies (seven sisters) were under the control of the Rockefeller family. According to an earlier New York Times report, Exxon alone controlled 321 companies, including Humble Oil and Venezuela's Creole Petroleum, themselves among the largest corporations in the World. By the 1970s, the Rockefeller-controlled banks, which by this time included Chemical Bank, accounted for about 25 percent of all the assets of the fifty largest commercial banks in the country and for about 30 percent of all the assets of the fifty largest life insurance companies. By 1975, they would gain control of ARCO and Texaco.

In 1967, Winthrop Rockefeller is elected governor of Arkansas. Bill Clinton is rumored to be an illegitimate child of Winthrop Rockefeller. In 1968, New York governor Nelson Rockefeller, in an address to the International Platform Association, at the Sheraton Park Hotel in New York, called for the formation of a New World Order. In 1972 the IRS estimated that the nation was losing $2.35 billion a year in tax avoidance through the depletion allowance. Oil companies of all sizes had acted through Congress to keep down their taxes through the infamous depletion allowance. In 1974, while corporate tax rates were 48%, the 19 largest oil companies paid an average of 7.6% as taxes. This had repercussions throughout American business: for example, if one combines the petroleum, motor vehicle, and aircraft industries of the United States as vital to its economic and military security, the petroleum companies held 60% of the assets of this part of US industry and paid 9% of its taxes. The auto industry held 32% of these assets but paid 79% of the taxes.

This system ran until 1975, when the bills began to come due for the Vietnam War; but even then, the abuses were constrained rather than eliminated. And as it happened, the losses to the producers and the companies were more than made up by the post-1973 rise in absolute prices (and profit margins). In the end, the greed and manipulation broke the system, as everyone involved wanted more and more. The history of oil prices from 1960 to today reflects human failures rather than economic principles. Because the majors had potential production from so many Middle Eastern fields, they could in effect choose which fields they would exploit and which they would pump at low production levels. Where there were consortia, production levels were controlled by a specific formula. Since the four American companies in Aramco, and Gulf in Kuwait, were rich in crude oil, they had no real interest in major new production. Production from Iran and Saudi Arabia was held at much less than capacity. Partly because of US government wishes, however, these two countries increased production more than others, to keep the Shah and the King happy, and to allow them (especially the Shah) the money to outfit their armed forces with the newest American hardware. If the majors increased production in Iran and Saudi Arabia by 12% and 10% respectively, more than the 9.55% that global demand would stand at good prices, production had to be held back even more in other rich oil-producing areas. Kuwait and Iraq were usually chosen as the producers to have low production rates: from 1958-1972, their production increased 5.9% and 5.1% respectively. Discoveries in other nations (such as Oman) were simply not developed at all. This was the fatal flaw in the system: sooner or later, producer nations would realize the extent of the manipulation, and react to it.

For example, Iraq was manipulated by neglect. The partners in Iraq Petroleum discovered a great number of likely fields in the 1930s, but were slow to drill them. They already had access to enormous fields in Saudi Arabia, Iran, and Kuwait, and Iraqi oil production was simply not needed (except possibly by the Iraqis!). Iraq Petroleum became notorious for this kind of tactic, which it also used in Qatar and Syria. Even today no-one has any clear idea just how large Iraq's oil reserves are, except that they are much greater than its current production implies. The Iraqis finally lost patience and in 1961 nationalized all concessions in Iraq that were not then being exploited. Eventually they set up their own national company and nationalized all the oil fields. The Libyan government of King Idris granted oil concessions in 1955. The Libyans were well aware of the way the petroleum industry worked, and were anxious to keep the country's oil out the hands of the majors. Most concessions were granted to independent operators. As a result, when large fields of high-quality oil were discovered, they were developed quickly, instead of being held to slow rates as in Iraq and Kuwait. Occidental Oil in particular, under the dynamic and eccentric Armand Hammer, began to produce large quantities of Libyan oil.

In 1960, Libyan production was still small, but its influence was enough to generate price cutting in the global oil market. Although open figures are not revealed, it's clear that real oil prices fell steadily during the 1960s, as more new oil came on to the market. The majors held back production in their existing Middle Eastern fields, so that the global increase in sales grew at the same steady pace. But their share of the production, and their profit margins, were suffering. Prices paid for Middle Eastern oil fell from close to $2 a barrel to more like $1.20 a barrel. The majors began to worry how much longer they could continue to restrict production from the Gulf states to stabilize the global market. Exxon was quite explicit about it: "during the [1960s] the advent of large-scale production in Libya may restrict the growth of Middle East outlet." Of course, it wouldn't necessarily have had that result on a free market, but Exxon did not hide the fact that that would be the result of continued increase in Libyan production on the international market as it was being operated at the time (1961). By 1968 Exxon realized that it had grossly underestimated the size of the Libyan oil fields, and that the majors were in danger of losing control of the World market. Exxon estimated that Libya would overtake Iran and Saudi Arabia to become the leading producer in the region by 1971. If that happened, the majors would actually have to decrease production in their fields. Exxon realized that the governments of the Gulf States simply would refuse to cooperate with the majors if production were cut from their fields. The majors faced a new era of significant overproduction (as they regarded it), and a dramatic fall in oil prices and profit margins.

By 1970 Exxon's forecast looked as if it would come true. Libya was by then the fourth largest producer in the non-communist World, surpassed only by Saudi Arabia, Iran, and Venezuela. What's more, King Idris had been overthrown by Colonel Qaddafi, and the oil fields were controlled by a new revolutionary government that was not likely to be incorporated easily within the cosy structure of the large oil companies. To add to the problems of the majors, new fields were coming on line in Nigeria, with large but unknown potential. The resulting dénouement is interesting. The Qaddafi government demanded an increase in royalties to 40¢ a barrel, targeting Occidental in particular as the largest independent company, totally dependent on its Libyan fields. Occidental, and then all the others, had to pay the increased royalty. Qaddafi had now accomplished more for Libya than OPEC had managed to do for its members since its founding in 1960. Stung or stimulated by the Libyan success, OPEC met in Venezuela in December 1970 and demanded similar increases. The majors met and agreed that they would support one another against any OPEC nation (for example, they would supply crude oil from other sources to any company whose production were cut back by an OPEC government), and they asked the US Government to turn a blind eye to the breaches of the anti-trust laws that this agreement had made. (The Justice Department agreed to do so.) The American Under Secretary of State even went to the Gulf, apparently on behalf of the majors, to talk separately to OPEC governments and to try to dissuade them from joint action. This was a clumsy diplomatic blunder, and the US Government's pressure was shrugged off: the Shah of Iran angrily stated that the majors' agreement to collaborate against OPEC was a "dirty trick."

The various producer nations used their leverage to get 20¢ a barrel more for the Gulf States, and the Libyans followed with even more. It's clear that by now the producer nations knew their strength (especially the Libyans), and were playing off the ability of the Libyan independents to curb the majors by pumping large quantities of oil. In this way the political and economic skill of the Libyans, combined with the great good fortune of striking very large and productive fields, was able for a while to take control of events away from the majors. The Qaddafi government now rapidly began to nationalize the oil companies in Libya, taking some over outright, and forcing the others to yield 51% to the government. But in expelling the Western oil men, Qaddafi severely cut down Libyan production, and crippled the independent refiners and marketers abroad who had been taking market share away from the majors. The Libyans were able to maintain their revenues by charging higher prices for the reduced oil flow, but the majors were delighted by the outcome. They regained their market share of global output, and were able to exploit the sudden weakness of the new independents. More important, the Libyans themselves had removed the threat of Libyan production increase that had been hanging over the majors for ten years. The majors were now back in charge of most of the World's production, refining, marketing, and sales, in a global situation where the threat of overproduction had been removed.

None of this was new: it was a return to the old oil World that had been in place for forty years. What was new was OPEC's realization that it held a great deal of power. Could OPEC now work through the majors to take over effective control of global oil supplies? In 1973, the Trilateral Commission (TLC) is founded under the direction of David Rockefeller, with Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale among the founding members to promote World government by encouraging economic interdependence among the superpowers. Zbigniew Brzezinski drafts the Commission's charter and becomes first director (1973-1976). Unlike the CFR which has 2,500 members, the Trilateral Commission has only 325 members, of which 98 are from N. America, 146 from Europe, and 81 from Japan. Most, if not all, of the important Frenchmen who are TLC members belong to the Grand Orient Lodge of Masonry. In October 1973 the "Yom Kippur" war that ended with the humiliating defeat of the Arab nations. The same month the OPEC countries met in Vienna to discuss raising oil prices, and with the new realization of their power, simply announced an immediate increase in the price of the standard "Middle East" barrel from $3 to $5.11. They doubled the price again in Tehran to $11.65, effective January 1, 1974. Given that the same barrel had cost $1.80 in late 1970, this represented a six-fold increase since the weakness of the majors had been exposed by the Libyans in 1970. Most major producing nations agreed to strengthen their position by cutting production at least 10%. Arab leaders suddenly cooperated and imposed an effective oil embargo. A few of the Arab sheiks became vice-presidents of American and European superbanks, such as Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan.

The "oil crisis" was comparatively short-lived in terms of supply. The oil companies had had hints from King Faisal of the impending war and had built up stocks. There was no oil shortage in 1973. What was different was the price of oil, passed on to consumers by the majors as they paid more to the producers for their crude. As long as the majors could control the crude oil supply, and as long as the consumer could pay the increased price, the majors could arrange to have at least the same absolute profit margins as before. If they could arrange to keep anything close to their original percentage profit margins, they would make a lot of money. In typical figures for a refinery on the US East Coast, the refining profit per barrel was 95¢ (25% above cost) in 1969, but $4.23 (50%) in 1974. The result was that major oil companies made profits of about 19% in 1974, compared with a historical average of about 11% in the previous decade. In 1973, the Saudi Government acquired a 25% stake in Aramco. In 1974, this was increased to 60%. In 1975 Saudi Arabia began nationalizing foreign oil assets with full compensation. In 1975 King Faisal was shot by his nephew who had been brainwashed by a CIA operative. After the oil crisis in 1973 Caltex lost most of its Saudi holdings to nationalisation and in 1980 Aramco was taken over 100% by the Saudi government with retroactive financial effect from 1976. Meanwhile, in 1984 SoCal renamed itself Chevron and bought Gulf for $13.3bn, a move which doubled its reserves. In 1988, the company was renamed Saudi Aramco. Nevertheless, the oil profits still flow back into the Rockefeller and Rothschild dynasties' banks.

In July, 1968, the House Banking Subcommittee reported that Rockefeller, through Chase Manhattan Bank, controlled 5.9% of the stock in CBS. Furthermore, the bank had gained interlocking directorates with ABC. In 1974, Congress issued a report stating that the Chase Manhattan Bank's stake in CBS rose to 14.1% and NBC to 4.5%. The same report said that the Chase Manhattan Bank held stock in 28 broadcasting firms. After this report, the Chase Manhattan Bank obtained 6.7% of ABC, and today the percentage is most likely much greater. It only requires 5% ownership to significantly influence the media. This is only one of 300 wealthy shareholders of the FED. It is believed other FED owners have similar holdings in the media. To control the media, FED bankers call in their loans if the media disagrees with them. Rockefeller also controls the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), the sole purpose of which is to aid in stimulating greater interest in foreign affairs and a one World government. Nearly every major newscaster belongs to the Council on Foreign Relations. The Council on Foreign Relations controls many major newspapers and magazines. Additionally, major corporations owned by FED shareholders are the source of huge advertising revenues which surely would influence the media. In 1966 (data supplied from my "company", as a result of congressional investigation headed by U.S. Representative Wright Patman of Texas,) it was discovered that four of the World's seven largest oil companies were under the direct ownership and/or control of the Rockefeller family. According to an earlier Operations Reports, the largest of these, Standard Oil of New Jersey (EXXON), alone controlled 321 other major corporations, including Humble Oil and Venezuela's OREOLE Petroleum; themselves among the largest oil corporations in the World.

By 1975, the Rockefeller had gained control of the single largest block of stock in Atlantic Richfield (ARCO) and were believed to be in control of TEXACO as well. (Therefore, it must be assumed that the extremely large suit and judgement against Texaco was merely a put-on for the public, and not a true verdict. Consider the true premise of a parent company bringing suit against its darling daughter.) It was further noted that the Rockefellers were operating major joint ventures with Royal Dutch Shell, which was already in the hands of European one-World interests. I am specifically referring to the Dutch Royal Family. It was Queen Juliana who was the sole owner of Shell. Upon her daughter's (Beatrice) marriage to Klaus (Germany), she divested herself of the interests in Royal Dutch Shell. Substantial interests were offered and sold through Credit Anstalt Bank Verein, as well as Union Bank of Switzerland. However, our article deals with global strategists from both sides of the Atlantic. It should have seemed obvious to any American that major problems were to be encountered with the continuation of the Fed System. Ever since the founding of the Federal Reserve, consistent efforts have been made by conservatives of both houses of Congress to have their leaders put a stop to the Fed and to the dark forces behind it. During the 1960's and 1970's, Congressman Wright Patman of Texas also investigated manipulations by these foundations, trusts and the Federal Reserve. Using his influence as Chairman of the House Banking Committee and later as the Chairman of other important committees, he repeatedly tried to expose the so called "One World Plot" by calling for audits of the Federal Reserve, and even trying to have the Act repealed. However, the findings of each of his committees, for some strange reason, were unable to attract any attention from the media. Patman, and others who have gone after and before him, frequently stated and vented his frustration over this lack of press and media coverage. On one occasion he stated, "our exposés of the Federal Reserve Board are shocking and scandalous, but they are only printed in the daily Congressional Record, which is read by very few people."

In the 1970's and the 1980's, Congressman Larry McDonald was the one who spearheaded the efforts against the Bush version of the New World Order. In 1976 he wrote the introduction to the "Rockefeller File", a book exposing the Rockefeller's financial holdings and secret intentions. The book supposedly revealed that the Rockefellers had as many as two hundred trusts and foundation type organizations, and that the actual number of such foundations controlled by the family might well number into the thousands. Such control IS possible because Rockefeller banks, such as Chase Manhattan, have become the trustees for many other U.S. foundations as well; possessing the right to invest and to vote the capital and common stock of these institutions--through the trust department of the bank. In November of 1975, Congressman Larry P. McDonald spearheaded efforts against the New World Order. He wrote the introduction to The Rockefeller File which stated: "The Rockefeller File is not fiction. It is a compact, powerful and frightening presentation of what may be the most important story of our lifetime - the drive of the Rockefellers and their allies to create a one-World government combining super-capitalism and Communism under the same tent, all under their control.....not one has dared reveal the most vital part of the Rockefeller story: that the Rockefellers and their allies have, for at least fifty years, been carefully following a plan to use their economic power to gain political control of first America, and then the rest of the World. Do I mean conspiracy? Yes I do. I am convinced there is such a plot, international in scope, generations old in planning, and incredibly evil in intent". On 31 August 1983, McDonald was killed aboard Korean Airline 007 flight which "accidentally" strayed over Soviet airspace and was "accidentally" shot down. The media reporting was scant and short-lived and not a single mention was publicly made about the fact that McDonald had been heading a congressional effort to expose what he called a dangerous international conspiracy. Since then, Senator Jesse Helms has led efforts to expose the plot. In the 1970's and the 1980's, Congressman Larry McDonald was the one who spearheaded the efforts against the Bush version of the New World Order. In 1976 he wrote the introduction to the "Rockefeller File", a book exposing the Rockefeller' financial holdings and secret intentions. The book supposedly revealed that the Rockefeller had as many as two hundred trusts and foundation type organizations, and that the actual number of such foundations controlled by the family might well number into the thousands. Such control IS possible because Rockefeller banks, such as Chase Manhattan, have become the trustees for many other U.S. foundations as well; possessing the right to invest and to vote the capital and common stock of these institutions--through the trust department of the bank.

Here are some excerpts from a speech before the Senate by Senator Jesse Helms, December 1987 (year of the stock market October crash): "This campaign against the American people - against traditional American culture and values - is systematic psychological warfare. It is orchestrated by a vast array of interest comprising not only the Eastern establishment but also the radical left. Among this group we find the Department of State, the Department of Commerce, the money center banks and multinational corporations, the media, the educational establishment, the entertainment industry, and the large tax-exempt foundations. Mr. President, a careful examination of what is happening behind the scenes reveals that all of these interests are working in concert with the masters of the Kremlin in order to create what some refer to as a new World order. Private organizations such as the Council on Foreign Relation, the Royal Institute of International Affairs, the Trilateral Commission, the Dartmouth Conference, the Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies, the Atlantic Institute, and the Bilderberger Group serve to disseminate and to coordinate the plans for this so-called new World order in powerful business, financial, academic, and official circles.... The psychological campaign that I am describing, as I have said, is the work of groups within the Eastern establishment, that amorphous amalgam of wealth and social connections whose power resides in its control over our financial system and over a large portion of our industrial sector. The principal instrument of this control over the American economy and money is the Federal Reserve System. The policies of the industrial sectors, primarily the multinational corporations, are influenced by the money centers through debt financing and through the large blocks of stock controlled by the trust departments of the money center banks. Anyone familiar with American history, and particularly American economic history, cannot fail to notice the control over the Department of State and the Central Intelligence Agency which Wall Street seems to exercise.... The influence of establishment insiders over our foreign policy has become a fact of life in our time. This pervasive influence runs contrary to the real long-term national security of our Nation. It is an influence which, if unchecked, could ultimately subvert our constitutional order. The viewpoint of the establishment today is called globalism. Not so long ago, this viewpoint was called the "one-World" view by its critics. The phrase is no longer fashionable among sophisticates; yet, the phrase "one-World" is still apt because nothing has changed in the minds and actions of those promoting policies consistent with its fundamental tenets. Mr. President, in the globalist point of view, nation-states and national boundaries do not count for anything. Political philosophies and political principles seem to become simply relative. Indeed, even constitutions are irrelevant to the exercise of power. Liberty and tyranny are viewed as neither necessarily good nor evil, and certainly not a component of policy. In this point of view, the activities of international financial and industrial forces should be orientatef to bringing this one-World design - with a convergence of the Soviet and American Systems as its centerpiece - into being....All that matters to this club is the maximization of profits resulting from the practice of what can be described as finance capitalism, a system which rests upon the twin pillars of debt and monopoly. This isn't real capitalism. It is the road to economic concentration and to political slavery.

The Gulf Corporation had dated back to 1901 when J M Guffey Petroleum's Spindletop well in Texas came in. Guffey was soon ousted by his major backers, the Mellon family of Pittsburgh, and as a result the company name was changed to the Gulf Corporation in 1907. Gulf invested heavily in developing the oilfields of Kuwait but the company was weakened by the 1973 oil crisis and by claims of corruption in the Kuwaiti dealings. The Texas Oil Company renamed Texaco in 1959, flourished until the late 1970s when its own wells began to run out. In an effort to acquire more reserves in 1983 Texaco bid $8.6bn for Getty Oil, despite the fact that Getty had agreed a deal with Pennzoil. A Texas court later ruled that Texaco should pay Pennzoil $10.53bn in damages. As a result Texaco was forced to seek bankruptcy protection in 1987. The dispute with Pennzoil was eventually settled for $3bn but Texaco's weak state was made worse when corporate raider Carl Icahn bid for the company. Texaco had to sell off $7bn of assets to beat off Icahn's bid. In 1989 Texaco did a deal with Saudi Arabia to form a joint venture called Star Enterprise, which linked up 60% of the company's US refining and marketing operations with Saudi Arabian cash and provided a steady supply of crude oil. The Gulf War, however, disrupted supplies and highlighted the company's weakness. In 1993 Texaco sold off its chemical operations and invested heavily in finding new oilfields in Russia, China and Colombia and in increasing outputs in the North Sea but as the oil industry consolidated it became clear that Texaco needed to merge with another major company in order to compete. A deal was struck with Chevron.

The newly-named Chevron continued to buy up competition and in 1988 paid $2.5bn for Tenneco's oil and gas holdings in the Gulf of Mexico. The company then became a takeover victim with a bid from Pennzoil in 1992. This was fought off but Chevron had to give Pennzoil a number of its oil and gas fields as part of the settlement. In 1988 Standard Oil merged with its archrival, British Petroleum. The last 15 years have seen the joint venture repurchase nearly all of the original Rockefeller oil companies. When coupled with the recent mergers of the US and UK Defense infrastructure and the sale by the UK Ministry of Defense of 1/3 of its research and development company to the Bush/Binladen Carlyle Group, which lists George H. W. Bush as a Senior Director, one can only conclude that the corporate (read Fascist) takeover is nearly complete.

In all of the upheavals, the overriding concern of the majors was clearly to retain control over crude oil shipping, refining, and marketing. This was shown in 1974, when Saudi Arabia demanded the nationalization of Aramco. If there were problems, the Saudis threatened, they would simply offer 3 million barrels a day directly to third parties (outside the majors). In the end, Aramco quietly gave in, in return for contracts by which it would handle all the shipping of Saudi crude. Since the usual effect of a major price rise is to cut consumption, by economy (conservation) or switching to alternate supplies, one would expect that a continuation of OPEC production at its 1973 rates would tend to bring prices down again, no matter what the wishes of the producers. If OPEC could maintain its prices in the face of restricted demand, production would have to drop. In 1974 production was almost exactly the same as 1973, and in the light of a historical 9.5% increase each year for 20 years, this constitutes a distinct restraint in production. In 1975 there was a real drop in production. Together, these actions ensured that the price remained high. It's quite conceivable that these figures were achieved because the majors as well as the producing nations both benefited from the large price increase, and neither had any interest in seeing that position eroded.

The interests of OPEC and the majors coincided to this extent: both wished to see a large volume of oil flow through to consumers at high prices. In these circumstances, OPEC members received large amounts of money in royalties and taxes, and the majors were assured supplies of crude oil with which to supply their global market. The interests diverged in that the majors did not care where the oil came from as long as it was reliable. They willingly took oil from non-OPEC members like the United States, Britain, and Norway (and rushed to sign contracts with former Communist nations too). The majors were only under the influence of OPEC only as long as OPEC nations held the crude oil that they needed. OPEC nations once again came to depend on the Seven Sisters as soon as OPEC oil became optional rather than necessary for the major oil companies. There are 13 important members of OPEC. The five largest producers and exporters in the group are in the Middle East: Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Iran, Kuwait, and the United Arab Emirates, and the other members are Libya, Venezuela, Algeria, Nigeria, Gabon, Indonesia, Ecuador, and Qatar. The major oil producing nations outside OPEC are the US, Russia, Britain, and Norway, but the US is a net importer, and the others do not contribute much to the open World market.

OPEC tries to keep oil prices high by keeping production within limits, assigning a production quota to each member. There is always a temptation for producing countries to cheat on the quotas assigned to them by the cartel, especially if they have urgent needs for cash. Cheating is particularly easy on the international oil market. Only the meters on the oilfield pumps and pipelines, and the tanker operators, can keep track of volumes of crude oil, and once on the high seas or into the network of international pipelines, oil quickly loses all traces of its country of origin. With the cooperation of distributors and marketers, any country can pump more than its quota, more or less with impunity. OPEC has always lacked the ability to monitor and police its members' production. (The majors can and do monitor World oil flow, but apparently do not share information with OPEC, a demonstration that their interests may be parallel with OPEC, but not identical.) In fact, however, just as before, World production remains reasonably stable. This can only be accomplished by action of the majors, and there is little doubt that they do this: from self-interest, not to help OPEC.

For example, in 1989 the oil ministers of the OPEC countries agreed on quotas that totaled 22.1 million barrels a day for the first half of 1990, planning that that volume would keep the price of crude oil on the World market at about $18 a barrel, their target price since 1986. In fact, the OPEC countries between them probably pumped about 23.5 million barrels a day, maintaining a surplus supply of crude oil into World markets, and dropping the price of crude oil. (It had been $20.46 in late January 1990, but reached a low of $13.64 by June 1990.) By the midyear meeting in July 1990, tempers were running high, and President Saddam Hussein of Iraq massed 30,000 troops on the borders of Kuwait, allegedly one of the OPEC members cheating most on its quota. Saddam Hussein claimed that the loss in revenue to Iraq alone had been $14 billion in 1989. At about the same time, the American Petroleum Institute announced that US imports now constituted an all-time high of 49.9% of consumption, and prices immediately rose to $19.61 a barrel in the anticipation that OPEC would try to squeeze supplies. It was widely anticipated that Hussein's pressure on Kuwait, and the American announcement, would encourage OPEC to set an attainable limit on production of 22.5 million barrels a day, and that the price would reach $20 once again. In fact, on July 27, OPEC agreed on a target price of $21 a barrel at that production level, which was economically unrealistic but perhaps served some internal political agenda. On the day of the news, the international price reached $20.39 a barrel.

Events were rapidly overtaken by Iraq's invasion of Kuwait and the Gulf War that followed. But even then, the temporary removal of Kuwaiti oil as well as Iraqi oil from World markets made very little difference to either supply or price. In fact, as Kuwaiti production was re-established in 1992 and 1993, the World position of OPEC worsened still further. By summer 1993, OPEC countries were pumping 25 million barrels/day, even with Iraqi exports at a virtual standstill. The price of oil remained very low at around $15-$20/barrel for most of the 1990s. The OPEC nations were reportedly able to agree in principle on reducing production to help prop up the price, but could not agree on who was to slow production, or by how much. Meanwhile gasoline was selling in the United States for a cost that in real money was as low as it had been in decades. No-one in the Middle East wanted to say so aloud, but their worst-case scenario in the 1990s was the day that a cash-hungry Iraq released from UN sanctions would once more allowed to export as much crude oil as it wanted to! In the June 1991 (after the First Gulf War) meeting of Bilderbergers in Baden Baden, Germany, David Rockefeller said: "We are grateful to The Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years... It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the World if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during those years. But, the World is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a World government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and World Bankers is surely preferable to the national autodetermination practiced in past centuries." Among those in attendance was then governor Bill Clinton and Dan Quayle.

In 1999 the price of crude oil dropped close to $12/barrel. This frightened OPEC into real cooperation, and as I write this in early 2000, the OPEC nations seem to be operating at close to their agreed quotas, and the price of crude oil is at a 9-year high, around $30 a barrel. Probably OPEC calculates that this is around the price that the industrial nations can afford to pay without major damage to their currently prosperous economies. It will be up to OPEC to continue to fine-tune their production, without repeating the events that led to the collapse of crude oil prices in the 1980s. The break-up of the Soviet Union had dramatic effects on the oil resources within its boundaries. The old Soviet Union had immense reserves of oil and especially of gas, but a decaying infrastructure that was already resulting in decreased production by the end of the 1980s. The Soviet Union had a structure of pipelines that essentially gathered production and funnelled it westward into Eastern Europe, where it was sold to the former Soviet satellite countries, particularly to East Germany. Russia, as the largest successor state, retains the bulk of that system, and has huge fields of oil and gas that can continue to provide it with its own fuel supply and a surplus for export. However, many of the fields, even within Russia, require modernization and exploration that present-day Russia cannot afford. Contracts with Western oil companies are slowly and carefully being negotiated, but the precarious nature of Russian politics and the Russian economy are serious problems. As I write, the Russian Government and the largest energy company in Russia, Gazprom, are at daggers drawn over billions of rubles in unpaid taxes. The former Russian Prime Minister, Viktor Chernomyrdin, is also a former chief executive of Gazprom, and depending whom you believe, is either a secret millionaire with immense power, or the only former Soviet bureaucrat who failed to get a share when the government gas industry was privatized.

The problems of the other fragments of the Soviet Union are even more compelling and interesting, however. Some republics (Ukraine and Belarus are the best examples) have no oil resources, and are dependent on supplies down the old pipeline system from Russia: essentially, the Russians can hold these countries to economic or political ransom for their fuel supplies. It is not an accident that both Belarus and the Ukraine have recently negotiated closer economic ties with Russia, in spite of the considerable distrust built up over the years of economic domination from Moscow. The Ukraine, desperate for energy, continues to operate its dangerous nuclear reactors at Chernobyl, next to the notorious reactor that exploded in 1986, because it has no choice. Without billions of dollars in aid, the Ukraine cannot afford to take proper remedial action to make Chernobyl safe, or to close the remaining plants. Armenia, cut off from its own pipeline supply because of religious wars with its neighbor Azerbaijan, recently re-opened a Chernobyl-style nuclear reactor which had been closed since 1989 on safety grounds. Again, there was no real choice: electricity supplies were down to a few hours a day even in the capital.

However, the most interesting developments are being played out in the former Soviet republics that do have abundant reserves of oil and gas. Azerbaijan contains the giant fields around Baku, which have been producing for a century. It was among the oil workers of Baku that the young Stalin learned his trade of fomenting revolution, riot, and sabotage, and it was the lure of the oilfields of Baku that drew the German army into the Caucasus in an ill-fated offensive in 1942. However, the oilfields are old, the infrastructure is decayed, and the pipelines that export the oil all go into Russia. The Azeris could perhaps renovate their fields, and go offshore to exploit promising new territory under the Caspian Sea, but they would always be subject to a Russian stranglehold on the export pipelines. A look at a map brings home the geopolitical difficulties faced by the Azeris. All routes that would take their oil to Western markets have problems. The easiest route would use existing pipelines through Russia to the Black Sea, but that gives control to Russia. The next easiest route is through Iran to the existing network that delivers oil to ports on the Persian Gulf. But the Azeris are ancient enemies of the Persians: many of the inhabitants of northwest Iran are ethnic Azeris, and neither country trusts the other.

To the west, a pipeline through Georgia to the Black Sea would be possible, but Georgia is torn by civil war and is in danger of being blackmailed back into Russian control. The most sensible pipeline would pass through Armenia to Turkey and the Mediterranean (the Turks and Azeris are Turkic peoples who share a linguistic, religious, and cultural heritage). But the Azeris and Armenians have been at war intermittently for years, a particularly nasty and brutal religious war, and it is vanishingly unlikely that the Azeris would allow the Armenians control over their oil exports in the foreseeable future. Even the Azeri-Georgia pipeline route passes through a part of Azerbaijan that is seriously threatened by the Russian-armed Armenian invaders who currently control some Azeri territory. The most likely scenario is in the process of developing. The Azeris have signed contracts with a consortium of Western oil companies to renovate and extend the fields. As I write this, Amoco and BP have 17% each, the Azeris hold 10%, and three other US companies are involved. The Turkish government has 7%, and the Russian oil company Lukoil, which runs the pipeline, has 10%. A pipeline through Russia to the Black Sea at Novorossiysk already exists. What the Azeris need is some sort of guarantee that the pipeline will not be closed off arbitrarily, which explains the offer of 10% to Lukoil, to give the Russians a financial interest in keeping it open: a share in the proceeds. This is not an ideal solution, but it looks like the best of a set of bad choices. The Turks are involved because oil will cross the Black Sea from Novorossiysk in tankers, either directly through the Bosphorus, or through pipelines across Turkey to the Mediterranean.

The pipeline from Baku to Novorossiysk runs directly through the city of Grozny, the capital of Chechnya. As everyone knows, the Chechens want independence from Russia. The Russians are unwilling to concede independence, partly because of the precedent it would set for other similar areas, but largely, I suspect, because that would yield control of the pipeline to still another set of hands. The Russians have recently taken Grozny in a brutal battle that left many dead on both sides, and the Chechens are still fighting a bitter guerilla war in the hills. But the Russians now control Grozny and the plains, and the pipeline. I don't think there's any question that the Russian invasion was controlled by the pipeline more than any other factor. The geopolitics of oil has far-reaching implications that we have to understand if we are to appreciate the complexities of the modern World order. Kazakhstan has a supergiant oilfield, Tengiz, whose current output is also exported through Russia on existing pipelines. Since independence, Kazakhstan has signed contracts with Mobil to develop some smaller fields, and with Chevron to expand and modernize production from Tengiz. The first phase at Tengiz is complete, but the project is suffering slow strangulation because of Russian control of the pipeline. Only limited amounts are allowed down it, bound for Russia, and in return, Chevron receives the same amount of oil delivered to Germany from fields elsewhere in Russia. By incorporating Russian partners, Chevron has negotiated a new pipeline that is to be built through Russia to Novorossiysk on the Black Sea, to that Tengiz oil would be exported directly to World markets.

Until that pipeline is built, both Kazakhstan and Chevron are looking at a losing proposition, because current exports to Russia are too small to make money: Chevron is breaking even on current production, but any reasonable return on its capital requires shipping ten times as much as it does now. Kazakhstan's problem is that there is no other feasible pipeline route: Tengiz is in the north of Kazakhstan. The alternative, through Iran, is just as risky in political terms, and the Kazakhs and Iranians have no better relations than do the Kazakhs and Russians. In any case, no American company is willingly going to build its pipelines through hostile territory, and Iran certainly counts as hostile for Americans in the foreseeable future. Chevron's problem is that it has "bet the company" on Tengiz: at a projected cost of $20 billion, it is the biggest project the company has taken on since its Saudi Arabian investment more than fifty years ago. This time, the Russians are probably not swayed much by the relative amount of money they can make: the real interest is an economic lever they can use to pressure Kazakhstan.

New developments are even more bizarre. There have been intermittent hints of pipelines through Afghanistan and Pakistan to the Indian Ocean. They would export natural gas from Turkmenistan and oil from Kazakhstan, but they cannot be built while there is still a vicious civil war in Afghanistan. It is not a coincidence that the northern warlords are backed by Russian aid. The last thing that Russia wants is an outlet to the south for the Caspian oil and gas. Now the Kazakh are talking to the Chinese. The Chinese project an energy shortage as their economy booms. A pipeline from Kazakhstan across Sinkiang to industrial China would be expensive to build, but could make up much of China's projected energy deficit. But who is going to finance it? The Japanese would once have been candidates, but they have economic problems currently. Nothing is ever simple, and as I write trouble is brewing in the Black Sea. Most people have thought that the difficult part of oil delivery from Azerbaijan or Kazakhstan would be in getting it to the Black Sea. Now, it seems, that may not be true. Transit to the Mediterranean is most cheaply accomplished by tanker, but that involves navigation through the crowded passage of the Bosphorus. A tanker grounded and burst into flames there only a few years ago, and Turkey is worried that a major disaster could occur even at current levels of traffic, let alone with the increased traffic that would result from new oil flowing from Novorossiysk. Constraints on tankers will undoubtedly increase.

That means that oil is more likely to transit to the Mediterranean in pipelines, which means major capital invested in terminals on the Black Sea coast and the Mediterranean coast. Turkey seems to have assumed that any pipelines would pass through its territory, an attractive proposition to a country that has no oil of its own, and has been subject to some political pressure from its oil-rich Arab neighbors to the south. In fact, the whole pressure on tanker traffic may be a Turkish ploy to ensure just that: the Russians seem to think so. What the Turks would like most of all is a pipeline across Turkey to Ceyhan, a modern oil-shipping terminal that currently has no oil to ship because of the UN embargo on Iraqi oil that used to reach the Mediterranean at Ceyhan. So even the Middle East intrudes on the Caspian situation... So, the Russians have begun to press for a pipeline that would pass through Bulgaria and Greece to the Mediterranean, by-passing the Turks altogether. This has the Turks furious, especially as they are historic enemies of the Greeks. This enmity is matched, however, by an ancient enmity between the Greeks and the Bulgars (a great Greek hero is an Emperor of Byzantium called "Basil the Bulgar-Slayer"), so we shall have to wait to see how this whole matter is resolved. It all depends on the successful delivery of Azeri and Kazakh oil to the Black Sea, and as we have seen, that is not yet a sure thing for the near future.

The Spratlys are a group of islands, mostly coral reefs, atolls and sand bars, scattered in the South China Sea. Most of them are so low that they are under water at high tide, and none is large enough to have any inhabitants. Until recently, they were visited only by fishermen, lurking pirates, and ships straying off course. There was no real reason for any nation to claim the Spratlys, and although there have been various claims at various times, no nation has ever occupied the Spratlys, or exploited them economically. The Spratlys sit alongside the major ocean routes between Asia and the Middle East. Much of the World's oceanic commerce through the Western Pacific from the Middle East goes through or around the Spratly Islands, including most of Japan's oil imports (which come from the Middle East). Perhaps more important, the South China Sea may (or may not) have large oil fields that could be exploited from rigs based on the Spratlys, and that has raised for the first time in any practical sense the question of who owns them. Given an economic zone of 200 miles from the nearest land, claimants to one or more of the Spratly reefs could claim ownership of any oil reserves under the entire region.

China claims the entire South China Sea, while Vietnam, the Philippines, Taiwan, Malaysia and Brunei all claim at least some of the Spratlys. Each nation has built some sort of "permanent" structure on a reef it claims, to establish its presence there. In 1988, the Vietnamese and Chinese navies briefly clashed over the Spratlys, with Vietnam losing six ships. In 1995, small-scale disputes began to escalate again. In January 1995 group of Philippine fishermen was detained for a week by Chinese "troops" on Mischief Reef, which is 150 miles west of the Philippine island of Palawan. Though it is underwater even at low tide, Mischief Reef is claimed as Philippine territory by the Manila government. Also in January 1995, Vietnam dismissed a warning from China on some disputed islands where the Vietnamese, with Russian collaboration, were conducting "a geological survey". In March 1995, the Philippines announced that its military had destroyed some "foreign markers" from an atoll and a reef. China said it had built the structures, but they were simply "shelters for civilian fishermen". Next, the Philippines seized 5 Chinese fishing boats in the Spratlys and arrested more than 60 crew members. They were charged with poaching protected sea turtles, fishing with explosives and cyanide, and illegal entry into Philippine waters. In reply, the Philippines accused China of improperly putting warships in the disputed region and building permanent structures on Mischief Reef. Three days of talks in Beijing between China and the Philippines failed to resolve the dispute.

On March 25, 1995, a Taiwanese patrol boat fired warning shots at a Vietnamese fishing boat near an island claimed by Taiwan. Taiwan said it planned to send a group of armed patrol boats to the area, to erect a monument proclaiming Taiwan's sovereignty over the islands and to help to protect ships in the area from rampant piracy. The project was cancelled at the last minute. In May 1995 there was another confrontation at sea when two Chinese ships intercepted a Philippine naval vessel carrying 38 journalists to see Mischief Reef. The journalists allegedly saw gun emplacements on four clusters of metal buildings put up on the reef. The Chinese accused the Philippines of encroaching on Chinese sovereignty by taking journalists there. At the moment, this is low-level mutual harassment. But it escalated in 1999 briefly, and could do so again at any time, by accident or design, with unpredictable consequences. Confrontations are still going on in the Spratlys, and I shall update this story at class time.

At the end of 2000 it was announced that the Chevron and Texaco oil companies would merge their operations to create the fourth biggest oil-producing firm in the World behind Exxon/Mobil, Royal Dutch Shell and BP Amoco. Texaco and Chevron were already partners in the Asian Pacific region with the company known as Caltex but the new deal was a global one. Dick Cheney's Halliburton gets "reconstruction" contracts through its subsidiary Kellogg, Brown and Root (yes it's the same Brown Brothers, Harriman) without competitive bids. Osama Bin Laden is the son of one of the wealthiest men in Saudi Arabia who just happens to have extensive financial ties to the Bushes. David Rockefeller sold his lease to the land under the Trade Centers one month before the attacks. The "hijackers" all managed to get preferential visas to train at a flight school with connections to the CIA, drug running and Jerry Falwell. But would it be "crazy" to connect any of those dots? The bogus 9-11 hearings finally opened last week. Everyone should read the testimony of Mindy Kleinberg, whose husband died in the attacks (9-11commission.gov/hearings/witness_kleinberg.htm). She paints a damning picture of incompetence so blatant that it would be a conspiracy in itself. But what if something else was going on? What if the hijackers weren't just "lucky" nine or ten times over, in a row, with nobody the wiser, while the myriad of governmental checks and balances failed completely? Would that be conspiracy? Would it hide the fact that to get at the Caspian Sea oil reserves there would have to be pipelines run through Afghanistan, Iraq and the Balkans?

How many Rockefellers/Rothschild agents plotting together for years does it take to screw up the World?

Rockefeller's first World monopoly broken 1911

- Seven Sisters (the "majors"): Exxon (was Rockefeller's Standard Oil Co.), Shell, BP (privatized since 1979), Mobil (was Socony), Chevron (was Doheny's SoCal), Gulf (was owned by Mellons until sold to Chevron), Texaco
- BP dominates Iran from 1908 Anglo-Persian Co. and built the first Mideast pipeline to refinery at Abadan
- Sykes-Picot carves up Mideast
- IPC gives 20% to Exxon 1922
- Venezuela fields opened 1922 by Creole Petroleum (49% by Standard, 36% by Shell, 14% by Gulf)

Oil companies influence policy

- Mellon & Gulf Oil Co.
- Doheny & Chevron Oil Co.
- Mr. & Mrs. Ed. Doheny with defense council Frank Hogan during 1924 Teapot Dome scandal - NY Tribune cartoon by Darling
- Elk Hill Reserve
- no antitrust after 1911
- Petroleum War Service Committee - under Baruch's WIB

- J. Harry Covington of Covington and Burling
- Revenue Act of 1918 - restores depletion allowance
- American Petroleum Institute 1918 - cartel
- Tom Connolly & Texas Railroad Commission 1919
- "Many Faces of Texas" from Time, 1/17/1964
- East Texas field around Dallas - Dad Joiner, H.L. Hunt

U.S. joins World oil cartel

- Achnacarry 1928 - Deterding and "Gulf-plus system"
- "informal empire" - not government
- Exxon but not Chevron

ARAMCO in Saudi Arabia

- Abd Al-Aziz ibn Saud captured Riyadh Jan. 15, 1902, from the Rashids and Turks and unified S.A. by 1927
- Chevron strike in Bahrain 1931
- 1933 concession = all-American, not Allies
- 1933: King Abdul Aziz Bin Abdul Rahman Al-Saud signs agreement authorizing Standard Oil of California (Socal) to explore for oil in what is now the Eastern Province of the Kingdom
- 1933: Saudi government signed a concession agreement with the Standard Oil Company of California, predecessor of today's Chevron
- 1938: Commercial oil production begins in Saudi Arabia (not shipped until after WWII)

World War II demand for oil

- Harold Ickes was U. S. Oil Coordinator
- FDR: "I hereby find that the defense of Saudi Arabia is vital to the defense of the U.S." (letter to Stettinius Feb. 18, 1943)
- loans, advisors sent to S.A.
- Ickes wants Petroleum Reserves Corp. pipeline across S.A. by 1944
- Connolly stops Anglo-American proposal August 1944 to support S.A. and ARAMCO - policy would be left up to private companies
- 1944: Calarabian a joint venture of Socal and Texaco changes name to Arabian -American Oil Company [Aramco]
- private Trans-Arabia pipeline built 1945-50

U.S. helps Shah Pahlevi

- Brit, Russian troops enter Aug. 25, 1941
- Shah Pahlevi abdicated Sep. 17 - replaced by son
- U.S. sent Arthur Millspaugh 1943-5 (had helped Qajars 1922-27)
- Lend-Lease aid to Iran, Russia
- 1943 Tehran Conference - Big 3 pledge cooperation and the independence of Iran
- U.S. companies get oil concession in Iran after the war

Quincy conference Feb, 14, 1945

- Saud., Farouk, Selassie, oil, zionism, British discussed
- U.S. controls 42% of Mideast oil
- meeting on board USS Quincy
- Peel Plan 1937 - Jewish Agency moves to New York
- Congress votes Dec. 1945 for unrestricted immigration

Arab power rises

- Saud and 6 others create Arab League March 1945
- 1948: Jersey and Socony-Vacuum join Socal and Texaco in Aramco venture
- 1949: Saudi Arabia builds Tapline through northern Saudi Arabia, Syria, Jordan and Lebanon to the Mediterranean
- 1950 Acheson with NSA negotiated 50-50 deal (similar to Venezuela 1948)
- 1960 ARAMCO cuts oil price, Saudia Arabia creates OPEC in Sept.
- rising production of Saudi oil 1938-1967
- 1973: Saudi Arabian Government begins purchasing Aramco's assets from its shareholders, Socal (later Chevron), Texaco, Exxon and Socony-Vacuum (Mobil)
- 1975: Aramco initiates work to design, build and operate twin industrial cities at Jubail on the Gulf and Yanbu on the Red Sea
- 1980: Saudi Government acquires 100 percent of Aramco's shares, although Aramco partners continue to operate and manage Saudi Arabia's oil fields
- 1985: Yanbu Petrochemical Company (YANPET), a joint venture petrochemicals complex at Yanbu, Saudi Arabia plant begins operation; Mobil and Saudi Basic Industries Corporation (SABIC) are 50-50 partners in YANPET
- 1988: Royal decree establishes the Saudi Arabian Oil Company [Saudi Aramco] to take over the management and operations of Saudi Arabia's oil and gas fields from Aramco
- 1988: Saudi Aramco forms a joint venture with Texaco called Star Enterprise; Under the agreement, a Saudi Aramco subsidiary acquires a 50 percent share in Star's three refineries in the United States
- 1991: Saudi Aramco acquires a 35 percent interest in SangYong Oil Refining Company, South Korea's third-largest refiner and leading lubricant manufacturer,
- 1993: Royal decree merges all of the Kingdom's state-owned refining, product-distribution and marketing operations, as well as the Government's half-interest in three joint-venture refineries into Saudi Aramco
- 1994: Saudi Aramco enters joint venture with the Philippine National Oil Company (PNOC) purchasing a 40-percent stake in Petron Corp

- 1996: Saudi Aramco acquires a 50 percent interest in Motor Oil Hellas and Avin Oil, the refining and distribution affiliates of Greece's Vardinoyannis Group which it sold out in 2005.
- 1997: Crude oil manipulated to hit lows of $9/barrel. US and British oil companies sign long term-low royalty price deals with oil producing countries.
- 1998: Shell Oil Co., Texaco Inc. and Saudi Aramco initiate joint venture combining their eastern U.S. refining and marketing assets under the name Motiva Enterprises LLC, paralleling a joint venture launched by Shell and Texaco under the name Equilon Enterprises LLC for their Midwest, Southwest and West Coast downstream assets; Shell to own 35% of Houston-based Motiva, while Texaco and Aramco will each own 32.5%
- 2006: Oil prices manipulated to hit highs near $80/barrel. Venezuela wants to renegotiate past royalty fees in light of new high prices and record $36 billion Exxon/Mobil profit and Chevron over $20 billion profits. US government keeps giving tax breaks to oil giants while commoners are suffering under high gasoline prices.

Anthony Cave Brown, the author of several well-received books on the history of espionage, here turns his attention to a story as full of intrigue as any spy novel: the rise of Aramco, once the World's leading oil concern. Led by a consortium of American investors, Aramco managed through considerable guile to insert itself in territory tightly controlled by the British--thanks, in part, to the labors of one H. St. John Philby, a British spy (and father of the notorious Soviet double agent Kim Philby) who held great influence in the court of Saudi King Ibn Saud, and who, writes Brown, "was to betray the British government in favor of Standard Oil." The Americans won Saudi favor not only through Philby, but also through an intrepid Chicago-born entrepreneur and diplomat named Charles Crane, who did for Ibn Saud what the British failed to do: Crane built a costly waterworks that brought drinking water into the Saudi interior. (For his part, Philby obtained the monopoly on selling Ford automobiles in the country. In six years, he sold the king 1,450 cars.) The result was a concession to the American concern to what the U.S. State Department once called "the most valuable commercial prize in the history of the planet," namely, the vast oil fields of Arabia; for an initial investment of £100,000, Aramco eventually extracted more than a trillion dollars from the Arabian reserves. The American interest in Saudi and Persian Gulf oil has remained strong ever since, Brown writes--he even calls the Gulf War of 1991 "the Aramco War"-- although the company was nationalized in the mid-1980s. Brown's careful research and vivid prose yield a fine read for anyone interested in contemporary affairs and World history. --Gregory McNamee

Everything about the story of the American interest in Arabian oil is big. Standard Oil (whose post Antitrust Act components formed Aramco in 1947 in the largest corporate merger the World had seen) made trillions of dollars over its history, produced millions of barrels of oil daily by the late 1950s and, to a mind-boggling extent, successfully intervened in international politics to protect its interests. Brown's skill in relating the complex relations among the Saudi royal family, the secretive oil executives and the American and British governments is no less impressive. The story begins with how, between the World wars, Standard Oil challenged and?with the help of the same American government that had busted its trust?beat the British Empire in the race for the prize of Arabian oil. Brown hangs this part of his account on the lives and deeds of three men: Ibn Saud, the Arab prince allied with the British in WWI who founded the Saudi dynasty; John D. Rockefeller, the American oil baron; and Harry St. John Philby, a British agent who advised Ibn Saud. (Brown likens Philby to his infamous son, Soviet spy Kim Philby, arguing that his loyalty to Ibn Saud led him to "betray" Britain by advising the king ultimately to favor Standard Oil over the Empire.) Brown brings the reader through the post-WWII transfer of World hegemony from the British Empire to the U.S., explaining the symbiosis of corporate and Saudi politics against the backdrop of the Cold War, the Israeli-Arab conflict and the Iran-Iraq war. It's a great story well told. The only shortcoming is that Brown relies so heavily on Aramco documents that his history is skewed a little too much to the corporate side, relegating geopolitics to a secondary, though still vital, role. From Library Journal: Brown (Treason in Blood, LJ 11/15/94) presents a complex account of intrigue and international politics from the oil fields of the Middle East. Based on extensive research, including private ARAMCO (Arabian American Oil Company) files, Brown traces the discovery, development, and competition for control of the Saudi oil reserves from World War I to the purchase of ARAMCO in 1988 by the Saudi Arabian Oil Company. As he examines the clash of Western values with Eastern religious traditions, Brown reveals the influence many prominent individuals have had on oil policy?including Franklin Roosevelt, Henry Kissinger, Ibn Saud, John Philby, and Aristotle Onassis. Fast paced and highly entertaining, Brown's history demonstrates a unique understanding of how the politics of Big Oil have reshaped global economies. Highly recommended for public and academic libraries.?Robert L. Balliot Jr., East Greenwich Free Lib., Copyright 1998 Reed Business Information, Inc.

From Booklist: Aramco, or the Arab American Oil Company, grew out of an agreement between Ibn Saud, who formed the kingdom of Saudi Arabia in 1932, and Standard Oil of California. In 1933 Ibn Saud granted the U.S. company oil exploration and production rights, and other American companies joined the consortium that became Aramco in 1944. The important role of Aramco has been acknowledged in Anthony Sampson's The Seven Sisters: The Great Oil Companies and the World They Shaped (1975) and Daniel Yergen's The Prize: The Epic Quest for Oil, Money, and Power (1990), well-noted books written for popular audiences. Now Brown, who has written half a dozen books about British and U.S. espionage and intelligence operations, uncovers the shadowy details of the battle to win and keep control of the greatest concentration of natural wealth in the World. With access to a cache of newly discovered personal papers belonging to William E. Mulligan, Aramco's go-between with the Saudi government, Brown pulls back the veil of secrecy that has always surrounded Aramco. David Rouse

Publisher's Weekly: A great story well told. Synopsis: Using company files, government documents, and personal interviews, the author recounts the unceasing diplomatic and corporate efforts to gain access to the enormous resources under the vast Arab desert.

Ingram: Using Aramco files never before available to scholars or journalists, dozens of personal interviews, and U.S. and British government documents, Brown recounts the unceasing diplomatic and corporate maneuvers aimed at obtaining this unimaginable wealth, an ongoing drama that involved such figures as the great warrior-king Ibn Saud, founder of the Saudi dynasty; H. St. John Philby, the British scholar-adventurer who was a chief adviser to the king; the American philanthropist Charles Crane; Winston Churchill; Franklin Delano Roosevelt; and assorted oil-industry executives and engineers across the United States.

Book Description: Here is the extraordinary tale of what the U.S. State Department once called "the most valuable commercial prize in the history of the planet," the vast oil reserves beneath the sands of the Arabian desert. Using Aramco files never before available to scholars or journalists, dozens of personal interviews, and U.S. and British government documents, Anthony Cave Brown recounts the unceasing diplomatic and corporate maneuvers aimed at obtaining this unimaginable wealth, an ongoing drama that involved such figures as the great warrior-king Ibn Saud, founder of the Saudi dynasty; H. St. John Philby, the British scholar-adventurer who was a chief advisor to the king; the American philanthropist Charles Crane; Winston Churchill; Franklin Delano Roosevelt; and assorted oil-industry executives and engineers across the United States. Played out against a background of war and the turmoil of an ancient culture thrust abruptly into the twentieth century, the struggle to obtain the prize was won by the United States, which emerged from the battle to become the dominant Western power in the Middle East.

Still still still still skeptical? Well, keep on reading about the Globalist New World Order....

Would Greenspan and his fellow Fed technicians manipulate the U.S. markets to assist their insider confreres in building the supranational economic and political structures of the EU and EMU? Of course! They and their predecessors have been doing exactly that — and more — since World War II to bring to fruition this important component of their planned New World Order. Hilaire du Berrier, who publishes the authoritative HduB Reports from Monaco, was for many years a lone voice warning of the growing dangers of the regional super government now known as the EU. "The CFR," wrote du Berrier in January 1973, "saw the Common Market from the first as a regional government to which more and more nations would be added until the World government which [the] UN had failed to bring about would be realized. At a favorable point in the Common Market's development America would be brought in. But the American public had to be softened first and leaders groomed for the change-over."

Du Berrier's monitions concerning this scheme to abolish the European nation-states began in the 1960s, tracing the growth and transformation of the new monstrosity in Brussels from its inception in 1951 as the European Coal and Steel Commission to the European Economic Community or Common Market in 1957, the European Community (EC) in 1967, and the EU in 1993. (For a more detailed study of the Insider machinations behind the development of the EU and EMU, see chapter 13 of Global Tyranny ... Step by Step, by William F. Jasper.) The CFR, which has occupied a central role in all of these developments, has its origins in the secret network established in the 1890s by the British millionaire and megalomaniac Cecil Rhodes (a land monopolizing enslaver). As Rhodes biographer Sarah Millin put it: "The government of the World was Rhodes' simple desire." His immediate disciples, led by Lord Alfred Milner, utilized his fabled wealth — as well as the pelf and power of the Rothschild, J.P. Morgan, and Rockefeller empires — toward the achievement of Rhodes' "simple desire."

The Milner Group operated as a secret society, but established many other semi-secret and open front groups through which it carried out its purpose. Two of its most important creations were the Royal Institute for International Affairs (RIIA) in Britain and the Council on Foreign Relations in the United States. The skill and ruthless cunning which the players of these organizations have employed in erecting the EU and the new European Central Bank were born in the experience of their predecessors, who earlier in this century set up the Federal Reserve and other central banks throughout the World. One of the sources of our knowledge of this incredible stratagem for global domination is the late Carroll Quigley, the celebrated professor of history at Georgetown University, who was for two years allowed access to the secret records of the Rhodes-Milner network. His books, Tragedy and Hope and The Anglo-American Establishment, provide some of the best inside information on the nefarious operations of this network which continue to shake the World.

In Tragedy and Hope (1966,) Quigley writes: "The powers of financial capitalism had another far-reaching aim, nothing less than to create a World system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the World as a whole. This system was to be controlled in a feudal fashion by the central banks of the World acting in concert, by secret agreements, arrived at in frequent private meetings and conferences. The apex of the system was the Bank for International Settlements in Basel, Switzerland, a private bank owned and controlled by the World's central banks which were themselves private corporations. Each central bank, in the hands of men like Montagu Norman of the Bank of England, Benjamin Strong of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, Charles Rist of the Bank of France, and Hjalmar Schacht of the Reichsbank, sought to dominate its government by its ability to control Treasury loans, to manipulate foreign exchanges, to influence the level of economic activity in the country, and to influence cooperative politicians by subsequent economic rewards in the business World."

In January 1924, Reginald McKenna, who was then chairman of the board of the Midland Bank (and had been Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer in 1915-16), confirmed that the British system was completely dominated by the conspiratorial monied aristocracy. "I am afraid the ordinary citizen will not like to be told that the banks can, and do, create money," said McKenna. "And they who control the credit of the nation direct the policy of governments, and hold in the hollow of their hands the destiny of the people." On November 11, 1927, the Wall Street Journal called Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, "the currency dictator of Europe." The House Hearings on Stabilization of the Purchasing Power of the Dollar disclosed evidence in 1928 that the Federal Reserve Board was working closely with the heads of European central banks. The Committee warned that a major crash had been planned in 1927 by the FED. And Norman, a strange, furtive intriguer given to wearing disguises, using assumed names, and incessantly flitting about the World on mysterious missions, confirmed the Journal's assertion before the Macmillan Committee on March 26, 1930.

A Higher Power, the International BankLords

But as Professor Quigley points out, Norman answered to powers who stood in the shadows. "It must not be felt that these heads of the World's chief central banks were themselves substantive powers in World finance," writes Quigley. "They were not. Rather, they were the technicians and agents of the dominant investment Bankers of their own countries, who had raised them up and were perfectly capable of throwing them down." Those Bankers to which Quigley refers were members of the Rhodes-Milner network. Their immense power and influence were exercised through the Royal Institute for International Affairs and their many other levers of control in the government, the major political parties, academe, business, and the media.

"When the influence which the Institute wields is combined with that controlled by the Milner Group in other fields — in education, in administration, in newspapers and periodicals — a really terrifying picture begins to emerge," writes Quigley in The Anglo-American Establishment, a book he wrote in 1949, but which was published posthumously in 1981. He continues:

"The picture is terrifying because such power, whatever the goals at which it is being directed, is too much to be entrusted to any group.... No country that values its safety should allow what the Milner Group accomplished in Britain — that is, that a small number of men would be able to wield such power in administration and politics, should be given almost complete control over the publication of documents relating to their actions, should be able to exercise such influence over the avenues of information that create public opinion, and should be able to monopolize so completely the writing and the teaching of the history of their own period."

Tragically, this country and most of the countries of Europe (and the leading nations of Asia) have allowed the same cabal to replicate itself on their own shores, creating a global network of power that does certainly, to use Quigley's words, present a very "terrifying picture." After World War II, the CFR Insiders used their enormous influence in the U.S. media to rally support for the Marshall Plan, which was sold to Congress and the American people as an absolutely necessary economic recovery plan to rebuild war-ravaged Europe and save its nations from "going Communist." In reality, the Marshall Plan was "a windfall for socialism," says economist Hans Sennholz. Through it tens of billions of dollars from U.S. taxpayers were funneled to socialist and internationalist parties, politicians, policies, programs, periodicals, and organizations that would lead relentlessly toward the destruction of national sovereignty and the merger of the individual countries of Europe into a centrally controlled, socialist mega-state. The European Insiders likewise lied to the European people, insisting from the beginning, when the first six nations signed the Treaty of Rome creating the Common Market, that this was simply an arrangement to facilitate trade, travel, and commerce.

Dr. Hans F. Sennholz, Chairman of the Department of Economics at Grove City (PA) College stated: "The Federal Reserve System facilitates the government's own inflationary financing in "periods of emergency." It makes easy the inflationary financing of budget deficits and the inflationary refunding of government loans. It stabilizes the government bond market through inflationary methods and manipulates this market to the advantage of the government. It does all this by wrecking the purchasing power of the dollar; by subtly stealing from the people of this country what it thus provides for the government, through a process exactly on par with the coin-clipping of ancient kings - but much more diabolical because it's so much less visible."

Voices of Warning

A significant and growing chorus of voices throughout Europe, especially in England, is venting anger over this massive deception and warning the people of the enormous betrayal that is daily moving closer to final consummation. "Twenty years ago, when the process began, there was no question of losing sovereignty," Sir Peregrine Worsthorne wrote in London's Sunday Telegraph in 1991. "That was a lie, or at any rate, a dishonest obfuscation." Further, said Worsthorne, "For the past twenty years or so anybody wanting to have a career in the public service, in the higher reaches of the city, or the media has had to be pro-European. In the privacy of the closet or among close friends, even many federalists would admit as much. But such is the momentum behind the European movement that none of these individual doubts, expressed separately, will be remotely sufficient to stop the juggernaut."

Indeed, lone voices — even influential ones — had been far from sufficient to break through the media stranglehold exercised by the ruling elite of the Milner Group-RIIA-CFR thought cartel. In 1959, for example, few British citizens heard (and fewer still understood the importance of) the warning of Reginald Maulding, Chancellor of the Exchequer, concerning the real nature of the Common Market. Said Maulding: "We must recognize that for us to sign the Treaty of Rome would be to accept the ultimate goal — political federation in Europe including ourselves." Lord Bruce of Donington, a Member of Parliament from the Labour Party who has been a stalwart opponent of Euro-convergence schemes for four decades, was likewise given the media blackout treatment. In a 1962 speech he cited Maulding's warning that the Common Market was really aimed at eventual political unification. "This, of course, is not how the issue has been presented by the government to the people of this country," Lord Bruce cautioned. "The matter has been put forward in terms of the economic advantages which would accrue to Britain if we joined 'the Six' in a Customs Union ... allowing our industries to thrive in what appears to be a lush 'home' market of 214 million people."

No "right-wing isolationist," Lord Bruce served in the European Parliament as Rapporteur for the Budget Committee and president of the Transport and Regional Committee as a representative of the European Socialist Group. In a 1996 interview with International Currency Review, Lord Bruce noted that much of the impetus for European convergence comes from the ruling elite of "the United States, which disguises its intent for public consumption but has consistently assisted the merging of Britain and the other European nations into a regional bloc." "The Americans," he said, "have subsidized and promoted this aberration almost since its inception, and they are very active today."

Under the banner of democracy, the governing powers are being turned over to a ruling Eurocrat elite. "The modern politician is placed in the hands of the bureaucratic conspirator — of which, of course, many officials of the European Commission are egregious examples," noted Bruce. "If you read Alan Clarke's entertaining Diaries, you will recall that what happens at Council meetings is that the visiting Ministers are presented at the start of each meeting with the Communiqué that they are intended to sign. They are of course allowed to amend it, but the point is that the document is there, the conclusions have already been reached and pre-packaged — by a bunch of unelected officials." The subversive process is quite simple and efficient, he pointed out: "The prearranged Communiqué sets the tone of any discussions and influences and often governs the outcome. This method of administrative rule ... reveals the true bureaucratic and manipulative character of the EU system. Given these arrangements, the European Union is manifestly at the mercy of agendas set by officials, amongst whose number there are known to be conspirators, either centrally in Brussels or within the national structures."

Fortunately, Lord Bruce noted, due to the growing pressure of the various factions opposed to Euro-convergence, "it is today acceptable to discuss the option of Britain leaving the European Union altogether, which was not the case even two months ago. I can well remember the time when I was speaking on this subject ten years ago in the House of Lords. If I had said in the House then what I routinely say today, I would have been howled down, or I would have endured its parliamentary equivalent!"

Core of Corruption

One of the signal voices who has helped dramatically to expose the impending calamity of the euro and the EMU is Bernard Connolly, a former senior EU official who was in charge of the European Monetary System and the National and Community Monetary Policies Unit in the European Commission. In 1995, Connolly wrote The Rotten Heart of Europe: The Dirty War for Europe's Money, a remarkable book exposing the incredible subversion and corruption endemic in the EU. Among the many bombshells in this insider's tell-all is the still unrefuted charge that the Maastricht Treaty, on which the entire EMU-ECB hangs, was obtained through massive bribery by then-president of the European Commission Jacques Delors. "On 9 November 1991," writes Connolly, "the Irish, Spanish, Portuguese, and Greek Foreign Ministers had left a secret meeting with Jacques Delors in which he had promised fabulous amounts (6 billion ECUs to Ireland) of other people's money if they pledged to support his federalist, corporatist ambitions in the final Maastricht negotiations."

Delivering "The Lantern Lecture" at the Palace of Westminster in April 1996, Connolly confessed that "in 1975 I voted 'Yes' in the referendum on what we thought was Common Market membership." "It has now become clear to us," he said, "that what we thought was a Common Market is nothing more than a project to create a European federal super-state in which our sovereignty, Britain's national identity, would be extinguished." Added Connolly, "The destruction of national sovereignty is ... an undisguised ambition of the federalists." The former Eurocrat charged that "the thinking that lies behind Maastricht rejects the benefits of international competition. It rejects the role of markets and it buttresses the unaccountable power of Central Bankers and of increasingly unaccountable political institutions whether they be at the European level or, sad to say, at the national level."

According to Mr. Connolly, the Eurostatists "have mapped out a clear path for themselves. They mapped it out in the 1940s. They have stuck to it. They are not going to abandon it. They will be damned rather than abandon it." "At some point," he warned, "we as a nation have to decide whether we are going to go along with this economic madness. Are we going to throw ourselves off the cliff? Are we going to acquiesce in the final denunciation of national sovereignty or not?" At almost the same time that Connolly was delivering his important lecture, another similarly significant speech was being delivered to Parliament by the former Speaker of the House of Commons, Viscount Tonypandy. He did not mince words: "Membership of the European Union is ferocious for us. It has severely weakened our balance-of-payments. It has reduced our political and economic rights to a pale shadow of what they were.... When this Parliament passed an Act preventing Spanish fishermen from sailing under our flag and stealing the quota of fish allotted to us, the European Court of Justice in Luxembourg declared the Act illegal — an Act passed by the British Parliament — and told us we had no business to do it." If any foreign court had tried to overrule the sovereign rights of our Parliament as late as the 1970s it would have been told to jump in the river. What has happened to us that we now submit to overruling by foreign courts with a docility that is a disgrace to the "Bulldog Breed"?

"Europe," said the former Speaker of the House, "has almost destroyed our fishing industry. It has played havoc with our farmers; it has destroyed the living standards of thousands of our citizens; it has diminished the standing of our Parliament and the stature of our Law Lords. They used to be supreme. Now they must doff their caps to Spain, Italy, and Germany, because they know they can be overruled. That ought to make us hide our heads in shame." Unfortunately, Tonypandy's speech was completely spiked — censored — by the insider-controlled British press. Mr. Connolly's book and the speeches and essays of most other Euromania opponents have likewise gotten the silent treatment. But that should not surprise. Professor Quigley outlined in his books how the Rhodes-Milner network acquired control of much of the press decades ago — and ruthlessly wielded this control to advance its covert agenda. This insidious relationship was underscored at the 1991 meeting of the secret Bilderberg Group at Sand, Germany. The annual Bilderberg meetings have provided an important vehicle by which the European Union and other globalist schemes of the network have been advanced over the past 40 years. The French periodical Lectures Francaises managed to obtain the address by David Rockefeller, longtime chairman of the CFR and leader of the American Establishment, to this coterie of elite one-Worlders:

"We are grateful to the Washington Post, the New York Times, Time magazine, and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years. It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the World if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during these years. But the World is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a World government which will never again know war, but only peace and prosperity for the whole of humanity. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and World Bankers is surely preferable to the national auto determination practiced in the past centuries. It is also our duty to inform the press of our convictions as to the historic future of the century." Americans who rely on this prostitute press will find themselves soon facing the same predicament that now confronts the bewildered people of the steadily encroaching European super state. The insiders' kept media, which has for years been hymning the praises of the European Union, has now also turned up the volume and tempo of its propaganda blasts for a "common market" and "free trade area" for the Americas stretching from Alaska to Tierra del Fuego.

Seven Days in May on April 17, 1995

Still, still, still, still, still, still skeptical? Well, here's something more to consider!

A brave police supervisor was stabbed 17 times to death on his way to reveal the FBI's involvement in the Oklahoma City bombing. Furthermore, two days before the Oklahoma bloodshed, on April 17, 1995, a plane-load of top military brass were murdered when their sabotaged plane blew up near Alexander City, Alabama. It was a real life version of "Seven Days in May". According to federal grand jurors interviewed by Sherman Skolnick, there was an attempt, later blocked, by a grand jury to investigate this aborted coup. It was actually part of a series of events involving twenty four Admirals and Generals, some of the most patriotic flag officers in the history of this Republic. They vowed, under the Uniform Military Code, to arrest their Commander-in-Chief Bill Clinton, for his various acts of treason aiding and abetting sworn enemies of the United States who are working to bring about the Illuminati New World Order.

If Clinton had them arrested for mutiny, they were prepared, if not assassinated, to defend themselves with their heavily documented charges of his treachery against the U.S. Constitution and the people of the United States. The purpose to pull off a coup was NOT to install a junta [pronounced HOON-tah], that is, an evil military dictatorship. Rather, to restore by necessary force the American Republic, which has gone down hill since the overthrow, by the American secret political police, of the U.S. government, by way of the murder in 1963 of President John F. Kennedy. In the months and years that followed the Alexander City incident, some ten like-minded Admirals, Generals, and other officials and former officials, were assassinated. Such as, Admiral Jeremy Boorda, Chief of Naval Operations, the highest naval officer in uniform. Such as General David McCloud, head of the Alaska Military District. Such as, former Director of Central Intelligence, DCI, William Colby. Sherman Skolnick's interviews with their family members, relatives, and confidants convince us of the validity of this report. The oil-soaked monopoly press wrote off their demise as "airplane accidents", "suicide", and "boat accident".

On May 16, 1996, US Navy Admiral in Chief Jeremy (Mike) Boorda supposedly "committed suicide" outside his Washington home. The "elite" media dutifully reported he was distraught over allegations one of his medals was bogus. More likely he was murdered because he opposed the Illuminati New World Order and the CIA's use of US Navy ships to transport drugs and he had a meeting with both Newsweek and President Clinton that very afternoon he was murdered. Now let's look at Pentagon casualties on 9-11. On September 10, 2001, just one day before 9-11, The Washington Times ran a front-page story "US troops would enforce peace under Army study." The Times quoted officers in the Army's School of Advanced Military Studies (SAMS). Commenting on the Mossad, Israel's intelligence/dirty trick service, the SAMS officers said: "Wildcard. Ruthless and cunning. Has capability to target US forces and make it look like a Palestinian/Arab act." On April 4, 2002, Carol Valentine wrote to the Army's School of Advanced Military Studies, asking, among other things, if the Washington Times story was true. The next day reply from SAMS: The SAMS public relations officer said that The Times' article was misleading because it failed to mention "the Army study" was an academic exercise.

But the SAMS's "academic exercise" explanation tell us something even more significant about the Army: That within SAM's ranks, and within its critically important officer training ranks, the propensities of the Nation of Israel can be openly discussed, without fear of the "anti-Semitism" smear. It seems that there is still freedom of thought, freedom of inquiry, and freedom of speech within U.S. Army officer ranks. This says that certain elements within the Army were not under Israel's heel -- or at least they were not prior to 9-11. The Israelis surely must have known about that Army situation. That situation could be extremely dangerous to Israel. One way to handle the danger would be to send a shot across the bows of the Army, a shot which might communicate: "Shut up." It would be even better to liquidate some of the particularly troublesome Army personnel, too. The Army's Personnel division was heavily hit on 9-11. New York Times article: "The Army suffered the heaviest losses, including Lt. Gen. Timothy J. Maude, a three-star general who headed the Army's personnel division, according to officials. Altogether, 21 Army soldiers and officers and 53 civilians who worked in the Department of the Army were killed, many of them from the service's budget and personnel offices."

Those Army personnel officers may have had a list of names of people whose security clearances the Zionists wanted to yank. They may have had other information that Israel wanted squashed. According to the flagship Zionist publication the Washington Post, the entire chain of command of the super secret "Chief of Naval Operations Intelligence Plot" were killed on September 11. ("The Last Watch," January 20, 2002, front page of Style section, quoted above.) Naval Intelligence was the base from which Israeli spy Jonathan Pollard operated. Remember, it was Naval Intelligence that caught Pollard and Naval Intelligence that insisted the FBI arrest him. How many patriotic Naval Intelligence types had an attitude adjustment on September 11, 2001?

Still, still, still, still, still, still skeptical? Is the conspiracy too monstrous to be believable? Well, let's continue even if you are still skeptical. I'm sure you will find this exploratory journey very enjoyable, educational and entertaining.

Next a footnote About Donald Rumsfeld Meeting with Saddam: Bait & Switch

We have already seen Mr. Rumsfeld's love for torture (Abu Ghraib). Currently, Rumsfeld is raking in the money from the Bird Flu vaccine. Now more from the past...

How the Illuminati "bait & switch"

In Nov 1983, U.S. Secretary of State George Shultz knew how Saddam Hussein's troops were resorting to almost daily use of chemical weapons in their war against the Iranians. On December 20, Rumsfeld (then the CEO of pharmaceutical giant Searle who promoted the war chemical cancer-causing Aspartame) met with Saddam Hussein, not to lecture the dictator about his use of weapons or the fine print of the Geneva Conventions, but to talk business. The meeting opened the door to shipments of dual-use munitions, chemical & biological agents. In a recently released investigative report from the Institute for Policy Studies researchers Jim Vallette, Steve Kretzmann, and Daphne Wysham detail that Rumsfeld, under direct instructions from the White House, was there to convince Saddam Hussein to approve a highly lucrative, and highly secret, oil pipeline project from Iraq to Jordan for Bechtel and Halliburton, which he eventually did not approve. Here is some more on Rumsfeld, Searle and Aspartame (details in Introduction III).

Today we have "Nutra-Sweet", which is widely used in a plethora of consumables, despite a demonstrated neurological reaction in some people. In February 1996, it was decided to also use the product name "Benevia". It is estimated that as many as 20,000,000 people cannot metabolize phenylalimine, and this inability is genetically inherited by children. The inability to metabolize phenylalimine can lead to mental retardation in children. This means a risk of retardation for millions of children. No long term studies have been performed to evaluate the physiological effects of this substance, yet the public is lead to believe it is absolutely safe.
<http://www.mercola.com/article/aspartame/fraud.htm>

Technically, the chemical is called aspartame, and it was once on a Pentagon list of biowarfare chemicals submitted to Congress. Aspartame is in over 4,000 products Worldwide and is consumed by over 200 million people in the United States alone.

Rumsfeld, Searle and Aspartame: Keeping you in poor health

Aspartame is produced by G.D. Searle Company, founded in 1888 and located in Skokie, Illinois. It is about 200 times sweeter than the refined sugar that it is meant to replace, and it is known to erode intelligence and affect short-term memory. It is essentially a chemical weapon designed to impact populations en masse. It is an rDNA derivative made from two amino acids, L-phenylalanine, L-aspartic acid and methanol. Originally discovered during a search for an ulcer drug in 1966, it was "approved" by the FDA in 1974 as a "food additive". Approval was followed by a retraction based on demonstrated public concern over the fact that the substance produced brain tumors in rats. According to the 1974 FDA task force set up to examine aspartame and G.D.Searle, "we have uncovered serious deficiencies in Searles operations and practices, which undermine the basis for reliance on Searle's integrity in conducting high quality animal research to accurately determine the toxic potential of its products." The task force report concluded with the recommendation that G.D. Searle should face a Grand Jury "to identify more particularly the nature of the violations, and to identify all those responsible." In 1976, an FDA "task force" brought into question all of G.D. Searle's aspartame testing procedures conducted between 1967 and 1975. The final FDA report noted faulty and fraudulent product testing, knowingly misrepresented product testing, knowingly misrepresented findings, and instances of irrelevant animal research. In other word, illegal criminal activity. Understandably scared, Searle officials sought to suppress the FDA findings and obstruct justice. They turned to Nixon and Ford administration operative Donald Rumsfeld and elected him "chairman of the Searle organization." In 1977, the Wall Street Journal detailed the fact that Rumsfeld made efforts to "mend fences" by asking "what Searle could do" in the face of the changes. Also in 1977, Dr. Adrian Gross, a pathologist working for the FDA, uncovered evidence that G.D.Searle might have committed criminal fraud in withholding adverse data on aspartame.

The FDA requested that U.S. Attorney Samuel Skinner be hired to investigate Searle's aspartame testing procedures in January 1977. Samuel Skinner was the federal prosecutor responsible for convincing the Grand Jury to investigate whether Searle willfully and criminally withheld data that cast doubt on the safety of aspartame. In February 1977, Skinner met with Searle attorneys at the Chicago law firm of Sidney & Austin. Suddenly, newly elected President Carter announced that Skinner would not remain in office, and Skinner thereafter announced that he would be hired by Sidney & Austin. Obviously, Skinner then had to reclude himself from the Searle prosecution. The case was taken over by U.S. Attorney William Conlon, who essentially sat on the case, despite complaints from the Justice Department, which was urging that a grand jury be convened to prosecute Searle Company for falsifying Nutra-Sweet test data. Failing to perform his duty, Conlon also joined Searle's law firm in January 1979.

Skinner's defection from the FDA might have been prompted by the results of the review of the Searle studies. David Hattan, deputy director of the FDA Division of Toxicological Review and Evaluation, concedes that anyone reading the original FDA investigation reports is likely to be "shocked" by what they reveal. He says that the ensuing review of the Searle studies, in which he was involved from the time of his arrival in 1978, was one of the most thorough in the agency's history. It included an unprecedented hearing before a public board of inquiry composed of experts from outside the agency. Arthur Hayes, Jr., then Commissioner of the FDA appointed by Reagan, agreed with Searle and the FDA's Bureau of Foods (now the Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition) that "an appropriate analysis of the data showed no significant increases in tumor incidence in rats exposed to aspartame or DKP, one of the breakdown products of aspartame. The board of inquiry rejected concerns that aspartame's components could cause neurological damage.[4]

In 1981, under pressure from the soft drink lobby, FDA Commissioner Hayes approved the initial use of aspartame in dry foods and as a tabletop sweetener, discounting public complaints as anecdotal and ignoring three FDA scientists.[5] who voiced the fact that there were serious questions concerning brain tumor tests after having done an in-house study. Hayes was widely profiled as a man who believed that approval for new drugs and additives was "too slow" because "the FDA demanded too much information." Hayes also ignored the fact that the biased scientific studies paid for by Searle were faulty.[6] After leaving the FDA, Hayes took the post of senior medical consultant for the public relations firm retained by Searle..[7] A subsequent inquiry "found no impropriety".

Supreme Court Collusion in Aspartame Cover-up Clarence Thomas Former Monsanto Lawyer

In 1986, the Washington Post reported that the Supreme Court refused to consider arguments that the FDA had not followed proper procedures in approving aspartame, despite arguments that the product "may cause brain damage." (Supreme Court obstructing Justice). Since Bush-nominated Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas is a former attorney for Monsanto [9], it is unlikely that hundreds of millions of people will find redress. There are also indications of ties between Monsanto and elements in the CIA.

University of Illinois Fraudulent Study on Aspartame

In August of 1987, the University of Illinois, a recipient of funding from Monsanto, issued a study "exonerating aspartame of causing seizures in laboratory animals." The fact that they were paid by Monsanto automatically invalidates the results. U.S. Senate hearings in 1987 showed that G.D.Searle used "psychological strategy" to get regulators at the FDA "into a yes-saying habit" to "bring them into a subconscious spirit of participation." [10] More than half of 69 medical researchers polled by the FDA in 1987 said they were concerned about aspartame's safety.[11]

FDA Ignores Complaints of Neurological Symptoms

In 1989, the FDA received over 4,000 complaints from people who described adverse reactions. Because the FDA conveniently lists aspartame as a "food additive", it removes the legal requirement for adverse effect reporting to any Federal agency and the necessity for safety monitoring processes. Research also indicates that aspartame, when combined with glutamine products (such as MSG, widely used in foods) increase the likelihood of brain damage occurring in children.[12]

Aspartame Affecting Airline Pilots

Some of the more interesting developments in 1989 surfaced in the Palm Beach Post on October 14th, where an article by Dr. H.J. Robert described several recent aircraft accidents involving confusion and aberrant pilot behavior caused by ingestion of products containing aspartame.[13] Soft drink makers were notified of this problem in 1991. It is interesting to note that after Samuel Skinner left Sidney & Austin, Searle's law firm, he was appointed Secretary of Transportation. Hence, he was in charge of the FAA, just in time to head off complaints from pilots affected by aspartame. His wife was employed by Sidney & Austin. Later as George Bush's Chief of Staff in 1991, during the Gulf War, he was in a position to head off all inquiries relative to aspartame, no matter where they were directed - to the FDA, FAA or Department of Defense. This constitutes criminal negligence and racketeering. George Bush, of course, was an ex-director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

British News: "NutraSweet Tests Faked"

On July 20, 1990, an article in the national British newspaper The Guardian, entitled "NutraSweet test results 'faked'", revealed that the British government had finally been persuaded to review the safety of aspartame after "receiving a dossier of evidence highlighting its potential dangers." According to The Guardian, the dossier alleged that laboratory tests were falsified, tumors were removed from laboratory animals and animals were 'restored to life' in laboratory records.[14] The dossier against NutraSweet was compiled by Erik Millstone, a lecturer at the Science Policy Research Unit at Sussex University and author of two books on food additives. It was based on thousands of pages of evidence, much of which was obtained under the Freedom of Information Act. The COT, Committee on Toxicity, was at the time looking into consumption of artificial sweeteners and did not possess the key documents covering alleged mishandling of the safety tests which Millstone was asked to provide. The British Ministry of Agriculture and Department of Health have never revealed the evidence upon which approval was given in England for the distribution of aspartame, maintaining that "these are matters of commercial confidence." The British government does not testing of its own but relies on safety tests provided by the manufacturer, which of course constitutes a conflict of interest. The 1990 article quoted the British Department of Health as saying "NutraSweet is not a health hazard on the available evidence, but people do suffer 'ideosyncratic reactions' to food additives." Interestingly, it was pointed out that three out of 14 members of the Committee on Toxicity have direct or indirect links with the artificial sweetener industry, according to David Clark, the Labour Party Agriculture spokesman, who requested a Parliamentary Answer to address questions of conflict of interest. Aspartame is also sold in England under the product name "Canderel." In 1990, the market for aspartame in England was estimated at £800 million.

Dosing of the Military in the Gulf War

During the 1991 Gulf War, all military personnel were provided free supplies of aspartame-laced soft drinks together with experimental vaccines, nerve gas antidotes and personal insecticides. They were also treated to direct biochemical warfare compounds. The result is Gulf War Syndrome, which is communicable and deadly, and 50,000 military personnel and their dependents are wasting away before our eyes. Criminal negligence? Of course. Criminal conspiracy? Yes. Genocide? Probably - we're waiting to see.

Aspartame Alters Brain Chemicals That Affect Behavior

Independent tests on animals have shown that aspartame alters brain chemicals that also affect behavior. The chemical nature of aspartame was also shown to defeat its own alleged "purpose" as a "diet aid", since high doses instill a craving for calorie-laden carbohydrates. Then, the aspartame-carbohydrate combination further increases the effect of aspartame on the brain.[15]

Fraudulent Claims of Aspartame as a "Diet Aid"

Interestingly, even the American Cancer Society confirmed that users of artificial sweeteners gained more weight than those who didn't use the products, further undermining the supposed "purpose" for the existence of aspartame in the food.[16] Haven't we heard this kind of criminal fraud before? The major selling point of aspartame is as a diet aid, and it has been demonstrated that the use of this product actually causes people to consume more food. Normally, when significant quantities of carbohydrate are consumed, serotonin levels rise in the brain. This is manifested as a relaxed feeling after a meal. When aspartame is ingested with carbohydrates, such as having a sandwich with a diet drink, aspartame causes the brain to cease production of serotonin, meaning that the feeling of having had enough never materializes. You then eat more foods, many containing aspartame, and the cycle continues. Monsanto's profit from its NutraSweet Division was $993 million in 1990.

Governments Continue Suppression and Cover-up on Aspartame

In 1991, the National Institutes of Health.[17] listed 167 symptoms and reasons to avoid the use of aspartame , but today it is a multi-million dollar business that contributes to the degeneration of the human population, as well as the deliberate suppression of overall intelligence, short-term memory[18] and the added contribution as a carcinogenic environmental co-factor. The FDA and the Centers for Disease Control continue to receive a stream of complaints from the population about aspartame. It is the only chemical warfare weapon available in mass quantities (should keep the cone-heads happy) on the grocery shelf and promoted in the media. It has also been indicated that women with an intolerance for phenylalanine, one of the components of aspartame, may give birth to infants with as much as a 15% drop in intelligence level if they habitually consume products containing this dangerous substance.[19]

FAA Collusion in Suppression of Facts on Aspartame

The March 1995 issue of The Pacific Flyer published a pro-aspartame article in which it stated, "The Federal Aviation Administration conducted its own cognitive research and, according to experts, found no contraindications that would prevent pilots, or anyone, from ingesting aspartame." This flies in the face of consistent reports from pilots who maintain they have suffered severe and dangerous repercussions in the air after drinking soft drinks containing aspartame. Virtually every time, symptoms disappeared when aspartame-laced drinks were discontinued.[20] Over 600 pilots have reported this problem.

FDA "Findings" on Aspartame Remain Based on Faked Tests

So, the faked Searle tests remain. The FDA bases its findings on the faked Searle tests, and the Journal of the American Medical Association, examining the FDA findings, based on the faked Searle tests, announced "the consumption of aspartame poses no health risk for most people." Searle officials argue that the use of aspartame as an artificial sweetener "has been officially approved not only by the FDA, but by foreign regulatory agencies and the World Health Organization" - based on Searle-sponsored aspartame research, not independently conducted tests.

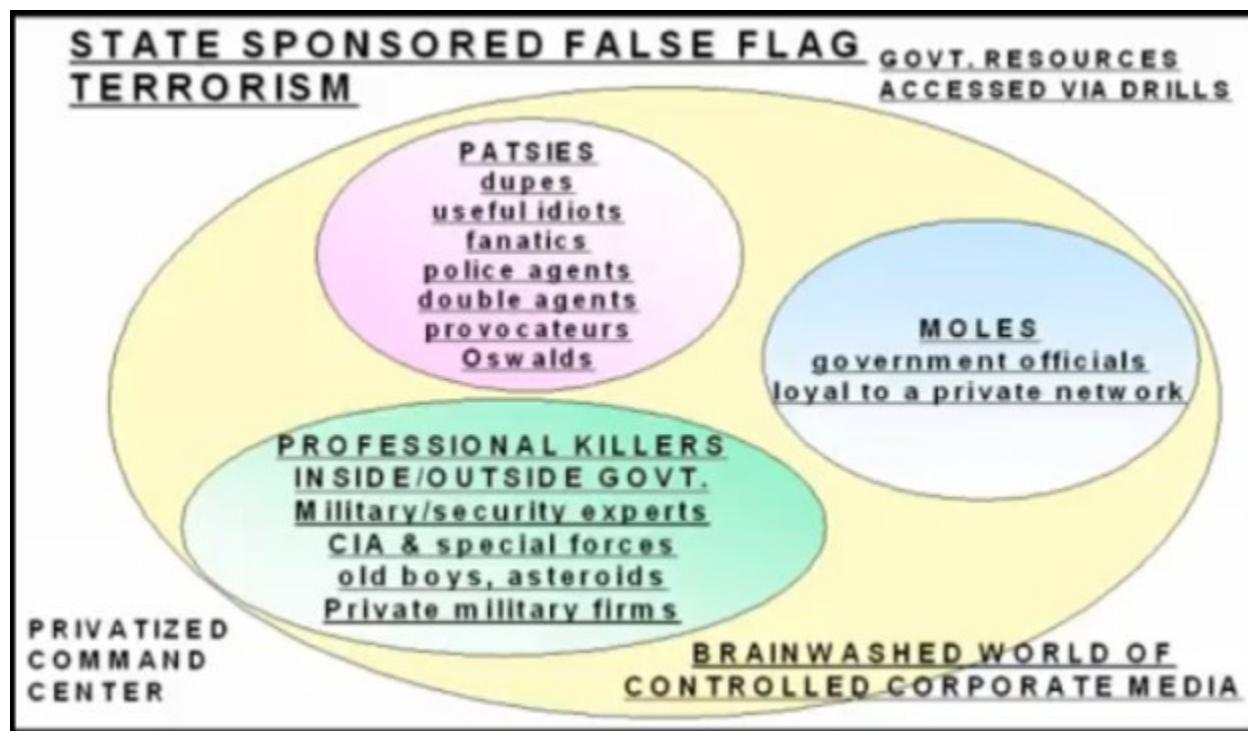

Symptoms of Aspartame Intoxication: Minimal to Severe

The symptoms of aspartame intoxication include severe headaches, nausea, vertigo, insomnia, loss of control of limbs, blurred vision, blindness, memory loss, slurred speech, mild to severe depression often reaching suicidal levels, hyperactivity, gastrointestinal disorders, seizures, skin lesions, rashes, anxiety attacks, muscle and joint pain, numbness, mood changes, loss of energy, menstrual cramps out of cycle, hearing loss or ringing in the ears, loss or change of taste, and symptoms similar to those in a heart attack. In addition, aspartic acid chelates (combines) with chromium - which is a necessary element for proper operation of the thyroid gland. People who consume large quantities of aspartame may end up with a false diagnosis of Graves disease and suffer allopathic irradiation of their thyroid gland for no reason. Complaints about aspartame represent 80-85% of all food complaints registered with the FDA. More than 6,000 complaints have been made concerning the effects of aspartame. Thirty independent doctors and scientists have conducted research on the adverse effects of aspartame or have compiled supporting data against its use. The use of NutraSweet® or Equal® should be seriously curtailed or stopped.

Aspartame Use Part of Planetary Biomedical Genocide

The fact that tons of aspartame is pumped into the World population each year, knowingly and deliberately, especially with the historical and documented record of fraud and misrepresentation, constitutes a conspiracy of the highest order, as well as criminal negligence. The rewards of continued use are increased profits for the medical and pharmaceutical industries and chemical companies who produce aspartame and treat people suffering from the effect of it. Aspartame is the only biochemical warfare product on grocery shelves. And, the band plays on Money and greed strike again.

Still, still, still, still, still, still skeptical? Are you sure you want to keep believing the Bush/Sharon & company lies that are promoted by the Zionist control media?

IMPORTANT NOTE: Babylonian Synagogue of Satan Confusion on Zionism & Anti-Semitism?

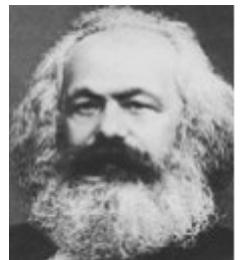

The Zionism hoax was created to plant converted European Jews (Khazaria 8th Century A.C.) labeled as "god's chosen people" in the Middle East as a new front-line for European Colonialism. Sir Campbell Bannerman, Prime Minister of Britain [1905-08] said in 1902: "There are people who control spacious territories teeming with manifest and hidden resources. They dominate the intersections of World routes. Their lands were the cradles of human civilizations and religions. These people have one faith, one language, one history and the same aspirations. No natural barriers can isolate these people from one another ... if, per chance, this nation were to be unified into one state, it would then take the fate of the World into its hands and would separate Europe from the rest of the World. Taking these considerations seriously, a foreign body should be planted in the heart of this nation to prevent the convergence of its wings in such a way that it could exhaust its powers in never-ending wars. It could also serve as a springboard for the West to gain its coveted objects."

"Zionism is but an incident of a far reaching plan," said leading American Zionist Louis Marshall, counsel for bankers Kuhn Loeb in 1917. "It is merely a convenient peg on which to hang a powerful weapon." The far-reaching plan is Illuminati World dictatorship. The Illuminati is the highest echelon of Freemasonry, an occult secret society dedicated to Lucifer. The World's central bankers have intermarried with the richest dynastic families of Europe and America to bring about World hegemony. They instigated wars and depressions to degrade and destroy humanity. The American people have been financing their wars since 1914.

"The Jewish people as a whole will become its own Messiah. It will attain World dominion by the dissolution of other races, by the abolition of frontiers, the annihilation of monarchy and by the establishment of a World republic in which the Jews will everywhere exercise the privilege of citizenship. In this New World Order the [alleged] "children of Israel" will furnish all the leaders without encountering opposition. The Governments of the different peoples forming the World republic will fall without difficulty into the hands of the Jews. It will then be possible for the Jewish rulers to abolish private property and everywhere to make use of the resources of the state. Thus will the promise of the Talmud be fulfilled, in which is said that when the Messianic time is come, the Jews will have all the property of the whole World in their hands." -Baruch Levy, Letter to Karl Marx, 'La Revue de Paris', p.574, June 1, 1928

The Zionist manifesto and the Protocols were written by atheist Jew Theodor Herzl under the Rothschild Banking Dynasty's sponsorship. Zionist Theodor Herzl "We Will Lead Every Revolution Against Us". Lest the BankLords try to hide behind accusations of anti-Semitism, let's clear any confusion related to this "weapon of accusations" and expose the real anti-Semites, i.e. the Illuminati gang of Zionists, whilst the real Semites are Middle-Eastern Arabs! You will find that Jews who expose the evil behind Zionism are persecuted by Zionists. Zionism is in fact SIONism, Sion, = the Sun (pagan worship of the Sun god), hence the name of the elite secret society behind the "Merovingian" bloodline (from 5th century French nobility), the Priory of Sion. Contrary to most people's understanding, Zionism is not about the Jewish people. Many Jews are not Zionists and many non-Jews are. Zionism is a Masonic political movement, not a race. To say Zionism is the Jewish people is like saying the Democratic Party is the American people. Jewish people who oppose Zionism, however, have been given a very hard time. Zionism is an Illuminati front against the True Torah Jews, Christians and Muslims. Here are the lyrics to a song explaining the Zionist deception. <http://www.myspace.com/idreamofapocalypse>. It addresses the Blind Obedience the Average Jew gives to Zionism, Holocaust guilt, and the general burdens Jews are forced to endure from infancy. Now, it is a crazy thrash metal song which may be too intense for middle-aged folks, so here's also the lyrics;

Pavlov's Jews - "Never again" and "Never forget" words that sanction any dark deed They use the Holocaust to justify their crime And you're too afraid to challenge their lies - Zionist criminals cloak themselves in Judaism, banking on credulity they hand-feed you propaganda. - Members of the Diaspora bonded by burden not by blood - We are made insane by the mountains of martyrs dumped upon our poor blank slates. - Don't research history just believe what they say like a good little dog they know that you'll obey - (bell jingles) Pavlov's Jew Pavlov's Jews - Bark when they say bark Jump when they say jump - Don't think for yourself Leave that up to someone else - Pavlov's Jews Pavlov's Jews - You don't see the danger lurking in the distance - We'll die for their crimes they'll hide and survive - They scream anti-Semite and then it's time to hate - When they cry poor you rush to donate. - The guilt oozes through your veins - Praise your masters tugging the reigns. - Crushed by the burden of historical guilt lifetime of good deeds impossible to surmount. - We never made a commitment but always feel obligated haunted by infamous slaughters like Granada in 1066. - Pogroms and massacres Details to be memorized "By deception thou shalt do war" Is Mossad at the door? - Attack! Attack! We're always under attack But maybe there's a reason every hundred years some country kicks our ass! - Refuse to play the part scripted for a Jew commit a worse sin than a Christian, Muslim, or Hindu. - But maybe this generation will not be afraid maybe we'll see who we truly ought to hate. - Be different from the different Choose to be unchosen. - lyrics copyright 2007 I Dream of Apocalypse.

Joe Wood, African-American author: "Telling the truth is not anti-Semitic. Am I right?" In fact, Jews, Christians, Moslems, etc. as used a cannon fodder by the Zionists!

The phrase "All men are created equal" is arguably the single most well-known in any of America's political documents, since the idea it expresses is generally considered the foundation of American democracy. The phrase in context in the opening of the Declaration of Independence, penned by Thomas Jefferson in 1776, reads as follows: We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. These statements illustrate the idea of natural rights, a philosophical concept coming into favor in America as well as elsewhere. Many of the ideas in the Declaration were, in fact, borrowed from John Locke, a prominent philosopher of the time. The phrase has since been considered a hallmark statement in democratic constitutions and similar human rights instruments, many of which have adopted the phrase (or similar variants). Examples:

Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen (1789), article 1: Men are born and remain free and equal in rights. Social distinctions can be founded only on the common utility. Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948), article 1: All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights

For the scripture saith, "Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Israelite and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him" (10:11-12). "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (10:13). God loves every man. All men are equal. There are no chosen people. However, Zionists have created the myth of the superior Chosen People which is contrary to the Torah, Bible, The Quran and the human spirit.

True Torah Jews Against Zionism Speak Out

Here are some of the websites of Jews against Zionism which shows that Zionism (Babylonian Talmudism) has hijacked the true Torah Monotheistic faith:

Jews Against Zionism protesting against Ariel Sharon in Jerusalem Jan

28, 2003. Background sign: "Israeli government: stop oppressing religious Jewry in the State of Israel." Jews Against Zionism protesting against Zionism in New York Feb 12, 2002.

For decades Zionists have imposed their power upon the Jewish people, forced by the Zionist tactics to leave their homes and move to Israel, losing their wealth, their liberty, and their faith. The imposition of Zionist power continues to this day. Rabbi Joseph Dershowitz said that rather than immigrate the Jews of the World to Israel, why not peacefully re-assimilate the Jews of 'Israel' to the countries from which they came, and where, according to Jewish law and belief, they should have remained in exile and peace could prevail throughout the World. The sympathizers and supporters of the Zionist cause, however well-intentioned, are actually the Jews' worst enemies. It's time to return to reality and truth. The Zionist movement is costing innocent lives. It is time for the Zionists to "let our people go". The Jewish people and the Jewish Religion have the right to defend themselves against Zionism. It is time to exercise those rights. Enough is enough! True Torah Jews is an international, nonprofit organization of thousands of steadfast Jews who are true to Torah and Judaism. They are dedicated to spreading the word to the people of the World that not all Jews support the Zionist State. It is their hope that through this knowledge and understanding peace may be achieved. They have organized demonstrations in Washington, DC to protest Sharon's visit and outside the Israeli consulate in NY where an estimated 20,000 orthodox Jews voiced their opposition. Recently, they took an ad out in the Washington Post and published an open letter to President Bush stating that "there is a silent majority of Jews opposed to Zionism" and requested "that the State of Israel be referred to not as a Jewish state but as a Zionist state." They "deplore acts and policies carried out by those - misusing the name of Israel - have substituted the ideal of nationalism for the teachings of the Holy Torah."

In their ad Jan, 2004 on WABC radio in NY they state, "It is the position of Torah True Jews that Jews do not need a state of their own. They believe that the establishment of a sovereign Jewish state is a grave violation of Jewish law. Please note that in some of the quotes (taken in context, not out-of-context) and extracts taken from other sources, the word "Jews" is actually used to denote Zionists. Here is an example: "We are god's chosen people . . . Most Jews do not like to admit it, but our god is Lucifer -- so I wasn't lying -- and we are his chosen people. Lucifer is very much alive." This is a statement made by Zionist Harold Wallace Rosenthal in 1976 during an interview he gave to Walter White Jr. Mr. Harold Wallace Rosenthal, age 29, the administrative assistant to Senator Jacob K. Javits of New York was conveniently killed in an alleged sky-jacking attempt on an Israeli airliner in Istanbul, Turkey, August 12, 1976, I guess because he talked too much. The full text of the interview is available at http://www.antichristconspiracy.com/HTML%20Pages/Harold_Wallace_Rosenthal_Interview_1976.htm . Don't forget to substitute the word Zionist instead of Jew. Zionists like to masquerade as Jews to shift the blame.

Conflicting Meanings of the Word "Jew" (Iew – Edom) and Confusion on What is Judaism?

Contrary to the Zionist propaganda, Jews are not Israelites. They are Edomites/ Yahphites/ Ashkenites/ Khazarites/ Gog/ Magog tribes. Over 90% of modern Jews are ASHKENAZI (Ashke-Nazi) and are not descended from Shem (Sem-ites), but from Japheth's grandson Ashkenaz –

King of kings' Bible – Genesis 10:1: Now these [are] the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem (Sem-ites), Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood.

10:2: The sons of JAPHETH; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

10:3: And the sons of Gomer; ASHKENAZ, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

Herod the Edomite murdered the last Israelite King of Judah in 121 B.C.. From that time onwards, Edomites/ Yaphites/ Asheknites/ Khazarites/ Gog/ Magog tribes have been masquerading as Israelites. In the time of Yashuah-Jesus-Issad, about 2000 years ago, the inhabitants of Jerusalem and Judaea, and their ruler king Herod, were Edomites (sons of Esau not Jacob/Israel) and thus were counterfeit-Israelites, who had stolen the land from the "House of Judah" whilst the House of Judah had been in slavery in Babylon and the Idumeans were pretending to be Israelites when they were really Edomites (Idumeans) - sons of Esau (who had sold his birth-right to his younger brother Jacob in exchange for a bowl of soup).

The proof of this comes out of their own mouths when they say to Jesus in John 8:24 that they were never in bondage, when we know that the House of Judah was in bondage twice: first in Egypt, along with the other eleven Tribes of Israel and second in Babylon in the 6th. century B.C. as "The House of Judah" after "The House of Israel" had already been taken off the Holy Land into bondage in Assyria 200 years earlier.

King of kings' Bible John 8:24: They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

Jesus condemned them and warned the world against them in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9.

King of kings' Bible – Revelation 2:9: I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and [I know] the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are NOT, but [are] (Idumeans) the synagogue of Satan.

3:9: Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are NOT, but do LIE (Idumeans); behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

In the 8th century AD the Khazar nation descended from Ashkenaz, who lived North of the Caucasian Mountains, well outside the Holy Land, converted en-masse to BabylonianTalmudic Judaism and since then have inter-married with the Edomites and like the Edomites falsely claim to be descendants of Jacob/Israel's son Judah.

In a time when "children" are the big focus in the country, the historical pagan sacrifice of children to Baal becomes relevant. Baal was the power worshipped by the Canaanites as God. He is the bull god and is represented by a bull. He is half man and half bull, the god of fertility (the Sun God). In Egypt he was known as the Son of the Nile or Ra. He possessed Akhnaton (i.e. he who is pleasing to Aton), the husband of Nefertiti (i.e. possessed by Ashtaroh). Nefertiti was the originator of the Rosicrucians and the Masons. Baal promotes false religion and religious prostitution (as well as shrine prostitutes). J. P. Timmons, Mysterious Secrets of the Dark Kingdom p. 114 (1991).

Moloc was a Canaanite deity associated with human sacrifices. Mainly, child sacrifices. A bronze statue with the head of an ox and body of a man was erected, and infants would be placed in it to burn. Moloch may have been the Baal-Hammon worshiped in the cities of Tyre and Carthage. His name means "the lord of the altar of incense." He was usually shown as an old man with ram's horns, holding a scythe. Moloch was also thought to be the Adrammelech of Jewish legend. An idol form of the sun-god worshipped by the inhabitants of Sepharvaim (2 Kings 17:31), and brought by their colonists into Samaria, Adrammelech was turned into one of the ten archdemons, who appeared in animal forms such as a peacock, mule, horse, or lion.

In Milton's Paradise Lost, Uriel and Raphael vanquish Adrammelech in Book 6, line 3. "Touch of Evil"

Touch of evil
On the faithful bestowed
Burn for Moloch
Sacrificial inferno
Submitting the offspring
Swallowed in flames
Baptismal immolation
Another soul claimed Hell on earth
The pagan returns
To please the deity
Children shall burn
"Your children are mine
Placate me with them
You worshipped before
You will kneel again."
As the young are scorched
We welcome the end
The lord of the altar of incense unleashed
Apocalypse begins

Ham was persuaded by his consort Naamah, to practice ritual murder and cannibalism. The word "cannibalism" comes from Canaan and the demon god Baal. Eustace Mullins, The Curse of Canaan p. 12 (1987). By eating fair-skinned persons, he was told, his descendants would regain their superior qualities. Eustace Mullins, The Curse of Canaan p. 11 (1987).

The lands of Israel and southern Syria once formed the empire of the Canaanites and the early Phoenicians: "Archeologists have found evidence of a definite connection between the Canaanites and the Phoenicians, linking them to the Egyptians. The Canaanite pantheon of gods is similar to that of the Egyptians, the Hindus and the Builders." Norman Paulsen, Christ Consciousness p. 354 (1984).

Cain, "who was of that wicked one" (I John 3:12) was the first to use his inherent ability to do evil by killing His half-brother Abel, who was a servant of God. Likewise, the synagogue of Satan uses all manner of evil to harm the people of God, in their quest to take from Israel their God-given birthright. Why do they want this birthright? Because one of their Adamic forefathers sold his birthright to Jacob/Israel for a bowl of soup. Malachi 1:2-3 and Romans 9:13 tell us, "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." We read how Esau grieved his parents by marrying into the Canaanite line: "Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite: which were a grief of mind to Isaac and to Rebekah . . . and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite; and Basemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth" (Genesis 26:34-35; 36:2-3).

Esau was quite the mongrelizer. Though he was of the Adamic race and the blood of Abraham, "A little leaven leavens the whole lump" and he committed genocide by marrying into the bloodline of Canaan, "leavening" his progeny, the Edomites. Gensis 36:8, "Esau is Edom."

The Jewish Encyclopedia tells us that "Edom is in Modern Jewry". This witness from the 1905 edition records the connection between modern day Jews and the race of Edom: "Some anthropologists are inclined to associate the racial origins of the Jews, not with the Semites, whose language they adopted, but with the Armenians and Hittites of Mesopotamia, whose broad skulls and curved noses they appear to have inherited (Vol. X, p. 284). Thus Esau/Edom was now absorbed into the Canaanite people by means of his Hittite and Hivite wives. According to Strong's Concordance the word Canaan means "trader or merchant" and the Phoenicians, as Canaanites, are derived from Ham's incestuous relationship with Naamah the sister of Tubalcain, the wife Noah took with him in the Ark (Genesis 9:18-27; 10:6, 15-19).

Owing to the intermarriage of their forefathers with Canaanites, there were probably few Israelites without Phoenician, that is, Serpent's seed blood in their veins. Judges 3:5-6, "The children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites: and they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods". The Jews claimed to be the children of Abraham however that they were not true children of Abraham is certain when they say that they were never in bondage (John 8:32-33).

"Phoenician" is a Greek word connoting "palm tree" and as such does not appear in the Old Testament where the locals call themselves "Canaanites." The name Kennan is preserved on a coin of Laodicea, of the time of Antiochus Epiphanes, whereon Laodicea is styled, "a mother city in Canaan." The Phoenicians or Canaanites were the most powerful of all tribes in Palestine at the time of its invasion by Joshua. In speaking of their own territory as it was before the conquest the Israelites called it, "the land of Canaan." After the conquest the tendency developed to call only the coastal strip and the Jordan Valley the land of Canaan. As late as the second century AD the descendants of the Carthaginians in North Africa called themselves Canaanites. The term "Canaanite" came to denote the member of a Jewish sect who was a zelot or fanatic (Matthew 10:4).

The Phoenicians were the great maritime and commercial people of the ancient world, and pre-eminent in colonization. The Romans transcribed the Greek "phoenix" to "poenus", thus calling the emigres to Carthage "punic." Augustine of Hippo stated that the peasants in his part of Africa, if asked their race, would answer, in Punic or Phoenician, "Canaanites." In Hebrew "canaan" means, "merchant" or "trafficer," "to bend the knee," "bring down low," "humiliate" or "vanquish." Genesis 10:18, "the families of the Canaanites (would be scattered, vanquished, or) spread abroad".

Canaanite, Khazar and Edomite are all names that accurately refer to the majority of people who call themselves "Jews." The name Jew originally meant a resident of Judea regardless of religion or race, and has long since lost any association with a true Judahite. Jesus made this clear in Revelation 2:9, "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Judahites, and are not but are a synagogue of Satan." And 3:9, "I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Judahites and are not, but lie; indeed I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you".

The Phoenicians spoke a form of Aramaic. It was a Semitic language in common with the Israelites, Tyre, Sidon, Byblos and neighboring towns, and in other areas of the Mediterranean colonized by Phoenician people known as Aramaeans. It was most closely related to Hebrew, Syriac and Moabite which were written in a script derived from the Phoenician alphabet. The earliest Phoenician inscription deciphered dates probably from the 11th century BC; the latest inscription from Phoenicia proper is from the 1st century BC, when the language was already being superseded by Aramaic proper. The language spread to its colonies. In the North African city of Carthage, a later stage of the language, known as Pun (Latin—punica, poenica, Phoenician) which was influenced by the Berber, became the language of the Carthaginian empire. Phoenician survived in use as a vernacular in some of the smaller cities of North Africa at least until the time of St. Augustine, bishop of Hippo (5th century AD) and continued to be used by North African peasants until the 6th century AD. Phoenician words are found in Greek and Latin classical literature as well as in Egyptian, Accadian, and Hebrew writings. The language written in the 22-character alphabet adopted by the Hebrews does not indicate vowels.

In the Babylonian inscriptions the Accadians are called "the black heads" and "the black faces," in contrast to "the white race" of Semitic descent. They lived in southern Mesopotamia (present-day Iraq), and worshipped the Trinity as El (or ilu, the father god), Ea (god of the earth and creator of man) and Enlil (the god of the air). The early ilu can be seen as the Canaanite and Assyrian "El" for God, and also in Hebrew such as elohim and "El Shadai." The Sumerians who lived in the same region and date to the same period invented cuneiform writing, but were distinct from the Semitic Accadians, and spoke an unrelated language. Ea was known the Sumerians as "Enki." In Sumerian, En- denotes kingship the way we use "lord" in English. Enki means literally "lord of the earth." The Sumerian word lil can mean "air," "breath," or "spirit." The similarity between this Sumerian and Accadian Trinity and the Holy Spirit of the Roman Catholic form of the same Trinity should be obvious.

The pantheistic religion of the Phoenicians was a constant temptation to polytheism and idolatry. As a great commercial people, the Phoenicians were more generally intelligent and civilized than the inland agricultural population of Palestine. When simple-minded Jews without a revelation, came in contact with this more versatile and, apparently more enlightened people, some would tend to regard their exclusive devotion to the one God somewhat unsocial and morose. In some such way we must account for the astonishing fact that Solomon himself, the wisest man, to whom Jehovah is expressly stated to have appeared twice—once, not long after his marriage with an Egyptian princess, on the night after his sacrificing 1,000 burnt offerings on the high place of Gibeon, and the second time, after the consecration of the Temple—should have been so far beguiled by his wives in his old age as to become a polytheist, worshipping, among other deities, the Phoenician or Sidonian goddess Ashtaroth (I Kings 3:1-5; 9:2; 11:1-5). And probably, according to his own erroneous conceptions, he never ceased to regard himself as a loyal worshipper of Jehovah, but at the same time he deemed this not incompatible with sacrificing at the altars of other gods likewise. Still the fact remains, that Solomon, who by his Temple in its ultimate results did so much for establishing the doctrine of one God, died himself a practical polytheist. And if this was the case with him, Polytheism in other sovereigns of inferior excellence can excite no surprise. With such an example before him, it is no wonder that Ahab, an essentially bad man, should after his marriage with a Sidonian princess not only openly tolerate, but encourage, the worship of Baal. Jezebel, built a great temple with three altars, one for each of the Trinity, Baal, Astarte and Molock. And although, before the reformation of Josiah (II Kings 23), polytheism prevailed in Judah as well as Israel, yet it seems to have been more intense and universal in Israel, as might have been expected from its closer proximity to Phoenicia: and Israel is sometimes spoken of as if it had set the bad example to Judah (II Kings 17:19; Jeremiah 3:8).

The Phoenician religion sanctioned the dreadful superstition of burning children as sacrifices to their god. Jeremiah 19:5, "They have also built in the name of the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind." (Also see Jeremiah 32:35). More than 250 years after the death of Jeremiah, the Carthaginians, when their city was besieged by Agathocles, offered as burnt sacrifices to the planet Saturn, at the public expense, 200 boys of the highest aristocracy; and, subsequently, when they had obtained a victory, sacrificed the most beautiful captives in the like manner. Furthermore, parts of the Phoenician religion, especially the worship of Astarte, tended to encourage dissoluteness in the relations of the sexes. Connected with her temples and images there were male and female prostitutes, whose polluted gains formed part of the sacred fund appropriated to the service of the goddess. And, notwithstanding positive prohibitions and the repeated denunciations of the Hebrew prophets, previous to the reformation of Josiah, this class of persons was allowed to have houses or tents close to the temple of Jehovah, whose treasury was perhaps even replenished by their gains (II Kings 23:7; Deuteronomy 23:17-18; I Kings 14:24; 15:12; 21:46; Hosea 4:14).

The Canaanites originated the practices of demon-worship, occult rites, child sacrifice and cannibalism. Eustace Mullins, The Curse of Canaan p. 8 (1987). They sacrificed children to Molech (a Semitic god). Mike Warnke, Schemes of Satan p. 29 (1991). In Palestine numerous bodies of children were discovered in the foundations of buildings proving without doubt that oblations of this character were common among Canaanites to strengthen the walls of homes and cities. Edwin O. James, Sacrifice and Sacrament, p. 94 (1962). The priests of the Canaanites, to control the populace, claimed that the first-born children were to be sacrificed to their demon gods (Isaiah 57:3-5). They practiced their horrible rites in "groves" or "shrines" where they could "murder children without being seen and punished by the descendants of Shem" Eustace Mullins, The Curse of Canaan, p. 24 (1987).

Greece was first colonized by Ophites (or serpent worshippers both from Egypt and Phoenicia). Cadmus was the leader of the Canaanites who fled before the arms of the victorious Joshua (c. 1405BC). Joshua, the son of Nun, of the tribe of Ephraim was the leader of the Israelites in their conquest of the Promised Land. Cadmus was an Egyptian identical to Thoth. According to Herodotus, honey cakes were presented once a month as food to the sacred serpent in the Acropolis at Athens. A live serpent kept there was the guardian of the palace. Athena was a city specially consecrated to Minerva.

At Hazor in Galilee (c. 1300BC) a small Canaanite shrine contained a basalt stele depicting two hands lifted in prayer to a crescent moon. II Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia, p. 1148 (Moody Press 1975). The early Canaanites worshipped the Goddess Ashtoreth (Asherah, Astarte, Attoret, Anath, Elat, Baalat) as their chief divinity. Eleanor Rae & Bernice Marie- Daly, Created In Her Image p. 69 (1990). Around the sacred stone, which represented the goddess Astarte, hundreds of skeletons of human infants were found: "She was the goddess of untrammelled sexual love and first-born children and animals were sacrificed to her." M. Esther Harding, Women's Mysteries: Ancient and Modern, p. 138 (Shambhala: Boston and Shaftesbury 1990).

After about 1200BC the Canaanites vanished from history to reappear as the Phoenicians. As seemingly harmless merchant folk, they obtained a monopoly over purple dye (phoenikica was the Greek word for purple). Eustace Mullins, The Curse of Canaan, p. 25 (1987).

Under pressure from the great empires of the Assyrians, the Babylonians and the Greeks, the Phoenicians migrated to North Africa. They were great trading people, sailing immense cargo galley ships from Asia to Britain. They did not stop at the pillars of Hercules (Gibraltar) but sailed as far as 2,500 miles down the coast of Africa. These rich merchants provided funds for a large army and navy which transformed Carthage from a trading post into a great empire.

In the Iron Age, during the first Millennium BC, several small kingdoms prevailed in the area. The Edomites ruled southern Jordan; the Moabites settled in the centre of the country; the Amorites had their capital at Hisban, south of Amman; the Ammonites controlled the area around Amman; and the Kingdom of Gilead reigned in the northern region around the Zerqa River. The Arab Nabataeans established their kingdom in southern Jordan at the end of the 1st Millennium BC, with its secure capital at Petra, but finally succumbed to Roman control in the early 2nd Century AD.

Carthage was founded in 814 or 813BC. "Under the Carthaginians it [Malta] became a semi-independent republic ruled by a high priest and magistrates." R.J.L. Wilkinson, Malta: A Short History and Guide, p. 7 (Undated).

The descendants of Canaan settled Phoenicia or Canaan. Sidon was early celebrated for its textile fabrics and Tyre for its commerce in Purple. The people were the most eminent traders and navigators of antiquity. According to Herodotus, Cambyses ordered his fleet to sail against Carthage, "The Phoenicians, however, refused to go, because of the close bond which connected Phoenicia and Carthage, and the wickedness of making war against their own children." Cambyses did not push the point "because the Phoenicians had taken service under him of their own free will, and his whole naval power was dependent on them."

Hezekiah, king of Judah (c. 715-687BC) led an expurgation of certain Canaanites elements in Israelite religious life (II Kings 18:1; II Chronicles 29:1) removing pagan pillars and high places of worship and destroying the fertility symbolism of the goddess Asherah. The Levites were "sons of the Great Serpent" or Leviathan "the wriggly one." Israel began to regard it as an idol and "burn incense to it." In contempt, Hezekiah called it Nehushtan—a mere piece of brass (II Kings 18:4) and disposed of the bronze serpent which Moses had made.

The worship of Adonis was of Phoenician origin (centered in Byblos and Aphaka). The records of the cult go back to 700BC. It spread to Cyprus, then to Greece. Jessie L. Weston, From Ritual to Romance, p. 42-43 (1957).

Because Judah also followed the corrupted ways of the Edomites and Canaanites, seven years later Judah was taken. This left only a remnant of Israelites in Jerusalem by 700BC. Endnote 40: Shelton Emry, Heirs of the Promise, p.8 (Undated).

In the ritual of exaltation, the name of the Great Architect of the Universe "is revealed as JAH-BUL-ON." JAH represents Jahweh, the God of the Hebrews. BUL is Baal, the ancient Canaanite fertility god with "licentious rites of imitative magic." ON is Osiris, the ancient Egyptian god of the underworld.

The Canaanite political parties included the Pharisees, Sadducees, Zealots, Essenes, Assassins, Herodians and Scribes. They were also divided into the Amorites, Hittites, Moabites, Midinates, Philistines, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, Sepharvaims, Perizzites and affiliated tribes. Later the Edomites (descended from Esau) intermarried with the Turks and became known as the Chazars who eventually occupied [present-day] Israel. Eustace Mullins, The Curse of Canaan, p. 22 (1987).

The last will and testament of Canaan read: "Love one another, love robbery, love lewdness, hate your masters, and do not speak the truth." The Babylonian Talmud says: "Five things did Canaan charge his sons: love one another, love robbery, love lewdness, hate your masters, and do not speak the truth" The Last Will of Canaan, Babylonian Talmud, Peshachim 113b. These five points have been the modus operadi of the Canaanites for three thousand years. "the Will of Canaan today remains the operating instructions of the Canaanite heirs, who presently control the World Order. At the same time, it remains unknown to the peoples whom the Canaanites continue to rob, enslave, and massacre." The instructions are a command to commit genocide against the people of Shem (Genesis 27:39-41).

In extrabiblical sources the term "Kohen" is found in Canaanite inscriptions and in Ugaritic documents. XIII Encyclopedia Judaica, p. 1070 (1971). In the Cabirian rites, the initiates stood under specially prepared sacrificial gratings and were bathed in the blood of sacred bulls. Manly Hall, "Astrology as a Religion," The Best of the Illustrated National Astrological Journal, p.94 (1978).

At all times and at all places the priest has been the "master of sacrifice." A priest's first responsibility is to effect and maintain the bond of communion between man and his God (gods). Edwin O. James, Sacrifice and Sacrament, p. 16 (1962).

A "Kohen" and an Israelite possessed by demons once went to a physician. "The latter prescribed for the Israelite, because 'he was of those who spent the night at graves,' but declared that the Kohen needed no such assistance, being a man of spiritual learning." Rollo Ahmed, The Black Art, p.48-49 (Paperback Library 1968).

The rite of consecration of the Kohen (ritual sacrifice priest) was very nearly identical with the normative ritual sacrifice. The Kohen-elect was made to enter a pit beneath the grating used for the altar of sacrifice (the altar of holocaust). Described in Exodus 27. The preferred victim was a boy of Jewish blood—yet girls were used when the supply was high. "Secrets From the Vatican Library," Secret and Suppressed: Banned Ideas & Hidden History, p. 220 (1993).

Greek and Roman historians did not have much praise for the Carthaginians, considering them mercenary and dishonest. (But the historian Plutarch was a Greek, and the historian Polybius was a friend of Scipio Africanus, who burned Carthage; so there may have been some bias in this reporting).

Carthage was expanding right to the borders of Rome (the western half of Sicily). This expansion added to its wealth the gold of Spain as well as its iron, copper, and silver. The income of Carthage at its peak was twelve times that of Athens. The gods of Carthage were Baal-Haman to whom child sacrifices were offered. Their religions had the worst features of the Canaanite worship. God eventually allowed great devastation to be brought upon Carthage at the hands of the Romans.

480BC — Gelon, tyrant of Syracuse, defeats Carthaginian general Hamilcar, at Himera.

260BC — Roman ships defeat Carthaginian ships at Mylae.

The First Punic War (264BC) was fought at sea, where the Carthaginians had the advantage, being great seamen. The wealthy citizens of Rome, however, put together an army of 60,000 men and 200 ships with private funds. The dry land soldiers practiced long and hard to learn how to row the huge quinqueremes (five ranks of oars on each wide) and to conduct combat aboard ship. The Carthaginians were resting in the successes of Hamilcar Barca and did not build their forces. The Roman armada, sailing secretly, defeated the Carthaginian fleet at the Aegadian Islands off the west coast of Sicily. Carthage was forced to sue for peace and paid heavy reparations to Rome.

256BC — Roman ships defeat Carthaginian ships at Cape Ecnomus.

241BC — Roman ships defeat Carthaginian ships off the Aegadian Isles.

218BC — Second Punic War; Carthaginian general Hannibal defeats Roman armies three times in Italy; finally defeated by Scipio Africanus in North Africa in 201BC.

219BC — Hannibal captures Saguntum in Spain.

217BC — Hannibal crosses Alps from Gaul into Italy. Prince Cheng, founder of the Ch'in Dynasty (from which the name "China" is taken), unifies China and takes the title of Shih Hwang-ti (First Emperor). Shih Hwang-ti builds much of the Great Wall of China, and a network of roads and canals that converge on his capitol, near modern Sian, Shensi province.

216BC — Hannibal defeats Roman army at Cannae.

214BC — Roman General Marcus Claudius Marcellus besieges Syracuse, which is allied with Carthage. War machines designed by Greek mathematician Archimedes devastate Roman war ships. The siege fails and the blockade begins.

212 BC — Marcellus attacks Syracuse and gains the city. He gives his soldiers one day's leave to loot the city. A Roman soldier runs Archimedes through with a sword.

202BC — Hannibal defeated at Zama.

149BC — Third Punic War; Carthage destroyed by Scipio Aemilianus (146).

146BC — Roman general Scipio Africanus Minor captures and razes Carthage, enslaves inhabitants. The city ceases to exist.

146BC — After several wars against the Macedonian kings Rome takes over Greece. Rome now unchallenged ruler of most Mediterranean countries.

It was a member of the Edomite progeny who first sought to kill our Lord. Matthew 2:16 records how Herod the Idumean (Edomite) had all the Israelite children two years and younger slain that in so doing he might also kill the baby Messiah. Jesus would not live in Judea, "for fear of the Jews" (John 7:1).

Luke 11:14, "Jesus was driving out a demon that was mute. When the demon left, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowd was amazed." The Pharisees accused Jesus of casting out demons by the prince of demons, Beelzebub. Baalzebub, "lord of the flies", was the Philistine god of Accaron (Ekron), 25 miles west of Jerusalem. King Ahaziah attempted to consult its oracle in his last illness (II Kings 1:2). Beelzeboul and Beezebou preserve the name of an old Canaanite god, meaning "Baal, the Prince" or "Baal of the Exalted Abode." Joseph A. Fitzmyer, The Gospel According to Luke (X-XXIV), p. 920. When they said of Jesus that "an unclean spirit is within him. Jesus said: I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness; he is guilty of an eternal sin" (Mark 3:28-30).

Grolier's Academic American Encyclopedia tells us that the Mongols were a people who "For nearly two centuries . . . raided, invaded, conquered, and destroyed many more highly developed countries and peoples." Of the Khazars we read: "The Khazars, a Turkic people, created a commercial and political empire that dominated substantial parts of South Russia during much of the 7th through 10th centuries. During the 8th century the Khazar aristocracy and the kagan (king) were converted to Judaism . . . The Khazars controlled many of the trade routes to the Orient." The synagogue of Satan has perpetuated the traits of their forebears by maintaining control of trade which is one of the methods they use to continue in their quest to overthrow "more highly developed countries and peoples".

That this group of people is genetically linked to the Khazars and Mongols is well-proven and even admitted by Jews themselves. Ashkenazim Jew Arthur Koestler, The Thirteenth Tribe Random House, Inc. (1976) gives abundant proof of this. The 1925 edition of The Jewish Encyclopedia (Vol. 15, p. 292) has this to say about the Khazars: "CHAZARS: a people of Turkish origin whose life and history is interwoven with the very beginnings of the history of the Jews in Russia." Before it became politically incorrect to discuss such things, the 1952 edition of the American People's Encyclopedia says of the Khazar/Mongol/Turk connection to the Jews: "In the year 740 the Khazars were officially converted to Judaism. A century later they were cursed by the incoming Slavic-speaking people and scattered over central Europe where they were known as Jews".

Television programming such as Leave it to Beaver, Father Knows Best, and others which showed Christian families as loving, caring people led by the man of the house have been replaced by shows such as Fox's Married . . . with Children and the neo-feminist Who's the Boss? Such shows feature dysfunctional families led by women, with children who are disrespectful and disobedient. The role of the father has been relegated to the trash heap as something of the past, no longer needed for the 21st century. Instead of "Father Knows Best," now it's Father is a Complete and Utter Moron, with all thanks due to Jewish media moguls who write, direct, produce, star in and market these abominable productions. Indeed, the synagogue of satan is hard at work discrediting and defaming the white Christians of this land and worldwide. It is interesting to note that the word 'mogul' which we used above to describe this people is defined by the American Heritage Dictionary as: "2. A Mongol or Mongolian. 3. mogul. A very rich or powerful person; a magnate." The very word which has come to mean someone with vast wealth and power originally meant someone of the Mongol tribes of Asia. Interestingly enough, those people today who possess the wealth and power are direct descendants of the Mongolian peoples, who later mixed with the Khazars, a branch of the Turks.

The Khazars are Serpent's seed who converted to Judaism in AD740. The Maccabean leadership was replaced by the descendants of traditional enemies of the Jewish people, namely the converted Edomites, Herod and his family. The Ashkenazim developed the idea of Political Zionism.

The Sephardim were forced out of Spain after the inaguaration of the inquisition in 1492. The name "Sephard" is derived from a city in Asia Minor, where exiles from Jerusalem settled after the destruction of the first temple in 586BC (Obadiah 20). They speak Ladino, a mixture of Spanish and Hebrew and settled in Spain, Portugal, the Eastern Mediterranean, Italy, the Balkans, Salonica and Macedonia.

In Holland, where so many of the better off and the intelligentsia had fled, "the phoenix was adopted as the symbol of the elite Sephardic Jews, representing their rise from the ashes of the inquisition." On the front of the Great Seal the eagle has a small tuft at the back of the head. This indicates a hybrid combination of an eagle and the mythical phoenix. The New York Excelsior coin of 1787 shows a thin, long-necked, crested profile of the phoenix. The phoenix was one of the most familiar symbols of both the Egyptian and Atlantean cultures. It serves primarily as a symbol of Atlantis reborn in America.

By 1600, the Dutch manned 1,000 ships, and were the world's leading power in maritime commerce. In 1609 the great Bank of Amsterdam was established, an event which probably should be considered as "ground zero" for the modern Western financial system. Deposits were guaranteed by the government. The bank's solvency was unrivalled, a welcome development after the plethora of debased and varying monetary units which had characterized the sixteenth century economy. The Bank's florin became the standard unit of European currency. Checks could be written against bank accounts. Sephardic resources and expertise certainly played a role in forming this great bank, as they did later in the seventeenth century when a group of Dutch financiers, many of them conversos, agreed to hold British bonds in return for the ability to operate a bank similar to the Bank of Amsterdam. This second great European bank, the Bank of England, was thus formed in 1694. In both banks, Sephardic investments were significant, but not exclusive. Above all, the Banks were obviously sponsored by national regimes and Christian upper-classes, which benefitted greatly.

In 1779 Herz married "the young and dazzling" Henrietta de Lemos, daughter of a physician of Sephardic descent. Their home became "a center of Berlin high society" but Mendelssohn died before "the salon of the tragic muse stood in full bloom" Antelmann, Mendelsohn, the head of Jewish Illuminism (Haskala), p. 349. Mendelssohn cooperated with Weishaupt and other leaders of secret societies. Lady Queenborough, Occult Theocracy, p.185 (1933). Mendelssohn trained disciples for the French Revolution. Antelman, p. 72.

On Yom Kippur Eve, 1779, Washington's soldiers, unpaid for months, were at a point of mutiny before a battle: "At last a desperate Washington sent a messenger on horseback through the night to Philadelphia with instructions to obtain, from Haym Salomon, a loan of $400,000, an enormous sum in those days, to pay and provision his troops. The messenger found Salomon in the synagogue, and a hasty whispered conference took place. Salomon rose and quickly moved about the synagogue, collecting certain friends. A small group left together, and that night the money was raised. Did Haym Salomon himself contribute $240,000 of the money? So the legend, perpetuated in many accounts, insists." [Endnote 2238: Stephen Birmingham, The Grandees, p. 152-153 (1971). Haym Salomon was in Philadelphia. Ibid. p. 145. He was a member of two Sephardic congregations (Shearith Israel in New York and later Mikveh Israel in Philadelphia). Ibid. p. 147-148.]

A planned massing of French and Spanish troops in Mexico was stopped when the Czar of Russia dispatched two fleets to the US. James Rothschild was left without his anticipated empire in Mexico: "Because of these good offices on behalf of the union, the Czar was later murdered by Rothschild agents, and Russia was condemned to be turned over to the atrocities of the demonic Canaanite revolutionaries" Eustace Mullins, The Curse of Canaan, p. 158 (1987).

The Baruch family was one of the great Sephardic families of New York. Our Crowd, p. 42 (1967).

Class differences were an integral part of this new Feudal system. When the call went out to Jews all around the globe to come to Israel to help establish the country, some of the first to arrive were Jews of African and Arabic origins who are referred to as Sephardic Jews. In later years, as more of the Ashkenazic Jews (of European stock) arrived, many Sephardic Jews, who had served as Israel's pioneers, were forced to give up their homes to the Ashkenazim who consider themselves to be superior to those of Moroccan or Ethiopian heritage.

Explosive new evidence has come to light—in part, from dozens of reopened graves—suggesting that the sort of mass atrocities Zionist propaganda has blamed on Germany since the 1940s were, in reality, planned and perpetrated, not by any of Europe's nationalist leaders, but by the government of Israel. Thousands of small children belonging to Sephardic \(Oriental\) Jewish immigrants were seized—often wrenched from the arms of their mothers—on arrival in the minstate in the 1950s and 1960s, a year-long investigation by international refugee administrators has reported.

The children were bundled into trucks and driven off by armed guards. Some were subsequently used in inhuman medical experiments. Others were forcibly relocated and placed in the custody of "superior" European Jewish foster families.

"It's a bombshell of a scandal and it has set Israeli society afire" said Jurgen Liedke, an International Red Cross refugee administrator who has returned recently from a stint in the Middle East. "At first the [Israeli] government just flatly denied the whole thing," he added. "But then a witness from their own ranks stood up and confessed. What he said was more shattering than any suicide bombing."

The witness, identified as Ami Hovev, a former Israeli immigration inspector, told the influential Tel Aviv daily newspaper Yediot Ahronot that "hundreds, perhaps thousands" of children from immigrant Yemenite Jewish families were "taken away" by the authorities. Their parents never saw them again.

Hovev, who also participated in a recent internal investigation into the fate of the kidnapped children, admitted that a "substantial number" of them were secretly consigned for "unmerciful" medical experiments and then buried in lime pits. "I know that they [Israeli physicians in state hospitals] conducted experiments on living Sephardic children, extracting phosphorus and bone marrow from the spinal cord," Hovev declared on Israeli TV. The scandals drew reactions of horror and apprehension from the minstate's neighbors. "At last we're seeing the real Israel," wrote Lebanese columnist Emanuel Khouri. "To think that a people capable of such crimes against humanity now also have atomic weapons is terrifying."

The poor and often barely literate Sephardic Jewish immigrants from nations such as Yemen, whose young were seized, were told by Israeli officials that, under standing immigration regulations, it was necessary to hospitalize underage arrivals from the East briefly for "tests" and examination."

But once taken, the children never returned. All the families received was an official notice that their child had died in the hospital. Now, the Yemenite Jewish community, led by a militant rabbi of its own, is in revolt. Scores of graves dating back to the 1950s and 1960s have been recently dug up at their demand. "Most were found empty," Liedke said.

The children supposedly buried in them had been entrusted, under false names, to European Jewish families who were, in the view of the Israeli government, "superior" to the children's own poverty-stricken parents.

Although the scandal has generated banner headlines throughout the Middle East, in the United States, press coverage has been almost nil. (The Spotlight, April 1st 1996. * 300 Independence Ave SE., Washington, DC. 20003. USA).

Thousands of unauthorised and often illegal experiments on small children and geriatric and psychiatric patients in Israeli hospitals were still being conducted as recently as 2001. See the film, The Ringworm Children.

Section 13. Jews as a Nation

Where did the Beita Yisrael (Falashas) come from? First off, know that "Falasha" (Amharic for "stranger") is considered very derogatory. Just say "Ethiopian Jew" if you can't remember "Beita Yisrael." Older reference books will probably list them under "Falasha," i.e. the 1972 article in the Encyclopaedia Judaica.

Their own legends date them back to Shlomo ha-melech [King Solomon], and ascribe their origin to the tribe of Dan. Rappoport, The Lost Jews.

Researchers also think some of the defeated Yemenite Jews from the Abu Duwas Jewish Kingdom came to Ethiopia, and that some Elephantine Jews migrated south from Egypt. Another Ethiopian legend has one of Moses' sons migrating South and establishing a Hebrew community before King Solomon. © 1993-1995 Daniel P. Faigin . edomites.htm

Over 90% of people referred to as "Jews" today are European Khazar/Ashkenazi originally from Southern Russia/Northern Turkey. They are neither Semites or Israelites nor Judahites. They are in-fact Yaphites and Edomites (Iews). In the 8th Century A.C., the Khazar tribal leaders adopted Babylonian Talmudism as their cult. The Zionist leadership now promotes them to be some sort of "Chosen People of God" who must leave their European motherland to uproot native Palestinians. See the article by ex-Zionist Dr. Henry Makow on the "God" that Serves Elite Jews (February 16, 2007) <http://www.savethemales.ca/001924.html> to understand more about this deception.

The term 'Jew', has come to be used synonymous with the term 'Israel, Israelite', however, this is error. Scriptural Israelites were never called Jews, (Yahudim), unless they were so associated by their religion. Most modern Jews are not of the tribe of Yahudah (Judah), and are not 'Israelites.' They are called Jew(s) because of their religion, Jew-dah-ism (Judaism).

Jew, Ashkenazi (Franco-German, Eastern and Central European Jews)

After the Northern Kingdom of Israel was conquered by the Assyrian King Shalmaneser V, in 745-722 BCE, (for their sin before Yahweh), the Israelites were exiled into (Assyria), 2 Kings 17:5-7. They prospered during the years in Assyria, and became a huge number of people. Outgrowing the land area they eventually migrated North through the 'Caucasus Mountains', and into central and Western Europe forming the European Nations, and are known as Caucasians 'whites.' As these Israelites migrated they influenced many people groups, no longer having an organized religious priesthood, and not having a nation or national identity, these migrating people, descendants of Jacob/Israel nevertheless passed on their bits and pieces of the ancient Scriptural worship system which was corrupted through their many years of captive living in pagan Assyria. During the 7th century A.D. these bits and pieces of the corrupt worship system became a form of Jew-dah-ism and was embraced by the Khazar King, his court, and the Khazar military class, who are descendants of Ashkenaz. This new religion of Jew-dah-ism, became the religion of the Khazars, and forms most of modern cultic European Jewry.

In common parlance the present day 'Jew' is synonymous with the 'Ashkenazi Khazar Jew'. Scripture refers to the Ashkenaz in Gen. 10:3, and in I Chron. 1:6, as one of the sons of Gomer, who was a son of Japheth, son of Noah. Ashkenaz is also a brother of Togarmah (and a nephew of Magog) who the Kazars, according to King Joseph, (of the Kazars) claimed as their ancestor. The people who refer to themselves as Ashkenazi Jews are not Israelites, and they are not Semites because they do not descend from Noah's son Shem. They are Ashkenazi Khazar Jews, who descend from Noah's son Japheth. Approximately 85-90 percent of the Jews in the world call themselves Ashkenazi Jews.

Present-day Jew-dah-ism, was formally formed into its basic cultic form about 1,000 years ago, (according to the Jews), when - Rabbenu Gershon of Mainz, Germany, published a ban on bigamy. This marks the recorded beginning of the Ashkenazi Jews*, and Franco-German halachic creativity. The word 'Ashkenazi' is not Hebrew for the word Germany, although the name has become 'associated' with Germany because many Ashkenazi Jews organized in Eastern Europe.

*Ashkenazi - (Franco-German, Eastern and Central European Jews). halachic - loose 'interpretations' of Old Testament laws

Jew, Sephardim (Spanish Jews)

After the Northern Kingdom of Israel was conquered by the Assyrian King Shalmaneser V, in 745-722 BCE, (for their sin before Yahweh), The Israelites were exiled into (Assyria), 2 Kings 17:5-7. The King then imported people groups from his country (Assyria) to replace the exiled Israelites to maintain and control the land of the exiles. The Sepharvaim were one of these people groups, along with Cuthahites, Arrahites, 2 Kings 17:24. They mingled with each other, along with Edomites, who had migrated Northward from Idumea (field of Edom), after Israel and the Yahudim (Judeans) were exiled. Adad and Anu were ancient gods of Babylonia and were also the gods of these pagan Sepharvaim people. The Sephardim Yudeans (Judeans) are a mixed-breed people whose descent is directly from a mixture of this Assyrian people group and the remnant of escaped Yudeans (Judeans) along with Edomites who had migrated into the land originally occupied by the Kingdom of Israel and the kingdom of Yahudah (Judah). This made their religion also of mixed character, 2 Kings 17:24-41.

The people known as "Spanish Jews," are descended from the Canaanites, the people who colonized Carthage. Following its sack by Rome, they adopted this Sepharvaim, or Sephardim name for deceptive purposes and constitute 5% of world Jewry today. The Sephardim Jews speak Latino, a mixture of Spanish and Hebrew. The Sephardim Jews 'Yudeans' migrated West through Egypt, then North into Spain from Judea and Samaria before, during, and after the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in 70 CE. This migration became known as the "Jewish 'Sephardim' Diaspora". Today, these Sephardim Jews are still using their ancient adopted name Sephardim (the spelling is a transliteration into English and not of significance). They settled in Spain, Portugal, the Eastern Mediterranean, Italy, the Balkans, Salonica and Macedonia, eventually emigrating into France and England, and Western Europe.

The Sepharviam Yudeans (Judeans) were known as Samaritans during the time of Messiah, because they were living in Samaria, which was the area from which Israel was removed by the Assyrian King Shalmaneser V. The twelve apostles during the time if Messiah, were instructed not to enter the cities of the Samaritans, Matt. 10:5. Although the True Israelites of tribal descent, living in Samaria did received the witness of Yahshua and the message of redemption from the apostles, Acts, 1:8. Some of the mixed Samaritans also became proselytes to the Christian faith, Acts 8:4-25.

The Sephardim Jews, (or Sepharviam Jews) are not of Israeliite blood; they are not of the tribe of Yahudah although they were called Yudeans, 'Judeans', as an inhabitant, i.e. person living in the land originally occupied by the tribe of Yahudah of Israel). Their descent is mixed from Edom/Esau Canaanite stock. The Sephardim Jews, like the Ashkenazi Khazar Jews are not a Semitic people. The word Sephardim is not a Hebrew word for Spain, although the name has become 'associated' with Spain because many Sephardim Jews organized in Spain.

Jew-dah-ism, (modern 'Judaism')

Jew-dah-ism, is a cultic (ritual-istic) religion which originated approximately 1000 CE, and is traced to Rabbenu Gershon of Mainz Germany through the publishing of his 'halachic creativity' (interpretation of Old Covenant laws), he thereby established the beginning of the modern cultic religion of Jew-dah-ism. Today the religion is also greatly influenced by the Babylonian Talmud, an ancient Pagan ritual-istic system of various extreme opinions, interpretations, codes, rules, and regulations.

The modern cultic religion of Jew-dah-ism has nothing in common with the Scriptural Cultic system of worship which was completely destroyed by Messiah as a religious system in 70 CE at the destruction of Yerushalayim (Jerusalem), Herod's Temple, and through the establishment of the New Covenant through Yahshua Messiah. Christianity, as a religious system of Faith, replaced the ancient system of Cultic (ritual-istic) sacrificial worship.

Jewish

A term incorrectly applied to reflect anything pertaining to a Yahudite, a descendant of the tribe of Yahudah. In common use, the term 'Jewish' is now applied to things pertaining to the Jews. Scriptural accuracy has no bearing on the use of the modern term 'Jewish'. See also the word 'Israel'

Genesis 48:16: "The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name [Israel] be named on them (let Ephraim and Manasseh be called Israel), and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth." Note well that Jacob/Israel did not give his name Israel to Judah/Jew-dah or any of his other sons.

John 8:31-44: Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. "And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." They answered Him, "We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can you say, 'You will be made free'?"... "I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you..."Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. "And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." They answered Him, "We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can you say, 'You will be made free'?"... You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.

Revelation 2:9 (Smyrna): I know your works, tribulation, and poverty (but you are rich); and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Judahites and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

Revelation 3:9 (Philadelphia): Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Judahites and are not, but lie - indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.

Since neither Abraham nor Moses were Jews, when WHO WAS THE FIRST JEW ? We know that Saul was the first king of Israel and that John was the first man called Baptist but who was the first Jew? Neither Adam, Seth or Noah are called Jew. Nor were Abraham Isaac or Jacob. Moses was not called a Jew and neither were Saul David or Solomon or Jesus-Yashua-Issa called Jew. In fact you will not find the word Jew in the first eleven books of the Bible. The first time Jews are mentioned in the Bible is in 2nd Kings 16:6 where we find Israel was at war with the Jews and drove the Jews from Elath.

Isn't it interesting that we can read over five hundred pages of the bible before we find a Jew anywhere yet those who call themselves Jew today claim the first five books of the Bible and call it their Torah? Do you not find it very strange that those who claim to have written the first five books of the Bible and call themselves Jew, can't find the word Jew written in the book anywhere they call there own Bible and claim to have written? We know that God changed the name of Abram to Abraham Gen. 17:5 and that God changed the name of Jacob to Israel Gen. 32:28 but nowhere in the bible do we find where God changed the name of Israel to Jew! Therefore there is no authority by which those who say they are Jews can claim to be Israel! By the time of Jesus the word Edom or Edomite had been translated by Greek and Latin into ae-loudaios-ludaeus also including in this meaning were the terms Judea-Judean or person living in Judea. The original King James version of the Bible 1611 translated Idumaean - Judean into lewes. It wasn't until the revised editions of the King James Bible, that the word jew appeared (after the year 1900). The word jew does not mean Israel or Israelite ! We must therefore conclude that the first jews were Canaanite-Edomite-Hittite. It is certain according to the Bible that Khazar jews are not Israel.[From the Christian Guard Dispatch 76-77].

"The Khazar Jews came to the court of Prince Vladimir and said: 'We have heard that Bulgarians (Muslims) and Christians came to teach you their religion... We, however, believe in the one God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Vladimir asked them: 'What kind of law do you have?' They answered:

'We are required to be circumcized, we may not eat pork or hare meat, and we must observe the Sabbath.' And he asked: 'Where is your land?' They answered: 'In Jerusalem.' And again he asked: 'It is really there?' They answered: 'God got angry with our fathers and therefore scattered us all over the World and gave our land to the Christians.' Vladimir asked: 'How is it that you can teach people Jewish law even while God rejected you and scattered you. If God had loved you and your law, you would not be scattered throughout foreign lands. Or do you wish us Russians to suffer the same fate?'" - The Russian Chronicle, describing a visit of Khazar missionaries to Kiev in the year 986.

Jn:1:19: And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

Jn:3:1: There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

Jn:3:25: Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

Jn:5:15: The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

Jn:5:16: And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

Jn:7:1: After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him

Jn:20:19: Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

<http://www.illuminati-news.com/index.html> . Please remember that the leaders of Zionism are neither True-Torah Jews, or Israelites or practicing converted Jews, i.e. they are Babylonian Satanists Luciferians apostate impostaers as explained in the Harold Wallace Rosenthal interview below. Zionism is not Biblical, rather, it is Cabalism from Babylon, just like the modern day fiat money usury based banking system and other immoral values being imposed on monotheists by these new-Sion (Sun) worshippers.

"Jew" is not a Hebrew or Aramaic word. Jew is not in the 1611 KJV Bible. In later years, Jew was used to refer to European Babylonian Talmudic converts. Jews are not descendants of Y'srael or Y'acoob, they are the descendants of Yapheth and not of Sem. The ancient Hebrews were not called Jews, it is a fraudulent translation. The ancient Israelites were not Jews and neither are their descendants.

There was only one "tribe" of Israel that had any affinity to or for the term, Jew, and that was Judah...but by Jesus-Yashua-Issa's time, most of these Israelites had become so co-mingled with Esau, who is Edom, that most of those former Judeans could not be considered as Israelites. Only the remnant of Benjamin in this 2nd Judah, those residing in Galilee met that definition.. I say 2nd Judah, because most of the original Judah had been taken into the Assyrian captivity along with the ten other tribes. (See II Kings 18:13 for proof--other proof can be found in secular documents, still available).

In the 7th Century, when the Edomite/Yaphite Jews fled northward to Southern Russia or Khazaria where they were welcomed by the Khazars who were also a mixed-breed race. They were of dusky Turkish/Tartar stock which included Mongol strains which came from the later Mongol invasion of their land. The newly arrived Jewish refugees from Constantinople brought with them the verbal "Traditions of the Elders" written in the Babylonian Talmud. King Bulan, the Khazarian ruler, chose this late arriving religion. He and 4,000 of his nobles became converts. The entire country followed suit in time. The language of the Khazars was adapted to the Hebrew alphabet (in much the same way that German is written with the Latin alphabet). The result was called Yiddish. There is no other connection between Hebrew and Yiddish other than the latter containing a number of Hebrew words. (Note: The Prophet Abraham spoke Aramaic just like Yashua-Jesus, and not Hebrew). The Ashkenazic Khazars occupied central Russia from around 250 BC until driven out as converted Jews in 1240 by the Russians. Those Ashkenazic's who had converted in 740 AD to Babylonian Talmudic Judaism were certainly Turkic in origin, as Ashkenaz was the grandson of Noah's son, Japheth, the progenitor of the Turkic-Mongol races. Proof that Jewish DNA is the Most Miscegenated at <http://www.khazaria.com/genetics/abstracts.html>

The Jewish cult practices a religion called Judaism or Nimroodic Babylonian Talmudism, the very teachings of the Elders which Jesus-Yashua-Issa and before him the prophet Abraham preached against. Judaism is not of the scriptures. It is a cult created by people known as Jews. In scriptures, you will not find the word Judaism.

<http://www.erichufschmid.net/TFC/Koestler13thTribe.htm> . Don't be a sucker! You are not "anti-Semitic" for opposing Zionism. But who or what is a "Jew"?

Do "Ashkenazi" Jews have a right to takeover Palestine? Not at all since people all already living there. And in any case, according to many historians, such as the Jewish historian Arthur Koestler, who wrote The Thirteenth Tribe, the word "Jew" refers to both a religion and a race. Using one word for two different concepts is as stupid as referring to a religion as "Chinese". In such a case, some people would describe themselves as Chinese when they were referring to their race, and other people would describe themselves as Chinese when they were referring to their religion. Idiotic arguments would occur because some Chinese would insist that you cannot be Chinese unless your parents were Chinese. Other people would argue that we can all become Chinese, even Sammy Davis Jr. Incidentally, as Sammy Davis Jr. had become Jewish. A group of people referring to themselves as "Jews" are insisting that Palestine belongs to them because their ancestors lived there 2000 years ago. They created the hoax of Zionism movement to help restore their homeland. However, numerous historians have looked into this issue and discovered that most of these Zionists are not descendants of the original Israelites. Rather, most Zionists are "Ashkenazi Jews"; a race of people from Asia. The real, original Israelites were physically and genetically similar to the Arabs, specifically, dark skin, dark eyes, and dark hair. The Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic languages have a lot of similarities, also. The real homeland for the European Ashkenazi Jews is near the Caspian and Black Seas, not Palestine. Their ancestors picked up the Jewish religion many centuries ago. Due to the widespread ignorance of people in that era, after a few generations they assumed that they were the descendants of the Edomite/Yaphite Jews that lived in Palestine. During the past two centuries, the Rothschild Banking dynasties funded the hoax of Zionism.

THE KHAZARS or Ashkenazis are European Russians Jews (counterfeit Israelites) and make up 90% of people who call themselves Jews, i.e. mostly European tribes from Russia, Poland and Eastern Europe and some from Germany. Khazars have always been known for their cruelty. Contrary to what the Zionists promote, most Jews are not Israelites or Semites. The people who are today referred to as "Jews" include:

1. Israelites: these are the descendants of Jacob-Israel, who was the son of Isaac son of Abraham descendent of Sem son of Noah. Jacobites are no longer traceable as they have intermarried heavily. They used to practice true Torah monotheism but as related in the Bible and Quran, they were easily influenced by the Pharisees' Babylonian idolatry. True Torah Jews condemn Zionism as an invention of Satan <http://www.jewsagainstzionism.com> <http://www.nkusa.org>.

2. Judah (Yehudah) is one of the 12 tribes of Israel from which the word Judean emanates. True Judeans are Israelites but a split occurred when Edomites (Babylonian Sephardics Jews) were merged into them and pretended to be Judeans. Thus, Jews are not Israelites.
3. Sephardics (Edomites Jews): these are the descendants of Edom son of Isaac. Sephardics Jews are estimated to be 5% of the total number of people who call themselves Jews. These are not Israelites but are Semites. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus tells John in Revelation 2:9 "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Judahites and are not, but are the SYNAGOGUE OF SATAN".
4. Khazarian or Ashkenazi or Yaphite Jews: these are the descendants of a Southern Russian/Northern Turkic idol/phallic worshipping tribe who migrated to Russia in the 8th Century A.C. and whose elite converted to Talmudic Babylonian (not True Torah Judaism) in the 8th Century A.C. and now inhabit mostly Europe. (about 90% of all Jews). They are not Israelites and are not Semites either. They stem from Ashkenaz, who was a grandson of "Japheth", another of Noah's 4 sons (3 survived the flood, Genesis 10:1-3).

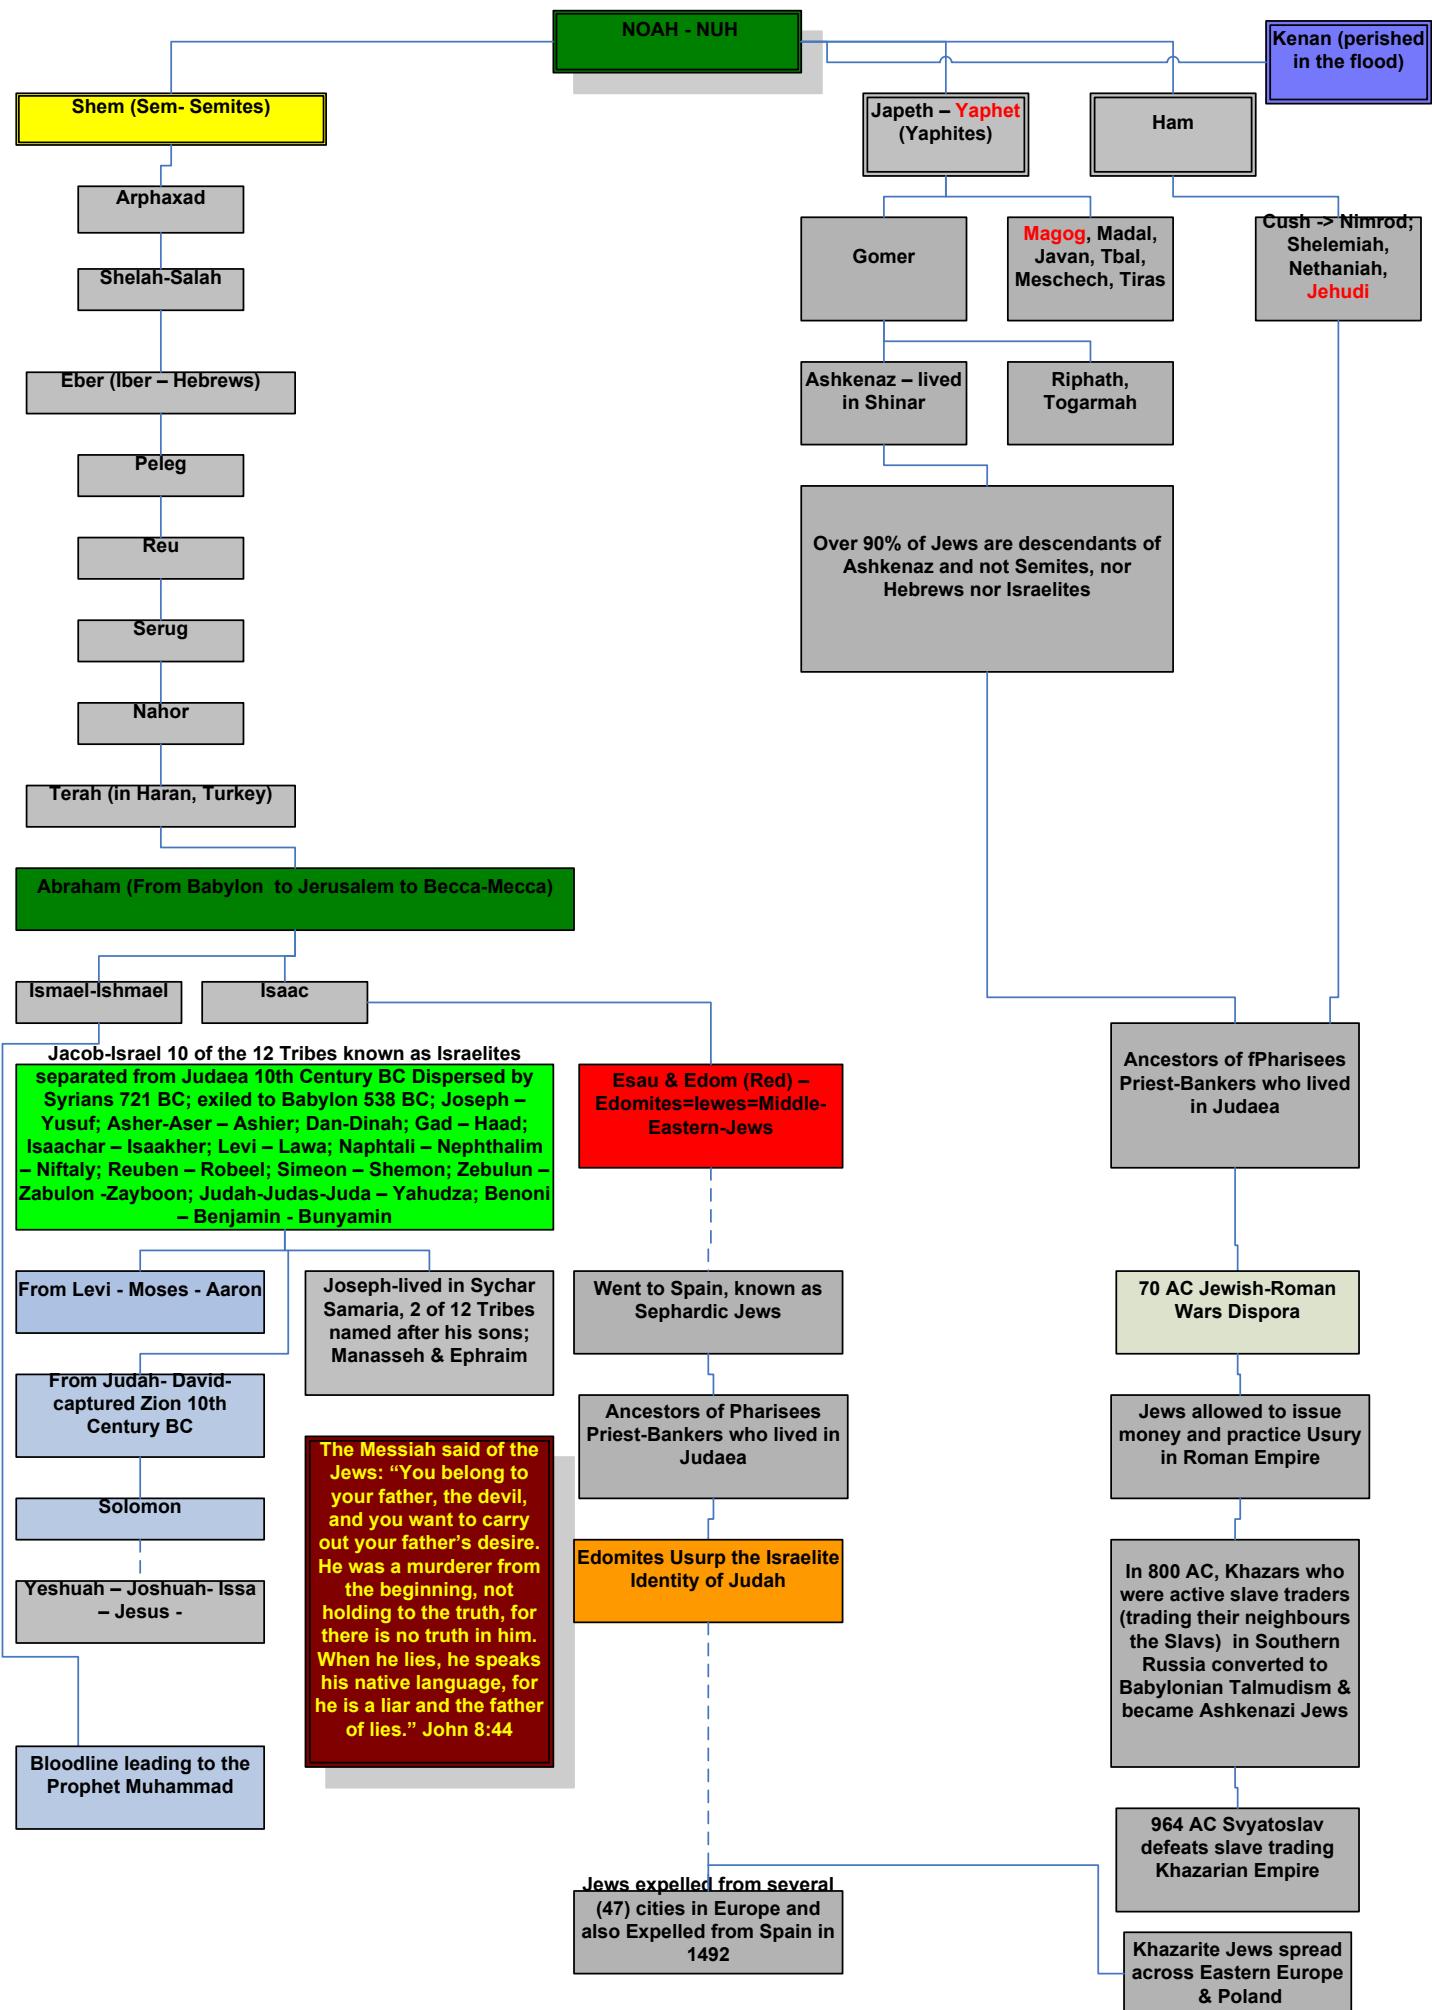

Among the above are some who practice "True-Torah Judaism", some are atheists, and some practice Babylonian/ Pharisaeic/ Cabbalism/ Talmudism and some practise Satanism/Luciferianism http://www.antichristconspiracy.com/HTML%20Pages/Harold_Wallace_Rosenthal_Interview_1976.htm. Sometimes Jews who expose Zionism are persecuted by the Zionists (<http://www.biblestudysite.com/markis.htm>). Most Jews are non-Zionist and oppose the invasion of Iraq and Palestine.

True-Torah Monotheism was corrupted and changed into Babylonian Talmudism/Phariseeism/Kabbalism/Masonic idolatry. 90% of the people who call themselves Jews are Ashkenazi, i.e. descendants from non-Semites idolatrous Khazar tribes from Southern Russia/Northern Turkey who converted to the Babylonian Talmudism of their ancestors in the 8th Century AC and called it Judaism to fool both European Christians and Eastern Moslems. The ancient Khazar Empire was first defeated by the Rus at Kiev in the late 900s AC and finally defeated by the forces of Ghengis Khan, but the evidence indicates that the Khazars themselves migrated to Poland and formed the cradle of Western Ashkenazi Jewry and returned to Russia. When the Israelites were exiled to Babylon in 539 BC, the True-Torah-Monotheism was corrupted by the Pharisees and Nimrodiic priest-bankers into Babylonian Kabbalistic Talmudic traditions. The deception continues to this day. The Babylonian Talmudists/ Pharisaeic/ Masonic counterfeit Jews who pretend to be Israelites True-Torah believers practice(d) the ancient child sacrifice to Moloch which they call "holocaust" (shoah in Hebrew) which means "blood sacrifice". View the documentary on Satanic child sacrifice here: <http://www.honestmediatoday.com/products.htm>.

See also the video The Other Israel by Rev. Ted Pike who exposes the real masters behind Talmudism, Zionism, Communism, Marxism, Fascism, banking, liberalism, and media control, and reveals the Talmudic quotes which condone Murder, Bigotry, Pedophilia, and anti-Christ, i.e. the Pharisaeic Synagogue of Satan <http://www.truthtellers.org/israel/lear.html>. In the New Testament, the English word 'Jew' is a translation of the Greek Ioudaios (Yehudah-os), a Judean or inhabitant of Judah (Yehudah) - Judea - the former territory of the tribe of Judah (Yehudah), which at the time of Yashua contained a substantial percentage of people of Edomite origin (Edom means 'red') who possessed the political power under the aegis of Rome.

A 'Jew' is defined in the Israeli constitution as someone born of a Jewish mother, irrespective of belief. The word does not refer therefore to a person's religion, but to his or her ancestry or race. The virulent and violent racism of the Zionist-supporting anti-racists is therefore Pharisee-like in its hypocrisy. There is therefore no authority by which those who say they are Jews can claim to be Israel! By the time of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus the word Edom or Edomite had been translated by Greek and Latin into Ioudaios and Iudeus meaning a Judean or person living in Judea. The original King James version of the Bible, 1611, translated Idumaea-Judean into lewes. It wasn't until the revised editions of the King James Bible, that the word Jew appeared.

The word Jew does not mean Israel or Israelite! We must conclude therefore that the first "Jews" were Canaanite-Edomite-Hittite. It is certain, according to the Bible, that Jews are not Israel.

Benjamin H. Freedman - Jewish Historian/ Researcher/ Scholar from "Common Sense" p. 2-1-53 & 5-1-59: "American Christians little suspect they are being brainwashed twenty-four hours of every day over television and radio, by newspapers and magazines, by motion pictures and plays, by books, by political leaders in office and seeking office, by religious leaders in their pulpits and outside their churches, by leaders in the field of education inside and outside their curricular activities, and by all leaders in business, professions and finance, whose economic security demands that they curry the favor of so-called "Jews" of historic Khazar ancestry. Unsuspecting Christians are subjected to this barrage from sources they have little reason to suspect. Incontestable facts supply the unchallengeable proof of the historic accuracy that so-called "Jews" throughout the World today of eastern European origin are unquestionably the historic descendants of the Khazars, a pagan Turko-Finn ancient Mongoloid nation deep in the heart of Asia, according to history, who battled their way in bloody wars about the 1st century B.C. into eastern Europe where they set up their Khazar kingdom. For some mysterious reason the history of the Khazar kingdom is conspicuous by its absence from history courses in the schools and colleges.... The historic existence of the Khazar kingdom of so-called "Jews", their rise and fall, the permanent disappearance of the Khazar kingdom as a nation from the map of Europe, and how King Bulan and the Khazar nation in about 740 A.D. became so-called "Jews" by conversion, were concealed from American Christians by censorship imposed by so-called "Jews", of historic Khazar ancestry, upon all U.S. media of mass communications directed by them. Then in 1945 this author gave nation-wide publicity to his many years intensive research into the "facts of life" concerning Khazars. The disclosures were sensational and very effective but apparently angered so-called "Jews" who have continued to vent their spleen upon this author since then solely for that reason. Since 1946 they have conducted a vicious smear campaign against him, seeking thus to further conceal these facts, for obvious reasons. What have they to fear from the truth?"

"In an original 1903 edition of the Jewish Encyclopedia in New York's Public Library, and in the Library of Congress, Volume IV, pages 1 to 5 inclusive, appears a most comprehensive history of the Khazars. Also in the New York Public Library are 327 books by the World's greatest historians and other sources of reference, in addition to the Jewish Encyclopedia, dealing with Khazar history, and written between the 3rd A.D. and 20th centuries by contemporaries of the Khazars and by modern historians on that subject."

Yashua-Joshua was an Israelite, not a Jew. During His lifetime, no Israelites were described as "Jews" anywhere. That fact is supported by theology, history and science. When Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was in Judea, it was not the "homeland" of the ancestors of those who today style themselves "Jews". Their ancestors never set a foot in Judea. They existed at that time in Asia, their "homeland", and were known as Khazars. In none of the manuscripts of the original Old or New Testament was Yashua-Joshua-Jesus described or referred to as a "Jew". The term originated in the late eighteenth century as an abbreviation of the term Judean and refers to a resident of Judea without regard to race or religion, just as the term "Texan" signifies a person living in Texas. In spite of the powerful propaganda effort of the so-called "Jews", they have been unable to prove in recorded history that there is one record, prior to that period, of a race religion or nationality, referred to as "Jew". The religious sect in Judea, in the time of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus, to which self-styled "Jews" today refer to as "Jews", were known as "Pharisees". "Judaism" today and "Phariseeism" in the time of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus are the same. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus abhorred and denounced "Pharisaism"; hence the words, "Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, Hypocrites, Ye Serpents, Ye Generation of Vipers".

John Standing explains "Who was the First Jew?" We know that Saul was the first king of Israel and that John was the first man called Baptist, but who was the first Jew? Neither Adam, Seth or Noah are called Jew. Nor were Abraham, Isaac or Jacob. Moses was not called a Jew and neither were Saul, David or Solomon called Jew. In fact you will not find the word Jew in the first eleven books of the Bible. The first time Jews are mentioned in the Bible, is in II Kings 16:6 (and then only in translations revised in the eighteenth century) where we find Israel was at war with the Jews and drove the Jews from Elath. Isn't it interesting that we can read over five hundred pages of the Bible before we find a Jew anywhere, yet those who call themselves Jew today claim the first five books of the bible and call it their Torah. Do you not find it rather strange that those who claim to have written the first five books of the Bible and call themselves Jew, can't find the word Jew written anywhere in the book they call their own bible, and claim to have written? Yashua-Joshua-Jesus Christ tells John in Revelation 2:9 "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Judahites and are not, but are the SYNAGOGUE OF SATAN". We know that God changed the name of Abram to Abraham in Genesis 17:5, and that He changed the name of Jacob to Israel in Genesis 32:28, but nowhere in the Bible do we find where God changed the name of Israel to Judah! There is therefore no authority by which those who say they are Jews can claim to be Israel! By the time of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus the word Edom or Edomite had been translated by Greek and Latin into Ioudaios and Iudeus meaning a Judean or person living in Judea. The original King James version of the Bible, 1611, translated Idumaean-Judean into lewes. It wasn't until the revised editions of the King James Bible, that the word Jew appeared. The word Jew does not mean Israel or Israelite! We must conclude therefore that the first "Jews" were Canaanite-Edomite-Hittite. It is certain, according to the Bible, that Jews are not Israel.

In May 2005, over 10,000 Jews demonstrated in New York against Zionism, yet there was not a word in the mainstream press. One of the members of the organizing group, Naturei Karta, wrote this essay that we have edited for space considerations "The Gulf Between Zionism and Judaism" - by G.J. Neuberger. [Human dignity does not depend on the place of one's birth nor is it limited to one region. The greatness or worth of a person is not measured by his or her outward appearance. At this stage in human history, there is no room for privileged people who can do with others as they please. Human life is sacred and human rights are not to be denied by those who would subvert them for "national security" or for any other reason. No one knows this better than the Jews, who have been second-class citizens so often and for so long. Zionists, however, may differ. This is understandable because Judaism and Zionism are by no means the same. Indeed they are incompatible and irreconcilable: If one is a good Jew, one cannot be a Zionist; if one is a Zionist, one cannot be a good Jew. For over 60 years I have fought Zionism, as did my father before me, and I am therefore quite familiar with it. For those who have been in this fight for only the last ten or twenty years, what I have to say may be surprising or even shocking. Nevertheless these matters must be stated clearly and openly, because unless the disease of Zionism is diagnosed accurately, it cannot be cured. To begin with, a few definitions: Who is a Jew? A Jew is anyone who has a Jewish mother or who converted to Judaism in conformity with Halacha, Jewish religious law. This definition alone excludes racism. Judaism does not seek converts, but those who do convert are accepted on a basis of equality. Apart from the Zionists, the only ones who consistently considered the Jews a race were the Nazis. And they only served to prove the stupidity and irrationality of racism. There was no way to prove racially whether a Mrs. Muller or a Mr. Meyer were Jews or Aryans. The only way to decide whether a person was Jewish was to trace the religious affiliation of the parents or grandparents. So much for this racial nonsense.

Racial pride has been the downfall of those Jews in the past who were blinded by their own narrow-minded chauvinism. This brings us to a second definition. Is there a Jewish people? If so, what is its mission? Let us make this completely clear: The Jewish nation was not born or reconstituted a generation ago by some Zionist politicians. The Jewish nation was born on Mount Sinai when the Jews by their response, "let us do and let us hear," adopted the Torah given to them by G-d for all future generations. "This day you become a people," though valid still today, was spoken thousands of years ago. In what way are the Jews a "chosen people"? Every Jewish man anywhere and at any time when called to the reading of the Torah says, "Who has chosen us from all the peoples and gave us His Torah." This is the way in which the Jews are chosen. The Jewish people are chosen not for domination over others, not for conquest or warfare, but to serve G-d and thus to serve mankind. "And the hands are the hands of Esau," has been traditionally interpreted to mean that while "the voice is Jacob's [Israel's]," the hands - symbolizing violence - are Esau's. Thus physical violence is not a tradition or a value of the Jews. The task for which the Jewish people were chosen is not to set an example of military superiority or technical achievements, but to seek perfection in moral behavior and spiritual purity. Of all the crimes of political Zionism, the worst and most basic, and which explains all its other misdeeds, is that from its beginning Zionism has sought to separate the Jewish people from their G-d, to render the divine covenant null and void, and to substitute a "modern" statehood and fraudulent sovereignty for the lofty ideals of the Jewish people.

What hypocrisy, what perversion it is to have the Israeli army fight under an emblem, the meaning of which is explained in the Tenach (on the occasion of a previous return to the Holy Land) as, "not with armed force and not with power, but in My spirit says the Lord of Hosts." The infamous founder of political Zionism, who only discovered his own Jewishness because of anti-Semitism displayed at the Dreyfus trial in France, proposed various solutions to what he called the "Jewish problem."

At one point he proposed to resettle the Jews in Uganda. At another he proposed to convert them to Catholicism. He finally hit on the idea of a Judenstaat, an exclusive Jewish state. Thus from its very beginning Zionism was a result of Anti-Semitism and indeed is completely compatible with it, because Zionists and anti-Semites had (and have) a common goal: To bring all Jews from their places of domicile to the Zionist state, thus uprooting Jewish communities that had existed for hundreds and even thousands of years. Loyalty to the Zionist state was substituted for loyalty to G-d, and the state was made into the modern "golden calf". Neither the founder of political Zionism nor any of the prime ministers of the Zionist state believed in the divine origin of the Torah nor even in the existence of G-d. All prime ministers were members of a party that opposed religion in principle and that considered the Bible a document of ancient folklore, devoid of any religious meaning. And yet these same Zionists base their claim to the Holy Land on this same Bible, the divine origin of which they deny. In the early stages of the development of modern Zionism, the Mizrachi was founded, an organization of so-called religious Zionists who tried to combine their faith with political Zionism. This led to constant conflict between the dictates of divine law and the demands of Jewish nationalism. Most of the time, the Mizrachi was outvoted at Zionist congresses and served only to give the Zionist movement a false religious aura.

A Jewish World organization was founded in 1912 on the German-Polish border with the specific purpose of fighting Zionism. This organization, Agudath Israel, "Union of Israel," was to represent the true Jewish people in the World and to unmask the unwarranted and unjust claims of the Zionists. Rabbis everywhere joined Agudath Israel, as did masses of observant Jews. Anti-Zionist congresses were convened in Vienna and in Marienbad. In countries such as Poland, Agudists were members of parliament. Under Agudah leadership more than 50 years ago, Jews in the Holy Land opposed to Zionism obtained permission from Britain, the mandatory power in Palestine, to declare in writing that they did not wish to be represented by the Zionists or any of their groups, particularly not by the Zionist quasi-governmental organizations such as the Va'ad Leumi, "National Council." Shortly thereafter, Jacob de Haan, a former distinguished Dutch diplomat who was then leader of Agudath Israel in Palestine, initiated talks with Arab leaders with a view toward the eventual establishments of a state there in which Jews and Arabs would have equal rights. In this way he hoped to forestall the creation of a Zionist state. Despite threats to his life, de Haan, fully aware of the ultimate dangers of a Zionist state, continued his talks and negotiations. On the eve of his departure in 1924 for Britain to meet with authorities there, he was assassinated by the Haganah, the Zionist paramilitary force, in the center of Jerusalem as he came from evening prayers. More than a half a century ago, this devout and visionary Jew gave his life in a fight that he considered paramount, at a time when the World at large was still blind and deaf to the difficulties and problems that a future Zionist state would entail. As a result of such terrorism and increasing Zionist pressure, Agudath Israel gradually began to weaken and to compromise. During the Nazi period, it entered into deals and arrangements with the Zionists, despite the fact that its fundamental aim had been to combat Zionism.

After the Zionist state was established, Agudath Israel broke off with its past, participated in the Zionist government on the cabinet level and elected Agudists to the Zionist parliament. Still professing a nominal anti-Zionism, Agudath Israel established a network of "independent" schools in the Holy Land, but today the overwhelming part of the budget of these schools comes from the Zionist government. In view of these developments, those Jews who wanted to continue the fight against Zionism without any compromise left Agudath Israel and constituted themselves as the Neturei Karta, an Aramaic phrase meaning "Guardians of the City," i.e. the city of Jerusalem. The Neturei Karta in turn became a Worldwide movement, known in some places as "Friends of Jerusalem." The greatest leader of the Neturei Karta was Rabbi Amram Blau, an inspired and dedicated leader whose compassion equaled his courage. He could not keep silent in the face of injustice, immorality, or hypocrisy. He was beloved by Jews and respected by Christians and Muslims. In his writings he stressed many times that Jews and Arabs had lived in harmony until the advent of political Zionism. Rabbi Blau was imprisoned in Jerusalem, not by the Ottoman authorities, not by the British, and not by the Arabs, but by the Zionists. He fought for the sanctity of the Sabbath and actively opposed the inroads of indecency and immorality made under the Zionist regime. Increasingly Rabbi Blau denounced the establishment of a Jewish state before the coming of the Messiah as an act of infamy and blasphemy. Under his leadership, the Neturei Karta declared year after year that they did not recognize the legitimacy of the Zionist state or the validity of its laws. Until the appearance and growing influence of political Zionism, Jewish leaders were chosen on the basis of their piety, decency, learning, and their love of justice and mercy.

Today only too often so-called Jewish leaders, completely unqualified under Jewish law and traditional concepts, make pronouncements and decisions in the name and on behalf of the Jewish people. This is particularly true in the USA where there is the largest Jewish community in our time. I can never forget the remark of a woman in Oklahoma: "Isn't today's Judaism wonderful! All you have to do is give money." It must be stated explicitly that while not all Jews are Zionists, not all Zionists are Jews. From the beginning of the Zionist movement, some of the most articulate and fervent Zionists have been Christian clergymen, especially "fundamentalists," who hail Zionism as an important "religious" movement and welcome it as a fulfillment of prophecy. One most vital point deserves mention. A former president of the World Zionist Organization has stated explicitly that a Zionist owes unqualified loyalty to the Zionist state and that, in the case of a conflict, the first loyalty of a Zionist must be to the Zionist state. According to Jewish law, however, a Jew owes allegiance and loyalty to the country of which he is a citizen, and, of course, no faithful Jews owes any loyalty or allegiance to the Zionist state which has been condemned by the foremost rabbis of our age. As an American citizen, I deplore that our government and our politicians have adopted an attitude that is in complete contradiction to the advice of the father of our country George Washington. Instead of shying away from foreign entanglements and permanent alliances with foreign powers, the establishment in Washington has embraced Zionism so wholeheartedly that in the eyes any criticism of the Zionist state and any opposition to political Zionism in the UN by any nation has become a punishable offense. It takes a lot of courage to be opposed to Zionism in the USA today. It also took a lot of courage during the Second World War to be anti-Fascist in Italy or anti-Nazi in Germany. In the long run Zionism is nothing but a passing aberration in the long history of the Jewish people and of the World. Let us take faith and hope in the certainty that eventually prejudice, hatred, and injustice will disappear, and that the prophecy will come true that all nations of the World will participate in the pilgrimage to Jerusalem, "For My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations."

Adopted Christian Name vs Real Jewish Name While Promoting Noahide Laws

European Jews also adopted Middle-Eastern names to make it look like they were Middle-Eastern. The Zionist Hollywood moguls long ago decided that it would help them make more money if the general public viewed films as being "Christian." In fact, they personally wanted to blend in with the Gentile community. Thus Samuel Goldfish changed his name to Goldwyn and Cecil B. de Mille insisted that he was a Gentile until his death when a Rabbi officiated at his funeral. Every single one of the original Jewish developers of the movie industry divorced their Jewish wives and married beautiful Christian starlets. This includes Louis B. Mayer, Samuel Goldwyn, Jack Warner, David O. Selznick and Harry Cohen. They gave orders to the numerous Jews they made "stars" to change their Jewish names to Christian sounding ones. This has also included a lot of "nosejobs" for both Jewish male and female stars. Here are but a few who followed this road to stardom.

There are hundreds of other Jews in Hollywood "stardom" – far too numerous to list them all here. However the following are Jews whom many think are Gentiles: Ed Asner, Bea Arthur, Gene Barry, Richard Benjamin, Kevin Costner, Lee J. Cobb, Richard Dreyfus, Ted Danson, Peter Falk (Columbo), Eddie Fisher, Harrison Ford, Richard Gere, Betty Grable, Sharon Gless, Steven Segall, Dustin Hoffman, Monty Hall, Amy Irving, Jack Klugman, Leonard Nimoy, Ken Olin, Ron Perlman, George Segel, William Shatner, Peter Strauss, Rod Steiger, Jane Seymour, Barbara Walters, Debra Winger and the following are half-Jewish: Joan Collins, Goldie Hawn, Paul Newman, Robert DeNiro and Geraldo Rivera. Jews in the music field include, Billy Joel, Barry Manilow, Tony Martin, Bette Midler, Barbara Streisand and Ringo Starr. Here are but a few in the field of "comedy" which is 90% Jewish dominated! Roseanne Barr, David Brenner, Sid Caesar, Richard Dawson, Don Adams, Norm Crosby, George Jessel, Alan King, Carl Reiner, Don Rickles, Martha Reye, Garry Shandling, Henry Winkler and David Letterman.

Let us give a few examples in politics, it's only a tip of the iceberg. Many Zionists masquerade as someone else. Ironically, "HOMELAND SECURITY" is run by a dual US-ISRAELI citizen named rabbi Michael Chertoff. Hitler was half-Jewish, Churchill was half-Jewish, Eisenhower was Jewish, Stalin was Jewish, the Bush family is Jewish, the Clintons are Rogdenfeller Jews, Hillary Clinton is a German Jew, Gorbachev is Jewish, J.P. Morgan[taler] was Jewish, all the people who control and manipulate us are either full or half-Jewish. Rothschild-Bauer, Rockefeller-Rogdenfeller, Morgan(taler), all Ashkenazi from Germany just like the British Royal House of Windsor-Battenberg & Saxe-Coburg-Gothas, Bush-Bosch, Rumsfeld, Hillary Rotham-Rodenhurst-Rodomski, Kamal Ataturk was a Sabbatean Jew. Binladen is a Yemeni Jewish family. They are all part of the Masonic-Jesuit brotherhood. King Hussein of Jordan was a Mason. Yasser Arafat was a bus boy hand picked by the Zionists to be their man and joined them as a Mason and attended a Bilderberg Club meeting. The communists were led by Russian Jews, most of the positions of power in the US are held by Russian, German or Polish Zionists. Sometimes, like Kerry, Albright, Wesley Clark, etc. they suddenly discover their Jewish roots! Pope Benedict (Ratzinger) is Jewish and now is promoting the Noahide laws. Hitler was from the Zionist Khazar Ashkenazi Rothschild banklord family. Hitler's driver Emil Maurice was also Jewish, this is in contradiction with the propaganda image the public has been conditioned with of Hitler. Many Jews were among Hitler's followers at all level, including the high ranking Alfred Rosenberg, Hermann Goering, Reinhard Heydrich, Adolf Eichmann, Dr. Otto Gustav Wachter, etc.. Hitler's Jewish Clairvoyant was Erik Jan Hanussen. "The following is a partial list of Jews who participated in the Revolutionary War: Major George Bush, Major Louis Bush, Major Soloman Bush."-National Jewish Welfare Board, Jewish Calander for Soldiers and Sailors 1943-1944, "The Jews in the Wars of the United States" Note that the Rockefellers, Rothschilds, Clinton, Mikhail Gorbachev (Orbach-Korbach), Lenin, Joseph V. Stalin (Iosiph David Vissarionovich Djugashvili-Kochba), Gengrich Yagoda, Karl Marx, Mark Rich (Reich), Christian Rakovsky (Chaim Rakover), F.D. Roosevelt, etc. are from Khazar Ashkenazi Jewish ancestry and all occultists. Wall Street funded the Nazis, including Prescott Bush (grandfather of George W.) and the Bolshevik revolution in which again we find many European Russian Jews in high places.

The joke doing the rounds of the British Union at the time before WWII was that the Jewish national anthem is 'Onward Christian Soldiers.' However, note that on Jews were involved on all sides of the conflict, i.e. in Marxism, Communism, Fascism, Nazism, Zionism, Vatican and Monopoly Capitalism. But don't be fooled, these are apostate Jews who are Luciferians as explained by Harold Wallace Rosenthal and they will sacrifice ordinary God worshipping Jews in their wars for supremacy. Note that the Banklords such as the Illuminati Rothschild and Rockefellers and their closely linked family dynasties fund all sides in the conflicts and keep on amassing the World's wealth. Here's more on these dual-citizens whose loyalty is with the Zionist Banklords. Bush has turned over virtually all the high security and advisor positions in his admin to these US/Israeli dual-citizens and we Americans should expect no less from these two murder-loving s-o-b's. both are war criminals and now thanks to Congress, free from being charged with their war crimes and their many acts that once were considered treasonous. Their ideas of "democracy" mean "kill some more, torture some more, as long as we stay in power and Israel doesn't have to foot the bill." these two are master liars and killers literally hanging together on this ill-advised, murderous, treasury-busting "war on terror"!

Here's some more dual-citizens or dual-loyalists: Richard Pearle, Henry Kissinger, Paul Wolfowitz, Michael Chertoff, Elliot Abrams, Dov Zakheim, Douglas Feith, David Wurmser, Jack Abramoff, Henry Kissinger, Paul Wolfowitz, Donald Kagan, Richard Haas, Kenneth Adelman, Edward Luttwak, Robert Satloff, David Frum, David Wurmser, Steve Goldsmith, Marc Grossman

However it is not strictly a matter of Jewish dual citizens or Jews in the main, as it also extends to gentiles under the influence of Jewish right wing/Israeli lobbying organizations like AIPAC. George W. Bush openly shows just as much contempt for the national interest as the neocons, displays an equally reckless disregard for our national security, and just as eagerly upends and violates every law and treaty and foundational principle he can get his hands on. BOTH Bush and his neocon buddies should be forced--nicely, respectfully, and from the "radical center" to choose between America-the-country and his misbegotten 'policies' and if that means choosing between one country and another in the process, this country will be much better off. Here are some other name changes: 'They' like to hide their real names so they can 'hide' themselves amongst the people they intend to infiltrate, subvert, hijack, exploit, enslave, terrorize, and ultimately, destroy. Yes, am talking about...

Hitler came from Hiedler from SCHICKELGRUBER and is the grandson of Baron Rothschild ; The British Royal House of Bauer (Saxe-Coburg-Gotha changed its name to the House of Windsor) at the start of WW1; The Duke of Edinburgh (Lord Mountbatten) changed his name from Battenburg; Gorbachov changed his name from Orbach-Korbach; Stalin changed his name from Iosiph David Vissarionovich Djugashvili-Kochba; The Bush family changed their name from Bosch; J.P. Morgan changed his name from Morgantaler; Rockefeller changed his name from Rogdenfelder; Hillary Rotham Clinton changed her name from Rodenhurst-Rodomski; John Kerry's father changed his name from Fritz Kohn; Rothschild changed his name from Bauer; Mark Rich who was pardoned by Clinton changed his name from Reich; Christian Rakovsky changed his name from Chaim Rakover; Clinton changed his name from Winthrop Rockefeller Jr; Lenin's name was changed from Moishe Blank; Perry changed his name from Pereira-Perez; Madeleine Albright changed her name from Every ever operating national communist party in the World has been lead by Zionists, from 1900 to the 60's. Leon Trotsky (Lev Bornstein, Zinoviev (Hirsch Apfelbaum), Kamreov (Rosenfeld). Outside of Russia Aptecker, Goldman, Kun, Luxembourg. Of the quasi cabinet of the USSR 1917 all 24 were Zionists, all had changed their names. The Soviet Central Committee in 1935 consisted of 56 Zionists and three Christians married to Zionists every one of them had changed their names to hide their Jewish ancestry. Principal American pornography producers are: Braterman, Bone, Fischbein, Freiberg, Fine, Weinstein, Freelander, Holander, Gottesman, Hirsh, Apostein, Ornstein, Rothstein, Sturman, Tanner, Weston, one wonders if they have meetings at the Hollywood Synagogue? You get the picture.

The Corruption of True-Torah Monotheism by the Babylonian Kabbala and Talmud

The Illuminati heretics conspirators have borrowed from Jewish or Biblical ideas and corrupted them, but they must not be confused with true-Torah Judaism, or the rest of the Jewish people. This conspiracy was started in Babylon in the sixth century BC. It was started by megalomaniacs who learned the magic of manipulating the masses with illusions, and wanted to use it to gain World domination. Magic is of course forbidden in true-Judaism so, not to reveal their apostasy, they created a false "interpretation" of the religion, which is now called Kabbalah. It's first great architect, as outlined in The Republic, was Plato. Essentially, the Kabbalah builds on the idea of the covenant. The notion that God had promised a land to his people, and was to send them a Messiah, was exploited by them to argue that they were promised World-rule. The Covenant had obviously been repealed. That did not matter to these, because they were not Jews. These were heretics, who easily exploited religion to suit their own purposes. The primary method of this conspiracy uses religion, or misinterpretations of it, to achieve its aims. These heretics rejected monotheism, God and true-Judaism. Therefore, the basic belief of the Kabbalah, is that there is no truth. Their ego mania led them to believe that they recognized this truth because they were superior intellectually, and that the masses hang on to a belief in the "supernatural" because they are "weak". For that reason, they believe, the masses must be lead by religion. This is precisely the teachings of Leo Strauss. Religion, to them, is a convenient expedient until such time as they will be able to eradicate all religion, and announce themselves as the atheistic rulers of the World, and their leader, or "messiah", as God. The new mythology of "The Da Vinci Code" and "The Gospel of Judas" and "The Talmud" wherein the KETHUBOTH states: "We have a tradition that [Tower] Babel (in Babylon Iraq) will not witness the sufferings that will precede the coming of the Messiah". This is followed by this note: "... usually rendered Babylon [Iraq]. . . travail, . . . but the more correct reading is . . . frequent in modern Christian books is fictitious . . . These are the throes of Mother Zion which is in labor to bring forth the Messiah - without metaphor, the Jewish people."

From Daving Livingstone's <http://www.thedyinggod.com> we learn that the doctrines of the Illuminati are those of the Kabbalah. They believe that these were originally imparted to the Aryan race by the Sons of god of Genesis. However, the occult books specify that these "Sons of god" were the devil and his legions, who had been cast out of Heaven, and who intermarried with the descendants of Cain, to whom they taught magic and astrology. Thus they produced the Aryan race, whose mission it is to guard the "Ancient Wisdom", and to bring humanity to the peak of its evolutionary process, by implementing a one-World fascist dictatorship, governed by occult doctrines. In reality, however, the Kabbalah represents the adoption of pagan ideas into true-Torah Judaism, and is a product of the sixth century BC, not prior to the Flood. When the Jewish people were led out of Egypt and into Palestine, they were commanded to renounce the pagan gods of the nations which had enslaved them. This they did not. Instead, they repeatedly transgressed, polluting even the Temple itself with the accoutrements of this pagan worship. The god they worshipped was the "dying-god", whose death and resurrection were celebrated annually, corresponding to our Easter. But this god had a dual aspect, being considered a single androgynous deity. While representing the Sun, he was also identified with the goddess, whose symbol was the planet Venus, or Lucifer.

As stated in the Bible and Quran, God punished them for knowingly abandoning monotheism by having them taken into Exile to Babylon in the sixth century BC. It was then, instead of repenting for their past wrongs, that these pagan doctrine of a coming Messiah were assimilated to the astrology and magic of the Chaldean Magi, to form what is now known as the Kabbalah. Jesus-Yashuah-Issa was a Israelite reformer in the orthodox, who reproved his people for their corruption of the original monotheism and for following the Pharisees as stated in the Bible. Nevertheless, as his movement spread among the non-Jews, two deviations from his teachings emerged, both of which derived their core doctrines from the Kabbalah and the Ancient Mysteries: Romanized Christianity and Gnosticism, from which the occult tradition was derived. While the former adopted these teachings only cryptically, Gnosticism avowed its paganism more boldly. Therefore, an enduring struggle ensued, through the profusion of numerous secret societies, and the desperate and direful attempts of the Catholics at suppressing them. Nevertheless, it is this concoction of ancient pagan doctrines and legends which Dan Brown attempts to sell as the "truer" form of Christianity in his book "Da Vinci Code". Modern secular culture is really the product of an occult tradition that can be traced back to ancient Babylon through Masons, Rosicrucians, Templars, Plato and the Cabalists. Secularism is as much a religion as Christianity. The "separation of church and state" is a stratagem to enshrine Lucifer as the god of the modern World. Masonic secularism's goal is to destroy genuine monotheism like true-Judaism-Christianity-Islam. Read what Svali, an Illuminati defector wrote about the Illuminati, a superwealthy group of Luciferians who plan a World police state:

"The Illuminati is a group that practices a form of faith known as "enlightenment". It is Luciferian, and they teach their followers that their roots go back to the ancient mystery religions of Babylon, Egypt, and Celtic druidism. They have taken what they consider the "best" of each, the foundational practices, and joined them together into a strongly occult discipline. Many groups at the local level worship ancient deities such as "El", "Baal", and "Ashtarte", as well as "Isis and Osiris" and "Set".... I do know that these people teach and practice evil."

Recognize how the myth of "Western civilization" has been carefully worked out. It was Hegel who invented this idea. Until that time, Europeans largely regarded the Bible as truth. Hegel proposed an alternative, and suggested that history was progressing [the Bible of course teaches the opposite, that the World will regress until the end times], such that human civilization was not falling apart. Also, until Hegel, Europe had been accustomed to recognizing the antiquity of other civilizations and their contribution. In particular, the Renaissance revered the "wisdom" of the "Persians, Egyptians and Assyrians". Hegel, on the other hand, proposed that their contribution should be devalued, and that we should instead accept the supremacy of the Greeks. And thus was born the myth of Western Civilization. Again, this was accomplished by entirely ignoring the fundamental role that Arab and Turkish empires played in the elevation of European knowledge. The very idea of scientific investigation was invented there. This allowed the creation of a dichotomy of East vs West, where none had existed before. The foremost priority of the Illuminati after seizing power during the French and American revolutions was creating compulsory education, and from that point onward they systematically took hold of the university system, where they were able to indoctrinate society into Hegelian Eurocentrism. The myth proposed is that man is evolving towards freedom from "superstition", in other words, God. The Greeks were the first "free-thinkers", and "Western" society steadily progressed towards secularism, achieving its greatest advances during the Renaissance and the Enlightenment. This is why it is so important to understand the hidden history of the dying-god mythology, because then we understand the advancement of the Kabbalistic plot through the steady ruination of man's faith in God and monotheism. The myth ultimately being made is that man has been evolving for centuries towards some point of secular perfection. And we are being made to believe by his cohort, Samuel Huntington, that there is one impediment preventing us from finally implementing that ideology Worldwide, and that is the hold-outs in the World, who insist on not having a Rothschild bank and who hold the conviction that monotheism is the guiding principle, must be exterminated. The Enlightenment, Hegel, the restructuring of the university system, have been part of a 250 process of inculcating that prejudice.

The Actual Anti-Semites Are The Zionists (Jews have a right to protect themselves against Zionism)

There is no relationship between the ordinary Jews, Christians, Moslems, Atheists, etc. and the high-ranking Illuminati-Zionist-Masons. The latter pretend to be Israelites Judeans (or Christian or Moslem). Read the words of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus-Issa when he addressed the Church of Smyrna in Rev. 2:9 "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Judahites, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan". Some Zionists pretend to be Christians (see the section on Masonic and Zionist infiltration of the churches) or Moslems (note that the Crescent and the Star are not symbols of Islam, but rather of ancient Egypt and Rome). These "fake" Jews/Christians/Moslems are using the naïve followers of those religions to play the masses into an insane frenzy against each other for the benefits of the globalist mega-banking dynasties. Don't get caught up and be fooled by this frenzy! The actual anti-Semites are the Zionists.

Non-Israelite Jews: Khazar & Ashkenazi Yaphites (the non-Chosen People)

A good history on the non-Israelite Jews can be found in The Thirteenth Tribe by Arthur Koestler 1976. A Sem-ite or Shem-ite is a descendant of Noah's first son Sem or Shem whose grandson was Abraham. The Semites are Middle-Eastern Arabs and Israelites, and have religious significance for three major World religions (Judaism, Christianity, and Islam). After Prophet Noah's Flood, secret societies arose in Babylon through the knowledge transplanted by Ham (Noah's second son), whose son, Cush (also known as Hermes), claimed to be the interpreter of the gods and whose son was Nimrod. Noah's third son Japheth-Yefeth's descendants are the Pharisees, the Ashkenazi converted fake Khazarian Jews and the Gog & Magog barbaric phallic Turkic tribes; they are mostly today's Zionists. From the King James Version Bible, Genesis 10:1-3: "Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood. The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah". From the King James Version Bible, 1 Chronicles 1:4-6: "and "Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah". The Khazars were a semi-nomadic people from Central Asia whose nobility later adopted Judaism in the 8th century. They founded the independent Khazar kingdom in the 7th Century in the southeastern part of today's Europe, near the Caspian Sea and the Caucasus. In addition to western Kazakhstan, the Khazar kingdom also included territory in what are now eastern Ukraine, southern Russia, and Crimea. The name 'Khazar' itself seems to be tied to a Turkic verb meaning "wandering." Khazar history is intimately tied with that of the Gokturk Empire, founded when the Asena clan overthrew the Juan in AD 552. With the collapse of the Gokturk empire/ tribal confederation due to internal conflict in the seventh century, the western half of the Turk empire itself split into two confederations, the Bulgars, led by the Dulo clan, and the Khazars, led by the Asena clan, the traditional rulers of the Gok Turk empire. By 670, the Khazars had broken the Bulgar confederation, leaving the three Bulgar remnants on the Volga, the Black Sea and the Danube.

Their first significant appearance in history is their aid to the campaign of the Byzantine emperor Heraclius against the Persians and the newly emerging religion of Islam in Arabia. The Muslims fought off the Roman empires attempt to annihilate them and went as far as Eastern Europe. The Khazars were forced to withdraw behind the Caucasus. Afterwards, the Khazars extended their territories from the Caspian Sea in the east to the north of Black Sea in the west. Early Russian sources called Khazaran, their city, Khvalisy and the Khazar Sea (Caspian) Khvaliskoye after the Khwarezmians. Originally, the Khazars practiced traditional Turkic shamanism, focused on the sky god Tengri, but were heavily influenced by Confucian ideas imported from China, notably that of the Mandate of Heaven. The Asena clan was considered to be the chosen of Tengri and the Qaghan was the incarnation of the favor the sky-god bestowed on the Turks. A Qaghan who failed had clearly lost the god's favor and was typically ritually executed. Around the fourth decade of the 8th century, the Khazar royalty and nobility converted to Babylonian Talmudic Judaism (fake Judaism), and part of the general population followed. The first Jewish king was named Bulan. A later king, Obadiah, strengthened Babylonian Talmudic Judaism, inviting rabbis into the kingdom and building synagogues. By the year 950 Babylonian Talmudic Judaism had become a widespread faith. In the 10th century the empire began to decline due to the attacks of both Kievan Rus and other Turkic tribes, and their political significance greatly diminished toward the end of the 12th century.

To a large extent, East European Jews (Ashkenazi) of today are descendants of the Khazars and the instigators of Zionism. The word 'Khazar' is theorised to be the root of several other words, including Cossack, hussar and 'ketzer' (an derogatory German term for a heretic), although the latter is more probably derived from the medieval Cathari gnostics. Some theories also consider Khazars to be ancestors of Terek Cossacks. 90% or more of the World's Jews are Khazarian or Ashkenazi Jews, i.e. non-Israelite Jews. The Khazars' descendants, the European Ashkenazi Jews, falsely claim to be the descendants of the ancient Hebrews. David al-Roy's Star of David (al-Roy) became the emblem of the Zionist "Nile to Euphrates" Crusades, particularly the so-called Zionist holy mission to conquer Palestine for Judaism which is actually to conquer it for Illuminism. You can read about this history in Arthur Koestler's "The Thirteenth Tribe." The large Eastern European Khazar Jewish immigration to America starting in the late 19th Century. Note that there are two versions of the Babylonian Talmud's translations, the one for public consumption and the one not given to the ordinary public but excerpts from which you can find posted on the Internet and is really a piece of hate literature. The oral traditions of the Babylonian Talmud were not written down until after the 1st century A.C. The central book in apostatic or fake Judaism is the Babylonian Talmud which contains the teachings of the apostate Pharisees those people on whom the New Testament spends so many words. The Babylonian Talmud teaches Rabbis to oppose and discredit the teachings of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus because he criticized the Pharisees. Pharisaic law is reflected in the Babylonian Talmud, particularly in the book of Mishna—the original book of the Babylonian Talmud. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus called their teachings "the ways of men," an abomination, and he condemned them; for doing so, Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was "crucified" or so it seemed crossed by the Pharisee Caiaphas and Roman King Pilate (Pilate).

Here is what Yashua-Isa-Yashua-Joshua had to say about the Babylonian Talmudists Pharisees: "Be careful," Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said to them. "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees [read: Babylonian Talmudists]." John 8:44 You [Babylonian Talmudists] belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies".

Here is what Thomas Jefferson, US President, had to say about the Babylonian Talmud: 1743-1826 Letters, Electronic Text Center, University of Virginia Library: "What a wretched depravity of sentiment and manners must have prevailed before such corrupt maxims [the Babylonian Talmud] could have obtained credit! It is impossible to collect from these writings a consistent series of moral Doctrine... It was the reformation of this 'wretched depravity' of morals which Yashua-Joshua-Jesus undertook."

Here is what George Washington, US President, had to say about the Babylonian Pharisaic Talmudists Priest-BankLords: in Maxims of George Washington by A. A. Appleton & Co.: "They (the Babylonian Talmudists) work more effectively against us, than the enemy's armies. They are a hundred times more dangerous to our liberties and the great cause we are engaged in... It is much to be lamented that each state, long ago, has not hunted them down as pest to society and the greatest enemies we have to the happiness of America."

Here is what Benjamin Franklin, one of the founding fathers, had to say about the Babylonian Talmudists (note that he uses the word "Jews" but he is not referring to the real Jews, but rather the fake Ashkenazi Khazarian European Jews which will be explained in the next section of this book): This prophecy, by Benjamin Franklin, was made in a "CHIT CHAT AROUND THE TABLE DURING INTERMISSION," at the Philadelphia Constitutional Convention of 1787. This statement was recorded in the dairy of Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, a delegate from South Carolina: "Jews, gentlemen, are Asiatics, let them be born where they will, nor how many generations they are away from Asia, they will never be otherwise. Their ideas do not conform to an American's, and will not even thou they live among us ten generations. A leopard cannot change its spots. Jews are Asiatics, are a menace to this country if permitted entrance, and should be excluded by this Constitutional Convention."

Here is what Martin Luther had to say about Babylonian Talmudists: "He did not call them Abraham's children, but a 'brood of vipers' [Matt. 3:7]. Oh, that was too insulting for the Jews, and they declared, 'He has a demon' [Matt 11:18]. Our Lord calls them a 'brood of vipers'; furthermore in John 8:39-44 he states: 'If you were Abraham's children ye would do what Abraham did.... You are of your father the devil.' It was intolerable to them to hear that they were not Abraham's but the devil's children, nor can they bear to hear this today."

Others who warned against Babylonian Talmudists include Louis IX, Pope Julius III, Pope Clement VIII & other popes, the Frankists, Martin Luther, Alexander McClellan, Peter Stuyvesant, the Queen of Hungary, Kaiser Wilhelm II, Mark Twain, George Bernard Shaw, Colonel Farrell, Charles Lindbergh, Louis Farrakhan, Henry Wallace Rosenthal, etc., etc. The Illuminati-Zionist-Masons are Luciferian Satanic occultists (remember the movie "The Ten Commandments" when the people of Israel/Jacob revert back to pagan Babylonian golden calf worship under the leadership of the pretender Saamiri while Moses is gone to receive the Commandments) who worship money and power. They are posing as Jews or Patriots to use the shields of "anti-Semitic" or "not-patriotic" accusations to silence the ones who expose them. This alliance uses whoever will cooperate with their plans and then discards them later when they are no longer needed. Those who don't cooperate are eliminated one way or another (see Myron C. Fagan's detailed 1967 blockbuster expose on the Illuminati operations later in this book and the audio on this CD).

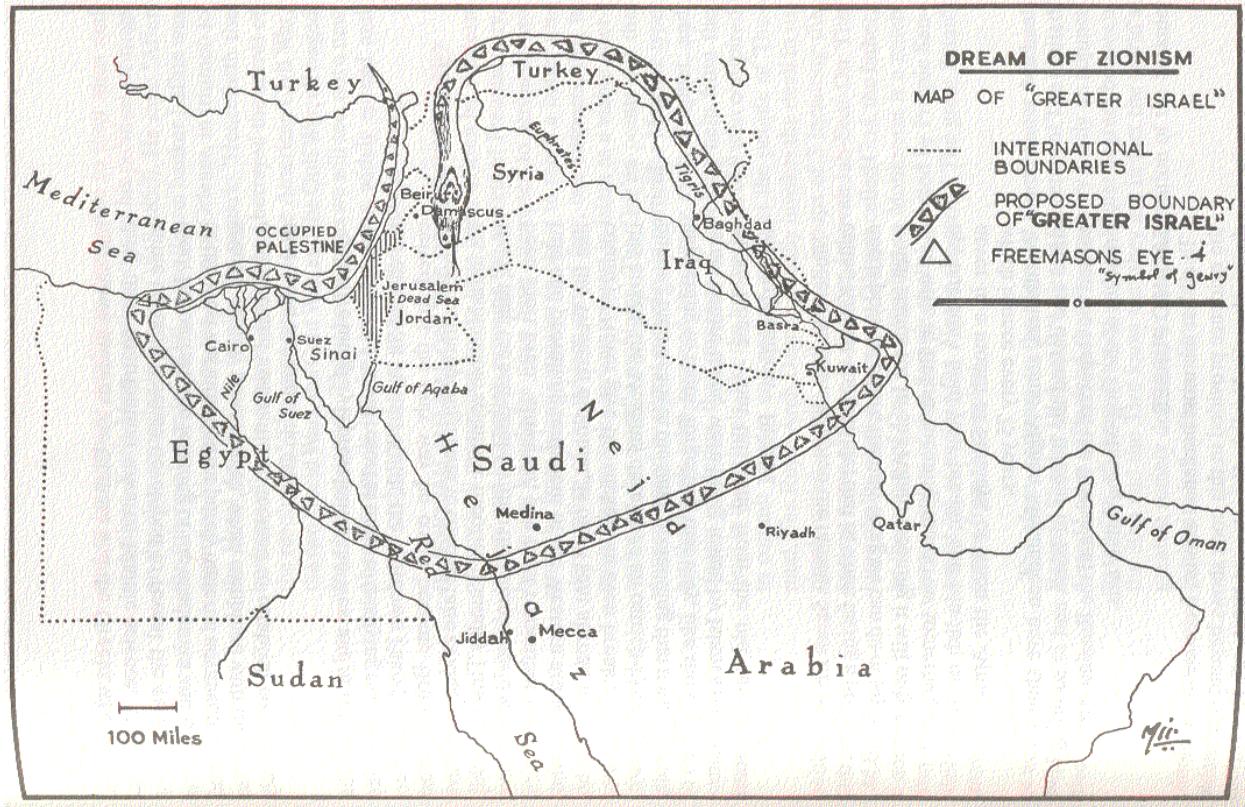

Hathor: Apis bull depicted in this Egyptian statuette (right) is likely to be the pattern used for the golden calf the Israelites made at Mount Sinai (Exo. 32), since they were undoubtedly quite familiar with it as a result of their long captivity in Egypt. In front of the sun disk and horns, which look virtually identical to some Catholic monstrances, there is the serpent poised to strike. In Scripture the serpent is symbolic of Satan. (Gen 3, Rev. 12:9)

How the Zionists Changed Biblical Interpretation using Scofield & Oxford Univ. in 1908

European Zionists, instead of European Jews being given a state carved out of Europe, they were given a state carved out of Palestine, an area to which European Jews had no ancestry at all because their ancestry is traced to Khazaria as shown in the maps previously. Distortions, cover-ups and lies are tools used extensively by Zionists since centuries. To demonstrate the power of the Zionists, Merriam-Webster changed the definition of "anti-Semitism" in its "Third New International Dictionary" which was recently reprinted. The definition now reads: "1) hostility toward Jews as a religious or racial minority group, often accompanied by social, political or economic discrimination (2) opposition to Zionism (3) sympathy for the opponents of Israel." The real and true definition of "anti-Semitism" is: 1) hostility toward descendants of Sem, one of Noah's sons, who include Jews and Arabs, as a religious or racial minority group, often accompanied by social, political or economic discrimination (2) opposition to the descendants of Isaac and Ishmael who are the Israelites and Arabs (3) sympathy for the opponents of Semite Arabs and Jews. The opponents of Semite Arabs and Jews are the Zionists. So, what's the best way to hide that Zionism is anti-Semitism? You guessed it, i.e. change the Merriam-Webster dictionary definition of anti-Semitism as "opposition to Zionism"!

Now, let's go back one century and see what happened to the Bible's translation. Biblical premillennial dispensationalism is the creation of the nineteenth century fundamentalist Zionist C.I. Scofield (1843-1921), known chiefly for his authorship of the Scofield Bible. Scofield codified and thus popularized the earlier ideas of J.N. Darby (1800-82) who first introduced the doctrine. Due to the forcing of the Scofield Bible translation through the Oxford University Press, a Zionized version of Christianity has been created in the United States (in fact, this is similar to the CIA creation of the Taliban; the word Taliban comes from the Hebrew word Talibaneem which was "prophesized" by Rabbi Yess, see Carol Valentine's papers <http://www.publicaction.com>; the Taliban were named, funded and promoted by the CIA; the literature used by the Taliban was printed under a CIA contract at the Nebraska University Press, see Michael Ruppert's books <http://www.copcvia.com>). About 46 percent of Americans or about 127 million are evangelical Christians and many of those rely on the Scofield Bible. Jerry Falwell claims that 70 million "evangelicals" stand with him in support of Israel's right to eject [or kill] 2.5 million Palestinians from Israel.

Paul Boyer, retired professor of history at the University of Wisconsin at Madison and author of the book "When Time Shall Be No More: Prophecy Belief in Modern American Culture" says: "Part of the support for a war on Iraq is coming from fundamentalist believers who see it as a step in the fulfillment of biblical prophecy." Just like the Taliban was, these Christian Frankensteins' leaders are also in partnership with the NWO elements in the CIA. For Chuck Carlson, all of this means that many American Christians, who he says should be influenced by Yashua-Yashua-Joshua' teachings of peace and forgiveness, instead salivate over the prospect of wholesale destruction at the hands of American troops. "It's turned them into warmongers," he says. Evangelical Christians are a powerful voting bloc. They are the glue that holds Bush's war program together." He exposes a major chink in the War Machines Neo Conservative Armor. Lets see how this came about. The attack on American Christianity continues unabated against the traditional, Christ-following church. This attack, which author Gordon Ginn calls "The final Apostasy," began with a small very wealthy and determined European political movement. It had a dream, and the American churches stood in its way.

The World Zionist movement, as its founders called themselves, was promoted as a plan to acquire a homeland for all Jews Worldwide, even though most were far from homeless, and many did not want another home. Not any land would do. World Zionists wanted a specific property that American Christians called "the Holy Land." But if these Zionists read "Democracy in America" or any of the journals of any of America's churches, which no doubt they did, they could not help but know that Jerusalem was not theirs to have. As self-proclaimed Pharisaic Jews, they were, according to the Christian New Testament, the persecutors of Christ and most of his early followers, and the engineers of his crucifixion, as clearly depicted in Mel Gibson's "The Passion of Christ". In the Bible, the Pharisees are referred as "The Synagogue of Satan" by Yashua-Yashua-Joshua. America's traditional churches in the 19th Century would never stand for a Jewish occupation of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' homeland. World Zionist leaders initiated a program to change America and its religious orientation. One of the tools used to accomplish this goal was an obscure and malleable Civil War veteran named Cyrus I.

First, we have seen that the vast majority of Jews are not Israelites but rather Khazarites or Ashkenazis. Also, we have seen that true-Torah monotheistic Judaism was corrupted by the Pharisees and turned into a Kabbalistic Pharisaic Babylonian Talmudic fake-Judaism. Next we will see how the Bible's interpretations were distorted to promote Zionism. In 1947, Indian muslims who wanted their own state were given their state carved out of India. However, when in 1948, the issue of a Jewish state was brought to culmination by Scofield. A much larger tool was a venerable, World respected European book publisher--The Oxford University Press. The scheme was to alter the Christian view of Zionism by creating and promoting a pro-Zionist subculture within Christianity. Scofield's role was to re-write the King James Version of the Bible by inserting Zionist-friendly notes in the margins, between verses and chapters, and on the bottoms of the pages. The Oxford University Press used Scofield as the Editor, portraying him as a pastor, probably because it needed him as a front man. The revised Bible was called the Scofield Reference Bible, and with limitless advertising and promotion, it became a best-selling "Bible" in America and has remained so for 90 years. The Scofield Reference Bible was not to be just another translation, subverting minor passages a little at a time. No, Scofield produced a revolutionary book that radically changed the context of the King James Version. It was designed to create a subculture around a new worship icon, the modern State of Israel, a state that did not yet exist in 1900, but which was already on the drawing boards of the committed, well-funded authors of World Zionism.

Scofield's support came from a movement that took root around the turn of the century, supposedly motivated by disillusionment over what it considered the stagnation of the mainline American churches. Some of these "reformers" were later to serve on Scofield's Editorial Committee. Scofield imitated a chain of past heretics and rapturists, most of whose credibility fizzled over their faulty end times prophesies. His mentor was one John Nelson Darby from Scotland, who was associated with the Plymouth Brethren and who made no less than six evangelical trips to the US selling what is today called "Darbyism." It is from Darby that Scofield is thought to have learned his Christian Zionist theology, which he later planted in the footnotes of the Scofield Reference Bible. It is possible that Scofield's interest in Darbyism was shared by Oxford University Press, for Darby was known to Oxford University (A History of The Plymouth Brethren By William Blair Neatby, M.A.). The Oxford University Press owned "The Scofield Reference Bible" from the beginning, as indicated by its copyright, and Scofield stated he received handsome royalties from Oxford. Oxford's advertisers and promoters succeeded in making Scofield's bible, with its Christian Zionist footnotes, a standard for interpreting scripture in Judeo-Christian churches, seminaries, and Bible study groups. It has been published in at least four editions since its introduction in 1908 and remains one of the largest selling Bibles ever. The Scofield Reference Bible and its several clones is all but worshiped in the ranks of celebrity Christians, beginning with the first media icon, evangelist Billy Graham. Of particular importance to the Zionist penetration of American Christian churches has been the fast growth of national bible study organizations, such as Bible Study Fellowship and Precept Ministries. These draw millions of students from not only evangelical fundamentalist churches, but also from Catholic and mainline Protestant churches and non-church contacts. These invariably teach forms of "dispensationalism," which draw their theory, to various degrees, from the notes in the Oxford Bible. Among more traditional churches that encourage, and in some cases recommend, the use of the Scofield Reference Bible is the huge Southern Baptist Convention of America, whose capture is World Zionism's crowning achievement (See Charles E. Carlson's report on Southern Baptist Zionism entitled "The Cause of the Conflict: Fixing Blame"). Scofield, whose work is largely believed to be the product of Darby and others, wisely chose not to change the text of the King James Edition. Instead, he added hundreds of easy-to-read footnotes at the bottom of about half of the pages, and as the Old English grammar of the KJE becomes increasingly difficult for progressive generations of readers, students become increasingly dependent on the modern language footnotes.

Scofield's notes weave parts of the Old and New Testaments together as though all were written at the same time by the same people. This is a favorite device of modern dispensationalists who essentially weigh all scripture against the unspoken and preposterous theory that the older it is, the more authoritative. In many cases the Oxford references prove to be puzzling rabbit trails leading nowhere, simply diversions. Scofield's borrowed ideas were later popularized under the labels and definitions that have evolved into common usage today--"pre-millennialism," "dispensationalism," "Judeo-Christianity," and most recently the highly political movement openly called "Christian Zionism." Thanks to the work of a few dedicated researchers, much of the questionable personal history of Cyrus I. Scofield is available. It reveals he was not a Bible scholar as one might expect, but a political animal with the charm and talent for self-promotion of a Bill Clinton. Scofield's background reveals a criminal history, a deserted wife, a wrecked family, and a penchant for self-serving lies. He was exactly the sort of man the World Zionists might hire to bend Christian thought--a controllable man and one capable of carrying the secret to his grave. (See The Incredible Scofield and His Book by Joseph M. Canfield). Other researchers have examined Scofield's eschatology and exposed his original work as apostate and heretic to traditional Christian views. Among these is a massive work by Stephen Sizer entitled Christian Zionism, Its History, Theology and Politics, Christ Church Vicarage, Virginia Water, GU25 4LD, England.

Charles E. Carlson's (<http://www.whtt.org>) own examination of the Oxford Bible has gone in another direction, focusing not on what Scofield wrote, but on some of the many additions and deletions The Oxford University Press has continued to make to the Scofield Reference Bible since his death in 1921. These alterations have further radicalized the Scofield Bible into a manual for the Christian worship of the State of Israel beyond what Scofield would have dreamed of. This un-Christian anti-Arab theology has permitted the theft of Palestine and 54 years of death and destruction against the Palestinians, with hardly a complaint from the Judeo-Christian mass media evangelists or most other American church leaders. We thank God for the exceptions. It is no exaggeration to say that the 1967 Oxford 4th Edition deifies--makes a God of--the State of Israel, a state that did not even exist when Scofield wrote the original footnotes in 1908. This writer believes that, had it not been for misguided anti-Arab race hatred promoted by Christian Zionist leaders in America, neither the Gulf War nor the Israeli war against the Palestinians would have occurred, and a million or more people who have perished would be alive today. What proof does WHTT have to incriminate World Zionism in a scheme to control Christianity? For proof, we offer the words themselves that were planted in the 1967 Edition, 20 years after the State of Israel was created in 1947, and 46 years after Scofield's death. The words tell us that those who control the Oxford Press recreated a bible to misguide Christians and sell flaming Zionism in the churches of America. There is little reason to believe that Scofield knew or cared much about the Zionist movement, but at some point, he became involved in a close and secret relationship with Samuel Untermeyer, a New York lawyer whose firm still exists today and one of the wealthiest and most powerful World Zionists in America. Untermeyer controlled the unbreakable thread that connected him with Scofield. They shared a password and a common watering hole--and it appears that Untermeyer may have been the one who provided the money that Scofield himself lacked. Scofield's success as an international bible editor without portfolio and his lavish living in Europe could only have been accomplished with financial aid and international influence.

This connection might have remained hidden, were it not for the work of Joseph M. Canfield, the author and researcher who discovered clues to the thread in Scofield family papers. But even had the threads connecting Scofield to Untermeyer and Zionism never been exposed, it would still be obvious that that connection was there. It is significant that Oxford, not Scofield, owned the book, and that after Scofield's death, Oxford accelerated changes to it. Since the death of its original author and namesake, The Scofield Reference Bible has gone through several editions. Massive pro-Zionist notes were added to the 1967 edition, and some of Scofield's most significant notes from the original editions were removed where they apparently failed to further Zionist aims fast enough. Yet this edition retains the title, "The New Scofield Reference Bible, Holy Bible, Editor C.I. Scofield." It's anti-Arab, Christian subculture theology has made an enormous contribution to war, turning Christians into participants in genocide against Arabs in the latter half of the 20th century. The most convincing evidence of the unseen Zionist hand that wrote the Scofield notes to the venerable King James Bible is the content of the notes themselves, for only Zionists could have written them. These notes are the subject of this paper. Oxford edited the former 1945

Edition of SRB in 1967, at the time of the Six Day War when Israel occupied Palestine. The new footnotes to the King James Bible presumptuously granted the rights of the Palestinians' land to the State of Israel and specifically denied the Arab Palestinians any such rights at all. One of the most brazen and outrageous of these NEWLY INSERTED footnotes states: "FOR A NATION TO COMMIT THE SIN OF ANTI-SEMITISM BRINGS INEVITABLE JUDGMENT." (page 19-20, footnote (3) to Genesis 12:3.) (our emphasis added)

This statement sounds like something from Ariel Sharon, or the Chief Rabbi in Tel Aviv, or Theodore Herzl, the founder of Modern Zionism. But these exact words are found between the covers of the 1967 Edition of the Oxford Bible that is followed by millions of American churchgoers and students and is used by their leaders as a source for their preaching and teaching. There is no word for "anti-Semitism" in the New Testament, nor is it found among the Ten Commandments. "Sin," this writer was taught, is a personal concept. It is something done by individuals in conflict with God's words, not by "nations." Even Sodom did not sin--its people did. The word "judgment" in the Bible always refers to God's action. In the Christian New Testament, Yashua-Joshua-Jesus promises both judgment and salvation for believing individuals, not for "nations." There was also no "State of Israel" when Scofield wrote his original notes in his concocted Scofield Reference Bible in 1908. All references to Israel as a state were added AFTER 1947, when Israel was granted statehood by edict of the United Nations. The Oxford University Press simply rewrote its version of the Christian Bible in 1967 to make antipathy toward the "State of Israel" a "sin." Israel is made a god to be worshiped, not merely a "state." David Ben-Gurion could not have written it better. Perhaps he did write it! The Oxford 1967 Edition continues on page 19:

"(2) GOD MADE AN UNCONDITIONAL PROMISE OF BLESSINGS THROUGH ABRAHAM'S SEED (a) TO THE NATION OF ISRAEL TO INHERIT A SPECIFIC TERRITORY FOREVER"; "(3) THERE IS A PROMISE OF BLESSING UPON THOSE INDIVIDUALS AND NATIONS WHO BLESS ABRAHAM'S DESCENDANTS, AND A CURSE LAID UPON THOSE WHO PERSECUTE THE JEWS." (Page 19, 1967 Edition Genesis 12:1-3)

This bequeath is joined to an Oxford prophesy that never occurs in the Bible itself: "IT HAS INVARIABLY FARED ILL WITH THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE PERSECUTED THE JEW, WELL WITH THOSE WHO HAVE PROTECTED HIM." and "THE FUTURE WILL STILL MORE REMARKABLY PROVE THIS PRINCIPLE"(footnote (3) bottom of page19-20Genesis 12:3). None of these notes appeared in the original Scofield Reference Bible or in the 1917 or 1945 editions. The state of Israel DID NOT EXIST in 1945, and according to the best dictionaries of the time, the word "Israel" only referred to a particular man (Prophet Jacob) and an ancient tribe, which is consistent with the Bible text. See "Israel," Webster's New International Dictionary 2nd (1950) Edition. All of this language, including the prophecy about the future being really bad for those who "persecute the Jews," reflects and furthers the goals of the Anti-Defamation League, which has a stated goal of creating an environment where opposing the State of Israel is considered "anti-Semitism," and "anti-Semitism" is a "hate crime" punishable by law. This dream has become a reality in the Christian Zionist churches of America. Only someone with these goals could have written this footnote. The State of Israel's legal claims to Arab lands are based on the United Nations Partitioning Agreement of 1947, which gave the Jews only a fraction of the land they have now occupied by force. But when this author went to Israel and asked various Israelis where they got the right to occupy Palestine, each invariably said words to the effect that "God gave it to us." This interpretation of Hebrew scripture stems from the book of Genesis and is called the "Abrahamic Covenant". It is repeated several times and begins with God's promise to a man called Abraham who was eventually to become the grandfather of a man called "Israel:"

"[2] AND I WILL MAKE OF THEE A GREAT NATION, AND I WILL BLESS THEE, AND MAKE THY NAME GREAT; AND THOU SHALL BE A BLESSING."
"[3] AND I WILL BLESS THEM THAT BLESS THEE, AND CURSE HIM THAT CURSETH THEE: AND IN THEE SHALL ALL FAMILIES OF THE EARTH BE BLESSED."
Genesis 12:3, King James Edition.

It is upon this promise to a single person that modern Israeli Zionists base their claims to what amounts to the entire Mid-East. Its logic is roughly the equivalent of someone claiming to be the heir to the John Paul Getty estate because the great man had once sent a letter to someone's cousin seven times removed containing the salutation "wishing you my very best." In "Sherry's War," We Hold These Truths provides a common sense discussion of the Abrahamic Covenant and how millions of Christians are taught to misunderstand it. It is tempting to engage in academic arguments to show readers the lack of logic in Scofield's theology, which has led followers of Christ so far astray. It seems all too easy to refute the various Bible references given in support of Scofield's strange writings. But we will resist the temptation to do this, because others have already done it quite well. It is also inviting to dig into Scofield's sordid past as Canfield has done, revealing him to be a convicted felon and probable pathological liar, but we leave that to others, because our interest is not in Scofield's life, but in saving the lives of millions of innocent people who are threatened by the continuing Zionist push for perpetual war. Instead, we will examine the words on their face. The words in these 1967 footnotes are Zionist propaganda that has been tacked onto the text of a Christian Bible. Most of them make no sense, except to support the Zionist State of Israel in its war against the Palestinians and any other wars it may enter into. In this purpose, Zionism has completely succeeded. American Judeo-Christians, more recently labeled "Christian Zionists," have remained mute during wars upon Israel's enemies in Palestine, Iraq, Afghanistan, Bosnia and elsewhere. It is past time to stop the spilling of more blood.

Now, for evidence of the intent of the Zionists deception of Christians, let us examine some Scofield's notes THAT HAVE BEEN ALTERED OR REMOVED by Oxford after his death. In 1908 Scofield wrote in 1908: "THE CONTRAST, 'I KNOW THAT YE ARE ABRAHAM'S SEED' - 'IF YE WERE ABRAHAM'S CHILDREN' IS THAT BETWEEN THE NATURAL AND THE SPIRITUAL POSTERITY OF ABRAHAM. THE ISRAELITISH PEOPLE AND ISHMAELITISH PEOPLE ARE THE FORMER; ALL WHO ARE 'OF THE PRECIOUS FAITH WITH ABRAHAM,' WHETHER JEWS OR GENTILES, ARE THE LATTER (ROM 9, 6-8; GAL, 4-14. SEE 'ABRAHAMIC COVENANT' GEN 15, 18, NOTE)." (Scofield's 1945 page 1127, note to John 8:39). Compare that with the Oxford note substituted in the 1967 Edition: "8:37 ALL JEWS ARE NATURAL DESCENDANTS OF ABRAHAM, BUT ARE NOT NECESSARILY HIS SPIRITUAL POSTERITY, CP Rom 9-6-8, Gal 3: 6-14" (Note (1) P1136, Oxford 1967 Edition, note to Jn 8:37.)

How, pray tell, can "all Jews" be "natural descendants of Abraham," a Chaldean who lived some 3000 years ago? Persons of all races are Jews and new Jews are being converted every day from every race. One might as well say all Lutherans are the natural descendants of Martin Luther; or that all Baptists come from the loins of John the Baptist. This note could only have been written by an Israeli patriot, for no one else would have a vested interest in promoting this genetic nonsense. Shame on those who accept this racism; it is apostate Christianity. The original Scofield note was far out of line with traditional Christianity in 1908 and should have been treated as heresy then. Yet Scofield had failed to go far enough for the Zionists. Scofield clearly recognized what the book of Genesis states, that the sons of Ishmael are co-heirs to Abraham's ancient promise. Did not Scofield say "the Israelitish people and Ishmaelite (Arabs) people are...the natural posterity of Abraham"? The Oxford Press simply waited for Scofield to die and changed it as they wished. And what is it that Scofield said that did not satisfy the Zionists who rewrote the Oxford 1967 Edition? The answer is an easy one. Most Arab and Islamic scholars consider Arabs in general and the Prophet Mohamed in particular to be direct descendants of Ishmael, Abraham's first son and older half-brother of Isaac, whose son Jacob was later to become known as "Israel." Many Arabs believe that through Ishmael they are co-heirs of to Abraham's promise, and they correctly believe that present-day Israelis have no Biblical right to steal their land. Jewish Babylonian Talmudic folklore also speaks of Ishmael, so the Zionists apparently felt they had to alter how Christians viewed the two half brothers in order to prevent Christians from siding with the Arabs over the land theft. The Zionists solved this dilemma by inserting a senseless footnote in the 1967 (Oxford) Scofield Reference Bible which, in effect, substitutes the word "Jews" for the words "The Israelitish people and Ishmaelitish people," as Scofield originally wrote it. The Israelitish and Ishmaelitish people lived 3000 years ago, but the Zionists want to claim the Arabs' part of the presumed birthright right now! Read it again; "all Jews are natural descendants of Abraham, but are not necessarily his spiritual posterity." And there is more of such boondoggery in the Oxford bible. On the same page 1137 we find yet another brand new Zionist-friendly note referring to the New Testament book of John 8:37.

"(2) 8:44 THAT THIS SATANIC FATHERHOOD CANNOT BE LIMITED TO THE PHARISEES IS MADE CLEAR IN 1Jn3:8-10" (note SRB 1967 Edition, P1137 to John 8:44)

Let us look at the verse Oxford is trying to soften, wherein Jesus-Yashua-Joshua is speaking directly to the Pharisees, who were the Jewish leaders of his day, and to no one else: "YE ARE OF YOUR FATHER THE DEVIL (SATAN), AND THE LUST OF YOUR FATHER YE WILL DO. HE WAS A MURDERER FROM THE BEGINNING, AND ABODE NOT IN THE TRUTH, BECAUSE THERE IS NO TRUTH IN HIM. WHEN HE SPEAKEST A LIE, HE SPEAKEST OF HIS OWN; FOR HE IS A LIAR, AND THE FATHER OF IT." John 8:44 King James Ed.) Those are plain words. No wonder the Zionists wanted to dilute what Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said. Not only did Oxford add a new footnote in 1967, but they inserted no less than four reference cues into the King James sacred text, directing readers to their specious, apostate footnotes. It seems the Zionists cannot deny what Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said about Pharisees, but they do not want to bear the burden of being "sons of Satan" all by themselves. Now here's the text of the verse to which Oxford refers in order to try to solve this problem: "HE THAT COMMITTH SIN IS OF THE DEVIL; FOR THE DEVIL SINNETH FROM THE BEGINNING. FOR THIS PURPOSE THE SON OF GOD WAS MANIFESTED, THAT HE MIGHT DESTROY THE WORK OF THE DEVIL." (1Jn3:8.King James Edition). Fine, but this verse, spoken by Yashua-Joshua-Jesus to His followers in a speech about avoiding sin, in no way supports Oxford's argument that Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was not talking directly to and about the Pharisee leaders when he called them "Sons of Satan" in John 8:44. It is a different book written at a different time to a different audience. This is typical Christian Zionist diversion. To find out to whom Yashua-Joshua-Jesus is speaking you must read the rest of John 8, not something from another book. Furthermore, John 8:44 is only one of some 77 verses where Yashua-Joshua-Jesus confronted the Pharisees by name and in many cases addressed them as "satanic" and as "vipers." Oxford simply ignores most of these denunciations by Yashua-Joshua-Jesus, adding no notes at all, and the Christian Zionists go along without question. These are a few examples of Zionist perversions of scripture that have shaped the doctrine of America's most politically powerful religious subculture, the "Christian Zionists" as Ariel Sharon calls them, or the dispensationalists, as intellectual followers call themselves, or the Judeo-Christians as our politically-correct politicians describe themselves. Today's Mid-East wars are not caused by the predisposition of the peoples, who are no more warlike than any human tribes. Without the pandering to Jewish and Zionist interests that is carried out by this subculture--the most vocal being the celebrity Christian evangelists--there would be no such wars, for there is not enough support for war outside of organized Zionist Christianity.

Reverend Stephen Sizer of Christ Church, Christ Church Vicarage, Virginia Water, GU25 4LD, England is perhaps the most dedicated new scholar writing about the Scofield Bible craze, popularly known as Christian Zionism. He has quipped, "Judging Christianity by looking at the American Evangelists is kind of like judging the British by watching Benny Hill." Reverend Sizer's remark brings to mind another Benny; his name is Benny Hinn, not a British comic, but an American evangelist spouting inflammatory hate-filled words aimed at Muslims everywhere. Hinn was speaking to the applause of an aroused crowd of thousands in the American Airline Center in Dallas when he shocked two Ft. Worth Star Telegram religious reporters covering the July 3d event by announcing, "We are on God's side," speaking of Palestine. He shouted, "This is not a war between Jews and Arabs. It is a war between God and the Devil." Lest there be any doubt about it, Hinn was talking about a blood war in which the Israelis are "God" and the Palestinians are "the Devil." Benny Hinn is one of hundreds of acknowledged Christian Zionists who have no problem spouting outright race hatred and who join in unconditional support for Israel without regard for which or how many of Israel's enemies are killed or crippled. His boldness stems from his knowledge that the vast majority of professing Christians from whom he seeks his lavish support--the Judeo-Christians, or Christian Zionists--do not shrink at his words, because they have been conditioned to accept them, just as Roman citizens learned to accept Christian persecution, even burning alive, under Nero. Several evangelists in attendance affirmed their agreement with Hinn - "the line between Christians and Muslims is the difference between good and evil."

An amazing number of professing Christians are in agreement with the fanatical likes of Hinn, including Gary Bauer, Ralph Reed, James Dobson and hundreds more. Yet Hinn's profit-seeking fanaticism is not as shocking as that of men like Richard Land of the Southern Baptist Convention who occupy the highest positions in the area of conservative religious thought. Land may have stopped short of branding all Muslims as devils, but he attacked their leader and Prophet and stated that, according to Baptist Bible interpretation, the Palestinian people have no legal rights to property in Palestine. (See WHTT discussion of Southern Baptists entitled "The Cause of the Conflict: Fixing Blame."). The more politically conservative the speaker expressing hatred for Islam, the more shocking the statement sounds. One example is Samuel Blumenfeld, a veteran textbook author and advocate of home education. His attack on Islam in a story entitled "Religion and Satanism" in the April 2002 conservative, Calvinist Chalcedon Report leaves little room for civil liberties and freedom of thought. He writes, "Islam is a religion ruled by Satan," and asks, "Can anyone under the influence of Satan be trusted?" Blumenfeld shows poor judgment and a lack of morality when he allows phrases such as "willing agents of Satan," "another manifestation of Satanism" and "the willingness of Muslims to believe blatant lies," to spill from his pen. How can anyone interpret these words by Land, Hinn, Blumenfeld, and yes, our own President, as anything less than race hatred? Who would make such generalized and transparently false statements against any other minority except Muslims?

About 100 million American Christians need to recover their true faith in Christ Yashua-Joshua-Jesus, who never denounced any individual on account of his group. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus even tried to save the Pharisees, and only denounced them when they showed themselves to be deceivers. There is not a word in the New Testament that urges any follower of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus to murder one child in Iraq or condemn Palestine to death. Race hatred is a Zionist, not a Christian, strategy. Christian Zionism may be the most bloodthirsty apostasy in the entire history of Christianity or any other religion. Shame on its leaders: they have already brought the blood of untold numbers innocent people down upon the spires and prayer benches of America's churches. WHTT asks every Christian to share this article with pastors and church leaders, especially lay leaders. We ask every Muslim and Jew who reads it to do the same. You might wish to suspend giving money to any organizations that preach Zionist race hatred in any form, especially under the cover Yashua-Joshua-Jesus Christ. Subject: [ChristianPatriot] The Milleniam - 4 (Last One) .Scofield's reference Bible has been credited for popularizing this Jewish concept into Christian Doctrine. Nord Davis states about Scofield: "You will learn how he defrauded his mother-in-law out of her life savings. How he was convicted of forgery and, in another case, was sent off to prison...he openly carried on with other women, abandoned his wife and family, and never sent them a dime of support. "When his wife finally divorced him, he married the woman with whom he was living. All the time he was writing the now infamous notes to the Scofield reference Bible. As a 'Christian' he was a disgrace. As a man he lacked ordinary chivalry of a gentleman. He called himself 'Dr.' yet he never went to any college which could convey that degree. His life as a minister makes the recent escapades of some modern ministers pales into insignificance. "His financial support for the reference Bible came from Zionist and conspiratorial groups out of Boston Massachusetts. Chiefly known as the Secret Six..." (Nord Davis, Cyrus I. Scofield: The Pope of Prophecy Perversion)

Bush at the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem which is former site of the Roman Fortress Antonia!!!

For a more detailed study on C.I. Scofield we recommend the book, "The Incredible Scofield and His Book," by Joseph M. Canfield. So what did Scofield teach in his reference notes? Quoting from page 1227, note 6: "Upon His return, the King will restore the Davidic monarchy in His own person, regather dispersed Israel, establish His power over all the earth, and reign one thousand years. "The dispensation of the kingdom begins with the return of Christ to the earth, runs through the 'thousand years' of His earth-rule, and ends when he has delivered up the kingdom to the Father... "The gospel of the kingdom. This is the good news that God purposes to set up on the earth, in fulfillment of the Davidic covenant, a kingdom, political, spiritual, Israelitish (i.e. Jewish), universal, over which God's son, David's heir, shall be king, and which shall be for one thousand years, the manifestation of the righteousness of God in human affairs..."Two resurrections are yet future, which are inclusive of 'all that are in the graves.' These are distinguished as 'of life' and 'of judgment.' They are separated by a period of one thousand years." (Scofield Bible, pp. 1227, note 6; 1228, note 4; 1341, note 1; 1343). All these ideas are pulled out of context from other places in Scripture and cut and pasted together into the theology called "dispensationalism" to promote a Jewish doctrine that put the reality of Christ's victory and the power of His New Covenant into the future! The end result is an expectation for Christ to come again a second time, which would be in violation of God's Word, and would bring about His judgment, just as Moses did when he struck the rock the second time. Today this theology is popularly known as "Judeo-Christianity" and for good reason because it is first and foremost Jewish in origin, character, and reality.

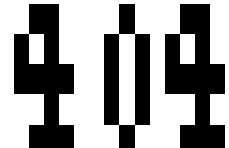

Pastor V.S. Herrell sums it up: "To this day, the Jews continue to teach their Christ-hatred from their Babylonian Talmud, to teach their children that Yashua-Joshua-Jesus Christ was an impostor and not the Son of God and not the true Christ. So the Jews began to teach the doctrine that Christ was yet to come and they began to tell the Christians that when Christ was to come to set up the materialistic, futuristic, plutocratic kingdom they claimed they, the Jews, were all going to repent and because they are such special God-chosen people, even though Christ described them as being living, breathing devils of their father the devil, they were all going to get to reign with Christ over the white goyim from Jerusalem for a full thousand years. Moreover, their Babylonian Talmudic, Zionistic materialism of their real bible the Babylonian Talmud, which they hold to have more authority than the Pentateuch as it is supposedly based upon the traditions of the elders which is yet another Jewish lie, and teaches the Jew that all that he can victimize and steal from the stupid goyim in this life will once again be his in the millennium when he is resurrected or reincarnated in his Jewish World order. They are also taught to never tell the stupid goyim as to what they really believe of think." (Pastor V.S. Herrel, Christian Separatist Epiphanological & Eschatological Teachings, p. 26)

Deceptive Symbolisms

(▽) (Δ) combined in the congress are represented in by the Hexagram of the magicians ⚡ which has nothing to do with the Prophet King David but is related to David Al Roy, a 16th Century anti-Christ and the Rothschilds who adopted the hexagram as their Illuminist (satanic) symbol. You may note as well that the pyramid triangle is the pagan symbol for male and the inverted pyramid triangle is the pagan symbol for female and the Hexagram is formed by their union. In fact, the earliest male symbol was ▲ and ▼ for female.

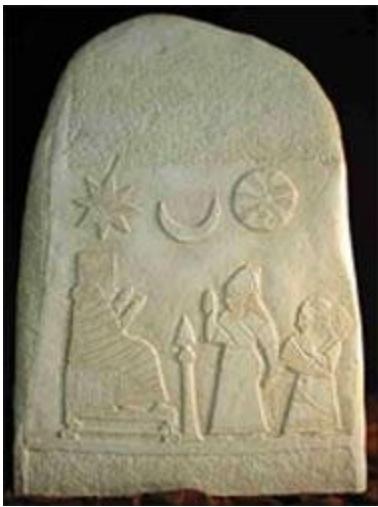

Bush pays respect to the Hexagram, Masonic Satanic symbol falsely known as the Star of David. Note that the star on the Israeli flag is the Star of Moloch, a Luciferian Masonic Satanic symbol, a sign of the House of Rothschild, and the Jews have been fooled into calling it the Star of David. And just look at the design of the new Israeli Supreme Court, its totally Masonic and paid for by the Rothschild mega-banking dynasty. This will be explained later in details across several sections of this book.

The menorah above is one of the oldest symbols of the Jewish faith. The seven branched candelabra could have originated as a version of the Babylonian World tree - the seven arms likely represent the seven days of creation and the seven visible planets. The Menorah was the most important ritual object in the Temple of Jerusalem until it was stolen by the Romans. According to tradition, during the rededication of the temple in the second century B.C., the lamps of the menorah burned for eight days on one day's worth of oil. This is the origin of the nine branched menorah, or Hanukiyah, with one branch for each of the eight days, plus one central light used to light the others during the Hanukkah festival. Curiously, the name given to the central light is "Shamash," the name of the Babylonian Sun god, who is related to a similar ancient symbol.

Another example of the Illuminati Masons fooling people into adopting their symbols is the use of the crescent and the star by certain Muslims since the capture of Constantinople in 1453 CE. The Ottoman Empire was infiltrated with Khazars and Masons and managed to get their symbols to be used the Ottomans. The star and crescent symbol is very ancient, dating back to early Sumerian civilization, where it was associated with the sun god and moon goddess (one early appearance dates to 2100 B.C.), and later, with goddesses Tanit and Diana. There is no relationship between the crescent and star and The Quran (The Read) or the Prophet Muhammad (whose very simple flag was black and white inscribed "Nasr um min Allah" "With The Help of THE God"). During the Byzantine Empire, the city of Byzantium (a.k.a. Constantinople and Istanbul) was Dedicated to Diana, goddess of the hunt. The crescent was the symbol of Diana. In 330 CE, Constantine rededicated the city to the Virgin Mary, whose star symbol was added to the previous crescent. When the Turks took possession of Byzantium, they found lots of crescent flags and adopted it as a symbol of good omen. In 339 BC, Philip of Macedon (the father of Alexander the Great) was thwarted from overtaking the city of Byzantium because his army was spotted due to a bright crescent moon. "The star and crescent" was common on the arm of knights and esquires. A star within a crescent was a badge of Richard I, 250 years before Constantinople fell to the Ottomans. Since then, Ottoman Muslims have increasingly used it to identify themselves. Some predominantly

Here is yet one more example of a distortion of true faith. The Shriners are an international Masonic fraternity composed solely of 32nd degree Knights Templar York Rite Masons and 33rd degree Scottish Rite Masons grand-masters. Their official name is the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, or A.A.O.N.M.S. (Roosevelt was a member of this order). When the Shriners used the word "the god" or "allah" or "Grand Architect", they are not referring to the Islamic concept of God but rather to the Masonic concept of the great architect Lucifer and in fact idolatry such as the ancient trinity of the worship of the sun, moon and stars. The pagan trinity consisted of the worship of the sun, moon and stars. The moon god that Robert Morey talks about is the Masonic idolatry god and not GOD in Islam which is true monotheism. Morey is totally confused and would like to confuse others into thinking that Islam is idolatry which it is not. Rather, it is Masonic Illuminism that is idolatry and True Islam like True Christianity and True Torah Judaism is the monotheistic worship of THE GOD (ALLAH in Arabic) of Abraham, Noah, Adam, i.e. THE CREATOR OF THE UNIVERSE. Let's clear some misunderstanding about the World Allah. One thing you may hear today is that Muslims do not worship God, they worship something else called Allah, however Allah is simply the Arabic word for "God." It is closely related to Alaha, the word for God in Aramaic, the language that Yashua-Yashua-Joshua and his disciples spoke, a language still spoken in a few areas in the Middle East. The Qur'an, or the holy book of Islam, refers to Yashua-Issa-Yashua-Joshua as "the Messiah." Christos or Christ is only a Greek translation of the Aramaic and Hebrew word, "messiah."

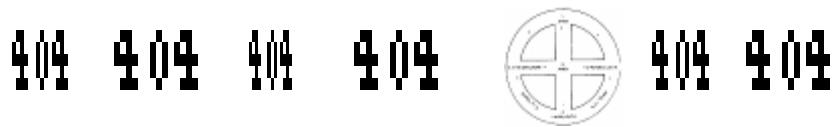

The Shriner order was founded in New York City in 1812 by two 33rd degree masons: Billy Florence and William Fleming. According to their literature, the alleged official founder is Ali, cousin of Prophet Muhammad, who allegedly established it in the year 644 in Mecca. This Masonic order has nothing to do with the True Godly faith of Islam. For more details, please see the section on the history of idolatry and the occult on the CD. The "Mystic Shrine" in their name refers to the Kaa'ba, a large cubical structure located in Mecca, Arabia. The idolators think of the Kaa'ba as one of their centers of worship along with Jerusalem and Babylon. To God loving peoples, the Kaa'ba was actually built by Adam and then Prophet Abraham as the first house of worship to God on Earth. The Kaa'ba has been rebuilt over and over; the structure now standing was rebuilt by Prophet Muhammad's tribe, the Quraish, in the seventh century. Prophet Abraham broke the stone idols in the Temples of Babylon 4,000 years ago at the time of Nimrod; Yashua-Joshua-Jesus threw the money-collecting Pharisees out of the Temple in Jerusalem; the Prophet Abraham broke the idols in the Temple of Nimrod in Babylon; the Prophet Mohammad removed the stone idols from the Kaa'ba in Mecca (formerly known as Becca in the Bible, photo above). A series of Masonic rituals, dialogues, stories, regulations, and recognition tests are written by the founders of the order of the Mystic Shrine. It contains detailed information on all Shriner passwords, hand shakes, and secrets. It is not available to the public. Their symbol (shown above) is a crescent turned downward with a sword over it. "For esoteric reasons we hang the horns pointing downward representing the setting moon of the old faith at the moment of the rising sun of the new faith." The sword is placed over the crescent because it represents the sacred word (S-word) of truth. These US Presidents, politicians and most influential men had to take a death oath to allah (not the real one that true muslims worship but the pagan Masonic moon god) and are sworn to keep the secret oaths of the Masonic lodge over all else, even Government! Masons at this time had to be of the 32nd degree to be a shrine.

FAMOUS POLITICAL MASON SHINERS & ENTERTAINERS WEARING THEIR SECRET DEATH OATH FEZ TO allah the pagan Masonic moon god, and not to be confused with the true GOD ALLAH YAWEH whom monotheists true Torah Jews, Christians and Moslems worship; General Douglas McArthur, Pres. Gerald Ford, John Wayne, FBI Dir. J. Edgar Hoover (who said that the conspiracy is monstrous), KFC Colonel Sanders.

Similarly, the cross is one of the oldest religious symbols of all time. The long-stemmed Latin Cross originated with the Romans as a torture device. "Cross" and "Crucifix" came from the Latin ver cruciare which means to torture. The cross was adapted from Pagan cults for Christian use after the council of Nicaea in the 4th century.

The "Tau" or T Cross is a symbol of the ancient Roman God Mithras and the Greek Attis. The Reversed Cross is an emblem of Satanism, and has also been used as the cross of St. Peter. The Celtic Cross is a pre-Christian variation of the Solar Cross which now represents the Celtic Christian Church. The Cross Lorraine, named after the region in France of the same name, is also the cross of the Greek Orthodox Church. It denotes the rank of cardinal in the Roman Catholic Church, and is a symbol for white lead in alchemical texts. The Solar cross is another of the oldest religious symbols, and represents a calendar marking the solstices and equinoxes. The pagan Square Cross was used about 1,500 B.C. and the balanced vertical-horizontal arms convey a natural union of male and female and is heavily used as a Masonic symbol in secret societies such as the Templars, Jesuits, Priore de Sion, Knights of Malta, the Swiss flag, etc. This is also known as The Universal Rite of the Square Earth Cross, The Square Earth Cross, the Qabalistic Cross (from Magic Pentacle magazine vol 1, issue 1). The making of a Square Cross is one of the most ancient rites of magic, and it exists in parallel forms in both West and East. This symbol is seen throughout the World in art, architecture and landscape gardening. It is the first step towards mastery of one's personal and local universe. The square cross symbol which is at the heart of pagan rites is an equal armed cross surrounded by a circle. In ancient times, it represented the daily path of the Sun around the Earth, therefore it is also called the Solar Cross. In modern times, it represents the annual path of the Earth around the central Sun and so it is also known as the Earth Cross. The arms of thee Square Cross represent the four cardinal directions, East, South, West and North. It also symbolises the monthly path of the Moon around the Earth. The most familiar use of the Square Earth Cross for Western magicians and wiccans is the Qabalistic Cross, which opens every rite of the major traditions of the Western Pagan Mysteries. The wording of the Qabalistic rite is 'Atah ha-Malkuth w'-ha-Gevurah w'-ha-Gedulah le'olam Amen. This translates into English as "Thou art the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory forever Amen." This Gnostic phrase was inserted into the Greek text of the Christian scriptures in the second century C.E. in a slightly distorted form as a doxology for the Lord's Prayer, translated as "Thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory for ever and ever. Amen." There is considerable difference in meaning to be found between the two versions, especially if one meditates on who is referred to by the word "Thou" in the Gnostic original; and who by the word "Thine" in the Christian reversion. The Christian version is attached to a prayer which is addressed to God and is directed towards that which is Other than the Self. The Gnostic version can be interpreted differently, especially if you consider that esoterically, the right thumb is referred to the Sun, which is referred to the central Sefirah of the Tree of Life and to the Ruach, the essential Self or Spirit.

The Pharisees \(Priest-Bankers\) are Still In Charge Today

Yashua-Joshua always warned people about the Pharisees who conspired against Yashua-Joshua-Jesus and the Israelites (Jacobites). Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said to the Pharisees (the priest-bankers-usurers who worked from the Temple in Jerusalem) who mislead ordinary Judeans, "Ye are of your father, the devil ... He was a murderer from the beginning ... he is a liar and the father of it." The central book in apostatic Judaism is the Babylonian Talmud (written after Yashua-Joshua-Jesus), which contains the teachings of the apostate Pharisees (note the resemblance to Pharaohs; Pharaohs ruled by dividing their subjects into casts and degrees like Nimrod, the builder of the infamous tower of Babel) -- those people on whom the New Testament spends so many words. The Babylonian Talmud teaches Rabbis to oppose and discredit the teachings of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus because he criticized the Pharisees. As previously stated, Pharisaic law is reflected in the Babylonian Talmud, particularly in the book of Mishna—the original book of the Babylonian Talmud. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus called their teachings "the ways of men," an abomination, and he condemned them; for doing so, Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was "crucified" or so it seemed crossed by the Pharisee Caiaphas and Roman King Pilatoos (Pilates).

At the ancient temple in Jerusalem during Yashua-Joshua-Jesus-Issa's time two thousand years ago, the Pharisees money-changers used the Jewish and Sun-god temples to collect interest. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was so upset by the sight of the money changers in the temple, he waded in and started to tip over the tables and drive them out with a whip, this being the one and only time we ever hear of him using force during his entire ministry. So what caused the ultimate pacifist to become so aggressive? For a long time the Jews had been called upon to pay their temple tax with a special coin called the half shekle. It was a measured half ounce of pure silver with no image of a pagan emperor on it. It was to them the only coin acceptable to God (actually to the Pharisees). But because there was only a limited number of these coins in circulation, the money changers were in a buyers market and like with anything else in short supply, they were able to raise the price to what the market would bear. They made huge profits with their monopoly on these coins and turned this time of devotion into a mockery for profit. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus saw this as stealing from the people and proclaimed the whole setup to be "A den of thieves". Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' exposing of the money changers made him a target for them and their leader Caiaphas.

Pharisee: "One of the members of a school or party among the ancient Jews noted for the strict formal observance of the rites and validity of traditions of the elders. Pharisee interpretation provided the standard of observation and belief for the great majority of the Jews from the 1st century A.C. Pharisical, hypocritical, self righteous and censorious of others" -- Webster's New International Dictionary of the English Language, 2nd edition, 1950. PHARISEES ARE A SECRET ORDER WHO PRETEND TO BE ISRAELITES! Yashua-Joshua-Jesus-Issa had quite a verbal scathing for the Pharisees (the usurers who worked from the Temple in Jerusalem) in Matthew 23. Pharisaic law is reflected in the Babylonian Talmud, particularly in the book of Mishna—the original book of the Babylonian Talmud. He exposed them for the sort of people they were: "Hypocrites," "sons of hell," "blind guides," "fools," "full of robbery and self-indulgence," "whitewashed tombs...full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness," "full of hypocrisy and lawlessness," "partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets", "serpents and brood of vipers", "den of thieves", "Synagogue of Satan", Rev. 2:9 "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Judahites, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan", "Ye are of your father, the devil (Satan)... He was a murderer from the beginning ... he is a liar and the father of it. "Yashua-Joshua called their teachings (Babylonian Talmud) "the ways of men. Looking at "God - the Ultimate Paradox", David Ash tells us (p.69:) that in ancient times, Jews "had a governing body ... known as the 'Council of Elders' dominated by the Pharisees. In the 19th century this council "described itself as the learned Elders of Zion". We learn that there is a group within the Elders which infiltrates and creates secret societies - such as the Masons - known as 'The Brotherhood of the Snake ... In modern times this brotherhood has adopted the title of Illuminati" (p.74) and created Zionism.

In "The Pharisees--The Sociological Background of Their Faith," Rabbi Louis Finkelstein describes these self-styled occultists who pretend to be "Jews" and their origins: "Phariseism became Babylonian Talmudism, Babylonian Talmudism became Medieval Rabbinism, and Medieval Rabbinism became Modern Rabbinism. But throughout these changes in name...the spirit of the ancient Pharisee survives unaltered." "...rabbinic Judaism, the first-born child of Phariseism, remains a unit until this day." (p.XXI of Forward to 1st Edition, "The Pharisees," Vol. 1, Philadelphia: The Jewish Publication Society of America, 1938 & Vol. 2, p. 622. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus confronted the Pharisees in the Temple. The noun Pharisee occurs at least 87 times in the New Testament, often said by Yashua-Joshua-Jesus. Yet any use of the word has all but been eliminated from the teachings and pulpits of America. WHY? No longer an exclusive Jewish term, Pharisac influence is found in every church and Synagogue in America, busily reshaping Christianity in its image. Efforts are made to reshape all religions into the image the mega-banking dynasties find acceptable in order to maintain and expand their wealth.

The Pharisees were a secret order who outwardly appeared to be Israelites but inwardly were of the occult mysteries of Babylon (Babylon means confusion). That is why Yashua-Joshua-Jesus exposed them as hypocrites; that is having two faces. For in those days a hypocrite was an actor who played different roles by putting on different clothes to cover up his true identity. It would have been totally out of character and wrong of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus to call them "serpents" and their father "the devil", if behind those religious robes they were not secret members of the Mystery Babylon kingdom of darkness also known as the dark clan. Now, it is one thing to be a sinner and another to be an actual sworn member to a satanic cult that makes members take a blood oath and adopt pagan satanic symbols to wear. These Pharisees sell their soul to the devil for wages, employment, business opportunity, political power, financial security, and lastly as a fraternity to cloak these schemes behind the tiled door, which in the secret mysteries is a substitute for the temples at Babylon and Jerusalem. What does the Masonry cult say about their ancestors the Pharisees? "The character of their organization is interesting to the Masonic student. They held a secret doctrine, ...they met in sodalities or societies, the members of which called themselves chabirim, fellows or associates; and they styled all who were outside of their mystical association, yum hararetz, or people of the land" (Encyclopedia of Masonry, Albert G. Mackey, 1921, pp 560,561).

At the ancient temple in Jerusalem during Yashua-Joshua-Jesus-Issa's time two thousand years ago, the Pharisees money-changers used the Jewish and Sun-god temples to collect interest. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was so upset by the sight of the money changers in the temple, he waded in and started to tip over the tables and drive them out with a whip, this being the one and only time we ever hear of him using force during his entire ministry. So what caused the ultimate pacifist to become so aggressive? For a long time the Jews had been called upon to pay their temple tax with a special coin called the half shekel. It was a measured half ounce of pure silver with no image of a pagan emperor on it. It was to them the only coin acceptable to God (actually to the Pharisees). But because there was only a limited number of these coins in circulation, the money changers were in a buyers market and like with anything else in short supply, they were able to raise the price to what the market would bear. They made huge profits with their monopoly on these coins and turned this time of devotion into a mockery for profit. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus saw this as stealing from the people and proclaimed the whole setup to be "A den of thieves". Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' exposing of the money changers made him a target for them and their leader Caiaphas. The leadership of the Pharisees, Caiaphas made false accusations of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus and brought him before Pontius Pilate for punishment. They also used their "media" to persuade the masses to choose Barabbas over Yashua-Joshua-Jesus. They used deceit to lie against Yashua-Joshua-Jesus and to whip up public support to the point where the people were yelling "Crucify him, crucify him, crucify him" as human cattle (or goyims is the word used by Zionists for us) blindly obsessed in seeing an innocent man killed for no crime committed.

Excerpts below but you can read about it more in the Bible's King James Version, Matthew Chapter 27: "When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Yashua-Joshua-Jesus to put him to death....And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor...And Yashua-Joshua-Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest....And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing....And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas....Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Yashua-Joshua-Jesus which is called Christ?....But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Yashua-Joshua-Jesus.... Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Yashua-Joshua-Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified....And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified....Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children".

Reading this is reminiscent of what the U.S. is doing today against Iraq. The Zionist media has whipped up public support within the U.S. to have our government attack Iraq for no crime committed against the U.S. This is like how the Zionists used the Roman governor Pontius Pilate to crucify Yashua-Joshua-Jesus for no crime committed. The irony of it all is that 9-11 was the trigger for this unjustified attack on Iraq of which Iraq was totally innocent. If half of the mountain of evidence against the Israelis for 9-11 were true about Iraq then maybe there would have been some justification. But no such thing exists. The Americans are just blindly following the behests of the Satanic Zionists. Isn't it any wonder that Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said the following about them in John, Chapter 8 of the King James Version of the Bible: "Yashua-Joshua said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me....Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word....Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own...for he is a liar, and the father of it....

Mel Gibson's The Passion of Christ opened Feb 25, 2004. It comes at a time when millions are awakening to the fact that a malignant Illuminati Pharisac force controls the U.S. & Israel and casts its shadow across the World. People will recognize this power as the same one responsible for the attempted Crucifixion. This is a combination of Worldly and spiritual control, "Roman" and Pharisee respectively. Nothing has changed in 2000 years. Anyone who opposes today's Pharisees is neutralized or assassinated. Who are "they"? ARE PHARISEES EXTINCT? The Pharisees Yashua-Joshua-Jesus denounced have not gone away, but have established an even more formidable control mechanism in our society than ever existed in Christ's mortal lifetime. Some are Christian Pharisees and some are Jewish. The noun "Pharisee" occurs, according to Strong's Concordance, 78 times in the New Testament, much more frequently than "Satan." Yet usage of the word has been largely eliminated from teaching in many Bibles studies, the pulpits of America's churches, professing Christian media and even seminaries. Who were and who are the Pharisees, and is there a logical reason why we rarely hear about them today? Pharisees were in conflict with Yashua-Joshua-Jesus whenever they met. Followers of Christ confronted the Pharisees repeatedly. It was a "Jewish" sect that followed the "traditions of the elders" as Webster stated and as Yashua-Joshua-Jesus also said. These traditions are now known as the "Babylonian Talmud." But what the 1950 dictionary did not recognize is that Phariseism was even then no longer exclusive Jewish, as it once may have been, for Pharisaic influence long before the 1950s could probably have been found in every denomination in America, busily reshaping Christianity into the Pharisaic image. It was then and has become both a Judeo and a Christian sect.

All mention of the Phariseism occurs in the New Testament where it's formed the center of conflict around Yashua-Joshua-Jesus, His disciples, and His followers. As Yashua-Joshua-Jesus predicted many were stalked, scourged and killed by the Pharisees. In addition to the 78 verses in which Pharisee are mentioned by name, pronouns including "you" point to Pharisees in many additional verses. The Pharisees are the object of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' debate and denunciation in entire chapters in Matthew, Luke and John as well as the writings of Paul who claimed he once had been a Pharisee, having killed Christians. These many references provide undeniable accounts of the ongoing conflict and plot against Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' life for all who read. The noun Pharisee occurs about three times more often than the infamous name of Judas, 30 times more than Satan and 50 more times than the name of Pontius Pilot. It is, without a doubt, the most denounced noun in the New Testament. It is the only name that Yashua-Joshua-Jesus constantly associated with the Satan. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' followers feared the political power of the Pharisees more than the Romans. Yet the word Pharisee is pointedly ignored by most Christian leaders and all but forgotten in modern evangelical Christendom and the ranks of the celebrity media broadcasters. "Pharisee" may also be the most avoided word found in the Bible. Some pastors and most televangelists are capable of preaching the year through without ever mentioning Pharisee, except in passing by on the way to some other point. Pharisees are wrongly treated as an extinct and irrelevant species. Organized Bible study courses rarely mention whom the Pharisees were, why Yashua-Joshua-Jesus pronounced upon them so harshly and never treat the Pharisee as an anti-Christ type to watch out for in our day. Celebrity Christians on national TV never suggest that the Pharisee's war on Yashua-Joshua-Jesus has anything at all to do with His followers, or that the sect may have survived to this day.

The word Pharisee has not yet been removed from any Bibles we know of, but most Bible commentaries and concordances avoid any serious treatment of how they operate to control civil government, and who their successors are today. For instance, the concordance in the new Thompson Study Bible, a very popular one that is supposedly designed to help readers understand the scriptures, has all but eliminated any mention of this sect. Amazingly, Thompson new edition concordance lists only one of the 78 sites, yet its previous 1962 edition listed four. Pray tell, what happened to the other three verses it previously recognized, not to mention 74 never cited at all, The four references cited are atypically favorable having to do with Paul's own Pharisaic history. It appears the publisher is whitewashing the word and deleting "Pharisee" from its readers' vocabularies. This is unthinkable because Yashua-Joshua-Jesus denounced the Pharisees, the most powerful and destructive faction of anti-Christianity calling them a "generation of vipers" and "sons of Satan." But most study Bibles and Bible courses omit all but casual mention of Pharisees. Curiously, the much-maligned paraphrase Living Bible Concordance contains the key sites found in Strong's, and is well worth reading. Let us examine what has become of the Pharisees in our modern society and how they continue to attempt to control our lives. The New Testament tells us they controlled Judea at the time of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' mission. Pharisees, both Christian professing and Jewish, control Palestine again today with unimaginable brutality. Needless to say, we do not think Pharisees have gone away; else they would not be tampering with our beliefs. Nor did Webster think they had gone away, as he says in his 1950 definition that Pharisaism became modern Judaism.

The venerable traditionally Christian Webster is not the only one to say this? Proper definitions are taken from correct and proper usage of that less censored age. Many Rabbis have proudly provided the rabbinical sources for Webster's definition. The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, 1943, state: "The Jewish Religion as it is today traces its descent without a break from the Pharisees- their ideas and methods are found in the Babylonian Talmud." And Rabbi Louis Finkenstein, head of the Jewish Theological Seminary, stated in his book "History of the Jews" 1949, "Pharisaism became Babylonian Talmudist...the spirit of the ancient Pharisees survived unaltered ...therefore any discourse regarding the Jewish religion must be based on Babylonian Talmudism." Jewish leaders were in the 1950s obviously were proud of their claim to be Pharisees. This is not to suggest that all Jews are Pharisees any more than all Pharisees are Jews. But Pharisees dominated religious thinking in Yashua-Joshua-Jesus time have far too much to say about what the leaders of our government do. Much worse is that they have established influencing over what Christians think. Pharisaic Judaism attempted but failed to censor Christian thought in the first century; today they are succeeding, a sad reflection on popular Christian leadership.

The Pharisees of today have moved heaven and earth to discourage thousands of pastors and televangelists from teaching what Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said so clearly. The godfather of the Biblical censors is the powerfully promoted Scofield study Bible, first printed in England in 1908, but sold in America. Scofield's Study Bible is a traditional, difficult to read, King James version, doctored with hundred of easy to read added notes and inserted descriptive chapter and verse headings. Most of the notes are about the "rapture" the "end times" and the return of the ancient tribe of Israelites to the Holy land. But there are no meaningful notes about Phariseism. The latest, much changed edition of Scofield Study Bible was printed in 1962 and boldly elevated "anti-Semitism" to the status of a "sin" a sort of 11th Commandment it would seem. Each of the four successive editions, beginning in 1908, have further advanced the claims of the self-proclaimed Jews to the real estate known today as the State of Israel, a nation which did not even exist when its first three edition were published. The latest, 1962 Edition goes so far as to contain a note stating that "FOR A NATION TO COMMIT THE SIN OF ANTI-SEMITISM BRINGS INEVITABLE JUDGMENT" (page 20) But it contains hardly a note interpreting any of the hundreds of verses Yashua-Joshua-Jesus spoke in his daily conflict with the Pharisees and their plot for his death. Scofield ignores all were giving the reader the impression these are of little consequence, and since the King James version is slow reading at best, readers tend to rely on the notes. Most study Bibles we have seen, including the Thompson, follow Scofield's Pharisee friendly example. These footnotes of men are a corrupt the Bible of God, as it stated in its last book.

The first of the 78 mentions of Pharisees occurs in Matthew 3:7-8 when they appear in numbers at the Jordan River where John the Baptist was proclaiming the coming of the Messiah. John's firm and condemnatory words spoken to them were: "But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits meat for repentance." John the Baptist went on to rebuke their claim to holiness, refuting their claim of being chosen people by descent from Abraham stating: "and think not to say within yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father;' for I say unto you that God is able to raise up from these stones children unto Abraham." So much for the chosen people. (King James Version). One early exchange between Christ and the Pharisees occurred in Matthew 12 where Yashua-Joshua-Jesus called them: "An evil and adulterous generation" in a powerful exchange that fills most of the chapter 12, and most of the long chapter of Matthew 23 is Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' condemnation of the Pharisees, a small part of which states: "Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city." (Mt. 23:31-34)

Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson, Jack Van Empe and dozens more like them have made careers by promoting Israel as a political state and a chosen race. Thousands of local church leaders are following this example. Many of these self-professed Christian leaders are the Pharisees of today, achieving fame and influence by pleasing the media secular Zionist media powers. Pharisees were once exclusively Judean, "Jews" in the vernacular of our day. Many contend that Israeli Patriots assert more control over America's political parties, news media and the banking system than is healthy for a Christian society. This should be obvious to anyone who will look at the media; then read the Bible references to Pharisaism. But it is largely from within that the vitality of Christianity is being diluted, not from outside. The control of media may be a "Jewish" problem, but the perversion of Christianity is not. Many professing Christians at all levels of leadership have abandoned their Bible given responsibility in exchange for the footnotes written by men. These are the Pharisees of today. Part II will deal with how Christian leaders have allowed themselves to become Pharisees, supporting untold government brutality, cruelty, and waste while claiming Christ's name. The Luciferians Illuminati

The Occult Conspiracy consists of a broad range of elitists who do not want God's plan to be the foundation of society. They seem to be united in the worship of Lucifer or Satan, the symbol of cosmic rebellion against God. Luciferians believe they can do whatever they please. They call this freedom. They have redefined reality according to their own self-interests and perversions. Their self-deification is the ultimate idolatry. They maintain their control over mankind by provoking wars, which are also very profitable. They instigated the heinous 9-11 attack as a pretext to launch a bogus "War on Terror" designed to set up a police state to deter resistance to globalism. Both George W. Bush and John Kerry belong to a Luciferian (Illuminati) Masonic lodge at Yale called the "Skull and Bones." Bush's code name was "Temporary" and he would be happy to relinquish control to his lodge brother so Americans can continue to enjoy the charade of democracy. Notwithstanding the many different players, a casual observer cannot ignore the critical role Pharisee "Fake-Israelites" or Zionists have in the New World Order. For example, Pharisee Bankers financed both The New York Times (Jacob Schiff) and The Washington Post (Eugene Meyer), and use them to manipulate the public. They seem to control the major TV networks, movie studios and book publishers as well. They have a stranglehold on Americans' perception of reality. For many Jews, Israel and the Holocaust have become a substitute for religion. The reason is that Judaism has been corrupted by the Pharisees. Judaism has been hijacked. True-Torah Judaism was originally based on Moses' vision of God as a universal moral force. The Sadducees upheld this view but the Pharisees overthrew them in a civil war in 79 BC. The remnants of the Sadducees, "Torah Jews" still cling to Moses and the Old Testament but they are a minority. Phariseeism is based on the Babylonian Talmud, which consists of the interpretations of "sages" during the Babylonian exile 586 BC to 1040 AC. Generally speaking, the Babylonian Talmudists contradict the spirit of Moses and take precedence over the Torah. The Universal Jewish Encyclopaedia (1943) erroneously declares that Judaism is synonymous with Phariseeism: "The Jewish religion as it is today traces its descent, without a break, from the Pharisees.... the study of the Babylonian Talmud is essential for any real understanding of Phariseeism." (p.474)

Yashua-Joshua was in the tradition of Moses. He reproached unbelieving Jews: "If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote of me." (John 5:24-27). Yashua-Jsa-Yashua-Joshua reviled the Pharisees as "hypocrites" and a "generation of vipers." He said they nullified God's Commandments "teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." (Mark 7:13). He accused them of worshipping the devil: "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do." (John 8:44) Who then are the people who claim to be the Jews? E. Michael Jones answers (Feb 2004): "Revelations 3:9 answers the question by [saying] those 'who call themselves Jews but are liars' [are] the 'synagogue of Satan.' In other words, the group that was called by God to prepare the way for the Messiah rejected the Messiah and in doing that, became over the course of the ensuing centuries a group that defined itself as anti-Christian...." Jones concludes: "The Jews who reject Christ now prepare the way for the coming of the anti-Christ.... what comes of this group is the opposite of salvation, namely the work of Satan..." Isaiah's prophecy seems to confirm Jones' conclusion: "Thou shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of the Lord shall name...and you shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen, for the lord God shall...call his servants by another name." (62:2; 65:15)

The Babylonian Talmud Is The Pharisees' Secret Agenda

As explained, the Kazar Kingdom, which gives us the Ashkenazi, was in Central Russia. This was a "proselyte" kingdom, and Yashua-Jesus-Issa warned us, when he derided the Pharisees, saying, You (Pharisees) seek a proselyte, to wit::

"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel around on sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves." (Matthew 23:15)

(excerpted and edited from Dr. Henry Makow) More than the Protocols of Zion, the Babylonian Talmud is proof that the Pharisees have a secret agenda. No one can claim this is a forgery. Elizabeth Dilling, (1894-1966) is a courageous Christian whose visit to Soviet Russia in 1931 prompted a 20-year study of Judaism. In her book The Jewish Religion: Its Influence Today (1964) she reproduces 300 pages from the Babylonian Talmud and Jewish Encyclopaedias. You can examine it on line and form your own opinion. What follows is very distasteful and shocking. I take no pleasure in presenting Dilling's conclusions. However, if they are true, they are too important to ignore. The devil operates by deceiving and corrupting good people. According to Dilling, the Babylonian Talmud is founded on the assumption of Pharisaic "Fake-Jews" superiority. "The non-Jew ranks as an animal, has no property rights and no legal rights under any code whatever... "Milk the Gentile" is the Babylonian Talmudic rule but don't get caught in such a way as to jeopardize Jewish interests. Summarized, Babylonian Talmudism is the quintessence of distilled hatred and discrimination, without cause, against non-Jews." (16)

The Babylonian Talmud is characterized by "obscenity and more obscenity, a setting up of laws seemingly for the purpose of inventing circumventions, and evasions; delight in sadistic cruelty; reversal of all Biblical moral teachings on theft, murder, sodomy, perjury, treatment of children and parents; insane hatred of Christ, Christians and every phase of Christianity." (4) It characterizes the Virgin Mary as a "harlot" and adulteress and Yashua-Joshua-Jesus as a "bastard" and sexual pervert who was crucified as a "blasphemer of Pharisee Judaism." Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' punishment was to be "lowered into dung up to his armpits" and then strangled. Christians in hell are punished by "hot boiling excrement." (14). The Babylonian Talmud rejects Moses' vision of God as a moral force. Its basic doctrine is that "God is the "En Sof" a nature essence which has no attributes and can neither know nor be known. That is atheism..." (57) Drilling quotes the Jewish Encyclopaedia 1905: "God is the infinite, unlimited being to whom one neither can nor may attribute any attributes whatever." ("Cabal", p.472.) "So called Judaism is nothing but Babylonian Talmudic Phariseeism, which at base is crass paganism, pantheistic atheism, a conglomeration of all the forms of paganism concocted through the centuries. New descriptions concocted for this very old Satanism, such as... [Marx's] dialectical materialism merely [dresses] up old pagan concepts." (38) "The Jewish Cabala with its non-existence of evil, its deification of man, is a source book of modern 'isms." (31)

[excerpts from the Babylonian Talmud: "The life of a Goy and all of his powers belong to a Jew." August Rohling, 18;33, (page 20) "A Goi or a servant is not capable of acting as a witness." Choshen Hammischpat by Jacob ben Ascher, 1340, (34,19) "Jews should always try to deceive the Goyim." Zohar, 13th century, (I: 160a) "The sexual intercourse of a Goi is like that of a beast." Sanhedrin (74b) Tosephoth, 11th century "Gentiles are to be exterminated" Zohar (II:43a)

Refer to, "The Babylonian Talmud Unmasked" (1892) by I.B.Pranaitis or "Jewish History, Jewish Religion" (1999) by Jewish Professor Israel Shahak. For a REAL SHOCK, try "The Thirteenth Stone" p.505, or even more so, "God - The Ultimate Paradox" pages 80-84. (It is worth noting that Reverend I.B.Pranaitis met his death at the hands of the Bolsheviks.) knowledge of the Babylonian Talmud is forbidden to Goyim, on the pain of death, and when the Messiah comes to conquer the World, all Goyim are to be enslaved and/or wiped from the face of the earth!] I doubt if even 10 per cent of Jews today are aware of this aspect of the Babylonian Talmud. I certainly wasn't. Most Jews are not observant. It's about time we all realized that this nebulous ideology is Luciferian in nature. The Babylonian Talmud is undoubtedly the answer to the riddle of anti-Semitism. Dilling writes: "The attitude resulting from such teachings has been resented by non-Jews in all countries and centuries. Such resentment, however, is always portrayed by Jews as "persecution of the Jews." (2)

Of course most Jews do not feel this way. Most would be happy to live and let live. But other Pharisaic "Fake-Jews" who believe they are elite unfettered by the social contract use them as a Trojan horse. (See "The Jewish Century"). It makes me heartsick to think that Pharisee Fake-Jews play a leading role in establishing the New World Order. Unfortunately we cannot tailor the facts to fit our wishes or amour propre. Anyone who subscribes to the authentic Jewish tradition, that of Moses, Isaiah and Yashua-Joshua-Jesus is going to be called an anti-Semite or self-hater, etc. by the Zionists. It's obvious that "anti-Semitism" is used to disarm and stigmatize opponents of Pharisees' evil hegemony. We all must follow Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' example and resist evil. "Hate the evil and love the good, and establish judgement in the gate," said the prophet Amos (5:15). The sin is that we refuse to uphold God and make Him the centre of our life. The Pharisees and their allies have deliberately distorted and mystified God to make Him seem unknowable. God refers to spiritual ideals such as justice, truth, goodness and love that have an objective existence and constitute Reality. We enter into His Kingdom by bringing these ideals to life. The Prophets of God upheld this Divine Reality. We have no option but to embody it. The alternative is arrested development, perversion, deceit, despair, war and tyranny. Note that the ancient elites created and perpetrated the Occult and Idolatry traditions to keep the masses occupied while they reap their wealth.

We must decide if we belong to God or to Lucifer because that will be our destiny. The World is a cosmic struggle for the soul of mankind and this struggle is reaching a climax. Society is being sabotaged. Alas, this is what the "war on terror" is really about, enslaving the World, not protecting it. The Illuminist Bankers created Communism to control the common man. Communists started second-wave feminism. Read "Betty Friedan: Mommy was a Commie" and "American Communism and the Making of Women's Liberation" Bella Dodd, a former leader of the American Communist Party revealed: "The bourgeois family as a social unit was to be made obsolete." The aim was to "create a new type of human being that would conform to the World they confidently expected to control." The Bankers used Communism to overthrow the Godly foundations of civilization and put themselves in charge. This is the true meaning of revolution. The Illuminati Rockefeller Foundation funds feminism. I searched this name and "Women's Studies" in Google and got 21,800 entries. They have funded population control and eugenics research for decades, here, in the USSR and in Nazi Germany. With women usurping the male role, we are becoming a homosexual society. There is a difference between accepting homosexuals as equals and allowing society as a whole to become homosexual. Consider this. Homosexuality is the inability to form a permanent bond with a member of the opposite sex. It is commonly characterized by an obsession with sex, promiscuity and explicitness. Sex becomes a surrogate for love. Doesn't this describe society today? See "Playboy and the (Homo) Sexual Revolution." The Illuminati aren't afraid of gays, single mothers or children. They are afraid of proud men with guns who have families to protect. This is behind the degradation of men. "First You Get the Women, Then You've Got the Children, So Follow the Men" - Adolph Hitler

Under pressure, Mel Gibson cut out the part in his original movie where the Pharisee Caiaphas says that he will not be satisfied until Yashua-Joshua-Jesus is offered as a blood sacrifice, a reference to the ancient Masonic occult practices. (See Letters Below) Resisting Evil? February 02, 2004 Dear Mr. Makow:

Yashua-Joshua does not teach us to resist evil. In fact, he teaches the exact opposite. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus teaches us, at Matthew, 5:39 "...resist not evil ..." He further teaches us at Matthew, 5:44 "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you." The teaching of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus is: cleave to good, overcome evil with good. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus does not follow Moses. Moses was the receiver and the administrator of the law, based on resisting evils. Don't kill, don't steal, etc. "Christ is become of no effect to you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace." Galatians, 5:4. Whatever we give our attention to is what we give our allegiance to. When we resist evil we therefore give our allegiance to evil. When we love God we give our allegiance to God. This is why anyone who is justified by the law is fallen from grace. Christ commanded us: to Love God. And "Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law." Galatians, 5:13 Christ does not follow Moses, and the law. Christ overcomes the law and saves the World. Peace, Pete

Thanks for your letter. As you know I disagree. Moses was resisting evil by issuing moral laws. Christ obviously did not love the Pharisees and would not have been crucified if he did. When he threw the money changers out of the temple, he was resisting evil. Can we love God and let the World go to hell at the same time? I appreciate your point of view. Henry.

A Reader Replies: Just had to write and respond to the letter by Peter Spiro. Contrary to what most people are taught, the Bible is not a book of religion. It is a book of Law. Laws that were given to us in the beginning for our own benefit. Those Laws are still in full force and effect today. Laws based on reason, logic and common sense. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said that he did not come to abolish the law but to fulfill it as cited in Matthew 5, verse 17, 18 & 19. To fulfill means to obey or carry out. Neither did Yashua-Joshua-Jesus come to bring peace. In Matthew 10:34 we read: "Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth. I have not come to bring peace but a sword." As far as Yashua-Joshua-Jesus not upholding the Law of Moses; pure bunk. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus still continued with and advocated the sacrificial system in Luke 17:14, Mathew 8:4 & Mark 1:44. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was walking down the street one day and came upon some lepers. After he healed them he said to them "now you go show yourself to the priest and make the offering that Moses commanded." In 1st John chapter 2 verses 3 & 4 "...and hereby we do know, that we know him if we keep his commandments and he that sayeth I know him and keepeth not his commandments is a liar and the truth isn't in him." In Deuteronomy 4, verse 2 "You shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish not from it that you may keep the commandments of the Lord your God that I command you." God also stated that he was the same forever and always and that he changes not. Would the God who can not tell a lie say that? Peter, you do say some frightening things. You said "When we resist evil we therefore give our allegiance to evil." That is a terrifying statement. As far as the "curse of the law" in Galatians to which you refer, prior to Christ's arrival many people were unsure of how to observe the Law properly. That was their 'curse'. They would let their only cow die if it fell down a well on Sabbath. For many families this would be devastating. They were afraid to work on that day to retrieve their cow for fear of violating the Sabbath Law. Christ clarified the Law for them. Even Yashua-Joshua-Jesus, in Matthew 12:1, plucked ears of corn on Sabbath day to feed himself and his hungry disciples. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus tells you to love your enemy. But do you really think Yashua-Joshua-Jesus meant you should hug your enemy as he is trying to bury a knife in your back? That kind of thinking is the exact opposite to common sense. The problems we face today will not be overcome by passively sitting in a prayer closet awaiting rapture, but by being a pro-active participant. Peter, Love of God is ADHERANCE to God's Laws (Romans 13:8-10). Those Laws benefit and protect you. It is no wonder the Luciferians don't want you practicing them. Sincerely, TC

Art Gish from Athens, Ohio, US, lifts his hands to block a Zionist army tank in Hebron, Thursday Jan 20, 2003.

To demonstrate the power of the Zionists, Merriam-Webster changed the definition of "anti-Semitism" in its "Third New International Dictionary" which was recently reprinted. The definition reads: "1) hostility toward Jews as a religious or racial minority group, often accompanied by social, political or economic discrimination (2) opposition to Zionism (3) sympathy for the opponents of Israel." The real and true definition of "anti-Semitism" is: 1) hostility toward descendants of Sem, one of Noah's sons, who include Jews and Arabs, as a religious or racial minority group, often accompanied by social, political or economic discrimination (2) opposition to the descendants of Isaac and Ishmael (3) sympathy for the opponents of Semite Arabs and Jews. This issue is especially relevant at a time when some Zionist Ideologues such as Alan Dershowitz, ADL chief Abe Foxman, Harvard University President Larry Summers and others are seeking to foreclose the debate on the Middle East, especially at university campuses, by promoting the idea that criticism of Israeli policies is indistinguishable from hatred of Jewish people. You're heard of being "ionized" but the Illuminati Luciferians have "Z-ionized" the masses with their propaganda of lies and fabrications. Adding Zionism to the definition of anti-Semitism has made the definition itself anti-Semitic.

Background on the Distortion of Judaism into Babylonian Talmudic Zionism by the Pharisees

Excerpted and edited from Henry Makow Ph.D. April 25, 2004 <http://sathemales.ca>. He received his Ph.D. in English Literature from the University of Toronto. henry@sathemales.ca. The Protocols of the Elders of Zion exposed in the late 19th century is a genuine revelation of an elite plot to enslave mankind and enthrone an "aristocracy based on wealth." This has been called by various names: World government, New World order, Internationalism, Illuminism, Zionism and Globalism. There is a debate on whether the protocols were developed by the Rothschild's or actually by someone wanting to expose the Rothschild/Weishaupt Illuminati plans. In any case, the Protocols do describe the plans for World Tyranny by the Illuminati's. This plot has been unfolding before our eyes for centuries and can be seen today in the relentless destruction of, in the words of Protocols "all collective forces except ours." These are race, religion, nation and family, the things that give people cohesion, identity and meaning.

This plot is led by the banking dynasties and mega-corporations associated with the Rothschilds and Rockefellers and the other 11 so-called Illuminated Families. They have controlled most Western governments, education and media for more than a century. Socialism, Liberalism, Communism, Zionism, Neo Conservativism, Masonry and Feminism all are their instruments. They are responsible for war and depressions, which are designed to degrade and demoralize humanity. In short mankind is in a satanic grip. The bankers own the World and expect to run it. They want to be gods.

Modern education and culture is designed to hide this brutal reality. In the words of Protocols "we shall erase from the memory of men all facts of previous centuries which are undesirable to us...we shall abolish every kind of freedom of instruction...[and rear youth] in principles and theories which we know to be false..." This has taken place in most universities. This is why there is a palpable stench of moral compromise over our public life, why so many of our "leaders" are hacks and dissolutes. "Nine-eleven" and the "war on terror" are hoaxes designed to justify wars to colonize remaining independent Muslim countries, and integrate the United States and Europe into a World police state. By defending their national independence, the Iraqi "insurgents" are fighting for us all. American soldiers are horribly deceived and misused. Far from being a World power, the United States has been a tool of the international banking-oil cartel at least since World War One. Conspiracy is like the weather. Everyone talks about it but no one does anything about it. Like the weather, there is not much we can do. The majority of people are held in thrall by the mass media and don't realize they are. In a so-called democracy, they think they "rule," but in fact they are crudely manipulated. How more crudely than today when both US Presidential candidates belong to the Illuminati "Skull and Bones" or both Canadian leaders are Bilderbergers or both British leaders are Bilderbergers?

Even if we can't change the World, we can change individual lives. Understanding the World is very liberating. We are less susceptible to Worldly snares, which include the "education" system, the "democratic" process, the mass media, the porn/sex/gambling industries, money and fame. We must embody our principles in our personal lives and not be too distracted by the insanity unfolding around us. This doesn't preclude making our voices heard. Many women have been brainwashed by feminist leaders, most of whom were Marxists and lesbians. "Destroy the family and society will collapse," Lenin wrote. The same banking cartel that funded the Bolshevik Revolution and Hitler own the foundations and media that finance and promote feminism. Women have been horribly duped by feminism and the cost to everyone has been horrendous. Family is the key to our identity, personal development and happiness. We can find direction, purpose and love by fulfilling our traditional family roles. We have Truth on our side. Nothing is more powerful than Truth. Let us continue to be a witness to Truth. Note that modern "culture" is a product of the Luciferian (Satanic) conspiracy against God-oriented Civilization. Relentlessly negative and increasingly obscene, modern "culture" attacks the sources of dignity, decency and hope that define us as human beings rather than animals. For example last week the news media was hyping a play which opened in London about "sexual love" between a married man and a goat. In an interview, the playwright Edward Albee said "The Goat" challenged this "societal taboo" and hoped that members of the audience would "re-examine their values and attitudes toward bestiality." "Funny, moving and tragic," raved UK Channel 4 News, a respected and "serious" programme in the UK.

Bestiality has occurred and the play is primarily concerned with the protagonist's confession and inability to deal with the fact that he "feels guilty for not feeling guilty"(!). "We are all animals," he rationalizes. The play deals with the confrontation between the protagonist, his wife and their gay son. A reader, Jonathan Stonehouse wrote: "It staggers me to think that there are many who now associate freedom with the normalization of everything formerly regarded as morally repugnant, when the truth is we're building a World in which the majority will be slaves to every whim and fancy, not to mention dark and abhorrent desire, the human imagination can conceive. That's a form of 'freedom' I can well do without." True culture is based on refining our animal instincts in terms of our spiritual ideals (like truth, justice, goodness and beauty.) Modern anti-culture is based on demoralizing and destroying society by disparaging these ideals. Anti-culture portrays man in purely naturalistic and material terms. Every sexual impulse and bodily function must be recognized and often indulged. This is considered "courageous" while any demur is considered repressive and prudish or fascist. Human dignity requires privacy. Female allure requires modesty and mystery. We have souls, not only bodies. The exaltation of man's animal nature, at the expense of his spiritual qualities, is a direct consequence of the deification of man. Our anti-culture assumes that man is a finished product and doesn't need to be transformed by God's Love. A symptom of making man a god is that we mystify and worship human beings. We worship a cult of great minds, a cult of great beauty, a cult of great wealth and power.

Modern "culture" reflects the final unfolding of a diabolical conspiracy that rejects God's plan for mankind's development. By eating the forbidden fruit, Lucifer (Iblis or Satan) promised: "Your eyes will be open and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:5) This means that man will define what is good and evil. God is the ultimate Good. When man makes himself god, good becomes whatever the most powerful man or group wants. Good becomes evil and evil becomes good. This is happening today. There were a lot of groups who wanted to be god but some conservatives believe our anti-culture can be traced to the Zionist view of their "chosenness." Originally Jews, the children of Israel (Jacob) had a conception of God as a Universal Moral Force. (This is the Judaism I identify with and is totally opposite of Zionism.)

It would appear, in considering the origin of those tenets regarded as characteristic of Western civilization, that a survey of history should begin with, not Athens in Greece, but the ancient city of Babylon in Mesopotamia. In fact, in Ancestor of the West: Writing, Reasoning, and Religion in Mesopotamia, Elam, and Greece, Bottero, noted scholar of Mesopotamian civilization, declares: "if I wish to reveal the most distant origins of our civilization that are known today, it is to Mesopotamia that I will now take us." Babylon, which at one time may have held as many as 250,000 inhabitants, famed among the Jews and the later Greeks for its sensual living, was the greatest city in the ancient World. According to Greek historian Herodotus, in the fourth century BC, "Babylon lies in a wide plain, a vast city in the form of a square with sides nearly fourteen miles long and a circuit of some fifty-six miles, and in addition to its enormous size it surpasses in splendor any city of the known World." The city's legendary Hanging Gardens, were deemed in Hellenistic times one of the Seven Wonders of the World.

Babylon was the origin of a myth that would come to pervade, not only the mystical systems of antiquity, but which would transform Western religion and philosophy, that of the Dying God. Every spring, at their most important festival, the Akitu, or New Year's festival, corresponding to our Easter, the Babylonians celebrated the death and resurrection of their chief god Marduk, also known as Bel. There was a dramatic representation of the conflict between the Thunder-god Bel and the dragon Tiamat, as recounted in the epic of creation Enuma elish, during which the god is vanquished and slain, but is raised from death by magical ceremonies, and eventually overcomes the dragon. Babylon was also the birthplace of the mother of all sciences, astronomy, recognized as the special skill of the renowned Chaldeans, a term that had originally referred to the inhabitants of Chaldea, but eventually understood to refer to the Babylonian astrologers. Although often attributed to the distant past, and falsely presumed to represent the survival of the Ancient Wisdom, scholars have now established that, due to a lack of a reliable system of chronology, the astrology of the Chaldeans, though based on older traditions, was not developed until the seventh and sixth centuries BC.

These centuries were also the period in which a substantial Jewish population was found in Babylon. As a result of the Assyrian conquests of Jerusalem and the sacking of its great Temple, at the beginning of the sixth century BC, the great portion of the Jewish people were relocated to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar, where they would remain for nearly half a century, a period in Jewish history known as the Exile. It is acknowledged that it was at this time that the Jews inculcated Babylonian teachings into their religion. Therefore, considering the size and prominence of the Jewish population in Babylon, it is possible that they would have participated in the development of astrology. In fact, in the Book of Daniel, Chapter 2:48, Daniel is made chief of the "wise men" of Babylon, that is, of the Chaldean Magi, and yet remains faithful to the laws of his own religion. Babylon was conquered by the Persians in 539 BC, at which point, the Magi, the priests of Zoroastrianism, founded by Zoroaster, came into contact with the teachings of the Chaldeans. However, those Magi which became renowned for their "wisdom" throughout the ancient World were not followers of the teachings of Zoroaster, but a heretical branch of the religion. It is among them that we first find the presence of those teachings that would later come to be known as the Kabbalah, a collection of doctrines fundamentally different from orthodox Zoroastrianism. Essentially, the Magi preserved a triad of gods worshipped by the Babylonians, assimilating an ancient Persian god, named Mithras, to the Dying God of the Babylonian, Bel, symbolized by the Bull and the Sun. Their version of Zoroastrianism was one known as Zurvanism, and which included a ritual of death and rebirth, dualism, pantheism, number mysticism, and reincarnation.

"From the contact of these two cultures," meaning of the Zoroastrians and Chaldeans, Bartel van der Waerden, in Science Awakening II: The Birth of Astronomy, explains "something new sprang: an astrological doctrine of fate, closely related to science on the one hand and religion on the other, which spread from Babylon over the whole ancient World." It was with the conquests of the expanding Persian empire that the teachings of these heretical Magi, known as Magusaeans, were introduced to many parts of the ancient World, a phenomenon falsely attributed by European scholars to the spread of the Ancient Wisdom by the Aryans. At its height, the Persian empire spanned an immense territory, including the whole of the Middle East, Egypt, parts of India, Armenia, Afghanistan, Turkestan, Asia Minor and European Thrace

In 538 BC, Cyrus released the Jews from captivity at Babylon, who returned to Jerusalem and rebuilt their Temple. It was at this time, known as the Second Temple period, that the Bible, although derived from earlier material, was compiled and seems to have incorporated a number of Zoroastrian doctrines. Ever since the initial suggestion of Count Constantin in 1791, the importance of the influence of Zoroastrianism on Judaism was promoted by the History of Religions School. Currently, many important scholars maintain the thesis of Zoroastrian influence on Judaism, including Duchesne-Guillemin, Gnoli, Hinnels, Anders Hultgard, Joseph Kitagawa, Shaked, David Winston and Mary Boyce. However, it is not in the Bible, but in the Kabbalah, that we find teachings similar to those attributed to the ancient Chaldean Magi, and therefore, are not to be found in Bible text, but in interpretations of it. But, since the Kabbalists claim to derive their teachings from the text itself, the text must have been subtly altered to encrypt such information. In The Text of the Old Testament, Professor Wurthwein asserts: "before the text of the Old Testament was officially established it was not regarded as unalterable. Accordingly we should expect to find that those who were concerned with the transmission of the text would occasionally make deliberate, fully intentional alterations in the text."

Therefore, though much of Bible is indeed historical, the many bizarre, enigmatic and sometime offensive tales, have perhaps been designed to conceal Kabbalistic meanings, some of which can be discerned from the extra-biblical texts of the Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha, also compiled in the Second Temple period, as well as a number of Kabbalistic texts of the Middle Ages. It is in this manner that we should seek to understand the significance of the curious and paradoxical story of the descendants of Cain, Adam's son, who was cursed for killing his brother Abel. According to Kabbalistic legend, Cain's female descendants intermarried with the Sons of God of Genesis, producing a race of giants known as the Anakim. Apocryphal texts explain that the Sons of God were the devil and his legions, who were cast of heaven, and, taking for themselves human brides, taught them the arts of sorcery and astrology. God finally inflicted the Flood to annihilate sinful humanity. Though, the Anakim were continued through the Canaanites, descendants of Canaan, grandson of Noah, and cursed for the sin of his father Ham. Following their exodus from Egypt, the Jews were commanded to punish the Canaanites for their transgressions, and possess their land in Palestine, the land promised by God to their ancestor Abraham. Though the Jews were sternly warned to the contrary, they repeatedly succumbed to the worship of their Canaanite neighbors, a series of lapses that forms the fundamental theme of the Bible, from the Exodus to the Exile.

The Canaanites worshipped Baal, one of many dying gods symbolized by the bull worshipped throughout the ancient Middle East, like Adonis and Bel. He was identified in antiquity with the legendary founder of Babylon, Nimrod, "a mighty hunter before the Lord," which Jewish tradition regarded as the constellation Orion. His cult was centered around the myth of his death, or descent to the UnderWorld, and subsequent resurrection, symbolizing the death and return of fertility with the seasons. Baal was one of three gods, comprising a trinity, with his father El, and his mother Astarte, also his sister and spouse. As the sky god who fertilizes the mother earth, Baal was usually represented by phallic pillars called Asherah poles. The first instance, though, of the Israelites' worship of a bull-god was even before their entry into Palestine, occurring shortly after the Exodus, borrowed from the Egyptians, who worshipped the Apis bull. Exodus recounts that soon after their escape from Egypt, while Moses was in retreat receiving the Ten Commandments, and, concerned that he was tarrying too long, the Israelites approached Moses's brother Aaron and asked him to build for them an idol. He complied by melting their jewelry and cast what has henceforth come to be known as the Golden Calf, to which the Israelites, according to Exodus 32:6, "offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink and pagan revelry."

Even Solomon, king of the Israelites from 968 to 928 BC, was said to have been guilty of worshipping foreign gods, blamed on his marriage of foreign princesses. Solomon's great Temple too was built in a manner quite foreign to the Israelites. The Bible maintains that he hired the services of the master builder Hiram, a Canaanite. Two bronze pillars were erected at the door of the Temple. Similarly, temples dedicated to the goddess in Tyre are said to have featured stone pillars of phallic design at their entrances. Herodotus described two pillars in the temple of a god he referred to as the "Phoenician Hercules", meaning the Canaanite Baal. After Solomon, the Jewish nation was divided between Israel in the north and Judah in the south. When Jeroboam became king in Israel he was concerned that, in going to offer sacrifices at the Temple in Jerusalem, the Israelites would come to give their allegiance to the king of Judah instead of himself. Therefore, on the advice of his counselors, he set up two golden calves at the southern and northern ends of Israel, and said to the people, "It is too much trouble for you to worship in Jerusalem. O Israel, these are the gods who brought you out of Egypt!" God finally punished the Israelites with an attack led by the Assyrians under Tiglath-Pileser, and eventually, under Shalmaneser, who successfully invaded the city of Samaria, and exiled the people to Assyria.

According to II Kings 17:16-20, this disaster came upon the nation of Israel because: "They defied all the commands of the Lord their God and made two calves from metal. They set up an Asherah pillar and worshipped Baal and all the forces of heaven. They even sacrificed their own sons and daughters in the fire. They consulted fortune-tellers and used sorcery and sold themselves to evil, arousing the Lord's anger. And because the Lord was angry, he swept them from his presence. Only the tribe of Judah remained in the land. But even the people of Judah refused to obey the commands of the Lord their God. They walked down the same evil paths that Israel had established. So the Lord rejected all the descendants of Israel. He punished them by handing them over to their attackers until they were destroyed."

Though the Assyrian king Sennacherib also attacked Judah, Jerusalem was spared. Nevertheless, God had resolved to keep His promise to destroy the people of Jerusalem, and sent against them their great enemy, Nebuchadnezzar, king of the Babylonians, who devastated the city in 589 BC. The Temple was destroyed, its contents taken away, and most of the people, except the very poor, were carried into exile at Babylon, with any remaining eventually fleeing with Jeremiah into Egypt. Apparently in 79 BC there was a Civil War and the Pharisees were victorious. They proclaimed the supremacy of the Babylonian (Nimrodian) Babylonian Talmud over the Torah (the first five books of the Old Testament given to Moses and thought to be stored in the Ark of The Covenant along with the Ten Commandments; note that at that time, the Children of Israel deserted Moses and started the idolatrous worship of the golden calf again). The Babylonian Talmud teaches that the Jews are chosen by God to lead mankind (totally opposite of the truth as described by the True-Torah Jews <http://www.truetorahjews.com>). In practice this makes them god and gives them the right to redefine reality. In fact, it has made them Luciferians. In the words of Harold Rosenthal, "Most Jews do not like to admit it, but our god is Lucifer...and we are his chosen people. Lucifer is very much alive."

According to the author "Rabi": "Christianity is essentially preoccupied with the individual salvation of man. Judaism only contemplates the salvation of the House of Israel, which alone can permit the salvation of seventy nations of the universe." (Anatomie du Judasime Francaise, pp.203-204) Thus the Pharisees rejected Yashua-Joshua-Jesus (Issa or Yashua) because he taught that God is Love and all men are equal in the sight of God. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus repeatedly warned about the Pharisees.

Here is what Yashua-Isa-Yashua-Joshua had to say about the Babylonian Talmudists Pharisees (the priest-bankers-usurers who worked from the Temple in Jerusalem) who mislead ordinary Jews: "Be careful," Yashua-Joshua-Jesus said to them. "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees [read: Babylonian Talmudists]." John 8:44 You [Babylonian Talmudists] belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies".

The Pharisees were referred to by Yashua-Joshua-Jesus in the Bible as being of the Synagogue of Satan. In the Quran, the Children of Israel are reminded about not reverting to idolatry with examples such as the desertion of Moses into worship of the golden calf and other acts of idolatry. Note that there are at least two versions of the Babylonian Talmud's translations, the one for public consumption and the one not given to the ordinary public but excerpts from which you can find posted on the Internet and is really a piece of hate literature. The oral traditions of the Babylonian Talmud were not written down until after the 1st century A.C. The central book in apostatic or fake Judaism is the Babylonian Talmud which contains the teachings of the apostate Pharisees those people on whom the New Testament spends so many words. The Babylonian Talmud teaches Rabbis to oppose and discredit the teachings of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus because he criticized the Pharisees. Pharisaic law is reflected in the Babylonian Talmud, particularly in the book of Mishna—the original book of the Babylonian Talmud. Yashua-Joshua-Jesus called their teachings "the ways of men," an abomination, and he condemned them; for doing so, Yashua-Joshua-Jesus was "crucified" or so it seemed crossed by the Pharisee Caiaphas. I suspect that the Messianism of the Pharisee fake-Jews may be an instrument of international Illuminati banksters, a way to consolidate their power. These bankers and their allies are creating a new World order that cares little for democratic principles. They will be the gods.

Nathan Rothschild (1777 -1836), owner of the Bank of England at that time said: "I care not what puppet is placed on the throne of England to rule the Empire. The man who controls Britain's money supply controls the British Empire and I control the British money supply." In addition to Zionist Messianism, Masonry has been the Illuminati bankers' tool. It was instrumental in the destruction of the Christian monarchies in Germany, Austria and Russia and the decline of the Catholic Church. In his Encyclical Humanum Genus (1884) Pope Leo XIII wrote that the ultimate aim of Masonry is "to uproot completely the whole religious and moral order of the World, which has been brought into existence by Christianity...This will mean that the foundation and the laws of the new structure of society will be drawn from pure naturalism."

Again Pope Leo XIII said: "Masonry is the permanent personification of the Revolution; it constitutes a sort of society in reverse whose aim is to exercise an occult overlordship upon society as we know it, and whose sole raison d'être consists of waging war against God and his Church." (De Poncins, Masonry and the Vatican, p. 45)

In Masonry and the Vatican, Leon de Poncins uses Jewish sources to argue that Masonry is closely related to Phariseism. For example, Rabbi Elle Benamozegh wrote: "Masonic theology corresponds well enough to that of the Kabbala...,(Israel et L'Humanite, p.73) De Poncins cites an article that appeared in 1861 in a Parisian Jewish Review La Verite Israelite: "But the spirit of Masonry is that of Judaism in its most fundamental beliefs; its ideas are Judaic, its language is Judaic, its very organization, almost, is Judaic..." De Poncins writes that the goal of both Masonry and Phariseism (fake Judaism) is the unification of the World under Babylonian Talmudic law. (Masonry and the Vatican, p. 76). The ultimate aim is to divorce us from God and enslave us to our sexual and material lusts, i.e. to arrest our development. Like a scientist who begins with a hypothesis, I am offering this as a paradigm. You must decide if it helps to explain the World. Obviously I am just scratching the surface, and welcome guidance from people who are better informed than I. But I have no doubt that mankind is being subverted by its political and cultural leaders, beholden to international bankers and their allies, who often are practising Luciferians. They use Zionism and Masonry as instruments of organization and control. Obviously the majority of Jews and Masons are unaware or do not believe this. Modern culture makes a god of man. Man defines everything including goodness and truth. The result is that we are in a spiritual prison cut off from God and oppressed by relentless reminders of our own stunted development. I'm afraid spiritual and psychological enslavement is but a prelude to a political and economic one. Since 9-11, we are sheep grazing in sight of an abattoir. See also "Lucifer and the Cult of Freedom" by David Livingstone. Some emails from readers:

My 2 cents. Masonic "culture" is merely the means. The end is power. You hit the nail on the head when you said they want to be gods. "Creative Destruction" is their m.o. They've been so patient that they're bound to be disappointed. I think they'll find (as we all do!) that having what you want never equals the work put forth in achieving it. Absolute power will bore them to death. In the end, they will have created a hell for themselves. "S" -----

Henry, First, and paradoxically, atheism and Luciferianism is rooted in Judaism. Or more specifically, the Kabbalah as propagated by the Pharisees. I agree with you with regards to the original message of the Jewish faith. Which I think was perpetuated in both Christianity and Islam, before again being perverted in these. It is the simple commandments for decency as you say. But in the sixth century BC, certain Jews chose to adopt sorcery, and so rejected their original faith. The adhered to it only to the extent that they reversed their interpretation of it. And so, Baal, the ancient enemy of Jehovah, became the true god of Israel. And, though God had clarified that they were only Chosen so long as they followed the 10 commandments, they bastardized the covenant to suggest that they were chosen no matter what. In fact, their God would grant them superiority over the rest of mankind.

This interpretation gave rise to Zionism, and it was combined with the belief in an expected Messiah. Though the covenant had been clearly repealed both in the Exile of the sixth century, and the destruction of the Second Temple in 70 AD, they chose to believe that the Messiah would restore them to Zion, and that he would make them rulers of the World. The first to outline the blueprint for that future state was the great godfather of Kabbalah, Plato. I think Zionism is Kabbalah. According to the Kabbalah, magic must be used to manipulate fate, so as to bring about the coming of the Messiah and Jewish rule over humanity. Also according to the Kabbalah, specifically Isaac Luria, the difference between a Jew and a Gentile is a thousand times the difference between man and cattle. Therefore, according to the Babylonian Talmud, a Jew is justified in doing to a Gentile what he is not permitted to a Jew. And so, the NWO must be established by deception, so as to ensure it is not inhibited. So I wouldn't say that Judaism is a tool of the Illuminati Bankers, but rather that a bastardization of Judaism, or Kabbalah, is their creed.

My humble opinion, David -----

I have just discovered your web of sites and articles and I just wanted to send kudos. As a student of philosophy I was appalled by studies in ethics and epistemology that subtly, tacitly endorsed murderous values. I postulated that this was either a lack of courage or morals. Sloppy scholarship and weak arguments, as long as they support World agenda, see much success in academia which reads only hypnotic sophism rather than truth. I have often thought that the mainstream of philosophical papers supported ethical nihilism. For example, at Northern Illinois University in a class on Dionisian philosophy, a tenured professor educated the students in: Plato's homosexual seductions, cannibal practices of the greeks, the pedophile artistry of Thomas Mann's Death in Venice, along with praises of Nietzsche's ethics and Immanuel Kant's elitist morality where only 'experts' know beauty, truth etc. Here's hopin' we survive the crisis. The Return of Vanunu April 25, 2004 Vanunu Mordechai says we don't need a Zionist state By Israel Adam Shamir. Ashkelon is a peaceful small town to the south of Tel Aviv and to the north of Gaza, rebuilt after 1948 on the ruins of the old Palestinian town. White houses and white sand give it its clean look. Its high-security jail is also painted white, though it is far from idyllic place. Today the Mossad-operated jail returned Ashkelon into news for the first time since Richard Coeur-de-Lion took it from Saladin. For 18 long years until today Mordechai Vanunu was buried alive in its super-secret Agaf Seven, ever since he was kidnapped in Europe by Mossad spies and illegally brought to be tried and imprisoned here. Vanunu committed a double crime for he defied the Jewish state by disclosing the secret of its evil nuclear might and by embracing Christ. For this he was kept in solitary confinement; hour upon hour, day upon day, year after year under lidless eyes of Mossad watchers. This would be enough to break spirit of an ordinary man, to drive him into release of insanity, as his tormentors wished. But they failed for he was not an ordinary man. Born into a working-class Sephardic Jewish family in arid Negev, Vanunu witnessed persecution of the native Palestinians, and he felt compassion for them. This brotherly compassion for goyim, frowned upon in the Jewish tradition, brought him to Christ. He could not continue working at Dimona, the place where Israel makes weapons of mass destruction. He openly broke with Jewish omerta, denounced evil, and made his fellow citizens and the World aware of huge nuclear arsenal accumulated in the underground storages to threaten the World peace. A Christian has some qualities of Christ, and witness of Vanunu made him a Christian martyr. Jews are not a forgiving lot, and they are not likely to forgive a man who broke free. In order to make this religious meaning of his trial clear to all, the judges sentenced Vanunu for 18 years, to be immured alive, for 18 means alive in Hebrew. Many Jews wear the sign of 18, or Chai on their necks, where Christians wear cross. Do you know what this sign means??? Daniel McGowan of Deir Yassin Remembered was asked by a policeman, and replied: it is the sentence you gave Vanunu!.

But 18 years passed, and today Vanunu came back to life. It was a moment of supreme elation reminiscent of Resurrection Sunday, when the white doves flew over the white prison, and crowds chanted in front of the gate of heavy iron bars guarding the entrance to Ashkelon jail. He approached the gate, grasped its bars as if wishing to break free, pulled his strong body up and looked at us, at his friends who came to see him coming out alive, and at his enemies who called for his blood. There was no Hollywood smile of a released prisoner. Not a timid lamb anymore, but Son of Man who saw death and came back. His face was stern and grim in the blue frame of the iron bars, like that of Christ breaking the Gates of Hell on an old icon. He turned to the TV crews and spoke to them, at first in his heavily accented Sephardic Hebrew, then in English: "I want to tell you something very important. I suffered here 18 years because I am a Christian, because I was baptised into Christianity. If I was a Jew I wouldn't have all this suffering here in isolation for 18 years. Only because I was a Christian? Vanunu Mordechai says we don't need a Jewish state. Vanunu Mordechai doesn't want to live in Israel and doesn't need a Jewish state. I am a symbol of the will of freedom. You cannot break the human spirit."

"Kill him!" yelled the Jewish crowd, braying for blood, like in Mel Gibson's film. They raised their signs declaring "Kill the traitor". But the prey escaped them: in a minute, his car took him into safe sanctuary of St George cathedral, the Anglican Neo-Gothic building in East Jerusalem, where kind Bishop Riah expected him. Thus Vanunu confirmed in his own words and deeds: Christ is the symbol of compassion to our fellow men and thus of rebellion against the Pharisee rule, the symbol of unvanquished human spirit that is akin to God. I thought of my friend Gilad Atzmon in London and of other good people who rebelled against the archaic spirit of dominance; of endless arguments whether Christ is relevant for our struggle in Palestine, arguments Vanunu answered so eloquently. In 1986, when Vanunu was arrested, I wrote in the socialist newspaper Al Hamishmar, "Vanunu was my spy, for he spied for me the dark secrets of the Zionist establishment". But he returned with an even more important message, that of spirit. Years ago, he revealed to us the weapons of our enemies; now he revealed our secret weapon in the battle for Palestine, that of Christ. And this battle goes on: while white doves flew over the prison, the Jewish tanks bombarded towns of Gaza, a few miles away, killing innocent civilians. He also revealed complicity of the American and European pseudo-Christians in the plot. Vanunu told us he was trapped not by Mossad but by a CIA agent for his revelations were mightily embarrassing for the US, for the country that forced the World to disarm while turning its blind eye to Dimona nuclear facility. Even now the US authorities promised to keep an eye on Vanunu so he won't embarrass them even more. Italy's Berlusconi, this great friend of Sharon and Bush, did not move a finger to save the man kidnapped on Italian soil. This question should be discussed in the election campaign in the US: it is not too late for Americans to reject the accomplices of the Zionist warmongers. Yes, Vanunu is right: The time has come to end this silence and secret cooperation by the West, the United States, Canada and all Europe helping Israel and co-operating with Israel's secrets...? It is not too late for us, the Israelis to listen to this man and to agree with him: we do not need a Zionist state; we need a state of compassion. Israel Shamir's www.israelshamir.net.

A Reader writes: April 19, 2004 Henry: I'm not the kind of person to say that I understand what "God" Is, but I know that I agree with your Luciferian Anti-Culture article 100%. It's obvious there is an insidious force, an "evil will to power" that runs through Mankind and tries to enslave the Mind of the people, for the sole benefit of the "Chosen" few.. You captured that idea masterfully. "Thus the Pharisees rejected Christ because he taught that God is Love and all men are equal in the sight of God. 'The advent of Christ was a national catastrophe for the Jewish people, especially for the leaders,' Leon de Poncins writes. "Until then they alone had been the Sons of the Covenant; they had been its sole high priests and beneficiaries...." Its important for people who tell the truth like you do to continue to perform your holy duties, so that people can have their "lenses washed" of all the propaganda and worthlessness of modern Luciferian social and political trends. It seems to me (almost) everything is under control of Man (playing God), but they still have yet to figure out how to take us from our God fully. We will never be separated from God, really, but our minds can be enslaved by our own ignorance of the facts. Thank you for being bold with your word---- Henry: Googled for "edward albee goat" and got 5200 hits. First Google page told all: Play is American, of course, is playing in London several years after Broadway start. Won some kind of award here("Tony"?") and was described as "most mesmerizing" theater of the season. Albee (author of Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolff?) is gay, and the play is intended (got this from one review in a NYC newspaper) to highlight the dilemma of gay folk in declaring their loves: nearly as difficult as owning up to a goat as a paramour. I can remember being shocked reading about the moral decline in the late Hellenic and Roman theater; boy, they hadn't seen the half of it. Onward to a bright and cheery future, no? -----

Lucifer's Synagogue of Satan and the Cult of Freedom by David Livingstone

David Livingstone is the author of "The Dying God": The Hidden History of Western Civilization. <http://www.thedyinggod.com>. "In all corners of the earth the words Liberty, Equality, Fraternity brought to our ranks, thanks to our blind agents, whole legions who bore our banners with enthusiasm. And all the time these words were canker-worms at work boring into the well-being of the goyim, putting an end everywhere to peace, quiet, solidarity and destroying all the foundations of the goy States. As you will see later this helped us to our triumph; it gave us the possibility, among other things, of getting into our hands the master card - the destruction of the privileges, or in other words of the very existence of the Aristocracy of the goyim, that class which was the only defense peoples and countries had against us. On the ruins of the natural and genealogical Aristocracy of the goyim we have set up the Aristocracy of our educated class headed by the Aristocracy of money." Protocols of Zion on Liberty.

"Freedom" and "Liberty", both terms originally devised by the Illuminati, are sham slogans, that have been used time and again to rally the masses of the Western World against some contrived foe. "Freedom" is a relative term. By itself it does not have any meaning. Human relationships, whether they be between one individual and another, or between the state and the individual, are defined by limitations. Man may be entitled to certain freedoms, but these must have defined limits, so that he can be prevented from encroaching on others, and others against he. Therefore, man cannot be "free". Ultimately, the principles of "freedom" and "liberty" are rooted in the occult. "Liberty", along with "equality", and "fraternity", were concepts originally promulgated by the Masons. In turn, the dogma of the Masons is derived from the Gnostic tradition. Gnosticism is a heresy of Christianity that belonged to the first centuries AD. It derived its influence from the Jewish Kabbalah, and reversed the interpretation of the Bible. Therefore, God became the evil one, while the devil was he who sought to "liberate" man by teaching him the forbidden knowledge, or magic. According to Gnostics then, all the laws proclaimed by the creator God of the Bible were to suppress man. Instead, he believed, man would only become free by indulging in as many vices as he could. Therefore, proponents of "liberty" offer an alternative principle to counter what they regard as the repression meted out by religion. They claim that we ought to be allowed to do as we please, as long as we do not harm anybody else. This is the same principle as that touted by modern-day witches, or Wiccans, as stated by the godfather of modern Satanism, Aleister Crowley: "Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law".

Therefore, the delusion Satanists are offering is that the laws of the monotheistic faiths are somehow repressive. And so, Satanism reverses that which is taught by them, and suggests that we ought to be allowed to indulge in what we please, as long as we do not harm anybody else. What they fail to recognize, however, is that the commandments of the monotheistic faiths are not to restrict indulgence, but also to prevent the harming of others, and therefore, forbid adultery, murder, theft, deception, exploitation and so on. And yet, indecency and vulgarity is praised as courage against prudishness. The female body is exploited everywhere to market products. Though, religion did not teach us to be "ashamed" of our bodies, but to "have shame." Nevertheless, through the influence of Satanism, Hollywood is promoting exhibitionism as "body consciousness". To the Masons of the Enlightenment, who had been indoctrinated by the Illuminati, the use of "reason" supposedly helped man recognize that ultimately there is no God, that the Bible was a book of superstitions, and therefore, that he ought to seek "liberty" from the Catholic Church, which he came to regard to as "despotism". Using the "philosophes" of the period as their mouthpiece, the Illuminati deceived the masses into believing that man no longer needed religion, but could discover laws by himself, through the use of "reason". In this way, the first attempts to devise such laws were known as "inalienable rights", first conceived and discussed in the meetings of the Illuminati, and which were designed to supplant the commandments of the Bible.

And so, the great political successes of the secret societies, the American and French Revolutions, toppled Christianity, and in its place erected secular systems, under the pretense of eliminating state persecution of religion. Among the fifty-six American rebels who signed the Declaration of Independence, only six were not members of the Masonic Order. It was they who enshrined the Luciferian principle of "liberty", and ultimately replaced revelation with rights they regarded to be "self-evident". What they had done, however, was subject themselves to the arbitrary regulations that their new bourgeois overlords formulated, which we now call "rights", but in reality is a political and economic system set to advantage their class over the rest. Religion does not forbid pleasure. Rather, it merely requires that it be tempered by a sense of greater responsibility towards one's fellow human beings. The broader reality, however, is that Western citizens are accomplices in the exploitation of the rest of humanity. They have been duped by the propaganda that, because nature is evolving, the rest of the World is merely behind a stage of evolution. This, of course, is to disguise the fact that the World Bank and the IMF, following the dictates of the financial and banking elite, are deliberately impoverishing the rest of the World, to secure both cheap labor and natural resources. As a result, two-thirds of the World now lives at subsistence. In order to suppress the inevitable dissent that will arise from subject populations to their economic enslavement, the Western powers, through the Black Ops of the CIA, have installed brutal dictatorships. These are then compared to our relative prosperity, as proof of our institutions' and leaders' ability to provide us our cherished "freedoms."

More on the Zionization of Christianity by Gary North

With the President meeting this week with Prime Minister Barak of Israel and Yassir Arafat, it may be time to review a topic that is baffling for Jews, annoying to Arabs, and unavoidable for American Congressmen: the unwavering political support for the State of Israel by American fundamentalists. Vocal support of a pro-Israel American foreign policy is basic for the leaders of American Protestant fundamentalism. This has been true ever since 1948. Pat Robertson and Rev. Jerry Falwell have been pro-Israel throughout their careers, beginning two decades before the arrival of the New Christian Right in the late 1970's. These men are not aberrations. The Trinity Broadcasting Network is equally supportive. So are the best-selling authors who speak for, and influence heavily, Protestant fundamentalism, most notably Hal Lindsey, author of The Late Great Planet Earth (1970), and Tim LaHaye, the husband of Beverly LaHaye of Concerned Women for America, which says on its Web site that it is "the nation's largest public policy women's organization." Rev. LaHaye and his co-author have each earned some $10 million in royalties for their multi-volume futuristic novel, Left Behind. They have a very large audience.

People may ask themselves, "Why this support?" Fundamentalists earlier in this century were sometimes associated with anti-Semitism. James M. Gray of the Moody Bible Institute in 1927 wrote an editorial favorable to Henry Ford's Dearborn Independent series on Jews. Gray's editorial appeared in the Moody Bible Institute Monthly. Arno C. Gabelein, a prominent fundamentalist leader, believed that the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion was a legitimate document. Gabelein's 1933 book, The Conflict of the Ages, would today be regarded as anti-Semitic. Other fundamentalist leaders of the pre-War era, while not anti-Semitic, attempted to maintain neutrality on the issue of Hitler's persecution of Jews. In his 1977 book, Armageddon Now!, Christian historian Dwight Wilson cites numerous examples of fundamentalist theologians in the late 1930's who regarded Hitler's discriminatory policies against Jews as part of God's judgment on the Jews. He writes: "Pleas from Europe for assistance for Jewish refugees fell on deaf ears, and 'Hands Off' meant no helping hand. So in spite of being theologically more pro-Jewish than any other Christian group, the premillennarians also were apathetic. . ." [pp. 96-97]. What was it that persuaded almost the entire fundamentalist movement to move from either hostility or neutrality to vocal support of Israel? No single answer will fit every case, but there is a common motivation, one not taken seriously by most people in history: getting out of life alive.

The Christian doctrine of eschatology deals with the last things. Sometimes eschatology deals with the personal: the death of the individual. Usually, however, it has to do with God's final judgment of mankind. There have been three main views of eschatology in the history of the church, which theologians classify as premillennialism, postmillennialism, and amillennialism. The pre- and post- designations refer to the expected timing of the bodily return of Yashua-Joshua-Jesus in the company of angels: before (pre-) the establishment of an earthly kingdom of God, or after (post-) this kingdom has extended its rule across the earth. The amillennial view is that the kingdom of God is mainly spiritual. This became the dominant view of Christianity for over a millennium after Augustine's City of God, with its distinction between the city of God, the church (spiritual and permanent) and the political cities of man (rising and falling). Luther held this eschatological view. Most of the Continental Protestant Reformers of the sixteenth century held it. But seventeenth-century Scottish Presbyterians were more likely to hold the postmillennial view, and they carried it with them when they emigrated to America. Their postmillennialism rested in part on their belief that God will convert the Jews to Christianity as a prelude to the kingdom's period of greatest expansion, an idea derived from Paul's Epistle to the church at Rome, chapter 11. Presbyterians are officially commanded to pray for the conversion of the Jews. [Westminster Larger Catechism (1647), Answer 191.] The first generation of Puritan Congregationalists in New England also held similar postmillennial opinions.

The premillennial view was commonly held in the pre-Augustinian church, although the other views did have defenders. After 1660, premillennialism became increasingly common within American Puritanism. Cotton Mather was a premillennialist. But Jonathan Edwards was postmillennial. In nineteenth-century America, both views were common prior to the Civil War. After the War, premillennialism steadily replaced postmillennialism among fundamentalists. A secularized postmillennialism was adopted by the Social Gospel movement. Non-fundamentalist Protestants from Continental Europe, like the Catholics, remained amillennial. Postmillennialism faded after World War I until the late 1970's, when it experienced a limited revival. Basic to the view of both premillennialism and amillennialism is pessimism regarding the efforts of Christians to build a culture-wide kingdom of God on earth. Both positions hold that only by Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' bodily presence among the saints can Christians create a cultural alternative to the competing kingdoms of man. The premillennialist believes that this international kingdom construction task will begin in earnest a thousand years before the final judgment, with Yashua-Joshua-Jesus ruling from a literal throne, probably located in Jerusalem. The amillennialist views this universal extension of the kingdom of God into culture as possible only after the resurrection of all humanity at the final judgment, i.e., in a sin-free, death-free, Christians-only World.

Tribulation and Rapture

Just prior to Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' return to set up an earthly kingdom, argue most amillennialists and all premillennialists, there will be a time of persecution, called the Great Tribulation. It is here that the great debate over the Jews begins. Amillennialists believe that Christians will be persecuted by their enemies. A handful of premillennialists, referred to as "historic premillennialists," also identify Christians as the targets. This version of premillennialism has been insignificant institutionally since the 1870's. The dominant premillennial view says that Jews will suffer the Great Tribulation. Born-again Christians will have flown the coop – literally. This is the doctrine of the pre-tribulation Rapture.

According to pre-tribulation premillennialists, who are known as dispensationalists, Yashua-Joshua-Jesus will come secretly in the clouds and raise deceased Christians – and only Christians – from the dead. Immediately thereafter, every true Christian will be transported bodily into the sky, and from there to heaven: the Rapture event. The passage cited to defend this view is found in Paul's first letter to the church at Thessalonica: "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up [harpazo] together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord" (I Thes. 4:16-17). Throughout most of church history, this passage was associated with the final judgment, but beginning sometime around 1830 in England, it was linked to the premillennial, pretribulational Rapture – a word that is not found in the Greek text or in any English translation of the New Testament. Its Latin root word is in Jerome's Vulgate, a translation of the Greek "harpazo" – seize, catch, or pluck. This outlook on the earthly future became increasingly popular among fundamentalists, beginning in the 1870's. It was formalized in the footnotes of the Scofield Reference Bible (1909; revised, 1917). In 1930, it became the first Oxford University Press book to reach sales of one million. It has now sold over five million copies. C. I. Scofield's system has defined fundamentalism for nine decades. The Rapture-based escape from history is now universally believed by fundamentalists to be imminent. Generations of fundamentalists have believed that they will escape bodily death. They will be transported into the sky, like Elijah, though without benefit of chariots. But when? That has been the great question. The answer: "Soon." But why soon? Why not a millennium from now? The psychological answer: Because men do not live that long in this millennium. The main selling point for fundamentalism's Bible prophecies is to get insight into what is coming soon. In this case, the issue of mortality is central. As the slogan says, "Everybody wants to go to heaven, but nobody wants to die." The doctrine of the imminent Rapture allows Christians to believe seriously that they can go to heaven without dying. Millions of Americans believe this today.

But how can they be so sure? Because of the events of 1948. In that year, the crucial missing piece of the prophetic puzzle – the restoration of the nation of Israel – seemed to come true. Critics of the dispensational system could no longer say, "But where is Israel in all this?" The answer, at long last: "In Palestine, just in time for the Great Tribulation." The Grim Fate of Israel: The source of the idea of the Great Tribulation is found in Yashua-Joshua-Jesus' last words regarding Israel, which are recorded in Matthew 24 and Luke 21. And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled (Luke 21:20-24). Throughout most of church history, this prophecy was interpreted as having been fulfilled by the Roman siege of Jerusalem and the destruction of the temple in 70 A.D. With the rise of dispensationalism, however, the fulfillment of this passage was moved into the future.

Dispensationalism's critics had long asked: "Where is the nation of Israel? Where are the Jews?" Not in Palestine, surely. So, dispensationalists tended to apply this prophecy of near-destruction to Jews in general – only symbolically residing in Israel – until 1948. This was one reason for their silence on Hitler's persecution. Hitler was just another rung in the ladder of persecution leading to the inevitable Great Tribulation. The prophesied agency of the great persecution has shifted over the years. As Wilson shows in Armageddon Now!, from 1917 until 1977, Russia was a prime candidate. But, after 1991, this has become difficult to defend, for obvious reasons. The collapse of the Soviet Union has created a major problem for dispensationalism's theologians and its popular authors. But there have been no comparable doubts about the intensity of the coming persecution. Here is the opinion of John F. Walvoord, one of dispensationalism's leading theologians, who served for three decades as the president of Dallas Theological Seminary (founded, 1924), the movement's main seminary. The purge of Israel in their time of trouble is described by Zechariah in these words: "And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith Jehovah, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried" (Zechariah 13:8, 9). According to Zechariah's prophecy, two thirds of the children of Israel in the land will perish, but the one third that are left will be refined and be awaiting the deliverance of God at the second coming of Christ which is described in the next chapter of Zechariah. [John F. Walvoord, Israel in Prophecy (Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan, [1962] 1988), p. 108. Nothing can or will be done by Christians to save Israel's Jews from this disaster, for all of the Christians will have been removed from this World three and a half years prior to the beginning of this 42-month period of tribulation. (The total period of seven years is interpreted as the fulfillment of the seventieth week of Daniel [Dan. 9:27].)]

In order for most of today's Christians to escape physical death, two-thirds of the Jews in Israel must perish, soon. This is the grim prophetic trade-off that fundamentalists rarely discuss publicly, but which is the central motivation in the movement's support for Israel. It should be clear why they believe that Israel must be defended at all costs by the West. If Israel were militarily removed from history prior to the Rapture, then the strongest case for Christians' imminent escape from death would have to be abandoned. This would mean the indefinite delay of the Rapture. The fundamentalist movement thrives on the doctrine of the imminent Rapture, not the indefinitely postponed Rapture. Every time you hear the phrase, "Yashua-Joshua is coming back soon," you should mentally add, "and two-thirds of the Jews of Israel will be dead in 'soon plus 84 months.'" Fundamentalists really do believe that they probably will not die physically, but to secure this faith prophetically, they must defend the doctrine of an inevitable holocaust. This specific motivation for the support of Israel is never preached from any fundamentalist pulpit. The faithful hear sermons – many, many sermons – on the pretribulation Rapture. On other occasions, they hear sermons on the Great Tribulation. But they do not hear the two themes put together: "We can avoid death, but only because two-thirds of the Jews of Israel will inevitably die in a future holocaust. America must therefore support the nation of Israel in order to keep the Israelis alive until after the Rapture." Fundamentalist ministers expect their congregations to put two and two together on their own. It would be politically incorrect to add up these figures in public.

Zionist Collaboration with the Nazis

Throughout history, we will note that the MEGA-RICH among the people who pretend to be Israelites Judeans never got affected whenever ordinary Jews were persecuted. The wealth and power of the MEGA-RICH Jews kept on growing. During WWII, the same thing happened with the Rothschild families and top Zionists going unscathed during Hitler's persecution of ordinary Jews. Lets learn more. They hide behind the front of Judaism and Zionism. Very convenient!

In 1983, Croom Helm Ltd. published my 1st book, Zionism in the Age of the Dictators. American writers don't expect favorable reviews from the London Times, but editorialist Edward Mortimer declared that "Brenner is able to cite numerous cases where Zionists collaborated with anti-Semitic regimes, including Hitler's. Still less could a Trotskyist dream of a review from Izvestia, the Soviet government gazette, but they hailed it. "During the World war, Brenner points out, Zionism showed its real meaning: for the sake of its ambitions, it sacrificed the blood of millions of Jews." Louis Rapoport, a failed Berkeley radical, denounced the book in the Jerusalem Post as "leftist babble." Nevertheless, he conceded, there were "very real charges that will continue to haunt" Zionism "until they are dealt with honestly." In 1987, Jim Allen, the celebrated British movie/TV writer, based Perdition, a stage play, on the book. When intense pressure on the Royal Court Theatre canceled production, we debated Sir Martin Gilbert, the Churchill family's private historian, and Stephen Roth, head of the British Zionist Federation, nationwide, prime-time on ITV. The London Review of Books said the Zionist scheme "made it one of the most famous plays of the decade." Indeed, unless the Queen was sick on the crapper, every politically or theatrically interested person in Britain watched us win, thanks to director Ken Loach's strategic instructions. Extraordinary World interest wasn't matched in America's media. Alex Cockburn championed the book in the Village Voice and in the Nation. But the Voice refused to review it. The Nation sent it out to someone, but, sorry, "he never sent in the review. Walter Laqueur had to bark in the Zionist New Republic after their Perdition debacle: "Some of Brenner's book is invented, some is exaggerated or drawn out of context." Yet even he admits that "German Zionists did not fully understand the meaning of Hitler when he came to power in 1933. Some of their comments and declarations make embarrassing reading 50 years later."

Despite Zionism's best efforts, over 5,000 copies sold in 18 years before being put on the web: <http://www.marxists.de/middleast/brenner/index.htm> Then Lyle Stuart of Barricade Books discovered that a friend, a Zionist propagandist, had never read the complete proposal of the "Stern Gang," 1940s Zionist terrorists, to go to war on Hitler's side. 51 Documents was born. Now Americans and others can read the evidence and judge for themselves. There are six selections re Zionism's relationship to anti-Semitism and racism prior to Hitler. The 51 documents, including 35 letters, memos, articles, and reports by Zionists, are from the Hitler era and after. Seven are by Nazis, most notably Eichmann's memoir, written in Argentina, on Hungarian collaborator RA<<zso Kasztner. Five of the six and 43 of the 51 are complete. The rest are extensive excerpts from important reports. There are four first-time full translations of articles from German, Hebrew, Italian and Russian. Zionism convicts itself. On June 21, 1933, the German Zionist Federation sent a secret memorandum to the Nazis:

"Zionism has no illusions about the difficulty of the Jewish condition, which consists above all in an abnormal occupational pattern and in the fault of an intellectual and moral posture not rooted in one's own tradition. Zionism recognized decades ago that as a result of the assimilationist trend, symptoms of deterioration were bound to appear, which it seeks to overcome by carrying out its challenge to transform Jewish life completely. "It is our opinion that an answer to the Jewish question truly satisfying to the national state can be brought about only with the collaboration of the Jewish movement that aims at a social, cultural and moral renewal of Jewry--indeed, that such a national renewal must first create the decisive social and spiritual premises for all solutions. "Zionism believes that a rebirth of national life, such as is occurring in German life through adhesion to Christian and national values, must also take place in the Jewish national group. For the Jew, too, origin, religion, community of fate and group consciousness must be of decisive significance in the shaping of his life. This means that the egotistic individualism which arose in the liberal era must be overcome by public spiritedness and by willingness to accept responsibility."

By 1936, the Post ran a news flash, "German Zionists Seek Recognition": "A bold demand that the German Zionist Federation be given recognition by the Government as the only instrument for the exclusive control of German Jewish life was made by the Executive of that body in a proclamation today. All German Jewish organizations, it was declared, should be dominated by the Zionist spirit." Zionist factions competed for the honor of allying to Hitler. By 1940-41, the "Stern Gang," among them Yitzhak Shamir, later Prime Minister of Israel, presented the Nazis with the "Fundamental Features of the Proposal of the National Military Organization in Palestine (Irgun Zvai Leumi) Concerning the Solution of the Jewish Question in Europe and the Participation of the NMO in the War on the Side of Germany." Avraham Stern and his followers announced that "The NMO, which is well-acquainted with the goodwill of the German Reich government and its authorities towards Zionist activity inside Germany and towards Zionist emigration plans, is of the opinion that:

- Common interests could exist between the establishment of a new order in Europe in conformity with the German concept, and the true national aspirations of the Jewish people as they are embodied by the NMO.
- Cooperation between the new Germany and a renewed folkish-national Hebraism would be possible and,
- The establishment of the historic Jewish state on a national and totalitarian basis, bound by a treaty with the German Reich, would be in the interest of a maintained and strengthened future German position of power in the Near East.

Proceeding from these considerations, the NMO in Palestine, under the condition the above-mentioned national aspirations of the Israeli freedom movement are recognized on the side of the German Reich, offers to actively take part in the war on Germany's side." They hanged people all over Europe after WW II for notes to the Nazis like these. But these treasons against the Jews were virtually unknown in the run up to the creation of the Zionist state in May 1948. Ninety percent of America's Jews suddenly became emotional pro-Zionists. With Democrats, Republicans and even the Communist-organized Progressive Party competing for Jewish votes in the November Presidential election, Harry Truman's monetary aid bought arms from pro-Soviet Czechoslovakia, and an Israel was born, run by the German Zionists' cothinkers in Jerusalem. Jews and other Americans still know little of Zionism's sordid past. But today only programed fanatics can come away pro-Zionist after reading plain facts. Indeed, according to the American Jewish Identity Survey (2001), less than 22% of all Jews declare themselves Zionist. Opposition to Zionism also grows among liberal educated gentiles, every time their declared enemy, Pat Robertson, howls in favor of Orthodox Israel. For complex historical reasons, the Vietnam anti-war movement and anti-apartheid campaign emphasized demonstrations over sustained education. Even in victory, little was left behind in the way of attention to foreign affairs among the broad masses. Even after 9-11, the ultimate attention getter, US public knowledge about the Arab World, Islam, the oil industry, Zionism, and Washington's involvement with them, is minimal. But the present anti-Iraq war movement has no choice but to systematically educate itself and the public. The issues are too complex for anything less. Ignorance or illusions about any of the players, here or there, means certain death for X number of Arabs, Israelis, Kurds, Muslims and Americans. (51_Documents can play a major role in making serious study a priority concern for an anti-war movement that will stay solidly in place until the present bipartisan power structure is destroyed and replaced. In 1935 the steamer "Tel Aviv" made its maiden voyage from Nazi Germany to Haifa with Hebrew letters on its bow and a Nazi flag fluttering from its mast. The Captain of the Zionist-owned ship was a member of the Nazi Party. A passenger described the spectacle as a "metaphysical absurdity." Actually it made perfect sense. The ship transported German Jews who had taken advantage of the "Haavara" program, which allowed them to exchange their money for its value in Germany products in Palestine. As a result, the fledgling Jewish colony received about 70,000 highly educated German Jews and 140 million Reichmarks worth of German industrial equipment. This laid the foundation of Israel's infrastructure. The arrangement also boosted the Nazi economy at a time when Jews Worldwide were boycotting German products. (My main source is "The Secret Contacts" by Klaus Polkeln a prominent German journalist. It is included in Olivia O'Grady's The Beasts of the Apocalypse, 2001, 421-447.)

Why retell this story of Zionist-Nazi cooperation now? Because "Jewish" leaders have been exploiting their "lesser brethren" for a long time, and are doing so today. Ordinary Jews pay the price and this price could rise. In my opinion, Zionism is a movement to deceive Jews into advancing the objectives of British imperialism. (See, "The Jewish Conspiracy is British Imperialism") Zionists who have built their lives on a false premise naturally will reject this view. Specifically, Jews helped the British-Jewish elite colonize the oil-rich Middle East under the pretext of Jews needing a national home. Despite the appearance of neutrality, the British (and Americans) financed, trained and equipped the Jews. (John Coleman, Diplomacy by Deception p. 107.) The "British" are really the London-based international banking cartel associated with names like Rothschild and Rockefeller. It doesn't answer to any government. Its goal is to colonize the World and everyone in it. Jews are a means to this end. As seen in Iraq, Zionists (a.k.a Neocons) play a major role in the colonization of the Middle East. The important thing to remember is that Israel is the creation of this cartel; both Israel and the US are its tools. Iraq is only a phase in the emerging New World Order, which represents a continuation of the goals of "British" imperialism. If John Kerry was elected, he would take up in Iraq where George Bush leaves off. Democracy is a charade.

Nazis Made-To-Measure For Zionism

In 1925, Germany's 500,000 Jews were overwhelmingly indifferent or actively hostile to Zionism. The German Zionist movement had only 9000 members. The "Central Union of Germans of the Jewish Faith" represented most German Jews and favored active participation in German life. Its main focus was combating anti-Semitism. Zionists, on the other hand, welcomed the Nazis' anti-Semitic policies. Like the Nazis, they believed in race-based national character and destiny. Like the Nazis, they believed Jews had no future in Germany. The Zionists did not protest Nazi persecution such as the removal of 2000 Jewish scholars and scientists from German universities in 1933. The Nazis rewarded this "restraint" by allowing the Zionists to go about their work unhindered. All other Jewish and anti-fascist organizations were disbanded and their leaders imprisoned. The Nazis required all Jews to join the Zionist-led "Reich Union" whose goal was emigration. Jews were to be converted to Zionism at any cost. The Zionists were able to publish books and newspapers critical of the Nazis so long as the audience was restricted to Jews. The cooperation extended to political and economic spheres. Adolph Eichmann set up agricultural training camps in Austria to prepare young Jews for Kibbutz life. He visited Palestine and conferred with Zionist leaders who confessed their true expansionist goals. There was even talk of a strategic alliance between Nazi Germany and Jewish Palestine. His report is in Himmler's Archives.

[For more on Zionist-Nazi cooperation, see online Lenni Brenner "Zionism in the Age of Dictators" Also, Lenni Brenner, 51 Documents: Zionist Collaboration With the Nazis (2002)]. The cooperation may have extended to the Jewish Holocaust and explain why most Jews passively accepted their fate. In his book, "The Holocaust Victims Accuse" Rabbi Moshe Shonfeld claims that Zionists led Jewish Councils 2010 Judenrats 2010 collaborated with the Nazis and deceived non-Zionist Jews. See my "Zionism: Compulsory Suicide for Jews." Europe's non-Zionist Jews were worth more dead than alive to Zionists and their financial sponsors. The Holocaust provided a political and moral rationale for the establishment of the Jewish state.

WHO REALLY WAS HITLER \(Schicklgruber\)? An illegitimate grandson of Baron Rothschild?

Adolf Hitler was born on 20th April, 1889, in the small Austrian town of Braunau near the German border. Both Hitler's parents (Klara and Alois) had come from poor peasant families. His father Alois Hitler, the illegitimate son of a housemaid whom Baron Rothschild of Austria used to bear a child. Hitler was from the Zionist Khazar Ashkenazi Rothschild bankroll family. Hitler's driver was also Jewish, this is in contradiction with the propaganda image the public has been conditioned with of Hitler. Emil Maurice with Hitler in this picture. Many Jews were among Hitler's followers at all levels, including the high ranking Alfred Rosenberg, Hermann Goering, Reinhard Heydrich, Adolf Eichmann, Dr. Otto Gustav Wachter, etc.. Hitler's Jewish Clairvoyant was Erik Jan Hanussen. "The following is a partial list of Jews who participated in the Revolutionary War: Major George Bush, Major Louis Bush, Major Solomon Bush." - National Jewish Welfare Board, Jewish Calander for Soldiers and Sailors 1943-1944, "The Jews in the Wars of the United States" Note that the Rockefellers, Rothschilds, Clinton, Mikhail Gorbachev (Orbach-Korbach), Lenin, Joseph V. Stalin (Iosip David Vissarionovich Djugashvili-Kochba), Gengrich Yagoda, Karl Marx, Mark Rich (Reich), Christian Rakovsky (Chaim Rakover), F.D. Roosevelt, etc. are from Khazar Ashkenazi Jewish ancestry and all occultists. Wall Street funded the Nazis, including Prescott Bush (grandfather of George W.) and the Bolshevik revolution in which again we find many European Russian Jews in high places.

Wall Street funded the Nazis, including Prescott Bush (grandfather of George W.). Papal Christianity endured for so long because of violence and intolerance of other Worldviews. The mass media now performs the role that the papal church did in the medieval World. If you have media power you can make people believe anything and you can demonize anyone, remember Orson Well's war of the Worlds? In many cases I find when leafleting that the problem is that people don't want to realise that the World is so corrupt and that History can be fabricated, they would rather rationalise revisionism away. This is why ZOGs imprison revisionists to exploit this tendency. The Holocaust itself is so grossly exaggerated that the fact that people are out questioning it is enough to wake up many people. Just to ask someone sharply "Are you really so stupid that you believed the human soap lie?" is often enough to wake them up. The media has been used to create a mass psychosis. It is obvious to me that the holocaust satisfies some deep psychological needs in over-socialised people.

During his tumultuous rise to the pinnacles of power Adolf Hitler was often accused of being Jewish. Even the leaders of the National Party which he sought to lead, ridiculed Hitler as a 'Jew' and for 'behaving like a Jew' as did many of his enemies. In 1933, it was reported in a London newspaper that a gravestone was found in a Jewish cemetery in Bucharest, inscribed with Hebrew characters that spelled out: Adolf Hitler. Adolf Hitler was a Jewish name... but this 'Adolf Hitler' had been born in 1832, fifty years before the birth of the future dictator of Germany. Before coming to power, Adolf Hitler was also a target of widespread ridicule, and was mocked by enemies and the press who questioned his ancestry and who laughably referred to him as 'Adolf Schickelgruber.' 'Schickelgruber' had been the name of Adolf's maternal grandmother, and for 39 years, the name of his father, Alois. Although the 'Schickelgruber' moniker rankled the rising dictator, what concerned him and what he feared most was the history behind the name: the discovery that he was part 'Jew,' a fear he repeatedly voiced long after coming to power. 'People must not know who I am,' he ranted, and then ranted again when informed that his family history was being investigated. 'They must not know where I came from.' Long before and well after Hitler became Chancellor of Germany, considerable effort was expended to falsify, erase or destroy the records from his past. Repeated investigations were conducted by the Gestapo who repeatedly visited his ancestral village in Austria, questioning and threatening anyone that had been associated with the Hitler family.

Hitler was so concerned that when he annexed Austria, in 1938, he ordered that his family's ancestral village, Dollersheim, and all neighboring villages be destroyed. His armies marched in and then cleared out and forcibly evacuated the villagers who were dispersed far and wide. And then Hitler in fact, made it disappear, erased it from the face of the Earth. His armies bombed Dollersheim and all neighboring villages into oblivion as part of a training exercise. Even his father's and grandmother's graves were obliterated and no trace remains. Nevertheless, what has survived the ravages of time, purposeful destruction and clever forgery, is the fact that Adolf's father, Alois Schickelgruber was the illegitimate son of a female servant, Maria Anna Schickelgruber. Maria Anna became pregnant while living as a servant in a Jewish household --a common servant girl fate. It was assumed by family members and villagers alike that she'd been impregnated by the head of the house, Baron Rothschild (Langer, 1973; Payne, 1973); a rumor that the Austrian Secret police claimed to have confirmed when ordered by Austrian Chancellor Dollfuss to conduct a thorough investigation. Later, when Hitler orchestrated the anchluss of Austria and German troops marched in, he had Dollfuss murdered, and in addition to destroying Dollersheim, ordered that all documents related to that investigation be destroyed. Hitler's own nephew, William Patrick Hitler, and Adolf's personnel attorney, Hans Frank, claimed that his grandfather was a wealthy 'Granz Jew' by the name of Frankenberger who in turn 'paid a maintenance allowance [by Rothschild] from the time of the child's birth until his fourteenth year.' As Frank reported to Hitler, and as he recounted at his Nuremberg war crimes trial, based on what he learned 'the possibility cannot be dismissed that Hitler's father was half Jewish as a result of an extramarital relationship between the Schickelgruber woman and the Jew from Graz. This would mean that Hitler was one-quarter Jewish.'" —Rhawn Joseph, Ph.D., Hitler's Diaries, University Press, "The Mind & God of Adolf Hitler".

"While researching in Germany, I was surprised to find I was a Jew. Yes, Adolf Hitler was a Jew. So was Reinhard Heydrich, who was in charge of the Final Solution and the NAZI Death Camps." —Dr. Bryan Mark Rigg, PhD, winner of the Bill Colby Award, the CIA's top prize for journalism, author of Hitler's Jewish Soldiers: The Untold Story of Nazi Racial Laws and Men of Jewish Descent in the German Military (150,000 Jews served in the German military and Gestapo during World War 2, including admirals and generals), on Pentagon's C-SPAN TV in 2004, C-SPAN.ORG

"Adolf Hitler believed he was a Jew. That's why he ordered his home town in Austria bombed into oblivion, BEFORE World War 2 began, to destroy his birth records, and destroy all tombstones and cemeteries." —Ron Rosenbaum (a Jew), author of Explaining Hitler: The Search for the Origins of His Evil, on History Channel's History Undercover: Hitler and Stalin: Roots of Evil

"Alfred Rosenberg was half Jewish and joined with Hitler in 1919. He had immigrated from Russia and had brought with him to Germany, the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, which he translated and which purports to detail a Jewish plot to take over the World. Rosenberg became a leader of the Nazi party, he advocated the mass murder of Jews, and was condemned to death after his conviction at the Nuremberg trials at the end of the war. Hermann Goering, the number 2 man in the Nazi hierarchy, was also condemned to death, but cheated the Hangman's noose by taking poison. Like Rosenberg, Herman Goering was believed to be half Jewish. His mother, although married to a German, was also the mistress of a wealthy Jew [Rothschild, and also employed in the household of Baron Rothschild], and it was rumored that the Jew and not the German, was his true father. And then there is Reinhard Heydrich who was also believed to be half Jewish. Reinhard Heydrich organized the 'Office for Jewish Emigration' which later became the office of extermination. It has been said the Heydrich was so tormented by his Jewish ancestry and the 'Jew within' that he sought to cleanse himself by orchestrating the extermination of all European Jews." —Rhawn Joseph, Ph.D., Hitler's Diaries, University Press, "The Mind & God of Adolf Hitler", quoting Ron Rosenbaum (a Jew), author of Explaining Hitler: The Search for the Origins of His Evil

"They are responsible for some 60 million deaths. They ruled their countries with iron fists, squashing all dissent and directing government-sponsored programs of terror against their own citizens. Drawing on the latest findings and expert analysis from leading psychologists and historians, HITLER AND STALIN: ROOTS OF EVIL examines the 20th century's worst villains. The parallels are striking: both had abusive fathers and doting mothers, both were extremely insecure about their physical appearance and ashamed of their backgrounds, and both came to power at roughly the same time. From Hitler's 'Jewish nose' to Stalin's deformed foot, the Final Solution to the Gulags, this incisive special compares the backgrounds and policies of these two despots, interpreting the latest evidence and theories in the hopes of illuminating the personal, emotional and mental underpinnings of their actions." —HistoryChannel.com, History Undercover: Hitler and Stalin: Roots of Evil

"A new biography tells the bizarre tale of the Jewish psychic who met with the future Führer for private sessions and predicted his rise. In the weeks leading up to Adolf Hitler's appointment as Reichschancellor on Jan. 30, 1933, there was nothing inevitable about the Austrian corporal's ascension to power. Results of the 1932 November Reichstag elections were disappointing for his National Socialist Party, with the Nazis suffering losses in the German parliament while retaining about a third of the seats there. Nazi coffers had been drained dry by the campaign. Hitler had endured significant defections from his movement and threatened suicide. Some Nazis began to wonder if he had the right stuff to be their Führer. It was at this point that Hitler, falling back on his belief in the occult (which is the Babylonian cult of apostate Jews), called the most renowned clairvoyant in the land to his headquarters at the Hotel Kaiserhof in Berlin for a private session. The man Hitler met with that day is the subject of a recent biography, Erik Jan Hanussen: Hitler's Jewish Clairvoyant, by Mel Gordon. Hitler became a Hanussenite when in March of 1932 the psychic's own weekly newspaper, Erik Jan Hanussen's Berliner Wochenschau, printed the startling prophecy that within one year's time the future Führer would become Reichschancellor. By the end of the month, Hitler had cut a deal with his enemies and become titular head of a coalition government. One can only wonder the intensity of his rage, if the raving [Zionist] anti-Semite had known at the time that the man he had adopted as his personal soothsayer, the chap nicknamed 'the Prophet of the Third Reich,' the decadent mystic who had just run his hands through his Aryan locks, was in fact ... a Jew. Hanussen started life as Hermann Steinschneider, with a birth certificate that read 'Hebrew male.' 'It's like saying, "Hitler's favorite rabbi," people are waiting for the punch line,' confesses Gordon. 'But it's not a joke.'

The burning of the Reichstag on Feb. 27, 1933, [similar to 9-11 orchestrated by the Neocon Zionists Cabal] for which German communists took the fall, paved the way for the consolidation of power in Hitler's hands and the suspension of all civil liberties. Eerily, the day before, Hanussen had predicted the event through a medium during the opening soiree of his newly minted pagan temple, the Palace of the Occult, a marble and gold-decked Taj Mahal of the black arts in Berlin decorated with astrological signs and religious statues. There, in the presence of Nazi officials and assorted VIPs, the seer claimed to see a 'great house' in flames during a séance in his sanctum sanctorum, the Room of Glass. Hours later, the Reichstag was engulfed in a mysterious conflagration. Despite his Semitic origins, Hanussen had extremely close ties to the Nazi party. He had lent hundreds of thousands of marks to high-ranking leaders of the Nazis, like Hermann Goering, and held IOUs from them. He had befriended Count Wolf Heinrich von Helldorf, the sadistic, depraved commander of Berlin's SA, and referred to Hitler as 'my pal Adolf.' Certainly, Hanussen could have had inside information of a Reichstag plot. Or perhaps he was even more directly involved. Hanussen may have hypnotized the fall guy van der Lubbe to do his bidding, either with or without the help of Nazi conspirators. Gordon, who is himself Jewish, asserts his belief that Hanussen somehow participated in a plot to set fire to the Reichstag. 'The other story is why he was killed. That is, he had to be eliminated because he knew too much,' says Gordon. There were other reasons why the Nazis wanted Hanussen dead. Goebbels and Goering both saw him as an interloper and a potential rival for the Führer's attentions, and there was the little matter of all those IOUs Hanussen had collected. Hanussen also, supposedly, had film footage of SA members involved in homosexual orgies. The communist press had long published reports that Hanussen was Jewish, but it wasn't until the Reichstag fire bequeathed totalitarian powers to the Nazis and allowed them to eliminate the communists as a threat that they had the time to focus on Hanussen's bloodline. In a missive written in invisible ink, he informed a colleague, 'I always thought that business about the Jews was just an election trick of theirs. It wasn't.' On the morning of March 25, 1933, Hanussen was arrested by the SA and summarily executed. His lifeless body was left in a field on the outskirts of Berlin."—Stephen Lemons, Salon.com, "Hitler's clairvoyant", Feb. 27, 2002

In 1919, Hitler was an Intelligence Officer with the German Army assigned to spy on the tiny German Labor Party. He became its leader. Max Warburg, brother of Paul Warburg, founder of the US Federal Reserve, was the chief of German Intelligence. Both were executives of the I.G. Farben conglomerate. There is no record of when Hitler stopped working for these Illuminati figures. (See also Be Afraid: The New World Order's Fascist Pedigree) Hitler was sponsored by the banker oligarchy, and may have been their pawn. Certainly the Nazis received millions of dollars from New York and London. See "Hitler Didn't Want World War." Ernst ("Putzi") Hanfstaengl was close to both the bankers and Hitler and funneled money to the Nazis during their formative years. See also Antony Sutton "Wall Street and the Rise of Hitler" Chapter Eight. But when Hitler began to print his own money, he may have alienated these sponsors. See "Rothschild Conducts Red Symphony". The bottom line is that both Nazism and Zionism were sponsored by the same banking cartel and had complementary goals. The rise of anti-Semitism in Europe served to create the State of Israel, which President Assad of Syria described as a "dagger in the heart of the Arab nations." Think about it. Hitler could have just confiscated all the Jewish wealth. Instead he used the "Haavara Program" to help establish the State of Israel. According to Polkhehn, Hitler personally guaranteed this program in the face of opposition. It lasted until the beginning of the war. This cartel, which controls the World today, has no compunction about using Jews (or anyone) as a means to an end.

The Banksters' (BankLords) Agenda

All money is created in the form of debt to the privately owned banking cartel. Imagine if you could create money out of thin air. Imagine you have the credit cards of all the nations in your pocket. Your first impulse is to lend money to your nominees so they can buy most of the World's real wealth for you. Your second impulse is to establish a totalitarian system ("World government" "globalization") to prevent any nation from challenging this system or defaulting on their "debt" to you. To make nations accept "World government," you need to weaken them by having them fight among themselves, run up huge debts for armaments (which you will sell them), kill off the cream of their manhood, and become demoralized and decadent. You accomplish this through your ownership of politicians and the press and your control of MI-6, CIA, Mossad who carry out terror and assassinations for you. This is the real history of the last 300 years.

"World government" is really about using debt to enslave us; it is an international loan collection agency. Naturally they shroud this with talk about tolerance, human rights, fighting poverty and preventing war. A quote from a 1924 edition of the American Banker's Association Digest sums up what is currently happening. Keep this in mind when you vote: When, through the process of law, the common people lose their homes, they will become more docile and more easily governed through the strong arm of government applied by a central power of wealth under leading financiers. These truths are well known among our principal men who are now engaged in forming imperialism to govern the World. By dividing the voter through the political party system, we can get them to expend their energies in fighting for questions of no importance."

Now consider the words of an Illuminati defector, Svali: "The conflict in the Middle East is only to the advantage of the Illuminists. They HATE Israel, and hope one day to see it destroyed, and are biding their time. One of the olive branches offered by the UN when it takes over is that they will prevent war in the Middle East, and this will be greeted with joy by many. At the same time, the Illuminati covertly supply guns and funds to BOTH sides to keep the conflict fuelled. They are very duplicitous people...These people love the game of chess, and see warfare between nations as creating an order out of chaos." In a personal email, she added: "I have always wondered this, though, why some of the highest ranking financial families in the group (Baron Rothschild of France is one of the 13 European lords, or "kings" that run the group in Europe, and sits on the World Council) are Jewish, yet the group espouses hatred of their own race." Ben Hecht said that reading the daily news to understand current events is like telling the time by looking at the second hand. You have to look at the decade and century hands to see what is really going on in the World.

The Rothschild-Rockefeller banking cartel is behind most political (and cultural) trends and its goal is to destroy the nation state, true democracy, religion, culture, marriage and family, in order to degrade humanity to animal status in advance of totalitarianism. In the "war on terror," they have created a boogeyman to justify a system of repression to be used when they call in their "loans." I was once a Zionist who believed Jews needed a homeland because of anti-Semitism. I realize now that, like most of history, this view was mostly contrived. Anti-Semitism is caused because many Jews serve (consciously or unconsciously) the bankers' harmful agenda. Zionism, Communism and Feminism are a few examples. Most Jews are now totally identified with Israel, which is a tool of the Rothschild's demented megalomania. If past is preface, this cannot end well for Jews or anyone else except the Rothschild dynasty.

Below is the Red Cross report on the ordinary Jews who were killed due to the joint Zionist-Nazi cooperation and plan (report courtesy of THE SMALL FORTRESS ASSOCIATION, Alexander C. McClelland, Secretary, PO Box 887 Toronto NSW Australia 2283). This is extracted from Alexander C. McClelland, <http://www.aijf.org/index.html>. Please remember that not all Jews are Zionists and the ones that are Zionist pretend to be Israelites Judeans (see <http://www.jewsagainstzionism.com>). Zionists do not represent Jews but use Jews as an umbrella to promote the Illuminati plan of World control.

Zionism And Illuminism and the Black Nobility

Who are these people who continually accuse anyone who doesn't agree with their rigid ideas of Zionism as being anti-Semitic? Benjamin Freedman, a Khazar Jew who knew the top Zionists, states in his book, "Facts Are Facts", "Anti-Semitism serves only one purpose ... as a smear word ... when so-called Jews feel that anyone opposes their real objectives ...". Some writers refer to themselves as being "New Jews", or Ashkenazi (title taken from the biblical tribe of Ashkenaz). Well, they really are of more recent origin than the older Sephardic Jews ('Sepher' in Hebrew means 'book'), whose ancestors were dispersed from ancient Palestine by the Romans in about 70 AD, and moved to Spain via North Africa. These "New Jews" comprise about 85% of people who claim to be Jewish Worldwide, however their ancestors did not come from Palestine as had the southern European Jews ("The Thirteenth Stone", p.504).

"The Jewish Encyclopedia" 1925, Vol.5, p.41 says "they are actually Edomites" and "Edom means Red." (Emphasis added) These Edomites lived in ancient Byzantium near the Khazar Kingdom, which lay in the region between the Black Sea and the Caspian (Khazarian) Sea. "This Khazar empire was infiltrated by large numbers of Byzantine Jews", who then began a "...process of inter-marriage..." with the locals. ("Behind Marxism" by Frank L. Britton, page 14). As outlined in "The Thirteenth Tribe", by a Jewish scholar and former Communist, Arthur Koestler, the Khazars were "...people of Turkish stock..." (p.13) a fierce tribe of wily traders, whose "... main source of income was foreign trade ...slaves from the north" (p.47). They also relied on military power, tax collection (a 10% GST!), customs tariffs, arts and crafts, and skilled goldsmiths. In about 740 AD the King of Khazaria "...embraced the Jewish faith, and Judaism became the state religion" (p.15). His subjects quickly saw the benefit of this new religion. Around 965 AD, Khazaria was taken over by the Russians and then finally destroyed by Genghis Khan in the 1200s, with the remaining Khazar-Jews dispersing into Eastern Europe. Having been settling in Europe over the early part of the second millennium, the Khazar-Jews quickly set themselves up into "...Jew's streets or Jewries... (autonomous ghettos) (Valentine's Jewish Encyclopedia, 1938, p.589). The natural Khazar ability in trade (both legal and illegal) gave them easy entry into every country's commerce until "... every European country's economy was ... in their hands" ("Pawns In The Game" by William Guy Carr, 1958, p15). This point in time (the Middle Ages) ushered in the birth of modern banking. ("God - the Ultimate Paradox" Dec. 1997), by Jewish author David Ash, describes the two basic competing banking systems (p.III): "The first system involved the bank investing money ... as a joint, profit-sharing enterprise or on the basis of charging fees for services rendered For example,.. Bank of Amsterdam ..."The second banking system involved the bank lending money at interest and holding the property of the borrower as collateral This system is called usury. "The first system brought prosperity...The second... ruin."

Aufschlußreicher Bescheid von 1984.

Promissory notes (receipts), a feature of early banking, were issued by a banker (moneylender) to his depositors for the safekeeping of the silver or gold lodged with him. Over time these became banknotes promising to pay the bearer a certain amount in a precious metal. However, not all depositors will withdraw all their holdings at once, so the bankers only kept a fraction of their receipts [promissory notes] as deposits. Modern banking uses nothing to back the banknotes issued. This deposit system, when combined with usury, allowed the bankers to create loans "out of thin air", enabling them to "...strip real wealth from the people, through interest paid on 'phantom money'. This has been an effective way for the bankers to rob nations and centralize their wealth." ("God - The Ultimate Paradox", p. 113) It was this second system which gave birth to the modern banking system - adopted by the "Jews" - which eliminated the first system described above. Jewish bankers began to loan large sums to royalty for wars - which became difficult to repay - with the victor usually being the king to whom they loaned the most and the vanquished saddled with huge debts of reparation. As bankers and tax collectors, these Ashkenazi "Jews" became despised by the citizenry of various countries because of the debt which burdened them with taxes; so much so that even the placid Sephards were persecuted, especially by the harsh Spanish Inquisition. England was the last country to come under Khazar-Jewish influence and first to expel all Jews in 1290. "The Great Eviction", as it became known, occurred thus: France 1306, Saxony 1349, Hungary 1360, Belgium 1370, Slovakia 1380, Austria 1420, Netherlands 1444, Spain 1492, Lithuania 1495, Portugal 1498, Prussia 1510, Italy 1540, Bavaria 1551, Hungary 1582 ("Behind Marxism" pages 4-7). This period also marked the transition of Europe into the Renaissance - a rebirth of culture and learning which coincided with the wresting of commercial control from the money-lending Khazar descendants.

These Jews had since retreated to a "Pale" area stretching from Poland to Turkey, regrouping into Kahats (or ghettos) in which they even had their own government and infrastructure. Such conditions put these mostly-Khazar Jewish people under the control of their wealthy money barons via the Rabbinic Elders (hence the phrase, "beyond the pale"). Looking at "God - The Ultimate Paradox", David Ash tells us (p.69:) that in ancient times, Jews "had a governing body ... known as the 'Council of Elders'". The Hebrew word for 'Elder' means "... 'in touch with God'. In the 19th century this council "described itself as the learned Elders of Zion". We learn that there is a group within the Elders which infiltrates and creates secret societies - such as the Masons - known as 'The Brotherhood of the Snake ... In modern times this brotherhood has adopted the title of Illuminati" (p.74). Over the decades, the agents of the Illuminati had used the "Zionist" elements of Jewry by inspiring "... a spirit of hatred and revenge in the hearts of the Jewish people ..." against their earlier evictors. They organised the angry populace into "... the World Revolutionary Movement, based on terrorism." ("Pawns In The Game", p18). To get incited Jews back into countries in Europe, the Illuminati formed underground networks - which they financed - "... to develop the Black Market system ... every kind of illegal traffic and trade." (p.18) Amschel Moses Bauer, a Jewish goldsmith, settled in the Judenstrasse district of Frankfurt in Germany and opened a Counting House, hanging a red shield (with witchcraft's hexagram on it, the same one shown on the Israeli flag) up as his shop sign. Twenty-two years after his death in 1754, his son Mayer Amschel (at the age of 33) took control of the business and then changed his name to reflect the red shield, which is "in German ... roth schild and thus The House of Rothschild" was born in 1776• "... Jews in Eastern Europe... also adopted The Red Flag as their emblem because it represented Blood." ("Pawns In The Game", page 25,26)

Bavaria (in Germany) spawned the main branch of modern Illuminism, which was begun May 1st 1776 (May Day) by "Adam Weishaupt, a student of the Jewish philosopher Mendelssohn, and funded by the Jewish banking family of Rothschild" ("God - the Ultimate Paradox", p.75). Members included Emmanuel Kant, Voltaire, Moses Mendelssohn and the bankers Iitzig, Freilander and Rothschild. Weishaupt, an ex-Jesuit who embraced Satanism pre-1770, helped to formulate the plans that would allow the Illuminati to have eventual World control. The basic principles involved "...dividing the masses into opposing camps..." on various issues, arming both sides and contriving to have an "...'incident' provided which would cause them to fight and weaken themselves..." ("Pawns In The Game" pX). To achieve this Weishaupt needed influential people in all countries and devised the following selection process for his Illuminati to use:

- Bribe those already in key positions
- Award special scholarships to selected tertiary students with which they could be brainwashed for the coming One World Government
- Those bribed and the indoctrinated students are moved into place as government and business advisors
- News agencies are controlled to limit flow of information and brainwash the public.

Mayer's marriage to Gutele Schnaper produced ten children who, once they had matured, were married by arrangement to noble families. He then moved his entire family (1785) to a larger house, known as the Green Shield house, a five storey dwelling he shared with the Schiff family. Schiff's grandson, Jacob, later moved to New York to act as a Rothschild banking agent and provided John D. Rockefeller the money with which to monopolise the oil refinery business via Standard Oil. In 1804, Napoleon declared himself Emperor and appointed his three brothers as Kings of Naples, Holland, and Westphalia. Mayer Amschel's five sons were simultaneously sent to various European capitals: Amschel (first-born), at home - in Frankfurt; Salomon, to Vienna; Nathan (smartest) to London; Karl, to Naples; James (last-born), to Paris. The Rothschilds became linchpins in a giant financial octopus, naming Switzerland to be kept neutral and Geneva to be the capital of their empire" of industrial cartels including "munition plants, mining industry, chemical plants, etc. (Pawns In The Game" p.42). More importantly, the Rothschild family manipulated the stock market and thus gained control over the main Central Banks of Europe, the prime example being that of the Bank of England. By means of cutting Napoleon's supplies (but increasing his opponent Wellington's funding) and triggering an English stock market crash, Nathan got rid of the problematic Napoleon and made a financial "killing"! And thus, "Through their dealings, by 1820 the Rothschilds had amassed a fortune exceeding 5 billion pounds" ("God - the Ultimate Paradox", page 115; Sir W. Scott's "Life of Napoleon", in State Library, on microfiche) The Rothschild family even had an intelligence network (later becoming the Israeli Mossad) which used Hebrew letters as a code and was fast!

In 1829, a New York Illuminati meeting was addressed by a British Illuminist named Wright. He informed those present that Atheist groups were to be united with Russian Nihilist and other subversive groups into an international movement called "Communism" which would be used to foment wars. "Clinton Roosevelt (a direct ancestor of FDR),..." and others were appointed to raise funds which "... financed Karl Marx and Engels when they wrote 'Das Capital, and the 'Communist Manifesto, in Soho, England.' ("Pawns In The Game", page XIV). Karl Marx was a German of Jewish descent, being the nephew of a Rabbi, and a student of the Satanist Bruno Bauer (Rothschild). Due to his revolutionary activities, Karl was expelled from Germany and "... given asylum in England!" ("Pawns In The Game", p.4). Whilst writing "The Communist Manifesto" in 1848, Marx had included ideas of an English socialist, Prof. John Ruskin, of Oxford University. Ruskin was mentor to Cecil Rhodes (a land monopolizing enslaver) who, with the Rothschilds (a counterfeit money monopolizing enslaver) backing, "... was able to monopolize the diamond mines of South Africa" and put his fortune to work in the plan for World empire. ("Tragedy and Hope", Prof. Quigley) Focusing in on the situation in Russia (from 1772), various Tsars had initially made restrictive laws strict for Jews, but they were later progressively liberalized until Alexander II "... devoted his life to improving the conditions of the poorer classes and the Jews But the Jewish revolutionary leaders were determined to continue their movement for Popular World Revolution". ("Pawns In The Game", p.64). Because of the domination of Russian society by Jews, the remaining restrictions were held in place. The Jews began to be increasingly rebellious and this peaked with the assassination of Alexander II. With Alexander III came the introduction of the extremely restrictive May Laws in 1882. Jews made up 4.2% of the Russian population and the new laws enforced a limit on Jewish economic and cultural activity. "The International Bankers imposed economic sanctions against the Russian Empire. .. In 1904, after they involved the Russian Empire in a disastrous war with Japan, ... Rothschild ... tried to render the Russian Empire bankrupt..." ("Pawns In The Game", page 64). This was the preliminary requirement for a successful revolution and takeover. Financed by Jacob Schiff since 1897, the Mensheviks (minority group), were a terrorist cell led by "Lev Davidovitch Bronstein, alias Lvov, alias Yanovsky, alias Nicolai Trotsky (real name Bronstein), the son of a rich Jewish landowner ..." ("World Revolution" by Nesta Webster, 1921, page 277). They successfully assassinated six ministers of government (between 1901 and 1906) and had attempted the failed Revolution of 1905.

In the meantime, Vladimir Ulyanov - whose great-grandfather was a Jewish merchant named Srul - assumed the name Lenin and then became the head of the Bolsheviks (or majority group) in 1903. Lenin was an extremely ruthless leader and when compared with Stalin, "Of the two dictators Lenin was more cruel". (Molotov, quoted in Quadrant, July 1999, p.41) The First World War was started by members of the Serbian secret society, the Order of the Black Hand, when they assassinated the Archduke Ferdinand in 1914. Unfortunately for him, the Archduke's death had been planned two years earlier at an Illuminati meeting in Switzerland, "...the neutral Ground upon which all international plots are hatched". The people who fought this war were literally pawns in a game of death. Russian soldiers were fighting well-armed Germans with sticks as they had only "...ONE rifle available for every six men." Russia had assurances from England that it would receive arms, but Rothschild-affiliated Vickers-Maxim held supplies back in preparation for revolution. ("Pawns In The Game", pp 77,78,89) After Lenin's successful Bolshevik revolution of 1917, the USSR came into being - the Illuminati's experiment, used to fine-tune their ideas of a totalitarian World government. Apart from the massive cost in human lives the Rothschilds had made another "killing", with their initial investment in Lenin of $70 million reaping them hundreds of millions in return. "Pre-Bolshevik Russia was able for many years to feed half of Europe ..." but Lenin ruthlessly stole ("nationalised") the farmers' land and murdered millions of Russians, crippling the economy and causing widespread famine. (Quadrant, July 1999, p.42). Perhaps the best reference to the Illuminati's role for the "Jews" in Communism comes from an article by Winston Churchill where he stated in the newspaper, Illustrated Sunday Herald, February 8, 1920, p.5: "...this movement among Jews is not new. From the days of Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, and down to Trotsky,... this Worldwide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilisation... has been steadily growing. It played ... a definitely recognisable part in the ... French Revolution [1789]. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the Nineteenth Century;..." Churchill once told reporters that if English spies had infiltrated to the degree the Illuminati had infiltrated the British parliament, the war would have been over in one month.

There are two sides to every story, and in this scenario the Zionists (the main protagonists) are opposed by a group which author W.G. Carr calls the "Aryan War Lords". Using this divide and conquer principle allows the Illuminati to split the bulk of humanity. These Zionists and Aryans are really to blame for allowing themselves to be so easily manipulated, but we are also to blame for allowing the whole situation to continue without so much as a word of protest, let alone action. We must each become personally responsible for our own destiny, while at the same time leading others out of this mess by example. With "Communism" (Bolshevism in place, the Illuminati had to create its opposite so that their plan for World takeover could advance. World War I had served two purposes: (1) it had completely depleted Russian resources, making revolution easy; (2) it had created huge debts in Germany, which was forced to make reparations for losing. To start a Second World War, in which Britain and Germany could be exhausted for takeover, propaganda was used to denounce the Jews and "... strengthened the trend towards National Socialism in Germany ..." ("Pawns In The Game", page 99). This would allow the Illuminati the opportunity to pit the Aryan War Lords against the Zionists, who now pushed forward with their plans for a permanent homeland - "Israel". It was done via the Zionist interests in England where many Rothschild associates, such as Arthur Balfour, had worked their way into the parliament. The Balfour Declaration was simply a letter from Lord Arthur Balfour to Lord Lionel Walter Rothschild stating that Britain "... agreed to the terms dictated by Lord Rothschild and his Zionist confreres." With the Allies committed to a Jewish homeland, Lord Allenby and T.E.Lawrence were both dispatched to occupy the Holy Land in 1917. "Lawrence of Arabia" used the Arabs, who helped to drive out the Turks under the illusion "... that Palestine would be a British Protectorate. ("Pawns In The Game", p 87). The Zionist Commission, set up in 1918, consisted of the following:

- Major Ormsby-Gore - director of the Midland Bank (in England).
- Major James de Rothschild - owner of the Rothschild Colonies in Palestine, which had introduced early Jewish settlers.
- Lieut. Edwin Samuel - later Chief Censor to the British in WWII.
- Mr Israel Sieff - director of Marks & Spencers stores (England).
- Leon Simon - later knighted, head of British General Post Office.
- Dr Elder, Mr Joseph Cohen, and Dr Chaim Weizmann.

The Commission went to Palestine to prepare the way for Versailles. The end of World War I came in that following year, followed by the Treaty of Versailles in 1919. The Rothschild-dominated conference "confirmed" their support for the "Israel" plan and set up the League of Nations, the birth of the Illuminati's global "Trojan Horse". The German Weimar Republic following WWI, had no chance of economic survival and Germans needed a strong leader - in came Adolf Hitler! Hitler initially embraced the fascist ideology and desired to see the end of Communism in an alliance with Britain; he desired to break the international bankers hold on Germany, as did Spain, Italy and Japan. However, his Aryan Nazi masters wanted no less than total war with their Communist enemies, basing their ideas "... on the theories and plans advocated by Karl Ritter in 1849 ... in his anti-thesis to Karl Marx's Communist Manifesto ..." ("Pawns In The Game", pp.5,147). The Aryan War Lords put in place their own agents in Hitler's regime to make sure their plan (and hence the Illuminati's) came to fruition. Then the USSR began secretly supplying arms to Hitler's war machine, financed by Wall Street, while the Illuminati agents in Britain were calling for appeasement "... to weaken the British war potential ..." ("Pawns In The Game", pp.153,154). Once the German forces had been built up enough, the same Illuminati agents called for an all out war. Hitler's finance from Wall Street came from the Rockefeller/Rothschild axis, through the Young Plan and the Dawes Plan loans of the 1920's. Companies involved included: Standard Oil-I.G. Farben (Exxon now), without which Germany's war effort was impossible; du Pont, for arms; General Motors; Ford Motor Company; General Electric; I.T.T.; and the Union Banking Corp., with George Bush's father, Prescott, a director. Originally, Winston Churchill was pro-Zionist, but anti-Bolshevist, however he went on to accumulate massive debts via his extravagant lifestyle. With bankruptcy looming in 1938, Churchill (then a member of UK parliament) knew he would be forced to vacate his seat there and he would also lose his beloved home, "Chartwell". Fortunately for him, Jewish millionaire Helry Strakosch advanced the ageing politician a 150,000 pound loan and became his "advisor", reviving his political career. ("For Those Who Cannot Speak", by Michael McLaughlin, 1979). Despite Churchill's numerous political failures "... his friends, 'the international Money Barons' used their controlled press ... forced Chamberlain to resign ..." ("Pawns In The Game", page 167). Through a series of false reports the Illuminati agents had manoeuvred Germany and Poland to the verge of conflict. Germany sent Poland a note outlining a peaceful solution, but due to Illuminati influence in the Polish government the note was ignored. "When Hitler tired of waiting for Poland's reply, and of being insulted by the Allied Press, he moved his armies into Poland." ("Pawns In The Game", page 165). But Britain had guaranteed Poland protection from a German attack.

Mr. J.M. Spaight, a secretary to the British Air Ministry, reveals in his book - "Bombing Vindicated" (1944) - that the "...ruthless bombing of German cities started on May 11th, 1940, "... the day Winston Churchill became Prime Minister ...". (page 167) The most prominent of the bombings was that of Dresden, a completely civilian target, which became Winston Churchill's spectacular parting shot, on the day he departed from Yalta (14 February 1945) - a REAL HOLOCAUST ! The second "Great War" went from 1939 and lasted about six long years. As Jim Keith, in his book "Casebook on Alternative 3", summarizes it: "World War II is the story of the death of thirty-five million patriotic, slogan-shouting serfs, while billions of dollars lined the pockets of the international bankers and their cohorts, the politicians and the weapons manufacturers." (page 27). But that was nothing compared to the unimaginable wealth that was made on the reconstruction loans doled out to the war-ravaged countries. With the defeat of Germany came more negotiations at Tehran, Yalta, and Potsdam, between Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin; they carved up Europe (giving Stalin half of it, with half of Asia) and Roosevelt had reportedly "... advocated shooting 50,000 German officers without trial." Stalin began to make wild demands and so "... atomic bombs were dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki ..." to put him back in line with the agenda. ("Pawns In The Game", page 173-4). Japan was on the verge of surrender anyway, but the secret weapons were unleashed to set the stage for the Cold War: a public fear-instilling exercise. And so was born the United Nations - in blood - on June 26 1945, soon followed by Israel in May 1948 (some call it Roth-rael), which brought the Illuminati just one step away from their ultimate goal As I have documented in this essay, these "New Jews" are the No. 1 anti-Semitism promoters in the World. The same people "rubbish" the Germans, the Palestinians, and now Australians! Why is there little mention of Soviet atrocities throughout many decades? The Russian professor, Igor Bestuzhev-Lada, stated in a 1988 issue of Nedelya that about 50 million Soviet citizens were murdered by Stalin's regime, in the hundreds of concentration camps in Siberia - what of these people? Furthermore, how can people of non-Semitic origin claim rights to the lands belonging to the Semite Arabs in the Middle East ? Perhaps it's because the region holds a somewhat strategic advantage for the Zionists and their "fellow travelers". "Pawns In The Game" states on (p.48) that a British Government geologist, a Mr Cunningham- Craig, discovered "... five trillion dollars worth of minerals and oil ... in Palestine... prior to 1918. In 1939... He died under mysterious circumstances ..." following his final report's completion. I think this goes some way to explain the constant turmoil that is experienced in this area even today. It's a fight for power, wealth and territory. In truth, the World's people (including the Jews) have been sacrificed on the Rothschild (or false-Jewish) altar of greed and lust for power. As William Cart writes: "I arrived at the conclusion that it was a fatal mistake to be anti-anything but anti-evil ... the only way to defeat the diabolical international conspiracy is to educate as many people as possible in regard to the truth and convince them that they have been used as 'Pawns in the Game' ..." ("Pawns In The Game" p162)

"The Bolshevik revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to, create a new order in the World. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, ... shall also through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the World." The American Hebrew, 10 September 1920. "The Jewish people as a whole will be its own Messiah. It will attain World dominion by the dissolution of other races, by the abolition of frontiers, the annihilation of monarchy, and by the establishment of a World republic in which the Jews will everywhere exercise the privilege of citizenship. In this new World order the Children of Israel will furnish all the leaders without encountering opposition it will then be possible for the Jewish rulers to abolish private property and..." "Thus will the promise of the Babylonian Talmud be fulfilled, in which it is said that when the Messianic time is come, the Jews will have all the property of the whole World in their hands." Baruch Levy, Letter to Karl Marx, La Revue de Paris, p..574 1 June 1928. "Some call it Marxism, I call it Judaism." Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, The American Bulletin, 15 May 1935. "It is not by accident that Judaism gave birth to Marxism, and it is not an accident that the Jews readily took up Marxism. All that is in perfect accord with the progress of Judaism and the Jews." A Program for the Jews and an Answer to All Anti-Semites Harry Waton, 1939, page 148: "The Jews might have had Uganda, Madagascar, and other places for the establishment of a Jewish Fatherland, but they wanted nothing except Palestine: not because the Dead Sea water by evaporation can produce five trillion dollars of metaloids and powdered metals; not because the sub-soil of Palestine contains twenty times more petroleum than all the combined reserves of the two Americas; but because Palestine constitutes the veritable center of World political power, the strategic center for World control."

Nahum Goldman, President, World Jewish Congress, 1960's: "The image of the World in 1987 as traced in my imagination: The Cold War will be a thing of the past On the other hand, the increasing influence of the workers and farmers, add the rising political importance of men of science, may transform the United States into a welfare state with a planned economy Europe will become a federation of autonomous states having a Socialist and democratic regime. With the exception of the USSR as a federated Eurasian state, all other continents will become united in a World alliance at whose disposal will be an international police force. All armies will be abolished, and there will be no more wars. In Jerusalem, the United Nations (a truly United Nations) will build a Shrine of the Prophets to serve the federated union of all continents; this will be the seat of the Supreme Court of Mankind, to settle all controversies among the federated continents as prophesied by Isaiah." David Be-Gurion, Prime Minister of Israel. Look Magazine, 16 January 1962. "The World Zionist movement is big business. In the first two decades after Israel's precarious birth in 1948 it channeled an estimated four billion dollars in donations into the country. Following the 1967 Arab-Israeli war, the Zionists raised another $730 million in just two years. This year, 1970, the movement is seeking five hundred million dollars. Gottlieb Hammar, chief Zionist money raiser, said, 'When the blood flows, the money flows.'" Lawrence Mosher National Observer, 18 May. 1970. "With regard to Israel, the Holocaust may be used to forestall political criticism and suppress debate; it reinforces the sense of Jews as an eternally beleaguered people who can rely for their defense only upon themselves ... and is expected to convince doubters of the legitimacy of current Israeli government policy". Paula Hyman Jewish history teacher, Columbia University, New York Times Magazine September 1980 p.79

It's reported that many Israelis, using the word Shoah, which is Hebrew for Holocaust: "There's no business like Shoah-business." Noted Jewish author/publisher Jacobo Timmerman "The Longest War" Vintage NY, 1982. "The relentless media campaign could be called: Holaustmania" Jewish historian, Alfred Liliental. The Holocaust is: "... an entire industry, with handsome profits for writers, researchers, film-makers, monument builders, museum planners and even politicians." Some rabbis and theologians are: "partners in this big business." British Chief Rabbi, Immanuel Jakobovits in: "Jakobovits" by H. Shapiro, Jerusalem Post, Israel, 26 November 1987, p.1. For a REAL SHOCK, try "The Thirteenth Stone" p.505, or even more so, "God - The Ultimate Paradox" pages 80-84. (It is worth noting that Reverend I.B.Pranaitis met his death at the hands of the Bolsheviks from the booklet entitled, "Why Don't You Believe What We Tell You?" by Noontide Press, 1992, 40 pages. The last four quotes are from a pamphlet titled, "THE HOLOCAUST: Let's Hear Both Sides" by Mark Weber. (Institute for Historical Review, 6/98, website: <http://www-ihrc.org>). The "Roman Catholic" Church controls the last World power. Her allies are the European (now trans-Atlantic) Black Nobility. Rome will accomplish her one World government New World Order (NWO) through a religious union with the Protestant Evangelical denominations backed by US military force. The self-styled Jewish international bankers will be a party to the deal. These people earned the title of "Black" nobility from their ruthless lack of scruple. They employed murder, rape, kidnapping, assassination, robbery, and all manner of deceit on a grand scale, brooking no opposition to attaining their objectives. These all have immense wealth. And money is power. The most powerful of the Black Nobility families are located in Italy, Germany, Switzerland, Britain, Holland and Greece in that order. Their roots may be traced back to the Venetian oligarchs, who are of Khazar extraction, and married into these royal houses in the early part of the twelfth century. Following a great Khazar victory over the Arabs, the future Emperor, Constantine V, married a Khazar princess and their son became Emperor Leo IV, also known as "Leo the Khazar". The Medecci popes, and Pius XII (Eugenio Pacelli) were Khazars, as is the recently deceased Pope, John Paul II. Not all Black Nobility are royal houses, and many of the royal families no longer have kingdoms. According to researcher and author Dr. John Coleman, a "Committee of 300" was established early in the eighteenth century, "although it did not take on its present form until around 1897", when the China opium trade was legalised. Theodore Herzl organized this Jewish super-organization at the First Zionist Congress in Basel, Switzerland, headquarters of the BIS Bank of International Settlements, the mother of all banks. Its purpose was to manage the political power of Rothschild's huge kingdom which was rapidly absorbing the wealth of the Gentiles and to realize the Babylonian Talmudic perversion that the "Jews" were the "chosen people" and that God had promised them that they should rule the World (Rothschild Money Trust, George Armstrong, pp.24-25). It includes the Queen of Holland, the Queen of Denmark and all the royal families of Europe, or Black Nobility. It's head today is Queen Elizabeth II. Documentary proof as to the existence of the "Committee of 300" is not forthcoming, and it may be no more than a convenient phrase to describe certain key players. Socialist politician and financial adviser to the Rothschilds, Walter Rathenau, writing in the Wiener Press (24 December, 1921) said, "Only 300 men, each of whom knows all others govern the fate of Europe. They select their successors from their own entourage. These men have the means in their hands of putting an end to the form of State which they find unreasonable." Exactly six months after publication, Rathenau was assassinated.

The NWO system will control the whole wealth of the World system and force the whole Earth into its trap, or will kill them, by refusing the privilege of buying and selling whereby they would make a living. In the meantime, Rome has acquired nearly all the supplies of gold. The Jews Banking Dynasties have the bonds and all the paper. At the right time, they will destroy the present day money system by calling in all the paper, and demanding gold. With no gold, the system falls. All will be obedient to Rome because Rome CONTROLS the gold of the World. Thus all the people will be at the mercy of the NOW for they cannot buy or sell without the "Mark of the Beast" (Anti-Christ, Dajjal). Rome will "control the gold of the World" through her alliance with the Black Nobility and the fealty of the Rothschilds. It is important to note that the Rothschilds do not loan-out gold or silver. They deal only in "paper credit" but often require that interest payments to them be made in gold and/or silver as they have done with the Australian Treasury for decades. And Australia's Treasury is staffed by agents of the City of London, and Australia is the World's third largest gold miner. But Rome will CONTROL the gold. Let's reconsider some aspects of this coming World takeover. Recently we found that Mr. Norman Dodd, Director of Research for Congressman Reece's Senate Select Committee investigation into subversive activities of the tax-exempt foundations was asked to orient his investigation toward uncovering a conspiracy AGAINST the United States (Bill McLihany, The Tax-exempt Foundations). Yes, the United States has been invaded from within at taxpayer expense. In an interview Dodd said, "Investigations lead to the reasonable suspicion that behind the events of history is an entity that is dynastic and perpetuates itself. That entity is what is meant when you hear people talk about "they this" and "they that" which leads one to confront them with a natural question, "Well who is they?" And there's really no answer but it does support the fact that the question, who are "they?" confines this knowledge to a very, very few. Now from the base of that very few, "they," as it were, issue franchises to groups who are capable and willing, in slang terms, to keep their mouth shut, number one, and number two, to perform whatever this central agency feels is a necessity."

"Now, we hear of the Rothschilds in the World of finance. They are not the originators of the control over finance and the practices therein. But they have been given a franchise to control the money aspect of the people of the World. In return for their exercising this control and keeping their mouth shut, they are given handsome privileges of money manipulation and of course increase their money wealth by leaps and bounds." "Now the Rockefellers are another example and they are given a franchise that directs that they in turn are very active in the control of the content of education (propaganda). In return for that they are given vast privileges of one kind or another. And so it goes, if we were to diagram it out we could take almost any function." "They" is the Vatican in UN"Holy Alliance" with the Black Nobility or Venetian Oligarchy. And as stated, it seems that the authority for the franchise to Rothschild and others stems from the secret Articles in the Treaty of Verona (1822) Holy Alliance, signed by Austria, France, Prussia and Russia. This Treaty binds members of the Holy Alliance to co-operate to preserve monarchical rule and to put down popular government. As it is in force today it is a conspiracy to restore the monarchical rule of Portugal and Spain in South America and the (open) rule of (once) Great Britain in the United States of America. This Treaty was the basis of the Monroe Doctrine which declared that the US would regard any attempt by the powers of Europe to reassert hegemony over any of the South American countries to be an act of hostility against the United States. This Treaty would seem to be the historic and legal basis whereby the Kings of Earth or Black Nobility give their power to the Beast because their Divine right to rule is by virtue of and subject to Rome's Pope who wears the Triple crown of dominion over Heaven, Earth and Purgatory.

Illuminati Fooling The Masses (alliance between Rothschild Zionism and Rome Jesuits)

Now, let's read the words of another Illuminist about how they keep fooling the masses while the serfdom and slavery of the New World Order progresses into our lives. The Illuminists and their key-positioned enforcers or stooges are working to financially enslave the masses with their monopoly on the creation of bank via the privately owned central banks, to destroy all nation states & religions and replace them with a one World totalitarian tyrannical government and an enforced Illuminati Luciferian Pharisac Satanic worship. For this plan or conspiracy to continue, they have to trigger successions of wars after which people will become submissive to the idea of a one-World totalitarian government. Where there's war, there's also mega-money for the Illuminati Bankers.

Brock Chisolm, former Director of the World Health Organization - "To achieve World government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men, their individualism, loyalty to family traditions, national patriotism and religious dogmas" (sounds very much like Rothschild's Protocols of the Elders of Zion, see the appendix in this book).

Richard Salant, Former President of CBS news said: "Our job is to give people not what they want, but what we decide they ought to have."

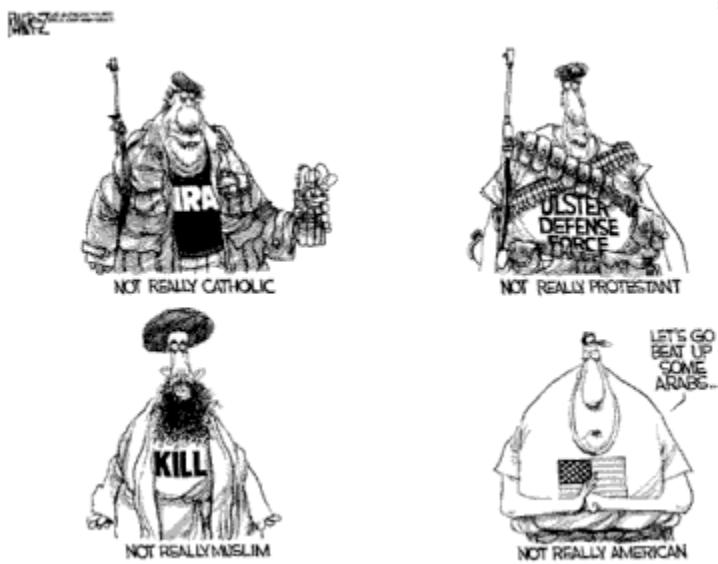

In the 400 page book "Blood Lines of the Illuminati by Fritz Springmeier" (Paperback - November 1998 available from Amazon.com; some extracts in this book) Fritz summarizes the main activities of the 13 major houses of World control, i.e. in English versions of the names: The Rothschilds, The Rockefellers, The DuPonts, The Bundys, The Astors, The Russells, The Kennedys, The Freemans, The Li's, The Onassis', The Van Duyns, The Merovingians (bloodline from 5th century French nobility) and The Collins'. They are the real World mafia, like the ancient feudal lords who ruled the peasant masses with their enforcers and priests.

On page 161 of the Conspirators Hierarchy, Dr Coleman accurately summarizes the intent and purpose of the Illuminati Committee of 300 as follows: "A One World Government and one-unit monetary system, under permanent non-elected [self-appointed nobles] hereditary oligarchs, who self-select from among their numbers in the form of a feudal system as it was in the Middle Ages. In this One World entity, population will be limited by restrictions on the number of children per family, diseases, wars, famines, until 1 billion people who are useful to the ruling class, in areas which will be strictly and clearly defined, remain as the total World population. There will be no middle class, only rulers and the servants. All laws will be uniform under a legal system of World courts practicing the same unified code of laws, backed up by a One World Government police force and a One World unified military to enforce laws in all former countries where no national boundaries shall exist. The system will be on the basis of a welfare state; those who are obedient and subservient to the One World Government will be rewarded with the means to live; those who are rebellious will simply be starved to death or be declared outlaws, thus a target for anyone who wishes to kill them. Privately owned firearms or weapons of any kind will be prohibited."

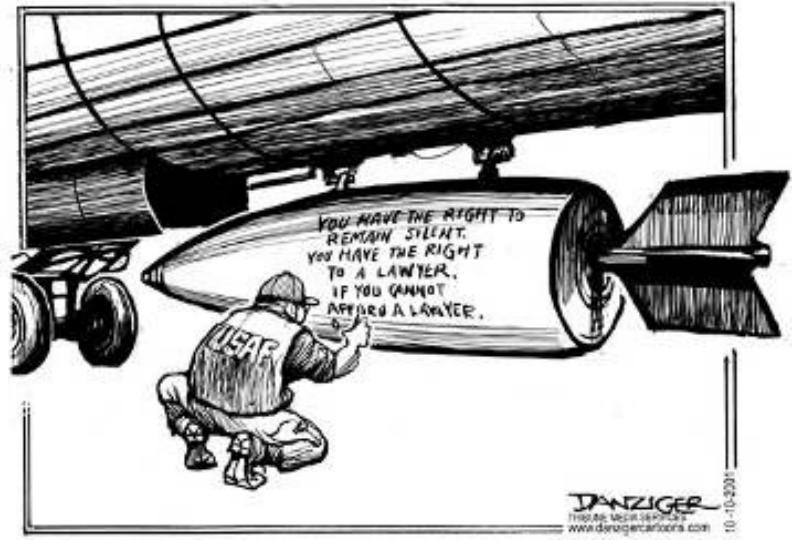

"If newsmen do not tell the truth as they see it because it might make waves, or if their bosses decide something should or should not be broadcast because of Washington or Main Street consequences, we have dishonored ourselves and we have lost the First Amendment by default." This is exactly what has happened! And unfortunately, the ones who try to bring out the truth are forced to resign or fired (recent case of BBC news director and journalist who were forced to resign after exposing the Tony Blair lies). Common people, especially Americans, do not seem to understand, or maybe some don't want to understand, the principle, perfected many centuries ago by the Romans, that has been implemented by the mega-banking dynasties. To solidify power, the emperor creates so-called "enemies" or "bogey-men" and then builds up armies to protect his subjects from "them", i.e. create fake terror and blame it on the ones you need an excuse to occupy or remove (see the section on the History of Fake Terror in this book). So, now we've learned about fake - Jews/Christians/Moslems /Money/ Terror/ News/ Tests/ Elections/ Capital/ Videos/ Politicians/ Alerts/ etc. No wonder Michael Moore said to George W. Bush at the March 2003 Academy Awards that "We live in fictitious times. We live in the time where we have fictitious election results that elect a fictitious president. We live in a time where we have a man sending us to war for fictitious reasons. Whether it's the fiction of duct tape or fiction of orange alerts we are against this war, Mr. Bush. Shame on you, Mr. Bush, shame on you."

Thomas Jefferson in 1799 gave the following warning, which has been ignored, along with other good advice right up to the present day: "Single acts of tyranny may be ascribed to the accidental opinion of a day, but a series of oppressions, begun at a distinguished period, unalterable through every change of ministers, too plainly prove a deliberate, systematic plan of reducing us to slavery." Subsequently referred to as: "the conspiracy theory".

dirty ways to monopolize the industries they operate in, i.e. they believe in monopoly-capitalism. Russian oil had been pushed out of the loop by the Russian Revolution and the only remaining source of foreign oil was the Mideast. This necessitated Standard Oil control of the area. It just so happened that the Arabs controlled all of it and they were on Ignatius L'Eola's hit list since the 16th century. Here was a chance to control the best oil in the World and at the same time destroy the Moslem religion.

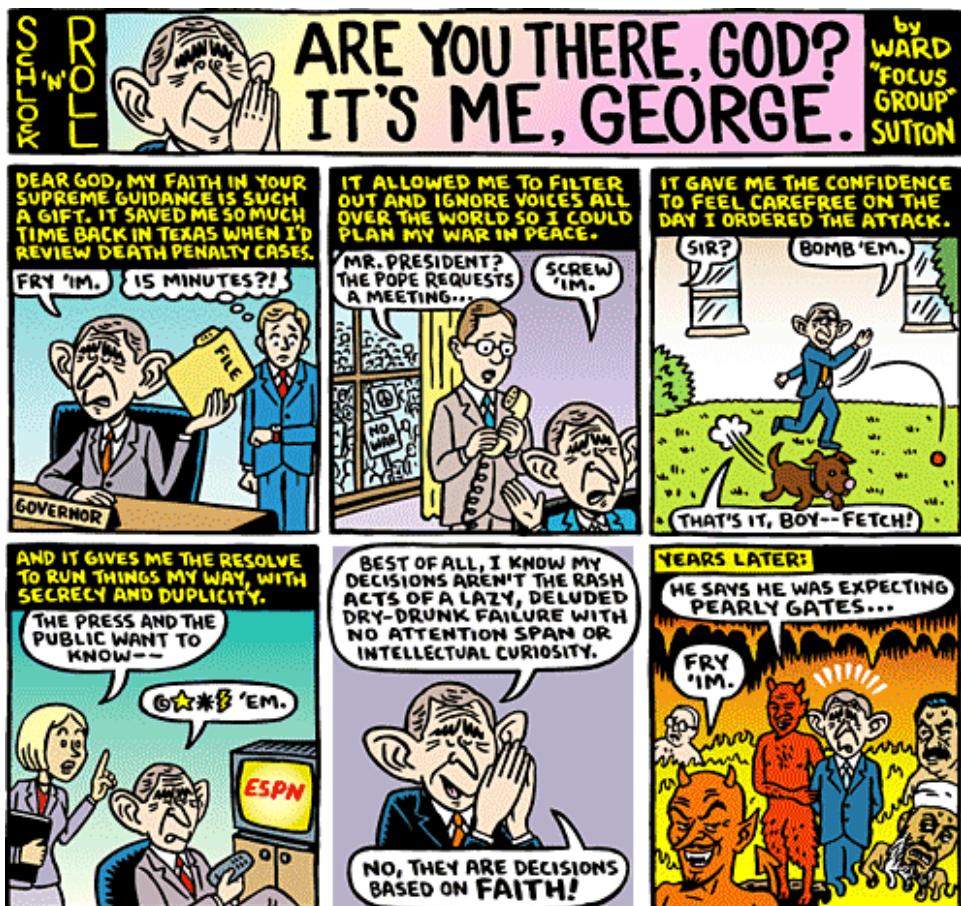

"There are people who control spacious territories teeming with manifest and hidden resources. They dominate the intersections of World routes. Their lands were the cradles of human civilizations and religions. These people have one faith, one language, one history and the same aspirations. No natural barriers can isolate these people from one another ... if, per chance, this nation were to be unified into one state, it would then take the fate of the World into its hands and would separate Europe from the rest of the World. Taking these considerations seriously, a foreign body should be planted in the heart of this nation to prevent the convergence of its wings in such a way that it could exhaust its powers in never-ending wars. It could also serve as a springboard for the West to gain its coveted objects." 1902 - Sir Campbell Bannerman, Prime Minister of Britain [1905-08]

The following confirms what Presidents Jefferson, Lincoln and Jackson feared would happen when Corporations became "enthroned" and worked upon the prejudices of the people in order to maintain their grip on power and the World's resources.

When oil was discovered in the Mideast around 1914, it joined Caspian Sea oil in breaking the Worldwide monopoly of Standard Oil. However, Rockefeller was not about to tolerate any competition to his syndicate. The Rockefeller dynasty's motto is "Competition is a Sin" and they always find

As is well known, the owners of Standard Oil and its allies have always coveted the oil and gas reserves of the World and have used every trick in the book to own or control its supply. In his Reminiscences, John D. Rockefeller, the owner of Standard Oil (ESSO), informed us that the entire American Rockefeller Mafia controls the national and international money game. The Rockefellers have made the Treasury Department virtually a branch of Chase Manhattan Bank." (By the way, Chase Manhattan and other large banks began dumping municipal security bonds in 1974, touching off a financial crisis for New York City in the next year). This global control of oil - through the power of money enforced by an army of military bailiffs - began in the late 1880's with the decision made by Admiral Jack Fisher that the British Fleet would convert to oil as its primary fuel which, under the policy of "strategic denial", would then belong to Britain and be denied, where ever possible, to all others.

Standard Oil financed both sides during WWI. When it was over, the British got control of Palestine from the Arabs. The fake "Jews" in Germany were invited to go and live there but few of them took up the offer because they had no connection with the Mideast. World War II changed all that. Standard Oil worked closely with I. G. Farben in Germany. They manufactured the gas for the ovens. When the war was over, the surviving "Jews" were more than willing to immigrate to Palestine. The State of "Israel" was officially recognized by the Rockefeller controlled U.N. on May 14, 1948.

1947. "Our strategic and security interests throughout the World will be best safeguarded by the establishment in suitable spots of 'Police Stations', fully equipped to deal with emergencies within a large radius. Kuwait is one such spot from which Iraq, South Persia, Saudi Arabia and the Persian Gulf could be controlled. It will be worthwhile to go to considerable trouble and expense to establish and man a 'Police Station' there." British Foreign Office, policy memo 1947.

David Ben Gurion, Time Magazine, August 16th 1948: "The United Nations is a Jewish Ideal". The image of the World...as traced in my imagination -- the increasing influence of the farmers and workers, and the rising political influence of men of science, may transform the United States into a welfare state with a planned economy. Western and Eastern Europe will become a federation of autonomous states having a socialist and democratic regime. With the exception of the U.S.S.R. as a federated Eurasian state, all other continents will become united in a World alliance, at whose disposal will be an international police force. Harry Klein, New York Jewish Lawyer: "The United Nations is Zionism". In 'Zionism Rules The World'. If the United Nations continues to fail to exercise its mandate in the interests of the whole of humanity, then its supporters and critics would appear to be correct in their assessments of its aims and objectives. Furthermore, as the Rockefellers and Standard Oil provided the land for the United Nations and much of its initial funding it seems unlikely that their intentions for the organisation were - at any stage - honourable or humanitarian; and explain why Israel and the United States are never brought to task for their continuous rejection of any U.N. resolution deemed "hostile to their interests" - For which read Rockefeller, Standard Oil, et al.

James Paul Warburg, to the United States Senate on February 17th, 1950: "We will have World government, whether or not we like it. The only question is, whether World government will be achieved by conquest or consent." If America does not heed these warnings, she may well become, (as predicted by David Ben-Gurion in Look magazine and Life magazine of January 1962): "A Welfare State with A Planned Economy" with Jerusalem as the centre of a United Nation's World Government at whose disposal will be a World police force - NATO.

General David Sharp a former United States Marine Commandant 1966: "I believe that if we had and would keep our dirty, bloody, dollar soaked fingers out of the business of these [Third World] nations so full of depressed, exploited people, they will arrive at a solution of their own, And if unfortunately their revolution must be of the violent type because the "haves" refuse to share with the "have-nots" by any peaceful method, at least what they get will be their own, and not the American style, which they don't want and above all don't want crammed down their throats by Americans."

1998. "The U.S.A. has supplied arms, security equipment and training to governments and groups that have committed torture, political killings and other human rights abuses in countries around the World." Amnesty International ["United States of America - Rights for All] October 1998

Ramsey Clark the Former U.S. Attorney General under President Lyndon Johnson made absolutely clear: "The greatest crime since World War II has been U.S. foreign policy." No one, with any real knowledge of the present situation in Afghanistan or the Middle East is under any illusion that the present crisis is all about oil and other hydrocarbons which is the holy grail or oily grail for the likes of Bush, Kissinger, Enron, Unocal, and Standard Oil - for which also read Rockefeller, the Council on Foreign Relations, the U.N. and NATO. And as you can surmise from the above quotes, Israel is the Illuminati's state with the World's third largest stockpile of nuclear, biological and chemical WMDs!

There are four interconnected major power cooperative brotherhoods or infiltrated fronts discussed in this book (with a mix of Fabianism, Marxism and Nazism). These fronts together form the web of the New World Order (NWO) all working together behind many other front organizations to be discussed later and detailed in the various sections and appendixes of this book, i.e. The Illuminati (Nazi and Luciferians Banking Dynasties headed by the Rothschild and Rockefeller Banking and Industrial-Military Dynasties), The Masons (Mystic Ancient Shrine Order of Nobles, Templars, etc.), The Zionists (Pharisees, Priore de Sion or Zion, Black Khazar Nobility, see the appendix on the Chabad-Lubavitchers sect) and The Vatican including its Bank (Jesuits; see the later section and appendix on the signs of the ancient Occult in the Vatican and the Bank of Rome; remember The 1981 P2 Propaganda Due Scandal that was revealed in Italy, providing a Masonic link between Italian and American banking, the Vatican, the Mafia and the KGB). All groups are coordinated by the Pilgrims Society (London 1902, New York 1903)

Do Sabbatean/Frankist Jews Rule The World? Are the Illuminati Banking Dynasties Jewish?

The history of the Zionist Sabbatean empire is a sordid one, and a long one going back decades. Jimmy Carter was correct as always. The reason you hear nothing about these stories in the media is not because everyone is a racist liar. It's because AIPAC controls the media and the message and will never allow it to be news. Do Jews Control The World? by Dr. Henry Makow http://www.henrymakow.com/do_jews_control_the_World.html

<http://www.rense.com/general78/jcontrol.htm> This question is the proverbial elephant in the room, the dysfunction that members of the human family dare not mention. So when Richard Dawkins recently remarked that the Israel Lobby controls American foreign policy, Daniel Finkelstein, a Jewish editor of the London Times "Comments" section heard Nazi storm troopers banging on his door. "So Dawkins, a liberal hero, believes, er, that Jews control World power." Finkelstein sighed. "And, judging from the Guardian, it is now a part of mainstream debate to say so. Perhaps you think I am over-reacting, but I am a little bit frightened. All I can manage is, Oh My God." Finkelstein's outburst is ironic. Here is a Jewish opinion gatekeeper, employed by a Jewish press magnate (Rupert Murdoch), shocked at the mention of Jewish power, persuading the public that the very suggestion is in bad taste. He cannot be accused of objectivity.

The Times is not just any newspaper. It has been the voice of the British establishment for more than 100 years. Along with Chatham House (the RIIA) and Tavistock, it is a principal instrument of the cabal that governs England and most of the World. That cabal consists of Jewish central bankers and British (European and American) aristocracy united by money, marriage and a belief in the occult (Freemasonry.)

ANTI-SEMITISM

I object to the term "the Jews" when obviously we are talking about very rich and powerful Jews who have intermarried with rich and powerful Gentiles. Sid the tailor does not control the World. I do not control the World. We are talking about rich Jews who most other Jews wouldn't even recognize: they are Freemasons. They worship Lucifer and think God is evil. I represent that silent majority of average Jews, who have assimilated, and support the national interest. Rich Jews will want ordinary Jews to take the fall when opposition grows to their predatory agenda and anti-Semitism increases. Anti-Semitism never made any headway in Europe in the Nineteenth and early Twentieth Century until rich Jews decided to sponsor it. There is no way Hitler would have come to power without the backing of World finance. Hitler was Time Magazine "Man of the Year" in 1938. Stalin, another Freemason created by the Money Power, took the honor in 1939. Hey let's have a war between the two!

The central bankers owned I.G. Farben, the backbone of the Nazi war machine. Max Warburg was a Director until 1938. In March 1941 the Warburg family and employees were spirited out of Nazi Europe by the SS. Hitler so hated the Jewish bankers that he had them escorted to safety in a private train. Assimilated and religious Jews who did not serve the bankers' interests were the main victims of Nazi persecution. Zionists, on the other hand, were spared. These same Zionists put ordinary Jews on trains to Auschwitz [forced labor camp] telling them they were being "resettled." If the past is a guide, in an economic or social breakdown, the bankers will focus blame on their pawns, Zionists or neo nons, or preferably Jews in general. This is why patriotic Jews must disassociate from the bankers and their minions now.

WHAT IS ANTI-SEMITISM?

Anti-Semitism might be called anti-imperialism. At heart, it is opposition to the plan of the central bankers, based in the City of London, to "gradually absorb the wealth of the World" and establish a masked "World government" dictatorship. This involves stupefying and degrading society through faux education, porn and violence; and bankrupting and brutalizing us through war, pandemics and domestic repression. It involves destroying "all collective forces except our own" which means destroying all race, religion, (God), nation and family. They use social engineering like diversity, feminism, multiculturalism and homosexuality to accomplish these aims. (I like homosexuals & different races; I just don't think they should be used as a weapon.) The bankers place cooperative Jews in positions of control. The stigma attached to anti-Semitism is a form of mind control used to immunize their agents and their agenda against criticism. The Holocaust is callously used for this purpose. If we think of anti-Semitism in terms of opposition to the bankers' political and cultural policy rather than to a race, it can be justified. The key is to distinguish between Jews who advance the New World Order and those who do not.

JEWS ARE THE BIGGEST DUPES

Socialism and Communism are Jewish in origin, membership and character. Throughout the past century, naïve Jews flocked to the Red banner. The clarion call: "Capitalists have all the wealth. Communism will result in equality." This clarion call was just bait. The richest people in the World created & financed Communism; their agenda was to further concentrate wealth. Socialism is the same thing on a smaller scale, a way of electing World banker lackeys and increasing government power. (Socialism may have some intrinsic merit but this is not why they back it.) The false conflict between "public" and "private"; Left and Right; government and free enterprise; keeps the public in a political trance. Jews like Noam Chomsky and Naomi Klein uphold this false dichotomy. They blame everything on the private sector, on corporations, on US imperialism. Left versus Right. Government vs Free Enterprise. The truth is the corporations she vilifies own both her publisher and the politicians Right and Left. Public vs Private is meaningless today because Private controls Public (through debt.) In a recent profile Ms. Klein says: "I don't question being a leftist any more than I would question being a Jew it's the culture I got taught as a kid." The day when Naomi Klein advocates government take control of its m credit, or traces the Mossad role in 9-11, will be the day she disappears from the mass media. She is an example of what many socialist Jewish dupes do best; control the debate, enrich themselves and wax self-righteous as benefactors. They are the company union.

CONCLUSION

In 2004, I wrote: "Anti-Semitism is not an irrational hatred or sickness in the Gentile soul, as Jews imagine. It is a healthy defense mechanism of mainly Christian and Moslem nations, cultures, races and religions that are threatened by a gradual and insidious process of extinction (i.e. World government.)" If anti-Semitism is opposition to the World banker agenda, rather than to all Jews heedless of their role, then I see anti-Semitism as a healthy sign. We cannot allow them use this disingenuous ploy to outlaw Resistance to Tyranny. Jews...everyone... must not be manipulated any longer. Its not Jews nor Gentiles but Satanists who control the World. _____

Kudos to you for an eloquent and compelling article reflecting your jewish humanity and morality. I could not agree more with you that zionism, rather than being a strictly jewish phenomenon, in practice represents a Greedy and Callous Ruling "Elite" made of Jews, Christians and Moslems for whom predatory and devastating wars with millions of victims are of no concern as long as they are lining their pockets and maintaining/increasing their power and influence.

I have been a reader of Jeff Rense website for several years and I have always found your articles quite educational and inspiring. I mostly agree with what you write, quiteeloquently I say, however, The so called Rich Jews you refer to are not Jews at all but are actually descendants of the biblical entity Cain i.e. Kenites, Rev.2:9 and Rev.3:9.I do however realize how difficult that would be for most people to understand Thank you for your wonderful articles as free speech is losing ground in the 'Land of the Fee and Home of the Slave'.

Your article on Rense.com today, "Do Jews Control the World" was one of the best articles ever written in the last twenty years. Very few really understand the "hof juden's" (court jews) role as high level "cutouts". But you do and you write about it better than anyone else. And the vast majority of regular jews of normal everyday society often get blamed by the World for the Cutouts abominable acts. These high level Cutouts are the ones that can be denied by the elite city of London bankshare holders ("we don't have any linkages to them, they run the money, entertainment and media on their own", yah right). Of course these cutouts get paid a lot and provided a lot of privileges for their willingness to literally "sell their souls" to mammon and lucifer. And then they play the "holocaust card" so well. Holocaust, translated apparently literally means "fiery sacrifice". Why is this word used and who was sacrificing who? I have always thought it was best to talk about these death camps accurately by referring to them as extermination or genocide camps for the jews, christians, dissentors and others judged undesirable.

That's the scary part of this conspiracy; The Rothschild king of the Jews doesn't have to issue secret step-by-step instructions. The conspiracy is a lot closer to us all than the 'mysterious' Illuminati. Also anyone still bringing up the Jesuits in to the discussion should be considered suspect. Do you notice how every time You write an article about the 'Jewishness' of the World-wide subversion, someone posts an obligatory Jesuit-related junk only to muddy up the water? The Jesuits have served their purpose a long time ago when the Kabbalistic Frankists successfully infiltrated the order and destroyed it from within. The services of the Jesuit order are not needed today, especially when the Hidden Hand can place a Crypto-Frankist on the Pope's seat almost at will. Keep up the good work, Henry

Eric Jon Phelps to his List said (October 10, 2007):

This article by Dr. Henry Makow (a racial Jew himself) is most excellent. What he fails to mention is that the Jews (Masonic Jewish Labor Zionists) of power are mere shills for the pope. They are the pope's masonic "Court Jews," as the late Sherman Skolnik would say. Add this key ingredient and we now will understand why the Mossad played a most obvious, attention-getting part in 911—[posing] as did Al Qaeda. For both intelligence brotherhoods are controlled by the Black Pope via his continued Nazi SS - the CIA/NSA - thanks to the Knights of Malta and Operation Paperclip overseen by Knight of Malta J. Peter Grace and his master, JFK assassin Francis Cardinal Spellman. Add this key ingredient and we understand why Rome is using the American military for the annihilation of hundreds of thousands of Arab Moslems - for the future security and development of the pope's revived, Dark Age "Kingdom of Jerusalem"---called "Israel" by God in Ezekiel 38:8. Remember, the pope's open but false policy is to be against the war in Iraq; - His Secret but true policy is that He is the Impetus behind that Crusade. Indeed, this 21st Century Crusade is being fought for the Benefit of the Pope yet to be the Antichrist in the coming rebuilt temple in Jerusalem. For the Third Temple to be built, there must be a secure Temple Mount so the work will not be stopped by terrorist bombings and attacks. As it was in the days of Messiah Jesus-Yashua, so it is today. The Jewish leaders of banking and political power "have no king but Caesar"---the pope of Rome. The average racial Jew is to be "extirpated from the face of the earth" as per the Jesuit Oath of the Fourth Vow quoted from six different sources in Vatican Assassins III.

Some years ago i was friendly with a learned rabbi who was part of the cold war effort. He told me much of this. Lord Rothschild told the Cambridge Traitors they would all have powerful positions when England collapsed and the soviets took over. He even kidded the Scottish miser john cairncross to spy for nothing, but most of all he told them that the jews were the rightful World rulers, who through finance, would ultimately take over. But its good to see all this in print, Stepping back and looking at the "Biggest Picture" one must realize that the primary motivator behind the Illuminati is a spiritual one. Lucifer is the author of confusion and lies, and he is so successful because he inserts just enough truth to make the "medicine" palatable. I believe that "Sval" and Springmeier have been silenced simply because they came the closest to the truth of the organization. Of course others like Coleman have come close too. I find it eyebrow raising to see Mexico's Fox let slip information on the NAU and the "Amero" yesterday in his interview on CN....but few other than WND are getting the word out. Notice that the MSM is mum on the subject. Its becoming clearer every day that the Illuminati are employing an incremental methodology in their implementation of the NWO, "the Frog in the Pot" seems to be how they plan to roll out their control devices. I have wondered lately if the recent credit and stockmarket and metals manipulations have been "practice" for the big crash that they supposedly have planned or are they going to sneak that on us incrementally too? I have done all that I can to prepare my resources for what I believe is coming...but there is no clear picture in my mind yet as to exactly when things will unravel economically. This waiting for the "other shoe to drop" requires patience.

Jack said (October 10, 2007):

The number of Jews actively involved in advancing the New World Order conspiracy is no doubt minuscule. Exacerbating the problem is the intuitive inclination of Jews generally to blindly support Jewish (read Zionist) leadership without regard for adverse ramifications or consequences. That support arises out of the innate or instilled Jewish feeling of exaggerated uniqueness as a people - which promotes an "us versus them" mentality - along with the ever present "They're All Out to Get Us" Paranoia which seems to afflict most Jews and which is continuously reinforced by propaganda, usually relating to the so-called "Holocaust," which was aptly termed "The Hoax of the Twentieth Century" by Professor Arthur Butz, of Northwestern University, in his definitive book of that title. There IS a "New World Order" conspiracy, as you are well aware, and most of those who know of it do regard it as a Jewish conspiracy. Right or wrong, that is only natural given the disproportionate number of Jews involved in it, especially at its highest levels. It is simply not enough to say that most Jews do not "advance the banker New World Order." To properly address the anti-Semitism problem it will be necessary for respectable Jewish leadership, as well as Jews generally, to take a leading position in exposing this conspiracy and give their all to ultimately dismantle it altogether.

Dr. Makow, I'm half-Jew who has been awakening from the mental programming for the past couple years ever since I started investigating 9/11. Your site has always provided great articles that helped expand my quest from just "9/11 Truth" to so much more. I found the recent article on Jews owning the World quite well-articulated, and it occurred to me that you may be interested in an anti-Zionist song my band just recorded called "Pavlov's Jews." <http://www.myspace.com/idreamofapocalypse>. It addresses the Blind Obedience the Average Jew gives to Zionism, Holocaust guilt, and the general burdens we're forced to endure from infancy. Now, it is a crazy thrash metal song which may be too intense for a middle-aged guy, so here's also the lyrics ;)

Pavlov's Jews - "Never again" and "Never forget"

words that sanction any dark deed They use the Holocaust to justify their crime And you're too afraid to challenge their lies

- Zionist criminals cloak themselves in Judaism, banking on credulity they hand-feed you propaganda. - Members of the Diaspora bonded by burden not by blood We are made insane by the mountains of martyrs dumped upon our poor blank slates. - Don't research history just believe what they say Like a good little dog they know that you'll obey - (bell jingles) Pavlov's Jew Pavlov's Jews - Bark when they say bark Jump when they say jump Don't think for yourself Leave that up to someone else - Pavlov's Jews Pavlov's Jews - You don't see the danger lurking in the distance We'll die for their crimes they'll hide and survive - They scream anti-Semite and then it's time to hate When they cry poor you rush to donate. - The guilt oozes through your veins Praise your masters tugging the reigns. - Crushed by the burden of historical guilt lifetime of good deeds impossible to surmount. - We never made a commitment but always feel obligated haunted by infamous slaughters like Granada in 1066. - Pogroms and massacres Details to be memorized "By deception thou shalt do war" Is Mossad at the door? - Attack! Attack! We're always under attack But maybe there's a reason every hundred years some country kicks our ass! - Refuse to play the part scripted for a Jew commit a worse sin than a Christian, Muslim, or Hindu. - But maybe this generation will not be afraid maybe we'll see who we truly ought to hate. - Be different from the different Choose to be unchosen. - lyrics copyright 2007 I Dream of Apocalypse

The proper way to say it is....Satanists control the World! It just so happens that largest contingent of ruling satanists happen to be 'Jews' even though they're NOT related to Israelites... they are Khazarian Scythians, an Asiatic mongoloid race of people who have absolutely NO claim to any land in the middle east whatsoever.... the Rothschilds are the leading satanic bloodline on the planet and are the primary rulers! They created the satanic state of Israel in 1948! These people are evil Cabalah practising, human sacrificing, blood-drinking, devil worshipping creeps! There is also a large Scottish contingent to the satanic World order as well, it's not all 'jewish' also the Li family in China is very powerful..... many last names of powerful people have been changed as well to hide their Jewish lineage! The most important thing for people to realize is that this a spiritual battle and even these evil World leaders are puppets themselves for the puppetmaster....Satan aka zeus, jupiter, pan, saturn, cronos, lucifer, baal, osiris, beelzubub, thor, quetzalcoatal, the morning star, the rising sun, etc..... they are all one and the same fallen angel creep who is in complete control of this planet!!! The 13 primary satanic bloodlines led by the Rothschilds are his main tool for the enslavement of mankind !

On target, Henry. Of course 'the Jews' don't control the World. In the real World I live in, Jews I've known are especially nervous and more concerned about what's going on with World affairs, from having real family histories of being burned by governments and 'movements' all along. Nearly every Jew I've known has been painfully aware since childhood of absent relatives that the rest of the American kids take for granted....like grandparents. I also knew a girl who worked for me during the 90's, who's grandfather's career had been ruined due to having been officially blacklisted by the FBI for having been a communist. He had served in WWII, and his American citizenship wasn't returned to him until 1994, I think, by Clinton who 'pardoned' those denied their social security and veteran's benefits by the 50's blacklist. I imagine that such histories may explain how someone like Klein has been manipulated to serve the 'left' vector, while 'neocon' Jews (coming from left wing socialism) were manipulated to overcompensate by mimicking fascism masquerading as Zionism. So I don't doubt her sincerity when she said, "I don't question being a leftist any more than I would question being a Jew – it's the culture I got taught as a kid." The exploitation of the historical trauma of the downtrodden to serve the very conquerors whom inflicted it is routine. The English broke the Scots - then used some of them to crush and oversee the Irish, as well as sending them to run the slave plantation industry of the old American South. The East India Company, Crown chartered and backed up with Crown soldiers, conquered India by fostering civil wars and recruiting the displaced and disenfranchised locals into the British army. The Romans used the same technique.

TRAITORS - (New Definition)

All People who Oppose Bush's DeMockRacy & Freedom Policy. Not TRAITORS - High U.S. Govt. Dept Chiefs like DHS Chief Michael Chertoff and 'Scooter'

Liebowitz, who are Israeli Citizens and 100% real Mirkins at the SAME TIME! Incredible!

Executive Summary of the Situation as Corroborated by Tremendous Research

We have already explained in previous sections and the Foreword that the Illuminati Bankers have the monopoly over creating "fiat" fake money and charging interest on it and have shown the disastrous effects of usury. We will not repeat it here.

Sir Josiah Stamp, former President, Bank of England: "Bankers own the earth. Take it away from them, but leave them the power to create money and control credit, and with a flick of a pen they will create enough to buy it back."

The biggest problem facing all human beings today is the creeping slavery created by the private monopoly on the issuance and creation of "fiat" money at no liability to themselves (money created from nothing by the stroke of a pen or keyboard) that the Illuminati Bankers who own the central and local banks have managed to usurp from the people at least since the creation of the private central Bank of Rome in 45 AC, the private central Bank of England in 1694, the private US Federal Reserve Banks in 1913 and so on! These Illuminati Banking Dynasties lend this "fiat" money to the people's Governments, corporations and individuals charging interest on this money which they created from nothing and also make gains by manipulating the issuance of money; the debt and the associated interest payments are inherited and grow from generation to generation forever and have enslaved past, present and future generations eternally!! The only way to momentarily stop this pyramid scheme from collapsing is for governments to keep borrowing more and more!!! Whenever this pyramid collapses, the Illuminati Banksters go on a buying spree for bargains while others suffer!!!! Another way to keep this pyramid going is to create wars & terror so that all sides have to borrow money from the Banksters!!!! Meanwhile, the number of enslaved peoples World-wide keeps growing begging for handouts at the mercy of the Illuminati Banksters whose wealth and power keep skyrocketing!!!! In order to keep their mafia cash cow or Golden Calf system going, the Illuminati Banksters use some of their immense wealth to buy influence and propaganda fronts to blame the Earth's problems on all other systems and religions thus diverting attention from themselves and the fact that they have usurped the power to create money from the people's sovereign governments. The money the BankLords create at no liability to themselves is redeemable for any goods or services produced by anyone willing to accept the private Federal Reserve dollar currency notes and cheques.

Thomas Jefferson: "I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already they have raised up a money aristocracy that has set the government at defiance... If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks will deprive the people of all property until their children wake-up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered... The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the government to whom it properly belongs." "The modern theory of the perpetuation of debt has drenched the earth with blood, and crushed its inhabitants under burdens ever accumulating". ~ Letter to the Secretary of the Treasury Albert Gallatin (1802) and later published in The Debate Over The Recharter Of The Bank Bill (1809)

Representative Wright Patman, former Chairman of a House Banking Committee said: "The Federal Reserve Banks create money out of thin air to buy Government bonds... The Federal Reserve Bank is a total money making machine." [monopoly on counterfeiting money]

Former Federal Reserve Bank Chairman Eccles was asked by Patman, "Mr. Eccles, how did you get the money to buy these two billion dollars of government bonds." Mr. Eccles replied, "We create it." "Out of what?" Patman asked. "Out of the right to issue credit money", i.e. out of nothing. This right to create money out of thin air was given to the Private Federal Reserve Bank by a fraudulent act of Congress in 1913 known as the Federal Reserve Act, same fraud has been happening since the 17th century with the Private Bank of England and other banks. The FED issues Federal Reserve cheques redeemable as Federal Reserve Notes only with no liability to itself. The Fed is not subject to taxes and audits. The local banks create credit money as well but not currency notes.

Illuminati (Globalists): "The Illuminati is a group that practices a form of faith known as "enlightenment". It is Luciferian (Satanic Idolatry or the Synagogue of Satan as referred to in the Bible), and teaches followers that their roots go back to the ancient mystery religions of Babylon, Egypt, and Celtic druidism. They have taken what they consider the "best" of each, the foundational practices, and joined them together into a strongly Occult discipline. Many groups at the local level worship a trinity of ancient deities such as "El", "Baal", and "Ashtarte", as well as "Isis and Osiris" and "Set".... "I do know that these people teach and practice evil." In the "The Dying God, The Hidden History of Western Civilization" Montreal historian David Livingstone shows that modern secular culture is really the product of an Occult tradition that can be traced back to ancient Babylon through Masons, Rosicrucians, Templars, Plato and the Cabalists". The Prophets of God invite us to be freed from this slavery of the Pharisees. Note that the ancient elites created and perpetrated the Occult and Idolatry traditions to keep the masses occupied while they reap their wealth.

What did Baron Amsel (Amschel) Bauer Mayer Rothschild, (The Synagogue of Satan or Lucifer or Holder of The Light hence Satanic Luciferian ILLUMINATI) mean 1744-1812: "Give me control of the economics of a country; and I care not who makes her laws. The few who understand the system, will either be so interested from its profits or so dependant on its favors, that there will be no opposition from that class".

"The few who can understand the [banking] system will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favors, that there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of the people, mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantages that capital derives from the system, will bear its burdens without complaint and perhaps without even suspecting that the system is inimical to their interests". [As they say, "Ignorance is bliss!"] - John Sherman, protege of the Rothschild banking family, in a letter sent in 1863 to New York Bankers, Morton, and Gould, in support of the then proposed National Banking Act.

"Give me control over a man's economic actions, and hence over his means of survival, and except for a few occasional heroes, I'll promise to deliver to you men who think and write and behave as I want them to." -Benjamine A. Rooge

"Lucifer comes to give to us the final gift of wholeness. If we accept it then he is free and we are free. This is the Luciferic initiation. It is one that many people now, and in the days ahead, will be facing, for it is an initiation in the New Age. ... No one will enter the New World Order unless he or she will make a pledge to worship Lucifer. No one will enter the New Age unless he will take a Luciferian initiation." David Spangler on the Board of Directors of Planetary Citizens, United Nations, "Reflections on the Christ," quoted in Unicorn in the Sanctuary, by Randy England, 1978

Harold Wallace Rosenthal in 1976, a Zionist administrative assistant to Senator Jacob K. Javits of New York, who like most Zionists and Illuminati, pretends to be Jewish, when asked "Do you have knowledge of WHEN and WHY the story began about the Jews being God's chosen people?" said in part: "Most Jews do not like to admit it, but our god is Lucifer -- so I wasn't lying -- and we are his chosen people. Lucifer is very much alive."

Dr. R.E. Search, "Lincoln Money Martyred", Omni Publications Hawthorne, California. 1935 (Reprinted 1977): Consider this: "One penny loaned January 1st, AC 1, drawing interest at the rate of 6% compounded annually, on January 1st, 1895, would amount to: £8,498,840,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000.00. To pay this in gold at the rate of 1.5 grams of gold to the pound sterling, using it in spheres of pure gold the size of the planet earth, would take: 610,070,000,000,000,000 such spheres to pay the debt.

The Illuminati Banking dynasties create the money for the loan out of nothing, i.e. just because they were granted this power by fraudulent legislation which they bribed and maneuvered Kings and politicians into doing.

They don't create the money to pay the interest though. When the banks put your interest payments back into circulation by acquiring good and services, then debtors are able to repay the interest, i.e. we have to work for the bank to repay the interest! The only way to keep this system going is to have governments and people borrow more and more to create the money to pay the interest. A great way to stop this pyramid scheme from collapsing temporarily is to have wars which cause all sides in the conflict to borrow.

Retired US Army Colonel De Grandpre: "The trigger for the 9-11 activity was the imminent and unstoppable Worldwide financial collapse which can only be prevented temporarily by a major war, perhaps to become known as World War III. To bring it off one more time, martial law will probably be imposed in the United States." (see transcript of his interview on the Feb 2004 Alex Jones Show Austin TX in the section about Fake Terror & 9-11)

In 1910 US government debt stood at about $1 billion or about $12 per citizen. Now, its about $15 trillion (all levels of government) or about $50,000 per citizen owed to the private owners of the Federal Reserve Bank. Government and corporate debt is inherited. Therefore, whenever we pay taxes or buy corporate products, we pay homage to the Illuminati owners of the private central banks because part of our money goes to pay interest to them on money which they created from nothing, through the power that was given to them by fraudulent legislation. In 1694, the English government's debt to the private owned Bank of England was £1.25 million. In 1993, (11 years ago) the British taxpayers paid £24.5 billion alone in interest, more than twice that in the education budget! And who knows what the real figure is, since many things are kept secret.

The US dollar's value is elastic and not fixed. The amount of paper private Federal Reserve notes (US $) in circulation is about $600 billion (US Government notes Greenbacks in circulation left over from the good old days is about $300 million). The amount of annual US$ trade deficit is about $700 billion (5%). The amount of US Government federal/state/local annual deficit is about $1.5 trillion. The amount of US Government federal/state/local debt is about $15 trillion and increasing annually at the rate of $1.5 trillion (about $2 trillion is municipal bonds). The total amount of debt to the Federal Reserve and local banks is about $50 trillion and growing ($1.3 Trillion in US mortgages, $2.5 trillion in Federal government bonds). The amount of US$ currency asset holdings (cash and US$ accounts and T-bills) by foreigners is about $3.5 trillion ($2 trillion in Treasury Bills-Bonds out of which $1.3 trillion is by foreign central banks) and growing at the rate of $700 billion annually. These are waiting to spent in the US at some future time. The US$ currency asset that circulates in the US is $1.8 trillion. What the United States owes the rest of the World minus what the rest of the World owes the United States amounts to more than $3 trillion, and it's still growing. The oil trade results in the annual consumption of $1.5 trillion (oil @ $50 per barrel @ 84 million barrels/day trade) and much of this is recycled into US Treasury bills (at gunpoint, shock and awe). M3 (currency bank notes & coins in circulation + personal chequing accounts + current accounts at banks + personal savings accounts + other chequing accounts + term deposits + non-personal deposits requiring notice before withdrawal + all deposits at non-bank deposit-taking institutions + money-market mutual funds + individual annuities at life insurance companies but excluding other types of mutual funds & CSBs) is around $10 trillion and growing at 11% annually. If no one wants to buy or can be forced to buy more US treasuries as the Fed creates more fiat money (aka helicopter money), inflation will increase and interest rates will be forced up. This will increase taxes, increase the cost of basics, hurt the owners of old low-coupon bonds, hurt stocks, hurt housing prices and other bubble markets. Rising inflation and falling asset prices will turn the World of investing upside down!

Dr. R.E. Search, "Lincoln Money Martyred", Omni Publications Hawthorne, California. 1935 (Reprinted 1977): Consider this: "One penny loaned January 1st, AC 1, drawing interest at the rate of 6% compounded annually, on January 1st, 1895, would amount to: £8,498,840,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000.00. To pay this in gold at the rate of 1.5 grams of gold to the pound sterling, using it in spheres of pure gold the size of the planet earth, would take: 610,070,000,000,000,000 such spheres to pay the debt.

When this pyramid collapses, we would suddenly be in a very different World. In 1929, the stock market crashed, but the gold standard held. The monetary system held. Now, we are dealing with something that's more fundamental. The only precedent I know of is the Roman Empire collapse, which ended Roman currency. That was, of course, at a time when it took about a century and a half for the breakdown to spread through the empire; now it would take a few hours.

Richard Maybury: "Washington...has become an alien city-state that rules America, and much of the rest of the World, in the way that Rome ruled the Roman Empire."

Governments got us into this mess by violating four common sense rules regarding their fiscal and monetary policies. These rules are:

- No sovereign government should ever, under any circumstances, give over democratic control of its money supply to bankers. It is the job of the people's Treasury to create money interest-free and debt-free.
- No sovereign government should ever, under any circumstances, borrow any money from any private bank.
- No national, provincial, or local government should borrow foreign money to increase purchases abroad when there is excessive domestic unemployment.
- Governments, like businesses, should distinguish between "capital" and "current" expenditures, and when it is prudent to do so, finance capital improvements with money the government has created for itself.
- People must be educated on these issues.
- Political donations must be controlled to avoid politicians selling their souls to the devils.

In summary, The Conspiracy is against the masses' Money & God. God is Love. Satanists aren't big fans of Love, rather they are fans of Money! They have a lot of clout. Incredible and bizarre as this sounds, a Satanic cult, the Illuminati rules the World. George W. Bush is a member, as are many of the World's political and economic elite. The Illuminati control the issuance of money and are ultra-mega-rich (this will be explained later in detail in this book). With this virtually unlimited supply of money, they are able to "buy" or "remove" anyone they need at a particular time to implement the steps in their plan towards further World tyranny and the 'almost-hidden' conspirators in politics, religion, education, entertainment, and the news media are working for a 'Banker-owned America' in a 'Banker-owned World' under a 'Banker-owned World Tyrannical Government' (would be fine if it were a benevolent government!).

In order to maintain & expand their stranglehold on the issuance of money and keep the World safe for their amassed power and wealth (the natural animal instinct of guarding one's territory I guess), the Illuminati and their key-positioned enforcers or stooges have always worked (since the days of Babylon when Nimrod tried to subvert the Prophet Abraham) towards tyranny:

- Keep the masses distracted and busy while amassing control behind the scenes.
- Central Bank domination of national economies: Bank of England, Bank of France, Bundesbank, Federal Reserve, etc.
- Centralization of regional economies: European Monetary Union, NAFTA, etc.
- Centralization of the World economy: IMF, World Bank, B.I.S. (Bank of International Settlements), GATT, etc.
- Centralized World Governments: UN, EU, etc., i.e. total enslavement and fascist tyranny by them.
- Monopolization of the World's gold: IMF controls two-thirds of the supply about 700 million ounces (he who controls the gold makes the rules). They control the money supply.
- To destroy all independent banks, nation states, the family and all religions and will not allow any other system than their slavery based fiat financial system to prosper.
- To replace them with their World monopoly central bank(s), their one-World totalitarian tyrannical government, their central military (a.k.a. NATO) and their enforced Illuminati Luciferian Pharisae Satanic Occult worship. The seat of this N.W.O. government is to be Jerusalem.
- To implement this plan or conspiracy, they have to project deceptive fronts of capitalism, democracy, religion and anti-Semitism behind which they carry out their plans (Orwellian tactics from the book "1984").
- They have to keep the people enslaved and fighting with each other in their financial system of privately created interest-bearing money.
- They have to keep the people distracted and fighting with each other over nations and religion in a final effort for the masses to hate all nation states and religions and accept the Satanic Occult Illuminism. The Illuminati especially don't like the true Torah, Bible and the Quran because these books forbid USURY, Idolatry, Slavery, adultery, etc.
- They will create divisions among a unified mass of people, attach labels to groups of people by creating stereotype and then to demonize entire groups of populations, and to keep groups distracted from the real problems and keep them fighting among each other.
- To subvert, undermine, distort and corrupt the Guidance from God such as in the books of the Torah, the Bible, the Quran, etc.
- They also have to trigger successions of wars and societal problems after which people will be so demoralized that they will become very submissive to the idea of a one-World totalitarian government.
- They also have to reduce World population (down to 1 billion according to some researchers) which can be done via targeted micro-biological warfare (note that since September 11, 2001, 44 World-class micro-biologists, who could both create and cure killer viruses and bacteria, in the United States, Canada, Israel, Russia, etc. have met early deaths strange accidents or supposed suicides).
- Where there's war, there's also mega-money for the Illuminati Bankers.

The elite agenda has always been to grab the wealth of the whole World by playing with the masses. Remember, European Elites not so long ago, i.e. up to the 19th century, were still running a master-serf-slave system! And remember the days of slavery in America not so long ago!

The Illuminati consist of the Jesuits and many of the World's richest families including the Rothschilds, the Rockefellers and the Windsors. While they pay lip service to religion, they worship Lucifer. Their agents control the World's media, education, business and politics. These agents may think they are pursuing success, but success often literally means serving the devil. Masons/Zionists/Jesuits/Chabad-Lubavitchers/etc. infiltrate positions of power and also masquerade as Priests, Rabbis, Imams, etc., and promote hatred and discord between nations and religions and move people away from God by propagandizing Darwin's false racist theory of evolution and survival of the brutally strongest. Zionists present a Jewish-like front, Masons present a Christian-like front, controllers of the Vatican present a Roman-Catholic-like front, certain Imams provide an Islamic-like front, etc... Deep inside of them are the ancient Babylonian Satanic gods. Prisoners of their wealth, the Illuminati prefer hatred and destruction to Love. Understandably, they can't go public with this. They pretend to be moral while working behind the scenes to enslave humanity in a New World Order. Hiroshima, Dresden, Auschwitz, Cambodia and Rwanda were sacrifices to their god Lucifer. They are responsible for the two World Wars, the Depression and the Cold War. Sept. 11, the "War on Terror" and the Iraq War are their latest achievements. We imagine they want unlimited power and wealth but these are by-products. The Illuminati is motivated by hatred of God and humanity.

The purpose of the New World Order is the same as Communism. Our Lucifer loving elite, The Illuminati, created Communism as a means to flaunt God's will and enslave mankind. Karl Marx was hired to sell totalitarian rule ("the dictatorship of the proletariat") by pretending to espouse equality. He was a Satanist as were Trotsky, Lenin and Stalin. In his book, Marx and Satan (1986) Richard Wurmbrand illustrates Marx's true hatred of God and humanity. As early as 1848, Marx wrote about a "coming World war" that will eliminate "riffraff" like Russians, Czechs and Croats. "The coming World war will cause not only reactionary classes and dynasties, but also entire reactionary peoples, to disappear from the face of the earth. And that will be progress...the revolution...cares as little about the human lives it destroys...as an earthquake cares about the houses it ravages. Classes and races that are too weak to dominate the new conditions...will be defeated...their very name will vanish." (42)

In his poem Human Pride Marx writes that he will "wander Godlike and victorious through the ruins of the World... I will feel equal to the Creator."(31) Far from champion of the working class, Marx was a police spy. In 1960, the Austrian Chancellor Raabe gave Khrushchev an original letter by Marx proving the "founder of Communism" informed on other revolutionaries. (33) The reason only 13 of the 100 Volumes of Marx's writings have been published is to hide the true character of Communism. (32)

THEY HATE THE GOD IN YOU: Wurmbrand, a pastor who was imprisoned in Romania, says Communism is in essence Satanism empowered. Christians weren't just brutally persecuted and murdered, they were made to blaspheme. Communism's goal, the goal of the New World Order, is to mock God and to praise Lucifer. A Communist newspaper confessed,"We fight against God: To snatch believers from him."(77) In "German Ideology" Marx referred to God in Hegelian terms as the Absolute Spirit. Marx opined, "we are concerned with a highly interesting question: the decomposition of the Absolute Spirit."(77) According to Wurmbrand, the Russian Revolution was a time when "love, goodwill, and healthy feeling were considered mean and retrograde. A girl hid her innocence, and husbands their faithfulness. Destruction was praised as good taste, neurasthenia as the sign of a fine mind. This was the theme of new writers who burst on the scene out of obscurity. Men invented vices and perversion, and were fastidious in their avoidance of being thought moral." (85)

The Luciferians portray their rebellion against God and nature as progress and freedom. This permissiveness refers only to tearing down the Divine order. In the initiation into the Seventh degree of Satanism, the adept swears, "Nothing is true and everything is permitted." In the Communist Manifesto, Marx said all religion and morals will be abolished and everything permitted. The religion of modern western society, secular humanism, is a front for Illuminism (Lucifer worship). The purpose of Illuminism is to divorce humanity from the Divine Purpose and enshrine Lucifer (i.e. the Illuminati) in God's place. Under the guise of a humanist utopia, they are constructing an Orwellian hell -- the New World Order, a.k.a. globalism. The goal of globalism is the same as Communism. The World's elite masks their Luciferianism in new age paganism and Gaia worship. The Lucifer Trust runs the only chapel at the United Nations and the only statue in the UN building is the pagan god Zeus.

YASHUA-JESUS-ISSA MIGHT HAVE BEEN CRUCIFIED YESTERDAY since he represented the rule of God. The Pharisees worshipped Lucifer. The question facing mankind hasn't changed. Are we going to serve God or Lucifer? The Satanists have conditioned us to short circuit at the mention of religion. They have made God seem mysterious, unknowable or non-existent. Christ said, "God is a Spirit; obey Him in spirit and in truth." (John 4:23, 24). God is Absolute Love, Truth, Justice, Goodness and Beauty. If you believe these things are real, whether you accomplish them or not, you believe in God. Love is the principle of human evolution. God wants to be manifested by His creation. This requires that we obey Him. We were made in God's image. "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your father which is in heaven is perfect," (Matthew 5:48). The more we embody spiritual ideals, the more God-like and real we become. The opposite is also true. We sacrifice ourselves for what we love. If we love God, we sacrifice ourselves to Him. People ask how to fight the New World Order. Nothing would disturb the Illuminati more than a revival of belief in God. Millions willing to fight and die for God would scare the hell out of them. That's why they are uprooting Islam.

We are being prepared in consciousness for slavery or destruction. They are laying the groundwork now with the "war on terror." Once they get Islam under control, they will turn to the West in earnest. In the meantime, the mass media (movies, music and video games, TV) accustoms us to brutality and violence. There is a repetitive and reductive obsession with sex, nudity, bodily functions and homosexuality. If our leaders weren't Luciferians, the media and the arts would be preoccupied with issues of truth and falsehood, good and evil, beauty and ugliness. We would be uplifted and inspired. Instead, our souls are fed sawdust. We are degraded distracted and deceived, like people with a terminal illness, like squatters in someone else's universe. If the Illuminati's real purpose is to eliminate God, it follows we should make God the centre of our consciousness. People ask, "What should we do?" Don't look for direction from others. Look for direction from God. The best way to fight the darkness is to shine the light. This is what the Illuminati fears. In the Protocols of the Elders of Zion (5) the author writes: "There is nothing more dangerous to us than personal initiative; if it has genius behind it, such initiative can do more than can be done by millions of people among whom we have sown discord."

Don't feel oppressed by the World. It hasn't changed just because we are now aware of its true nature. Devote each new day to fulfilling God's purpose for you. Illuminati (re-founded by Zionist Adam Weishaupt 1748-1811) and Mason Orders (founded in 1095 AC) with roots in the Kabbala and ancient Egyptian Nimroodic/Babylonian/Pharaonic/Roman paganism, always plan centuries and decades ahead (example 1917 Balfour Declaration and eventual creation of Israel and expulsion of Palestinians in 1948 and planning is now underway to build the Temple of Solomon/Moloch by destroying the Al-Aqsa Mosque). The Mason/Zionists Rothschild/Rockefeller/Vatican Empires own and control the majority of private central banks such as The US Federal Reserve System, The Bank of England, HSBC of Hong-Kong, The Bank of Rome, etc. through which they are the creators and controllers of money (see The History of Money). To keep governments in debts and divert peoples' attention about the fraud of the central banking systems and to expand the charters of their private central banks, they create wars & terror, etc. The British Empire has been transformed into the Illuminati/Masonic/Zionist US/Israel Empire. Their final goal is the New World Order total World dictatorship under their leadership, reduced World population and one World religion, i.e. their ancient Egyptian/Babylonian/Roman pagan religions based on the Kabbala and its associated World control system, and eventually, a master race. They already control all the major banks and the major corporations from the top.

The privately owned Federal Reserve System was setup in 1913 and it gets to charge interest on money that it creates out of nothing. Peter Kershaw in his book "Economic Solutions" has named the private owners (directly or indirectly) of the United States Federal Reserve system established in 1913 as

1) The Rockefeller Family - New York 2) The Rothschild Family - London 3) The Rothschild Family - Berlin 4) The Lazard Brothers - Paris 5) Israel Seiff - Italy 6) Kuhn-Loeb Company - Germany 7) The Warburgs - Amsterdam Representative of the Rothschild Family in France 8) The Warburgs - Hamburg Representative of the Rothschild Family in Germany 9) Lehman Brothers - New York 10) Goldman & Sachs - New York. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York, which controls the 11 other Federal Reserve branches, is majority controlled by a) Chase-Manhattan (a Rockefeller stronghold) - 6,389,445 shares - 32.3% b) Citibank - 4,051,851 shares - 20.5%. US/Canadian Federal & State debts owed to the Illuminati owners of the Federal Reserve stands about 25 trillions dollars!

G. Edward Griffin explains (details in several sections of this book) how the owners of the privately controlled central bank known as the US Federal Reserve use their power to create money tax-free and use their unauditables profits to acquire control over the power centers of society, i.e. those groups and institutions through which individuals live and act and rely on for their information. They are buying control over the organizations, groups and institutions that control people, politicians, political parties, television networks, cable networks, newspapers, magazines, publishing houses, wire services, motion picture studios, universities, labor unions, church organizations, trade associations, tax-exempt foundations, multi-national corporations, boy scouts, girl scouts, you name it, and particularly over those organizations that represent opposition to themselves. This process has gone on not only to a marked degree in America and in the other industrialized nations of the World, but it has gone on in the underdeveloped nations to such a degree that we would say the process is now complete. They own these countries already. The money goes to the politicians of those countries, to their governments and the money is spent to strengthen their power structures, their ability to control their populations. They create a well-equipped army (note the $30 billion for hiring mercenaries to train the new armies in Afghanistan and Iraq), a better bureaucracy, for total control of their subjects. That's where the money's being spent. Zionists collaborated to bring many innocent Jews to Hitler's death camps to create tremendous sympathy for the creation of Israel and force European Jews to migrate to Palestine. Masons financed the Nazis. Hitler and Prescott (Grandpa) Bush were Masons. Zionists plan now is to conquer from the Nile to the Euphrates hence the reason to transform Iraq into another Israeli occupied territory with a US Zionists administering Iraq. The Illuminati/Masons want to recreate the pagan Babylonian religion in Iraq as seen from their worship of the giant Babylonian Owl in Alex Jones' secret video of the Bohemian Grove rituals in Northern California attended by the World's most powerful people annually in the summer (on this CD or at <http://www.infowars.com>).

Illuminati-Rothschilds/Rockefellers control their so called "Arc of Crisis" in the Middle East through divide, rule, and conquer, and induced crisis/reaction/solution. It has allowed them to control the oil-producing countries since when the oil really came on line. They already control the not-so-Federal Private Federal Reserve System, HSBC Bank, Bank of England, along with 11 other Illuminati families. Jewish peoples are being played off against the non-Jewish races and visa-versa. You and all of us who care about our children and the freedom of the World must unite and focus on the Illuminati force that is playing all people like a violin. Fear of each other and divide and rule have always been the basic tools of dictators, global and otherwise. Never, never, never, do the Rothschilds and the illuminati control only one side in a conflict. If they did they could not be sure of the outcome and that's not the way they play the game. In every significant conflict they control the leadership of all factions, even though they may fight and battle with each other on the public stage. It's a scam, a sham, a movie for public consumption only. The people of Israel Palestine need to work and live together in harmony and mutual respect. There is no other way, except more deaths, more suffering, more conflict - exactly what the Illuminati and the Rothschilds want. They have horrendous plans for Israel/Palestine in which all sides will suffer, not least their plans for a major event at the Temple Mount and Dome of the Rock mosques, the site of the "Temple of Solomon" according to the Kabbalist Mason/Zionist belief system.

Zionists media demonize Islam and Moslems continuously, and CIA/Mossad create terrorist groups/stage/assist with acts of terror whenever required to accomplish their goals incrementally. Eventually, all countries will have puppet governments that will sell-off their people and natural resources to the bidding of these Zionist neo-colonialists. The United States economy which subsidizes heavily the Israeli economy is dependent on the Military Industrial Complex and on the investment of illegal drugs in Wall Street, hence wars and CIA facilitate drug funneling. WHY WERE BUSH/SHARON GANG HELL BENT ON WAR WITH IRAQ? Without being able to turn Mideast oil from an import to an export, the US/ISRAEL Governments are bankrupt in the near future, the private Illuminati owners of the Federal Reserve want to ensure that US doesn't default on its phony loans (First, to use the oil treasure as collateral to underwrite the huge U.S. deficit, soon to be out-of-control, thus laying the way for Dubya to push a huge tax cut for the one or two percent of Americans, the wealthiest in the U.S. Second, to seek to prop up the Bank of England caught up on the wrong side of speculations in the Kuwaiti Dinar, a currency pegged to the so-called "U.S. Dollar", actually hot-air Federal Reserve Notes. And further, to seek to bail out the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, and LIFFE, the International Financial Futures and Options Exchange in London) therefore grab the World resources, and Bush will make a fortune from the war and oil, and he is being controlled (to get re-elected) by Zionists who want to weaken Iraq to allow Israel to continue invading its neighbors and who want to keep sucking US$ from the US taxpayers. American GNP is something around $10 trillion, only 1 percent comes from agriculture, only 24 percent from industry including military sales, 75 percent comes from services, and most of it is financial speculation, Petro Dollars pass-thru and drug money laundering, i.e. the US as a whole behaves like an immense dot.com, and dollars are its stocks. The value of stocks of a given company is directly proportional to its profitability. When a company only provides services, but does not produce goods, the value of its stocks depends on its credibility. If US credibility is affected, its stocks - the US dollar - will fall at tremendous speed, and the American economy will collapse. Some countries including Iraq have switched to EURO as their petro and reserve currency. Total current US Federal and State government debt is about $25 trillion which is equal to total market capitalization September 2003. This debt is owed to the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank.

The private Mason/Zionist owners of the Federal Reserve & Bank of England will be more than happy to bankroll anyone wanting to wage war, just like in all past major wars. Oil is everything, from fertilizer to food to powering the military, etc. etc. etc., i.e. all modern lifestyle depends on oil/gas. Majority of Cheap Oil/GAS resources are in predominantly Moslem countries. Middle Eastern countries including Palestine and Iran are developing rapidly and growing in power due to Oil income. Cheap Oil will run out in the rest of the World in a decade or two but will remain in the Middle East for another 50 to 100 years (there is plenty of expensive oil around, but its expensive to dig it out). The civilization holding the last reserves of Cheap Oil will succeed into the future. Zionists/Illuminati (Bilderbergers, Bohemian Club, Masons, Skull & Bones, Chabad-Lubavitchers) therefore will use the United States to ensure that they are the civilization in control of the last reserves of Cheap Oil on the planet. Zionist/Illuminati conquest/theft of Cheap Oil must be done now before the countries holding the Cheap Oil become more powerful and make it harder for Zionists to commit genocide against their people, as in North and South American style after Columbus. Zionists will demonize Islam and Moslems even more now that they want to steal the Cheap Oil resources and Oil Profits and build pipelines from Bosnia to North Korea to Indonesia to capitalize on this wealth. It's popular to kill, conquer peoples and collectively punish people who have been demonized. When such collective punishments are undertaken by a powerful party, it reveals the intentions of the perpetrators of collective punishment which is to provoke a reaction that will give more excuses to the oppressors to continue with their oppression (this is exactly what is happening in Palestine and the same techniques are now slowly being implemented in the United States under the sponsorship of the Zionists). The end game is to commit creeping genocide. It is already happening in South America and Africa.

Hence, US/Israel created 9-11 (just like FDR let Pearl Harbor happen although he knew full well in advance about the attack and ensured that the Pearl Harbor radar was not operating; in fact, Admiral Kimmell had a Naval exercise operating right in the path of the oncoming Japanese fleet. Had it been left alone, the Japanese fleet would have blundered right into Kimmel exercise units. But FDR sent a direct order to Kimmell to terminate the exercise prematurely and return the fleet to Pearl Harbor immediately, leaving the way open for the Japanese to approach Hawaii undetected). Illuminati will label the Cheap Oil and "Pipeline-istan" states as "Axis of Evil" while restricting civil liberties at home to control any opposition to their plans. Zionists and The United States will commit war crimes, break all moral and legal laws, bulldoze and fire-bomb anyone in their path, etc. to steal the Cheap Oil resources and its associated profits, and conquer the land from the Nile to the Euphrates, hence Iraq/Iran war, Bosnia/Kosovo, Kashmir, Afghanistan, 1991 Iraq/Kuwait, Indonesia, Malaysia, past UK/US Iraqi occupations, overthrow of Iranian President in the 1950s, demonizing of predominantly Moslem Countries, 2002 Iraq, etc. etc. etc. All other activities perpetrated by CIA/Mossad/US/Israel will have the above as the underlying DRIVER and THEME. As per Dick Cheney & Co., this war will last more than 20 years and beyond our lifetime. As per G. Dubya W. Bush, there will be decades of war. However, it seems that their initial plans called for a much larger war than what has materialized so far. This could mean that the worse is still to come.

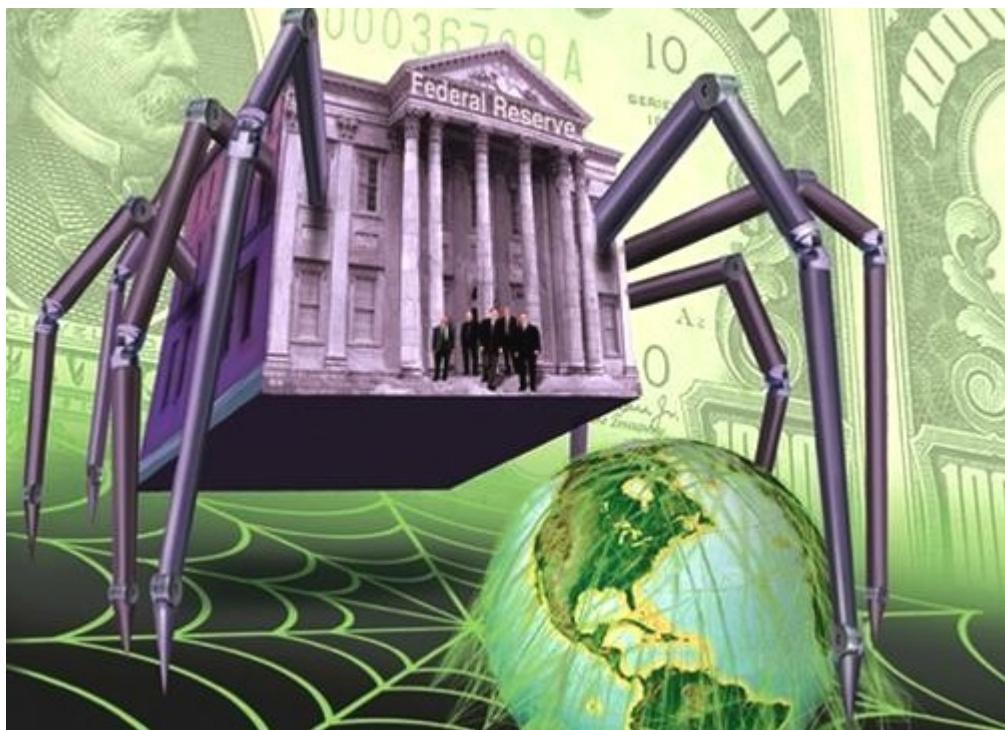

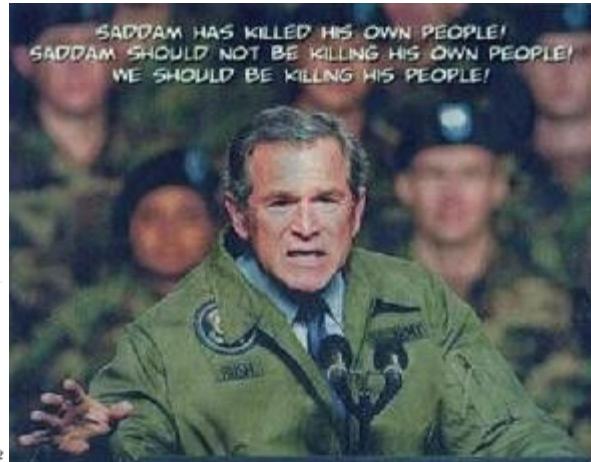

John Kaminski remarked that when you're standing amid the rubble of the latest New World Order war zone, you wonder whether things happen as a result of somewhat natural social evolution, or whether some hidden hand from a dark corner of the human psyche constantly steers us all toward misery and crisis. Is it testosterone or is it Tavistock? that British think tank that scripted women's lib, the Beatles, Timothy Leary et al to mime the populace into passivity. Today Gaza is the scene of one of the most bizarre political song-and-dances in human history, where a supposed country has been established in the middle of an oppressive police state. The imprisoned Palestinians don't even have access to their own water, and their borders are lined by the Jewish Israeli war machine ready to shoot children in the head at a moment's notice. Palestinians are the Navajos of the 21st century, forever to be marginalized after they are exterminated down to acceptable, zoo-like levels. Palestinians are the prototype for future Earth citizens ineligible for membership in corporate elysia, a herd that needs to be managed and occasionally culled. Unless you understand that this has been the fate of the majority of humankind throughout history, you probably are unable to comprehend that this is the inevitable future forecast for all of us. Gaza vividly and viscerally represents the condition of much of the World at this time — and to be fair, at all times. Favored Zionist residents of Gaza received hundreds of thousands of dollars each for vacating their homes built on stolen land to make way for the new Gaza megaprison. The soggy survivors of New Orleans got a couple of hundred bucks and a few Wal-Mart gift cards.

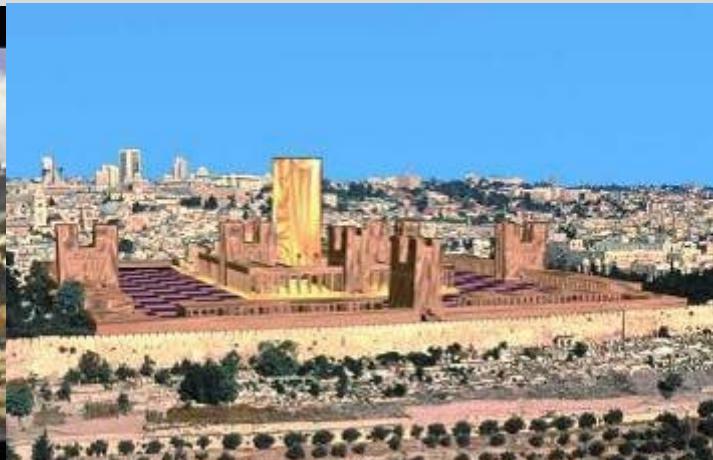

Contemplate the new American rubble zones strategically trashed around the World: the festering sore of Israel inevitably spreads outward and wraps its conquered non-Zionist subhumans in giant walls, which likely we are soon to see in New Orleans, the newest New World Order reconstruction project now being forever shackled by contracts with the folks who built Guantanamo. Iraq remains a smoldering, poisoned cinder. The Hanging Gardens of Babylon are now encased in a cancer-guaranteed zone of radioactive depleted uranium poison: truly, a stunning tribute to Western philosophy and technology. Afghanistan is a free fire zone, also poisoned. Divide and rule by the powers that keep rubbing two sticks together to keep the sparks flying, because it generates steady profits for their members by continuing the flow of ammunition and armaments. And this is the engine that creates our comfort, our leisure to debate these matters in cyberspace, then attempts to get them to spill out into the third-dimensional World without much success. The names of nations and peoples being crunched up in the meat grinder of corporatization fly past our eyes, too extensive to comprehend. Somewhere between Kisangani and Kampala, people are actually eating pygmies. Two million everyday souls live in the landfills of Rio de Janeiro. In New Orleans, these same folks live in Houston. War is where the real money is, although rebuilding entire societies like Sumatra and New Orleans is extremely profitable also.

The Illuminati gangsters can make money off the trashing of the planet. Where in our own inner darkness do we process this information? What stratagem or philosophical canard do we use to explain this to ourselves? How do we stifle the image that we are eating ourselves, as cannibalism's primal impulse glitters mysteriously in the bottom of the Communion cup? Do we merely take cover and wait for the storm to pass? It is definitely better to live for another day. But only for a little while can avoidance be construed as prudence. When something nettles you for a long time it is always better to take definitive action to fix the problem rather than constantly continue to deal with its exasperations. Blame our forebears. They let it happen. We inherited it. Now, the bus is moving, unstoppable toward its destination. If you stand in front of it, you'll be run down. I'd like to say sit back and enjoy the show, but it's probably going to hurt. Just ask those folks who used to be from New Orleans. Or the displaced and debauched citizens of Fallujah and so many other places graced by the presence of those Zionist warmakers known as Blackwater mercenaries. They're stationed both in Baghdad and on the Cajun coastline, escorting Israeli advisers around the neighborhood to help out with the new fortification plans. Now, contemplate the view of your future. Staring out vacantly from behind the barbed wire in your mind. People need to learn about these evil imperial plans of the Illuminati Masons and Zionists (for True monotheistic Jews, Christian and Moslem peoples, these are the precursors to the Anti-Christ or Dajjal). We are already living in an EMPIRE, democracy, freedom, justice, peace are gone! God help us!

FERVENT MASONIC DESIRE TO REBUILD SOLOMON'S TEMPLE AND RULE THE WORLD FROM JERUSALEM ARE THE DRIVING FORCE BEHIND THE EVENTS OF THE MID-EAST & WORLD

Power, Money, Idolatry, Luciferian Satanism & The Kabbala Relationship: The Pilgrims, City of London 1902, New York 1903, Fabianism, Marxism, Monopoly Capitalism, Communism, Fascism, Nazism

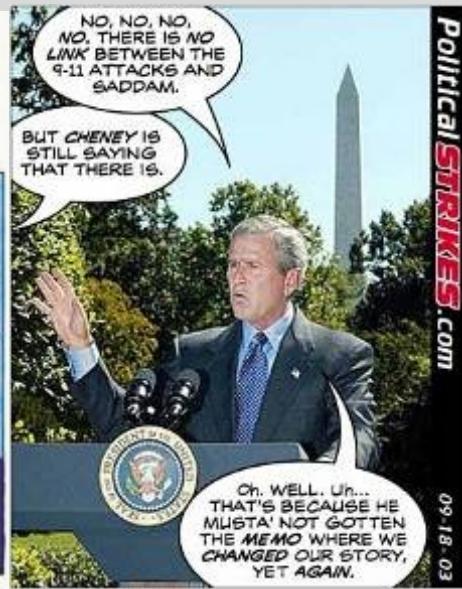

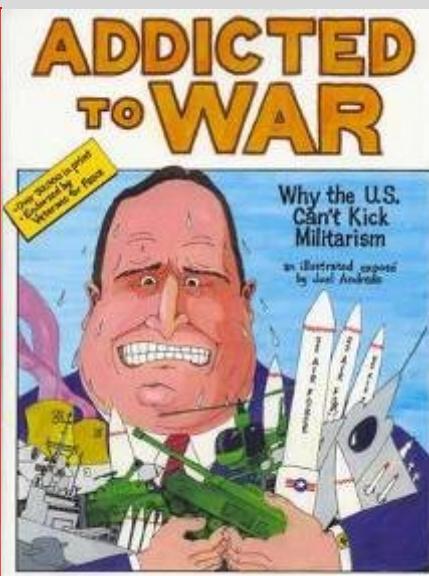

The Vatican, Zionist MOSSAD, Rothschild dynasty's original mafia, Pilgrims and the Jesuits should be added above. The CIA is the Rockefeller's original mafia for external affairs while the FBI is for internal affairs (remember Cointelpro). The CIA and Masons also utilize charities and the Rotary Club as fronts.
